Dover Del Jun 14 1862
My Dearest Lou
I hasten to drop you a line informing you that I will be down one day next week without fail. I expected to come down to day until about five minutes since when I find that I have to remain in Dover this afternoon, and have also to be here on Monday. My company is progressing finely. I have som 38 names upon the roll.

The mail is already closed and I am writing in the Post Office
Excuse this note
I Remain
As ever
only yours
T M Reynolds
