Witness to history

Evelyn "Ommie" Williams, whose family farm near Newark was the site of the last public appearance by President John F. Kennedy, has passed away at 95.

Kimberly Daly submitted a loving tribute to Mrs. Williams as well as photos that provide a glimpse into her grandmother's long and remarkable life.

"She went from phonographs and a piano in the parlor to iPods and the Rolling Stones on DVD. Her life spanned from the time of telegrams and party-lines shared by eight families, to cell phones, computers, and the World-Wide Web. She went from burning coal for heat and chopping firewood for cooking on a wood-burning stove to programmable thermostats, solar panels, and hybrid-electric cars," Kim wrote. As if to underscore the point, Kim noted that Ommie witnessed in person the launch of Apollo 17, the last manned space flight to

Needy Family Fund faces economic challenge in '09

Val's Needy Family Fund faces a bigger challenge than ever.

Val Nardo, founder of the long-time holiday program for Newark, says he has received requests for help from smaller food cupboards that no longer receive contributions from the Food Bank of Delaware.

At the same time, the current economy is increasing the need for the food baskets his organization passes out during the holiday period.

"Some who were making contributions in the past now need donations," Nardo said.

Nardo founded the organization in the late 1960s, to commemorate his wife's overcoming what had been thought to be a malignancy.

"I'm trying to do my duty," Nardo says of the four-decade effort.

The Needy Family Fund has grown over the years, distributing as many as 1,500 baskets containing a turkey, ham or other items for a holiday dinner. The ranks of volunteers who prepare and distribute the baskets has grown to 100.

Worried that the fund might not extend past his lifetime, Val's Needy Family Fund formally affiliated last year with the Newark Welfare Committee, a long-time community organization that stocks food cupboards and provides other assistance for those in need.

Nardo has been a longtime supporter of the Newark Welfare Community, but wanted a more formal arrangement.

Both food and cash donations are welcome. Donations of money can be dropped off at Salon By Anthony at the Newark Shopping Center.

Food contributions can be made at the Superfresh at the Fairfield Shopping Center on the northern end of the city and off Route 896.

DRAINS ARE NOT DUMPS

Recently Girl Scout Troop 42 marked storm drains in three Newark neighborhoods. The markers were placed to help citizens to remember not to dump anything down the storm drain, especially things that can harm the environment.

Employee admits to taking $20,000 from K-Mart

(Editor's note: Police Blotter items are compiled from reports at area police departments. For updates, log on to newarkpostonline.com.)

Last Friday, Newark Police were called in to the K-Mart at College Square Shopping Center to investigate an internal theft from one of their employees. The worker is a Newark woman who admitted to defrauding the business of $20,567.56 over a period of 17 months, starting back in June 2008.

The woman told the police that on Fridays, when she was working as a cashier, a man would bring a shopping cart full of goods to her register and only pay $20 or $30 for the total. The man, whom she had known in a previous relationship, threatened her if she did not comply. The woman stated that she had been fearful for her life and was afraid to tell the police.

The man had been an acquaintance of hers in Philadelphia and tracked the employee down when she had moved to Delaware.

Loss prevention employees for K-Mart turned over video footage, receipts, and a written statement from the cashier. The woman was advised that she is not under arrest until the investigation is complete. She has also signed a promissory note to repay the store in full.

Home owner interrupts burglar

An investigation is ongoing for a burglary attempt made at a residence on Blue Jay Drive, Newark. The owner told police that he had come home to find that a light was on in his bedroom. Knowing that his wife was working, the owner yelled up the stairs, asking "Who's there?" At that point, a black male ran down the stairs and out to the backyard, via the basement door.

When the suspect was making his exit, the owner ran out of the front door, fearing the burglar may have had a weapon. The burglar ran down the driveway, up the street and entered his vehicle, parked several houses away. The suspect drove away onto Dove Drive. The victim was not able to view to provide a license plate or make of the vehicle.

Police searched the house and found that the suspect had initially entered the home through the basement door, which had been forced open. Several items had been moved in the house, but no items were taken from the scene.

Several fingerprint samples and a muddy shoeprint were recovered and are being investigated.

The suspect is described as a black male, 25-35 years old, 5'6 to 5'9 tall, thin build, wearing a white shirt.

Van stolen from non-profit

Employees at Chimes, located at 514 Interchange Blvd., Newark, reported that one of their vehicles, a green 2002 Chevy Astro Van bearing DE reg. PC447915, was stolen from their lot on Friday, November 13.

No physical evidence has been recovered and police are still searching for available video surveillance.

Thieves take wheels off of rental car

Newark Police responded to a theft report at Enterprise Car Sales, at 155 E. Cleveland Ave. Employees stated that a 2009 Chevy Tahoe, that was parked on the lot, had had its tires and rims stolen, after suspects had jacked the car up using concrete blocks and a pile of sticks. The blocks had been taken from a spot less than 50 feet away from the vehicle. The total value of wheels and rims is over $3,000. Police are still processing fingerprint and video evidence from the scene.

Three linked to burglaries

Castle County Detectives have arrested three adults who have been linked to several residential burglaries that have occurred over the past few weeks in Newark and New Castle area communities.

Since the first week of November, County Police have investigated a series of burglaries that have occurred in the Newark area. Based on information gleaned from this investigation, detectives identified three possible suspects who were residing at a residence in the 300 block of Tamara Circle east of Newark.

Undercover officers were able to determine the three subjects had taken a number of stolen items to local pawn shops and "Game Stop" stores. The detectives were able to recover the stolen items and link them to several victims of recent burglaries.

Detectives arrested the suspects Thursday afternoon after they had committed yet another burglary in the community of Elmwood. All of the stolen property (consisting of jewelry and electronics) was recovered from the suspect's car.

The following suspects were arrested and charged with multiple counts of burglary and related offenses:

• Ashley Oldaker, 22, who resides at the Tamara Circle address, has been linked to two residential burglaries. She has been arraigned and released on $26,000 unsecured bail.

• David Marlowe, a 31 year old male who resides 200 block of N. Mary Street in Newport, has been linked to five residential burglaries. He has been arraigned and committed to the Howard Young Prison after failing to post $58,950 secured bail.

• Jason Marlowe, 30, who resides in the unit block of Spectrum Drive in the Ogletown area, has been linked to two residential burglaries. He has been arraigned and committed to the Howard Young Prison after failing to post $26,250 secured bail.

Putting new twists on Thanksgiving traditions

During lean economic times, we sometimes lose sight of the really important holiday tradition of spending time with family, friends, and neighbors. Whether you gather to cook a holiday meal together or spend the day watching your rival football teams, take a minute to enjoy the simple family traditions that are a big part of the Thanksgiving holiday. Every family has their own way of celebrating. Here are a few of the typical American family traditions and some suggestions to add a twist for new traditions to start this year.

Though most folks consider turkey and all the trimmings the only menu for Thanksgiving, there are many variations on how to cook it from the traditional oven roasted to deep fry out in the yard. A new twist for a family tradition might be to roast a whole platter of turkey legs, a favorite for the children and dark meat fans in your family.

Throughout the United States, watching football on Thanksgiving Day is as big a part of the celebration as turkey and pumpkin pie. Or snoozing in front of the TV after the turkey dinner! Taking the pigskin out for a spin with your neighbors is a good way to burn off those extra calories. Get the neighborhood involved to extend the teams and create a different opportunity for community fellowship.

For some families, watching the Thanksgiving Day parades is another favorite tradition. Why not consider stepping out for an informal parade around your block? You can walk off those extra calories and enjoy the fall scenery in the neighborhood. Make it a costumed parade by giving everyone 10 minutes to "find" or create a costume. Give prizes for the best one.

If you are the person stuck with the job of washing the dishes, create a little competition to determine who helps by granting "immunity" to the person who gets the larger piece of the wishbone break. The winners of the football team or costume competition could be excused; but others get to help.

The most important holiday tradition on Thanksgiving is giving thanks for the people and blessings of the past year. Whatever you do, whether it is the traditions that become important from sharing time with your family or providing holiday meals to the homeless, the holiday is truly a celebration of thanksgiving for family and friends.

charm for a Christiana woman accused of three robberies over the past two days.

Early Monday afternoon, Delaware Police detectives arrested Tracy Robinson, 44, of Flanders Way.

Robinson was linked to three robberies which occurred over the past two days. The first occurred on Sunday at the Glendale Plaza Happy Harry's. In this case, she entered the store, implied she was armed and fled the scene with cash.

The next case occurred at the Omega Flower and Gift Shop Monday morning. In that case, she again entered the store, implied she was armed (she never displayed a weapon as originally reported) and made away with a small amount of money.

Shortly thereafter, at 12:40 p.m., Robinson entered the Boscovs located at 361 West Main Street in the Christiana Towne Center and attempted to rob a female clerk at a make-up counter. The clerk screamed and Robinson fled.

She was apprehended by the store's loss prevention staff before she could get out of the store. Investigators from the State Police later took her into custody.

Robinson was transported back to Troop 2 where she was formally charged with two counts of Robbery (felony) and one count of Attempted Robbery (felony). She was taken to the Baylor Woman's Correctional Institute on a $30,000 secured bond.

UD police seek SUV

University of Delaware Police are seeking information on a gray SUV that collided with a University police car around 1:30 a.m., Saturday, Nov. 14. The police car was traveling east on Apple Road through the intersection, and the gray SUV was traveling south on Elkton Road and turned right on Apple. The SUV took the turn too wide and hit the police car in the

Anyone with information about the incident or the gray SUV is asked to contact University Police at (302) 831-2222.

Stalking suspect arrested

An individual accused of stalking and assaulting a former girlfriend has been arrested in Texas and returned to Delaware. Delaware State Police say they have been looking for Christopher Fink, 26, since Sept. 15, 2008.

Fink

On that day, a former girlfriend finished work and walked to her car. She started the engine and Fink leaped from the back of the car to the front and assaulted her. He placed his arms around her neck and choked her. She tried to get out and he would not let her go. Fink threatened the female and forced her to drive away from the scene. The victim drove down the street and stopped in the parking lot of the Pizza Hut on Capitol Trail and Delaplaine Avenue. Fink then got out and fled the scene. The victim told police this was part of an ongoing problem and that she was afraid of the suspect. Warrants were completed charging Fink with the following offenses: Stalking (felony), two counts of Criminal Contempt of a Domestic Violence PFA (felony), Unlawful Imprisonment (misdemeanor), Assault 3rd (misdemeanor), Terroristic Threatening (misdemeanor).

On November 10th an investigating officer was conducting a routine computer inquiry and learned that on October 30th, Fink was arrested by the Texas Highway Patrol for an unknown offense. He was processed as an out of state fugitive from Delaware and detained. On November 12th, Fink was returned to Delaware and formally charged with the above offenses. Bail was set at $34,760 cash and Christopher Fink was taken to the Howard Young Correctional Facility.

Barking persuasion

A little barking persuasion from a New Castle County Police canine officer led a burglary suspect to surrender peacefully.

The suspect was identified as Matthew Hicken, 24, who resides in the unit block of Worrall Drive, near Newark. He has been charged with multiple counts of burglary related offenses.

On Sunday morning, County Police went to the community Limestone Gardens, east of Newark, for a report of an attempted burglary. When the officers arrived, the 35 year-old homeowner who reported a tall white male subject had just attempted to break into his home. The subject turned and looked at the approaching police car and began walking at a more brisk pace. Rago then exited his car and told the subject to stop, at which time the suspect began walking very rapidly. Rago warned him about Benny's presence and the possibility of being bitten as canine Benny barked and scratched at the door of the patrol car. After a second warning, the suspect decided to comply.

The suspect was taken into custody and linked to the attempted burglary. Officers located his car parked nearby and found electronic equipment inside that appeared to have been stolen. Based on the Drug fraud suspects turn themselves in

All persons have turned themselves in, following news of a prescription fraud case in the Newark and Middletown areas. Delaware State Police initially listed the suspects as:

- Michelle Hammond, 33, Elkton
- Zonisha Shaw, 22, Dover
- Jeffrey Fisher, 51, Chestnut Crossing, Newark
- Gail Perry, 36, Old Baltimore Pike, Newark
- Khadijah Greaves, 30, Dover
- James Dacey, 32, of North East, Md.
- Also turning himself in was Thomas Congo.

Congo was implicated in this case earlier in the week and warrants were completed. Congo allegedly presented a fraudulent script at the Rite Aid located in the Midway Plaza Shopping Center, Wilmington, on October 12th.

Suspects were charged with Forgery (felony) and Obtaining a Controlled Substance by Fraud (felony). They were all released on unsecured bail.

The investigation has been under way since September 21, when the first fraudulent script came to their attention.

Khadijah Greaves went to the ACME, located at 950 Elkton Road, Newark and obtained the prescription for Oxycodone by presenting the pharmacist with a manufactured script.

The next case was reported on September 30 at the Happy Harrys located at 216 Suburban Plaza in Newark and involved a fraudulent script. The suspect in this case was identified as Michelle Hammond and she obtained Oxycodone.

Another incident was reported on October 12 at the Rite Aid located at 4607 Stanton Ogletown Road, near Newark. In this incident, it was alleged that Jeffrey Fisher presented the false script for Oxycodone. The script was not filled.

On the same date, October 12, Zonisha Shaw walked into the Happy Harry's, 4465 Summit Bridge Road in Middletown. She presented a fraudulent prescription to the pharmacist for Oxycodone which she obtained.

On November 2, Gail Perry allegedly walked into the Rite Aid on Stanton Ogletown Road and presented a fraudulent script to the pharmacist for Oxycodone. The script was not filled.

In each of the above listed incidents, the doctor's office listed on the script was Neurological Medicine, a physicians practice from Greenbelt, Maryland. The doctors' office was contacted and they were completely unaware of this scam. Also, all of the scripts were for Oxycodone.

Winterthur personnel presented their findings to DSP detectives. They also terminated Mr. Leager's employment.

Recently detectives executed a search warrant at Leager's home. Recovered items included, but were not limited to, flat screen televisions, a digital camera, computer equipment and two ATVs.

On Monday, Leager, voluntarily turned himself in to investigators at Troop 2, Glasgow. He was formally charged with Theft over $100,000 (felony), six counts of Unlawful Use of a Credit Card (felony) and Falsifying Business Records (felony). the moon.
"Ommie was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. She loved hot tea with milk, not cream. She grew beautiful roses and the biggest, tastiest tomatoes ever," Kim wrote. "She bravely got on an airplane for the first time in her life when she was well into her sixties, and then promptly flew all the way to Hawaii with some of her friends. She loved watching all of the song birds and woodpeckers that came to visit her, but not so much the squirrels that raided her bird feeders."

Born Evelyn L. Taylor on March 30, 1914, in Gloucester, NJ, she spent her childhood in Elsmere.

Going to work after the death of her father, she commuted for a time to Philadelphia. She later worked for the Topkis Brothers, a clothing manufacturer in Wilmington. Ommie's sewing skills led her to become a training supervisor at the company. She went on to teach her many grandchildren how to sew and do needlepoint as they grew up.

Kim wrote that Ommie "was really something to see when she put on a pair of roller-skates; she won a number of skating dance contests, including the waltz and the foxtrot. Even when well into her 90s, Ommie often said, with a twinkle in her eye, that she'd love to go roller skating again."

Kim wrote that "while moonlighting at the local skating rink's soda fountain that Ommie met her handsome knight-in-shining-armor, Stephen Bohachevsky. The couple would later change their surname to Williams for professional reasons, as did Steve's older brother Dan.

They soon married, then lived on South Heald Street in the South Bridge area of Wilmington near Kosowsky's Market for nearly a decade until they had enough savings to buy a small farm on Dixie Line between Elkton & Newark. The couple, who sold the farm to the Williams', the Howells, lived on the adjacent farm, and the two families were like kin to each other for many years.

The family became active in nearby Ott's Chapel. Ommie taught Sunday school for a number of years, while Stephen handled maintenance and repairs, and served on the board of the church. He also worked for Triumph Explosives Elkton and later Hercules.

The family loved to go on vacations to the beach at Fenwick Island. The little wood-framed cottage with a fireplace that they built by hand with their friends Paul and Alice Detweiler still stands and is used and cherished by the family every summer.

Years later, the government would claim a large portion of their best land in the name of progress as I-95 crossed through the middle of their property, Kim wrote.

President John F. Kennedy, flying in by helicopter, made his last public address from their farm in mid-November of 1963, a week before his life was taken.

Ommie worked for more than 25 years at the Newark Department Store. People remember her as the kindly Mrs. Williams. Her many customers appreciated her attentive and conscientious customer service. Everyone enjoyed coming to the store and being greeted by Mrs. Williams' genuinely warm and welcoming smile, Kim wrote.

Ommie took great pride in skillfully assisting and putting at ease the many generations of young women who came to her to be properly fitted for their first grown-up, good quality brassiere. She eventually became the store's lingerie buyer.

She left the farm when her husband died in 1966, and afterward lived for many years on Ash Avenue in Newark, just down the street from Kirks Flowers. She remained independent into her 90s, riding the free Newark Jitney across town, or taking the cab to run to the grocery store. According to Kim, she worked full-time at the Newark Department Store until she was 78, and then went to work at Bing's Bakery part-time for a while after that.

NOVEMBER IS VETERANS MONTH

GET A FREE HEARING TEST THIS MONTH.

HELP OUR HEROES AT THE SAME TIME!

A Message from a World War II Fighter Pilot and P.O.W. about FEAR and COURAGE

My name is Ken Dahlberg and I am the founder of Miracle-Ear.® In World War II, I served in the Army Air Corps as a P-51 Mustang fighter pilot.

During the war, I flew 103 FEAR-FILLED missions and I was shot down three times. The last time I was wounded on landing, I couldn't escape, and I ended up a P.O.W. until the end of the war.

I received the Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart and other awards, of which I am very proud.

However, I consider what I did after the war (and what my company continues to do up to this very day) to also be of great importance.

I started a small electronics company in 1948. In 1955, a very committed team of scientists and I invented the first Miracle-Ear hearing aid.

In the years since 1955, we've made THOUSANDS of different technological advances. Today's choices of Miracle-Ear hearing aids are all digital and so far superior to what most people think of when I say "hearing aid" that I wish we could call them something entirely different.

I am very proud that over the past 61 years, our little invention has helped MILLIONS of Americans hear better – including many fellow veterans who have served our country from WWI through the Iraq/Afghanistan conflicts.

You can help me help Veterans this month – at the same time you help yourself!

Millions of U.S. servicemen and women have fought and sacrificed greatly for this country, all in a valiant effort to guarantee the freedoms we enjoy today. Because of their courageous acts, Americans have been able to live life to the fullest knowing that way of life is protected. Unfortunately, many have paid a hefty price for that freedom.

In honor of our military heroes ...

... when you get your hearing tested FREE this month at one of our 1200 locations nationwide, we'll make a $5.00 donation to the Easter Seals' Military and Veterans Initiative. (Easter Seals' is the largest provider of disability-related services to individuals with disabilities and their families.) Our goal is to provide $10,000.00 to the fund before November 30th.

Whether everyday citizen or a combat veteran ... a lot of people fear being embarrassed by wearing hearing aids. Others feel that hearing aids might not work for them. As a result, they go through years of their lives unnecessarily suffering. They often feel left out, worry they may be "losing it" mentally (or having others think so), stop going to movies, bingo, or Friday night poker games. They stop enjoying life – all because it's too hard to hear.

If you are like more than 36 million americans – with the majority being 60 years and older – struggling to hear more clearly, wishing people would stop mumbling, being embarrassed by having to rely on your "human hearing aid" (your spouse or significant other), maybe even withdrawing from some activities you enjoy because of trouble hearing ... PLEASE HAVE THE COURAGE TO DO SOMETHING POSITIVE ABOUT IT.

Take a FREE Miracle-Ear® Hearing Test before November 30th.
Your visit will help the Easter Seals' Military and Veterans Initiative.™

Now you can enjoy better hearing for yourself and help a veteran live life to the fullest at the same time! In recognition of the special sacrifices of our service members, for every FREE Hearing Test taken in the month of November, Miracle-Ear will donate $5.00 to the Easter Seals' Military and Veterans Initiative.

1. WE'LL TEST YOUR HEARING* – FREE OF CHARGE –WITH NO OBLIGATION WHATSOEVER.
2. WE'LL TAKE A LOOK INSIDE YOUR EAR WITH A TINY CAMERA CALLED A VIDEO OTOSCOPE; FREE OF CHARGE.
3. WE'LL ALSO ALLOW YOU TO TRY OUR HEARING AIDS AT NO COST.

By doing these three things – with no cost or obligation – at least you'll know DURING ONE QUICK OFFICE VISIT whether you have a hearing loss that can be helped with hearing aids or not.

Newark's energy future?

By AMY ROE

NEWARK POST COLUMNIST

(Roe writes on energy-related issues in the City of Newark)

Renewable energy has been a back-burner issue in Newark for several years. Thanks to the Conservation Advisory Commission (CAC), it is moving to the front burner. The CAC is re-evaluating Newark's renewable energy purchases and likely will suggest criteria for the renewable energy that we buy.

As a municipality-owned utility, Newark is exempt from the state's aggressive renewable energy portfolio standard. This standard increases renewable energy purchases for Delmarva customers to 20% by 2019 and has a special carve-out for solar photovoltaics.

Even though we are exempt from the state standard, Newark does have two existing renewable energy responsibilities. First, City Council passed Resolution 05-H in January 2005. This resolution required an increasing amount of renewable energy to be purchased for all city customers over a several-year period. Second, in order to be exempt from the state standard, Newark must offer a voluntary program to its customers. If you subscribe to the voluntary program, you will pay an extra fee for renewable energy on your monthly electric bill.

At a presentation made jointly by city staff and the president of the Delaware Municipal Electric Corporation at the October meeting of the CAC, it became clear that Newark must redefine both its commitment to purchase renewable energy as well as the definition of what qualifies as renewable in our town. The state has rather rigorous definitions of renewable energy as part of its renewable standard. Because we are exempt, we need to either formally adopt the state standard or establish our own definitions.

As a devoted observer of our city's energy policy, I have some questions about what our renewable energy future will look like.

Will our renewable energy future wean us off of dirty energy? If our recently published fuel mix is an accurate estimation of our utility contracts, the energy used to power our homes and businesses is very dirty. Can we use a renewable energy plan to reduce our reliance on coal and nuclear power? Can we establish goals that will enable Newark to be 100% renewable in my lifetime?

Will decisions made about our renewable energy future have an open and public process? To date there have been numerous mysteries about what types of renewable energy we are buying and when. Will public education of our energy options be part of a renewable energy plan? Will the public have access to information about our choices in the past and future? Will there be public hearings prior to the formulation of any definitions of what should qualify as renewable energy in our community? Will we be able to influence a schedule for buying renewable energy so that we can feel good about reducing our impacts on the environment?

Or, will our renewable energy future be obscured by short term budget woes? Currently our city budget is supported by utility revenues. Most of these revenues come from electricity sales. Clean renewable energy costs more than dirty coal. If we commit to buying renewable, it could affect the city's electric profit margin. Are decision-makers more interested in prioritizing extra electric revenues above the health of our planet, the integrity of our mountain-tops, and the vitality of our ecosystems? Or, can they be persuaded to be responsive to the needs of the planet and our health?

These questions just scratch the surface of what our future renewable energy policy could become. Regardless, the sources of energy that we use in this town are important. Our utility company is owned by municipal government. This means that it is owned by you; by the residents of Newark. You have a right to participate in shaping our renewable energy future.

St. Mark's, Hodgson, Red Lion prepare for playoffs

Kaminski wins cross country title

By JON BUZBY

JONBUZBY@HOTMAIL.COM

St. Mark's (8-2) enters the Delaware High School Division I Football State Tournament as the sixth seed and will play at No. 3 Concord (8-2) on Saturday at 1. The Spartans are coming off a 28-9 loss to rival Salesianum, while the Raiders enter the playoffs on a seven-game winning streak following their 28-7 win over Glasgow to close out the regular season.

"Many of our seniors have been in this situation before," Spartans coach John Wilson said. "After a tough loss to Sallies for the second consecutive year, we are looking forward to putting that game behind us and moving forward like we did last year. Our players know playing at Concord presents a challenge, but they are looking forward to being back in the state tournament. It's a brand new season. If we want to get to the finals, it will have to be through Flight A."

Hodgson (8-2) earned the second seed in the Division II tournament and will await the winner of the Pencader-Red Lion Christian game. Red Lion Christian (8-2) is making its first appearance ever in the state tournament after defeating Caravel Academy in its final regular season game, knocking the Bucs out of the playoffs.

"We are really excited to get the opportunity to compete for the state championship," Red Lion coach Eric Day said shortly after learning of his team's berth. "It validates all the hard work that these young men put into the program. It reinforces the concept that hard work pays off."

"Pencader is an excellent football program that provides us with a lot of challenges this weekend. They throw the ball well and are very athletic. I think it will be an exciting game."

Kaminski sprints to state cross country title

St. Mark's senior Zach Kaminski sprinted the last half mile on his way to capturing the Division I state cross country championship last Saturday at Killens Pond State Park.

Kaminski's time of 16:26.33 helped the Spartans place second overall, just one point behind champion Salesianum. In addition to Kaminski, three St. Mark's runners placed in the top 10: Thom Harrington (4), Kyle Fox (7) and Nate Castaneda (10).

"Zach worked extremely hard all summer and was focused all season on winning a team and individual state championship," Spartans coach Tom McCartan said. "His leadership as a student-athlete and Christian extends into the classroom as well. I can't begin to tell you how highly regarded he is by his teachers and teammates. In the state meet, Zach did what he did all season, which was display an uncanny instinct for pace and race strategy."

The St. Mark's girls finished the meet in second place to Charter of Wilmington. Junior Emily Frydrych (19:29.2) finished fourth overall.

St. Mark's netters finish third

The Spartans capped their outstanding season with a 2-1 win over Archmere in the third-place match of the Delaware High School Girls Volleyball Tournament. Nikki Christ had 25 assists, while Lauren Talley had 10 kills and Samantha Hall nine for the Spartans.

"The season was filled with numerous ups and downs but the players continued to work hard everyday," St. Mark's coach Nancy Griskowitz said. "Losing in the semifinals is always tough but I was pleased with the team's effort in the consolation match. I am very proud of the way they fought back and finished the season on a positive note defeating Archmere."

St. Mark's (15-5) defeated each Delaware team it played at least once, splitting with Padua and Archmere and winning one out of three matches against Ursuline. The only other loss was to Cardinal O'Hara (Pa.).

St. Mark's soccer bounced in first round

Fifth-seeded Middletown nipped No. 12 St. Mark's 1-0 in the first round of the Delaware High School Boys Soccer Tournament last Saturday night. The Cavaliers scored the lone goal of the game midway through the second half and the Spartans were unable to match it against a tough Middletown defense. Spartans goalie TJ DeMatteis recorded 14 saves in the loss.

"We had more long-term injuries to key players than in any of the other 25 years I've coached," Spartans coach Tom DeMatteis said. "Just past the midpoint of the season we were under .500 at 3-5. I feel that reaching the state tournament was a tremendous accomplishment for this team. Against Middletown the players did the best they could, and a coach can't ask for more than that."

News and Notes

The St. Mark's field hockey team lost 1-0 to Cape Henlopen in the quarterfinals of the state tournament to finish with a 12-4 record. ... Send sports stories to jonbuzby@hotmail.com.

Helpful tips on using your local classified section.

Why advertise in classified?

Whether you are looking for an employee, selling unwanted household items, or trying to sell your house, local newspaper classifieds offer a great vehicle to reach lots of people for a little investment. Chesapeake Classified can also place your ad on our website chesapeakeclassified.com, to reach even more readers. The more people that see your ad, the better chance you have of getting great results. And, most importantly, classified ads work!

What makes a good advertisement?

One of the most important features of a good classified ad is the headline or keyword. It is the first thing readers will see, and can help them to make the decision on whether to continue to read your ad, or move onto the next one. The headline should explain what your ad is about. Chesapeake Classifieds are broken down into categories, and in each category ads are listed alphabetically. Ask your classified Account Executive what is the best keyword or headline for your specific ad. We are the experts, and our job is to get you results!

CLASSIFIED CORNER

Helpful tips on using your local classified section.

What information should I include in my merchandise for sale ad?

The goal of a good classified merchandise ad is to move what you are selling quickly, not just generate phone calls. Chesapeake Classified recommends starting your ad with what the actual item is, making it easier for readers to locate merchandise, as the ads fall alphabetically in the correct classification. If it is a Broyhill sofa, start the ad with sofa, not Broyhill. Readers do not look for sofas under "B" for Broyhill, they look under "S" for sofa. When you walk into a furniture store, do you buy the first sofa you come to? No, you probably browse through the store, look at many sofas, and then choose the one that best fits your needs. Your ad should contain words and descriptions that adequately describe the item, and give readers a reason to call about your merchandise. Don't skimp, less is more doesn't always hold true in an ad. Would you rather place a great ad that sells your stuff, or keep having to re-run your ad because no one knows what you are selling? And ALWAYS put in the price. Do you want to answer a ton of phone calls asking "How much is it?", and when they find out the price they hang up because it is too expensive? No, you want qualified callers that will buy your merchandise and make you money!! At Chesapeake Classified, we place all of our merchandise for sale ads on our website chesapeakeclassified.com, to put your ad in front of even more readers.

Will Chesapeake Classified help me word my ad, and suggest where to place it?

Of course! The Account Executives at Chesapeake Classified are professionals. We can help you write your ad, and can advise you on our great local packages. If your item is unique, or may need extra coverage for a quick sale, we have packages that cover the entire Eastern Shore! We sell results, not ads. That's what you wanted when you called us, isn't it?

So, call us today and make some fast cash with your "For Sale" ad!

Reindeer Run & Romp benefiting Special Olympics Delaware

Special Olympics Delaware invites families and friends to come out for the fourth annual Reindeer Run and Romp to benefit Special Olympics Delaware on Friday, December 4. Race time is 6:30 p.m. on the University of Delaware campus in Newark. The 5k run and 3k walk will take place on luminary-lit courses beginning on Academy Street and including the James F. Hall trail. The entry fee for pre-registered runners and rompers is $20 ($25 day of) and includes a long-sleeve event T-shirt, discount coupons for Main Street merchants and post-event refreshments. This event is held in conjunction with the City of Newark's annual Winterfest so there will be plenty of things to do before and after the races. It's the perfect way for families and friends to begin the holiday season...and support a great cause. For more information or to register, go to www.sode.org or call 302-831-4653.

Decorating with Natural Materials

Sunday, December 5, 10am-12pm. Join us for a cup of coffee in the cozy Judge Morris Estate during our annual holiday craft workshop. Learn some of the history of the property and the Morris family while creating an all-natural holiday decoration for your home. We will be using fresh greens cut from local trees, vines, and shrubs. Cost is $12 per person and includes greens, bases and accents for your decoration. Please bring clippers and gloves. Pre-registration is required. Call the White Clay Creek State Park office, located at 425 Wedgewood Road, Newark, at 302-368-6900.

CANDY BUY BACK

The scales topped 945 pounds when Forest Oak Elementary students delivered 319 pounds of sweet treats to the 3rd annual Halloween Candy Buy Back at Limestone Dental Associates. The candy is boxed and ready to be delivered to Stockings For Soldiers. Many of the children wrote heartfelt letters of thanks to the soldiers to include with the candy. Limestone Dental Associates is also sending toothbrushes and toothpaste. Patners were Forest Oak Elementary School, east of Newark; Delaware Moving and Storage and Heart & Home.

OUT OF THE ATTIC

This week's Out of the Attic item is a postcard view of a Main Street General Store after an explosion in 1909. The store was located about where Harter Hall is now, next door to the present Galleria. The message on the back of the postcard reads, "It blew all the windows out and tore the floor up all the front is a wreck the sides also. This card I paid five cts for it I wanted you to see it all the glass is gone it certainly is a wreck."

The picture is on loan to the Newark Post from the Newark Historical Society collection. Readers are invited to view the Newark History Museum display in the lobby of the Newark Municipal Building at 220 Elkton Road. The 2009 Annual Ornament featuring the Main Street Diner is now available for $6.50. To order, call the Society message phone at 302-224-2408 and leave a name and telephone number for a callback to arrange delivery. The Society continues to seek pictures and other artifacts of places, activities, persons, and life styles in the Greater Newark area.

Contact the Newark Historical Society by voice mail at 302-224-2408, by postal mail to P.O. Box 711, Newark, DE 19715, or by email to newarkdehistoricalsociety@yahoo.com.
