Cherry Blossom Queen? Who Will She Be?

Next time you walk down campus, take a look around. That sharp-looking blonde walking toward you may be this year's Queen of the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington—that is, if you hurry and do something about it. On Friday, and only on Friday, February 24, you'll have your chance to place your favorite eye-ful's name in the running.

There's really nothing to it. Just drop a slip marked with your gal's name into the ballot box that you'll find at the Student Government Association offices in the basement of the Library any time from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

Any Delaware resident girl, from 18 to 24 years old, who is a student here at the University, and who seems to you to have Blossom Queen potentialities, may be the girl. She'll travel to Washington, with all expenses paid and wardrobe furnished, in April when the Tidal Basin is in bloom.

Candidates whose names are entered Friday will parade before the student body on Thursday, March 2, at 1:00 p.m. That promises to be one pulchritudinous University Hour. Final voting will take place Friday, March 3, from 9:00 to 5:00—same place, same ballot box that you'll be filling this Friday.

The girl in your heart may be the girl in the eyes of the nation. And your school will be a star on the map. So hurry, students. Pick your type. Choose your girl, and you might see her name in lights!

Date of Engineers' Ball Set—Mar. 10

On Friday, March 10, the Engineers at the University of Delaware will have their "night." The Engineers' Ball will be held from 10 to 1 due to an unavoidable conflict with the E-52 production of "Party Line." This will be another opportunity for you socialites to make a night of it by attending the play first, then topping it off with the Ball.

It will be an open dance sponsored by the student branches of the four engineering societies, semi-formal, non-corsage, and will cost only $2.40 per couple.

Dancing will be to the music of Moe Jaffee and his orchestra, the same band that played for last year's Ball. Those of you who remember him can vouch for his ability to produce the music that will be enjoyed. Remember, the Engineers' Ball on March 10.

Delaware Passes Coal Crisis; No Forced Vacation in Sight; Supply Sufficient to March 8

The University of Delaware Wednesday surveyed its fuel situation and decided that there is virtually no need to consider suspension of classes at any time this term because of insufficient heat.

At a meeting of the university's Administrative Council, Business Administrator Charles E. Grubb reported enough bituminous coal on hand or in transit to last until March 8, and enough anthracite enroute to Newark to extend the coal supply until the middle of March if an anthracite-bituminous mixture can be burned successfully.

President William S. Carlson had earlier contradicted some reports that classes had been ordered suspended after this week, and said: "It is the intent of the university to continue even though students are subjected to some discomfort. We will operate under the most difficult of circumstances, and suspend classes only if and when it should become a matter of jeopardizing any student's health."

Since the regular spring vacation begins Saturday, April 1, and continues for nine days, the university now is anticipating that enough coal will be obtained in the coming weeks to keep the furnace hot throughout cold weather ahead.

"We are past the crisis which loomed at the beginning of this week," Mr. Grubb said, "and the outlook is much brighter."

The latest addition to the university's stockpile is 30 tons acquired Wednesday from Webb's laundry in Wilmington. This, with 170 tons from the Phillips Packing Company, and 110 tons enroute, now forms the backlog. Five carloads of anthracite are expected.

Mr. Grubb credited conservation measures put into effect two weeks ago with a saving which has helped to ease the fuel shortage. About four tons a day have been saved through chilled corridors and foyers, lowered thermostats in classrooms and offices, and similar devices. Except for these fuel savings, there will be no schedule changes, and all extra-curricular events will operate on a normal program, the Administrative Council said.

The effect of the cold snap was portrayed in Business Administrator Charles E. Grubb's report that 37 tons were needed to keep buildings nominally warm yesterday, compared to 23 tons a day over last weekend, 28 tons daily during last week, and 30 tons a day averaged during the mild winter weather.

Mathewson to Sing At Warner Lounge

Mrs. Beatrice Mathewson, soprano, a senior at the University of Delaware, will be heard in a voice recital Tuesday night, Feb. 28, at 8:15 p.m. in the Hilarium of Warner Hall at the University. Her accompanist will be Donald Stewart.

Mrs. Mathewson, who lives at 211 Curtis Avenue, Woodcrest, has studied voice for three years with Mrs. Hilda Somers Ewing in the university's music department, although she is a mathematics major. She is a member of the A Capella Choir, the Music Club, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, and Mathematics Club, and of The Brandywinners.

Her program will include:
Tu lo sai — Torelli
Pur dicesti, O bocca bella — Lotti
Morir voglio — Astorga
Danza, danza, fanciulla gentile — Durante
Il est doux — "Herodiade" — Massenet
Le Roi et le Peuple — Paladine
Après un Reve — Faure
Chacun le sait — "La Fille du Regiment" — Donizetti
Adele's Laughing Song —
"The Bat" — Strauss
Velvet Shoes — Thompson
The Little Shepherd's Song — Watts
Thine 'On Me — Scott
The Sleigh — Kowitz

Party Line Musical Dons Final Touch

Party Line, the big musical comedy being produced at Mitchell Hall on March 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, is now coming into the final period of strenuous rehearsals. Anyone around the lower campus, can see the girls in the dorms going over lines and rehearsing dance steps at every free moment. The singers for this show can be heard by everyone, everywhere, all the time.

Bruce Laird, a graduate student here at the University wrote the entire comedy, lyrics included. Bruce hails from Wilmington and is working for his master's degree in English. He has worked on the Caudron for a number of years, finally as Editor of the magazine. During the war, Bruce served with the Army in Italy and wrote a number of articles for The Stars and Stripes.

Party Line is the first musical comedy he has ever written, and also the first show he has had produced on the stage, although he has written songs and parts of two operas. Concerning the amount of work which goes into such a show, let me quote directly from the author: "Writing Party Line has been fun. It has meant writing whole scenes and tearing them out, composing songs, rejecting them, and writing new ones. It has meant pounding a typewriter, pounding a piano, doing the tedious job of scoring music so that it is intelligible enough to be played or read by anyone, and then rehearsals. Action Upheld By Trustees in Issue Of Negro Entrance

Trustees of the University of Delaware on Saturday, February 18th sustained their action of two years ago which, in effect, admits Negro students but only in the engineering school or for graduate work.

In a special meeting at Newark, the Board of Trustees affirmed previous decisions by the University's administration in withholding application forms from nine Negro students enrolled at the Delaware State College.

The applicants were identified as Irving J. Williams, 709 Wollaston street, Wilmington; Lillian F. Coleman, 412 North Clayton street, Wilmington; Helen M. Handy, Seaford; Roy E. Holland, Lewes; Homer W. Minus, Felton; Brooks M. Parker, Laurel; Thomas M. Paul, 718 Bennett street, Wilmington; Jane M. Robinson, 715 North Du Pont street, Wilmington, and James C. Scott, Felton. The trustees' decision was that the nine "do not come within the scope of the resolution adopted by this board on Jan. 31, 1948."

That resolution made it possible for Negro residents of the state of Delaware to enroll at the University for "courses of study leading to a degree for which a course of study leading to the same degree is not furnished in any educational institution provided by this state within this state."

The trustees pointed out today that the State College "has authority under section 2797 of the Revised Code of 1935 to confer degrees and grant diplomas."

The trustees also approved the exchange of the dwelling at 102 Bent Lane, Newark, now occupied by President William S. Carlson, for John D. Hildreth's residence at 203 West Main street. The Hildreth family will occupy the Bent Lane property about three months after Dr. Carlson leaves in April to assume the presidency of the University of Vermont, and it was indicated that the West Main street property will become the residence of Dr. Carlson's successor when he is chosen.

Tau Beta Pi Elects Knox As President

Robert W. Knox, of 207 South DuPont Road, Wilmington, has been elected president of Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society at the University of Delaware. A junior in electrical engineering, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Knox, and attended Alexis I. duPont High School.

Other officers named are: William H. Groetzinger, III, vice-president; George H. Kumler, corresponding secretary; Thomas A. Wood, Jr., recording secretary; Ernest A. DiPasquantonio, cataloger. All the new officers have taken over their positions.

Mitchell Hall Has Capacity Crowd For Curzon Recital

Mitchell Hall held a capacity crowd on Friday night when Clifford Curzon, widely known British pianist, gave the fourth concert in the 1949-50 Artists Series.

Mr. Curzon, whose person was almost equally as impressive as his technique, opened the program with the Sonata in E flat, Opus 81, ("Les Adieux") by Beethoven. Representative of Beethoven's middle period of composition, the sonata told in its three movements the moods of a lover at the parting, during the absence and at the return of a loved one. Although in this selection Mr. Curzon was not able to make the most of his tremendous power, he displayed the deepness and sensitivity of feeling for which he has been widely acclaimed. The expression of his face, the entire movement of his body reflected the spirit and mood of the composition in each of the widely differing movements.

In commenting on Mr. Curzon's rendition of Franz Schubert's Fantasy in C, "The Wanderer," a local critic says, "It could hardly be imagined that there were less than four pianos and four pianists playing the Schubert, so great was the power and volume." Yet the more delicate phrases were as clear and convincing as the fortissimos. During the whole piece it was noticed that the tremendous power of his technique was entirely in his hands, for his arms hardly moved at all.

The third division of the program consisted of three short, semi-modern examples of program music: Jeux d'eau (Mountains), by Ravel; The Lover and the Nightingale, by Granados; and Debussy's Feux d'artifice (Fireworks). Light and far from subtly picturing the subjects which their titles suggest, these selections revealed another phase of piano music in which Mr. Curzon excels.

After the intermission the thirteen parts of Schumann's delightful Kinderszenen were played. Many of the picturesque scenes, Traumerei (Day Dreams), Important Event, and Falling Asleep were especially familiar in their music and subject to the listeners. Liszt's powerful but repetitive Funeralles and a Concert Study in F Minor by Dohnanyi ended the program.

A responsive audience insisted on four encores in addition to one played at the intermission. Schubert, Poulenc, and Liszt were represented in the encores.

Clifford Curzon, born and educated in England was prevented from touring the United States in 1939 by the outbreak of war. Well known and esteemed in Europe, he is appearing in his first full concert tour in this country.

Fraternities Treat Ferris Youngsters

Look what the Interfraternity Council is doing now. Delaware's nine social fraternities are taking turns treating boys from Ferris Industrial School to a big night on the University of Delaware campus.

On several Wednesday nights since Christmas the Greek letter boys have been picking up a bunch of playful youngsters—boys who haven't the opportunity to see things outside of their own school. The fraternity men take their guests to the house for a snack, introduce them to the other members and finally escort them to a Blue Hen home basketball game.

It may sound like just another week night to the student, but it's the event of the years for the kids from Ferris.

A little fella named Danny sat down at his desk when he returned to school after his outing here, to write a careful thank-you-note to the fraternity member who brought him to our campus.

"Just a few lines to let you know I really appreciate the goodtime you and the guys gave us," he wrote. "I am thankful for the candy and toothpaste you gave me. And I had a wonderful time at the game."

The kids were impressed by the houses, and remembered the names of friends they had met. They wanted their hosts to visit the Ferris campus sometime, so that they might return some of the hospitality our fraternities had shown to them.

It takes a little of the spare time of the boys from the fraternities, but it's time well spent. The I. F. C. came up with the most worthwhile idea yet. Let the fraternity men look back on their good deeds with as much pleasure as the kids will have when they will think about their fun for many seasons to come.—Sue Conway.

NOTICE:

The classical music listening group will present next Sunday, February 26, 1950 the following program at 7:30 p.m. in the Old College Lounge:

1. Haydn — Symphony 104 "London."
2. Beethoven—Concerto for piano and orchestra No. 5 "Emperor."
3. A. Copland—Music Theater.

Bruce has started work on his second musical show, and he hopes it will be even better than Party Line. Elbert Chance, who plays the romantic lead in Party Line is working with Bruce on the new show. Here's hoping they'll have a terrific show when they finish.

Party Line is a satirical musical on the government of today. There are many humorous remarks concerning the political bosses and the workings of government in general. The songs and the dance routines are ones which no one will want to miss.

So don't let them down. Come out and get your tickets, and be sure to tell your family and friends about Party Line. It's a performance you won't want to miss!

Tickets have been on sale since Tuesday the 21st—so if you haven't received yours already, be sure to come to Mitchell Hall between 3:30 and 5 any afternoon and pick them up. The box office will also be open 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the evening. Do I hate it? Are you kidding?"

As one can plainly see, it is not an easy task, but one which takes talent and much patience on the part of the author. Incidentally

Somewhere In the Woods

By DON MILLER

Prologue:

A hush fell over the Student Union. From the male students present came a chorus of sighs and long low whistles. The reason, you ask? The Reason, of course, was a girl. This girl walked into our midst and created quite a furor.

She arrived on Wednesday and left on Friday. But she will be remembered for many a day on the plains of the Blue Hen. Her name, Gabby. She was visiting her sister Renee. To explain to the gods the reason for all the masculine interest in this breath of beauty, we offer the following comparison:

Girls, how would you feel if Montgomery Clift came here for a couple of days?

Act I

Basketball game—Hens versus Ursinus. Cast in collegiate dress, sound man dubs in loud cheers at intervals.

Cheering each home team goal were: Hilda McCabe and "Cappy"; Don Greenfield doing his best with seven or eight of our cutest coeds. P. S. We don't think he made the grade with any of them. He left the game alone. Freddie Hartmann passed by with the very nice Claire Di Nardo. Frank Hellig came with Carolyn Johnson, as did "Pistol Pete" Carlson and Sue Ferver.

Bob Carpenter arrived a little late with Elaine Ough, followed by Jimmy Jones with Esther Fouracre, and Bruce Warren with Nancy Hunter. Game ends with the Blue Hens victors and the happy couples rush to make the thirty-minute deadline.

Intermission:

Don Swan and Marge Brennan apparently didn't care too much about the dorm deadline. Marge expended a late to stroll, and we do mean stroll, down the quiet campus. As a slight give you a bit of monologue heard in one of the dormitories: "Audrey, you aren't allowed in the Commons room when you are campused."

Act II

Close of Rush Week—All houses having parties.

Scene I

One of many—much frivolity—many beautiful coeds. Lucy Finn met us at the first door with Jim McNeal; Lu was without her glasses so Jim pointed out some of the visitors:

Dave Allen and Lee Munoz, Mary Lou Bice with Dick Mulrooney, Jan Richards with Chuck Masten, Chuck lost Jan in the first few minutes and then asked if he could help out with the refreshments. Doug Haller and Becky Corson stand watching the TV with Jack Bradford and Bobby Martin.

Bobby Gordy arrived with Johnny Witherford and looked very, very sharp. Joyce Hilty hid behind Bob Richards at the approach of the press. Joe Warren was the envy of quite a few males dating the lovely Nora Cronin. We made a faux pas asking Jim Kearns if he was dating the same girl as last week; he wasn't, her name was Bonnie Bandera.

Scene II

Same merriment, different setting.

Sam Talucci introduced us to his very nice date, Charlotte Sisofo, and then took Hilda and the press on a quick tour of the house. Couldn't miss Jim Thomas with Nan Lerch, Ann Colonna with Bernard Janicki, Jim Baird with Shorty Gerlach, Jack Kinter very smooth dancing with Mary Lou Conover.

With Sam tugging at the sleeve, we moved along to bump into Bauduy and Betty Jo Grier, Nancy Ruos with Jimmy "Middle" Kingsburg, Hugh Dougherty with the dark-haired beauty, Marty McLaughlin, Jack Thompson with Jean Lawless.

Intermission:

Mystery of the Week: Who bit Lynn "I've had my tetanus shots" Ward? Some dog, no doubt.

But there isn't much mystery about this: Bob Billingsley and Ann Peters were so engrossed in each other that a large car crash failed to attract their attention. Bob finally aroused himself and asked who dropped his watch.

Then there's Nancy Thomas, whose engagement to her one and only Elmer Furman, made campus headlines this Saturday.

Scene III

Dedicated to Joe "the Marine" Miller; at least Colona got overseas.

We finally got a scoop, Carol Pope and Tom Silk came in beaming at each other, the gleam from the ring on her finger reflected in her eyes. Marriage in June to Carol makes Tom one very lucky guy. Congrats!

After Park Perine entertained the guests in a very smooth manner, we moved around and mingled with:

Dick Grossman and Jane "I can't knit argyles" Raymond, Tom Livizos and Vivian Sassone, Doug McKenna and Betty Ruby, Fuss Gordy and Bob McHenry; Woody Branner with Joan McCain. Woody put his bid in two weeks early. Henry Aughey with Joan Greenfield, Carol Black arrived and made Ray McCarthy quite pleased; then our eyes were filled with exquisite Scotty and proud husband Kindy. Sonny Boys was a visitor with school teacher Ginny Keller. Joe "The Marine" dated Hedy Richardson and maybe he will bring her back to give some one else a chance to date her.

Rocky Carzo dated Norma Wodak; Norma tells us she doesn't have a Junior Prom date. Betty Carter finally broke down and dated Stew Jackson. Jack Gallagher promised us an introduction to his lovely Kittle; our loss, we had to move on.

Intermission again:

Rumor has it that Hank Paris wants to learn to rollerskate.

Scene IV

Another house, another group of fun-lovers.

Glenn Wright, with Mary Lou "Mrs. Culbertson" Bowen, took time out from his new lighter to point out the ringsiders:

Ozzie Grier with Mary Little, Jack Lingo with Betty Ann Dryden, Nancy Brooks with Bob Wright, Dick Steffel and Dorothea Keene, Roger Browning with Ida Mae Ladd.

We interrupted "Mole" Tyler very close to Nancy Mendenhall, and then saw Nancy Klusman with Ralph Gesell.

Joan Hushebeck dating Porky Baldwin, Paul deSab with Betty Ann Jennings, Diane Kipp looked very nice with Don Huston. Don just hated to say goodnight at Sussex and we don't blame him. Saw Lynn Ward squeezing a dixie cup sitting alongside of Stan Wask.

Record Number Pledged by Frats As Big Rush Ends

With the end of Silent Period on Tuesday, February 22 at 8:00 A.M., the University's annual fraternity Rush Week came to an official close. A record total of 153 men pledged the nine Delaware fraternities, a larger number than last year's 147.

After a two-week rushing period which ended last Saturday at midnight, the freshman and upperclass rushees were again put under a Silent Period comparable to that which existed during the entire first term. On Monday, they indicated their choice of fraternities at the Dean of Men's office, which choices were checked against the fraternities' lists. On Tuesday, the lists were returned to the fraternities for them to notify.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue of the REVIEW it was stated that a committee of three members of the English department: Mrs. Sarah B. Rogers, Mr. Edwin Heinle, and Mr. Robert Gale would serve as judges for the annual Creative Writing Contest. This committee only receives material; the judges, selected from outside the University, will be announced as soon as possible.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

There will be a meeting of the International Relations Club on Thursday, March 2, at 7:15 in the Card Room of Brown Hall. Subject: Western Europe. Foreign students will speak and open discussion will follow.

The meeting is open to anyone who is interested in international relations.

AIEE Meeting Held After Big Banquet

An interesting and informative program was presented at the American Institute of Electrical Engineers meeting on Thursday, February 16, following an enjoyable banquet at Old College Dining Hall. Four former graduates, who have been in their jobs or training programs for several months, formed a panel answering the questions of the members regarding getting jobs, and what would be expected of them during their initial period of job training, or employment. Those forming the panel were, Charles Andersen, Roy Aydelotte, Elbert Palmer, and James Clark Jr.

"Andy" Andersen, who graduated from here in June, 1949, may be remembered around the campus as a President of the Delaware Student Christian Association, Publicity Chairman for the AIEE, and a member of Tau Beta Pi, National Honorary Engineering Society. He is now enrolled in the General Electric Company's famous Test Program, and is working in Philadelphia on switchgear and associated apparatus.

Roy Aydelotte, a past president of AIEE, who graduated with Andy, is now a Sales Trainee for the National Vulcanized Fibre Company, Wilmington, Delaware, who are manufacturers of vulcanized fibre and laminated phenolic products.

Should Think Clearly

Jim Clark is a Drexel graduate who worked for the Philadelphia Electric Company, and now, after a five months training program, is a member of the Transmission and Distribution Department of the Delaware Power and Light Co.

Elbert Palmer, who graduated from Delaware last June, was well known around the campus, and now is the Assistant Plant Engineer for the Delaware Rayon Company, New Castle, Delaware.

The group concurred in the opinion that the young engineer is not

Alpha Epsilon Pi

The attendance of the boys from Ferris School at the Ursinus basketball game last week was made possible by Bo Lagowitz and Favel Chavin, and the fraternity wishes to thank them both for their efforts.

During the intermission of the Junior Prom there will be an intermission party at the fraternity house, and Saturday night there will be a house party for the brothers and new pledges.

AIEE's Eastern Regional Conclave, held last Saturday in Washington, D. C., was attended by the following Delaware AIEE's: Don Cherr, Joe Yucht, Dave Bunin, Arnold Greenhouse and Bob Herold.

Thursday night, March 2, a recorded Dixieland Jazz Concert will be held at the Alpha Epsilon Pi House, 151 W. Main Street, from 7:30 to 9:00. This affair is open to everyone in school, and we hope that all jazz lovers will attend. See you there.

expected to know all, and is therefore given ample time to become familiar with his new surroundings, but is expected to be able to think clearly, and exercise good common sense.

1 Girl Present

Andy remarked, early in the evening, "It is very delightful to see that at last there has been added to this collection of sorrowful faces at least one bit of pulchritude." He was referring, of course, to Dot Welch, and at this point, needless to say, there was a rousing round of cheers!

It gave us great pleasure to welcome Ned Elliot, president of the ASME to our meeting. I'm sure he enjoyed it, as did the rest, because it was one of the best and most informative meetings we have had.

Hats off to President, Joe Alexander, Harry Heyl and his program committee, and especially Bob Wright, and his boys of the refreshments committee, who arranged the banquet.

Alpha Tau Omega

On Sunday, February 26th, we will initiate our six present pledges. The Brothers-to-be are: Earl Walker, John Florino, Elbert Chance, Dick Hammond, Alec Rogers, and Bill Bauerband. We are both proud and happy to have these men as members.

Congratulations to our new pledge class. We hope these men will enjoy their college years with us as much as we will ours with them.

This coming weekend will hold much in store for the ATO's. Delaware Epsilon Rho will send its basketball team to the University of Pennsylvania to play Penn Tau. We beat them last year, but we have received reports that they are really hot this year.

The next E-52 production, "Party Line," comes up with four of the boys in the cast. El Chance, Alan Stewart, and Obie Edge, the veterans, are familiar to the audience but we are proud of a newcomer, Roland Mills. Millsy, a star soccer player, will trip the light fantastic in the new show.

Don't forget! Our house is open all the time. Stop in during the intermission of the Prom and look the place over.

Delta Tau Delta

The 1950 Rushing Season was brought to a close with the House Party on Saturday night, and the Deltas are again turning their complete effort toward their studies.

We want to thank all the Freshmen who attended our Smokers and House Parties; it has been fun for these two weeks, and well worth the friends we made.

Our House Party Saturday, chaperoned by Dean and Mrs. Squire, Dean and Mrs. Daugherty, Dean and Mrs. Schuster, and Mrs. Monroe and Dolan was well entertained by the Deltas Dramatic Department (The E-Gad 69 Players) under the capable direction of Brother Jack Christfield. Starring in the play of the week were brothers Bob (Spanish Kid) Billingsley, Jim (Daddy-O) Morris and Pledges Bill (the Wolf) McCauley and Bob (Pie Nose) McFarlin.

The Deltas, following John L's lead, have converted their heating system to oil and wish to extend a "warm" invitation to the cold residents of Lower Campus to come up and enjoy our cozy hospitality.

Kappa Alpha

Rush Week is over—and the inhabitants of 19 Amstel have settled down to the University routine again. KA introduces with pride its new pledges (see story on pledges elsewhere in this issue.) We are happy to welcome this fine group of men to our ranks.

While Rush Week is still fresh in our minds, we wish to extend thanks to our chaperones for the two house parties of the period: Brother and Mrs. "Chip" Cabbage, Dr. and Mrs. Gorham Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Armstrong, and Brother and Mrs. Pete Zannoni. Credit and special mention also go to Social Chairman S. J. Wright, and to Chuck Masten and Al Cowan, who so ably directed the rushing program.

Last week the KA courtmen downed Sig Ep 57-21, and this week's court contest yielded the Rebels a 41-32 win over Theta Chi, with George "I live clean" Frederick sparking the offensive in both frays.

Phi Kappa Tau

To wind up the rushing season, the Phi Taus and their guests enjoyed another swell house party on Saturday, February 18. Entertainment was supplied by the present pledge class and featured a scene from the campus dining halls. Stars of the show were John Burpulis, Bob Clerc, Art Godding, Bob Hirt, Harry Mencer, Bob Moore, Bill West, and Joe Zappo. Then came "the great D" himself (Nick Vitale) with a strictly ad lib speech on life on the Delaware Campus. Many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Kish and Mr. and Mrs. Martin for joining us for the evening.

At the smoker on Thursday evening, February 16, brothers Charlie

Lebegern and George Green graced the audience with a magic show which was, as the saying goes, "the most!"

Television has arrived at the Phi Tau house! Saturday afternoon, February 18, was the day that a Stromberg-Carlson TV set, with a ten-inch, opera glass screen, became a permanent part of the house. The chapter extends a hearty invitation to all you fellow Blue Hens (roosters that is) to drop in and share with us the shows at any time!

Pi Kappa Alpha

Delta Eta wishes to welcome a new PI KA faculty member to the campus and to the fraternity: Dean Penrose, Dean of Education, Mrs. Penrose, who proved their knowledge of chaperoning at the House Party Saturday last. Thanks again, Dean, and come again soon.

The boys on the hill are finally learning the art of taking it easy after rushing, which incidentally, they enjoyed. In fact they enjoyed themselves to much that the Pike Five downed Phi Kappa Tau during said week. The most important event for the boys was the House Breaking Indocrination given to Pike the Pup by Sgt. Jack Dolby.

News has been received from the National that three more local chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha have been added, pushing the total to 102. Congratulations go to Drake

University, San Jose State College, and Linfield College.

P.S. Don't miss the intermission party Friday night!-!

Sigma Nu

In view of the present coal shortage not much can be found in fraternity activity to overshadow the importance of this glorious event.

Last Saturday night, rushing festivities were drawn to a close with what was undoubtedly the best party of the academic year. There were over thirty minutes of tasty entertainment in which Dick Foster, Paul Catts, Gary Carpenter, Jim Murphy, and Bandy Grier took a more than active part.

Wednesday evening, there was an informal pledging of recent Freshmen rushers who made their choice to join the ranks of Delta Kappa.

Delaware Mermen Whip Drexel, 45-21; Face Lehigh Sat.

Closing out one of the longest dual seasons in University history, the Blue and Gold swimmers meet the Lehigh mermen this Saturday afternoon in the Engineers' pool in their final clash before three conference championship meets. Harry Rawstrom's Birds wound up their home season last Saturday by thoroughly trouncing Drexel's Dragons 45-21, before the best crowd of the season.

The clash with the Engineers this weekend promises to be much like the last two between these two arch rivals. In the last two years, Delaware has eked out 38-37 victories, and Rawstrom has warned his men that Bill Christian and his Lehigh crowd will be going all out for this one. It will mark the final dual meet of the season before the Hens take part in the Middle Atlantic at Franklin and Marshall, the Eastern Collegiate at Rutgers, and the Eastern Intercollegiate at Annapolis.

Two new school records fell in the clash with the Dragons last Saturday. The medley relay team of Murray Campbell, John Bishop and Hugh Miller lowered the off-assaulted mark in that event, this time to 3:11.6 seconds, just a shade slower than the pool record held by Temple. Then Miller came back strong to snap his own breast stroke record again, this time lopping a full second off his old mark of 2:38 set earlier in the year against Gettysburg.

Other Delaware victories were turned in by Captain Bauduy Grier in the diving, Campbell in the 150 yard backstroke, Bishop, Don Bardo, Charley Lloyd and Bill Brady in the 400 yard relay, and Hugh Dougherty in the 220 and 440.

Campbell, getting his last crack at the school record in the backstroke, missed again by a hair. Murray has cracked the pool mark on the road, but has never been able to turn the trick in Taylor Pool. He leaves the home tank, however, with the school record in the "150" and a leg on the medley record firmly nailed down.

Rawstrom will field his strongest lineup against the Engineers this weekend, but his Hens nevertheless will enter the meet as definite underdogs. Lacking the freestyle depth of the Lehigh team, the Hens will have to win the meet before the final relay rolls around, and on the three occasions where that has been demanded this season, the Delaware team has failed. Both the Engineers and Hens are undefeated in Middle Atlantic competition, and the outcome of the Saturday melee should give a pretty good indication of the results of the Conference clash on the following weekend.

Delaware Host To M. A. Wrestling Conference Match

Whitey Burnham and his University of Delaware wrestlers will be host to some of the top grapplers in the East next weekend when seven Middle Atlantic mat teams vie for the coveted conference crown in a two-day melee in Carpenter Field House. Scheduled to open on Friday evening and continue through Saturday, the tournament is expected to attract wrestling enthusiasts from the entire Middle Atlantic district.

Coach Shack Martin, director of this year's tournament, has announced that tickets have been placed on sale in the University Athletic Office and will be available to students at a moderate fee. Student Books will not be honored at the tournament.

Eight teams are scheduled to match holds on the mat in Carpenter Field House in the tourney, and over sixty bouts will be held before champions are crowned in the eight weight divisions. So concentrated will be the program in the preliminaries and semi-finals that two mats will be used and two bouts staged simultaneously until the field is narrowed down to the finals.

Epitaph to a Win Streak

Hoop hawks in swarms have come and gone, since a quintet of Hen cagers have notched six straight along victory lane. Coach Emerson and his 1950 Hens, probably the most underrated club that ever defended a Delaware basket, have been fighting the opposition and the doubting Tom every inch of the way. Tom is gone. Ardent members of the grandstand coaches are joined by the illustrious Fred B. when they sigh nostalgically and wonder how it would be to have had the recently entombed win spree go on and on and on.

In memory of this unforgettable feat, may we dedicate:

The Classic of the Intramural World

With the close of Intramural Basketball drawing nigh, CHALK TALK and the Intramural Council have combined heads giving birth to the "classic." It has been proposed by the above mentioned, that, after the play-off games on March 6, 7 and 8, an All-Star team, composed of five men from each league, play the Intramural Champions in a benefit game. The donations collected at the door to be turned over to the Stadium Drive. The representatives of each team in the three leagues will be contacted and asked to meet with his team in order to nominate the five best players they have opposed in league competition. Naturally, a team may not nominate its own team members or the same man twice. A committee will count the ballots and the All-Star squad of 15 men will appear in CHALK TALK on March 9. The All-Star team will be given three evenings to practice before the classic, which will be held in Carpenter Field House at 8 p.m. on March 15. "Ace" Hoffstein, popular member of the Hen Varsity, will act as coach for the All-Stars. More details concerning the classic will appear in this column next week, (if the coal holds out). ATTENTION representatives—do not send in your nominations until you have been contacted through the University Mail.

K. A., Sigma Nu Clash Next Week to Settle A. L. Crown

Rebels Top Theta Chi in 41-32 Fracas

K. A.'s Rebels, the '49 intramural champions, continued on their winning ways as they knocked Theta Chi out of contention with a thrilling 41-32 victory Monday night. This leaves the loop in a tie, and necessitates a play-off game between Sigma Nu and K. A. Jim McNeal lead the veteran K. A. team with 12 points and George Fredrick got 11. Jack Daley, Don Martin, and Chuck Masten starred on the defensive and also dented the scoring column frequently. Stan Bilski was high for the Theta Chi five with 10 points, and Dick Grossman and Ken Wood both got six.

Also during the past week, Pi K. A. notched its initial victory of the season, as they edged out Phi Kappa Tau, 27-26. M. Bonfitto dunked in almost half Pi K. A.'s points with six field goals. Jim Neal and Keyser split the Phi Tau scoring with six apiece.

K. A. Rebels	7-1
Sigma Nu	7-1
Theta Chi	6-2
Sig Ep	6-2
Delta Tau Delta	2-3
Phi Kappa Tau	2-5
Alpha Epsilon Pi	1-5

Pi Kappa Alpha	1-6
Alpha Tau Omega	0-5

In the National League, all three of the leaders turned in victories during the past week. First place A. S. M. E. turned in a 38-34 win over a strong Barons team, with McCauley and Burleigh getting 11 and 9 respectively. Leopold Swinger and VanNoy carried the weight of the Barons scoring with 11, 9, and 8 points. If a A. S. M. E. can take Barracks "A" into camp they will have the title. If the Kings Row Cagers can take this one Wednesday night, it will throw the league into a three-way tie.

Both the Newman Club and Barracks "A" added to their victory strings. Newman Club rolled over the Philistines 47-13 with Mullins, Dempsey, and Kwiatkowski banging the hoop for 15, 10 and 8. Ronnie Schneider, Bob Martin and Tony Lue Broadway paced the Barracks "A" team to an overtime win over the K. A. Confederates 28-22. Dana Burch and Bill Hall were high for the losers.

A. S. M. E.	7-0
Barracks A	6-1
Newman Club	6-1
K. A. Confederates	4-3

Hen Streak Snapped At Six After Garnet Win

Hen Grapplers Top Lafayette by 23-11 W. Chester Here On Saturday

Newark, Del., Feb. 18 (J. J.)

The University of Delaware grapplers stretched their winning skein to three as they topped the Leopards of Lafayette, 23-11, in Carpenter Field House.

Lafayette captured the 121 lb., 128 lb., and 158 lb. classes to take a 11-6 lead, but Tom Runk pinned Paul Lewis, and Paul Catts decided Don Brieby to keep the Hens in the thick of the contest. George Snyder, "Hank" Paris and Captain Ted Youngling all pinned their men in the heavier classes to give Delaware the victory.

Snyder took the 165 lb. class by pinning Jack Mamary in 42 seconds of the second period. Paris pinned his man, William Mulligan, in the same length of time to win the 175 lb. class. Youngling scored the last Hen victory by pinning John Coad in 2:52 of the second period.

The Delaware Frosh dropped a 23-13 decision to the yearling Leopardsmen. The newly-elected freshman captain, Tom Schultz, continued to keep his undefeated slate clean as he pinned Phil Whiding in :56 seconds of the second period to take the heavyweight class.

Tomorrow, Coach Whitey Burnham's matmen go after their fourth straight victory against the Drexel Dragons at Philadelphia. March 3 and 4 the MASCAC Championships will be held in Carpenter Field House.

121 Lbs.: Capt. Stan Person, Lafayette, decided Leonard Clapp, Delaware, 4-1.
128 Lbs.: Charles Kingsman, Lafayette, decided Kenneth Hopkins, Delaware, 3-2.

136 Lbs.: Thomas Runk, Delaware, pinned Paul Lewis, Lafayette, :36 2nd period.

145 Lbs.: Paul Catts, Delaware, decided Don Brieby, Lafayette, 6-0.
158 Lbs.: Rupert Bing, Lafayette, pinned Dave Goodman, Delaware, 1:02 1st period.

165 Lbs.: George Snyder, Delaware, pinned Jack Mamary, Lafayette 42, 2nd period.

175 Lbs.: John Paris, Delaware, pinned William Mulligan, Lafayette 42 2nd period.

Heavyweight: Capt. Ted Youngling, Delaware, pinned John Coad, Lafayette, 2:52 2nd period.
Final Score: Delaware 23; Lafayette 11.

Temple Gymnasts Drop Hens, 76-20

Newark, Del., Feb. 18 (J.J.)

Temple University, the NCAA and ECI gymnastic champions, topped the Delaware Blue Hens 76-20 in a meet held in Carpenter Field House last Saturday.

A crowd of about 250 saw the snappy Owls hand the Blue and Gold squad its fourth defeat in as many meets. Temple's creek performers took first place in all six events, and the Hens were only able to salvage one second place as Jack Byam tied Jim Bernato in the rope climbing event. Captain George Schaan took third place in the parallel bars and fourth place on the rings.

The Hens will meet Lock Haven State Teachers College tomorrow and hope to break into the win column.

Delaware's loss to Swarthmore in the basketball game last Saturday night snapped a six-game winning streak that the Hens had been accumulating since the Haverford victory on January 12. For Swarthmore, P. M. C. and Drexel this Delaware defeat was just what the doctor ordered, since it threw the Middle Atlantic States Conference standings wide open.

The local lads went into the fray in undisputed first place, but came out in a three way tie for the top spot, tied with Swarthmore and P. M. C. Drexel lay a mere half game out of first place also.

Wednesday night's results no doubt changed this order, since the Delaware five journeyed up to meet P. M. C. on the latter's court. A whole host of Delaware fans went up to see this all-important contest, but its results are unknown as the Review goes to press. The visitors are always the underdogs on the Cadets home court because of its small size and poor arrangement, but the fact that the Blue Hens defeated them down here gave much reason for optimism.

On Saturday evening the Delaware basketball team will play its last non-conference game of the season as they meet the teachers of West Chester in Carpenter Field House. The visitors are expected to field one of the best teams to play in these parts this year. As of last Saturday, they had won 12 out of their 14 ball games played this season.

Sparkplug in the West Chester attack is center Art Nazigan who has accumulated volumes of points this season, including a 28 point spree against our beloved rivals from the Smelly City, P. M. C. In the West Chester vs. P. M. C. game last Saturday night at West Chester, Nazigan & Associates drubbed the Cadets 75-53 by scoring no less than 47 points in the second half. They dropped a total of 34 field goals, which is no mean accomplishment.

An action-packed battle is in store for all those who attend Saturday night. In the preliminary game the Delaware Freshmen will meet West Nottingham Academy. The Blue and Gold Frosh are an improved club. It took an extra period and Continued on Page 5

Topsy Overturns Newman Club

Newman Club dropped the opening basketball game of this season last Monday night to the freshman team from Topsy 39-24. Scoring honors for the freshman team were distributed among the forwards Janice Thompson, Hilda McCabe, Shirley King, Captain Ann Catts, Alice Jefferson and Joyce Taylor. Doing a swell job of backing up the sharpshooters were guards Rae Priestley, Joan Greenfield, Mary Little, and Norma Hampstead.

Pacing the Newman Club attack, Ellen McQuaid, Mary Bueche, Doris Sadowski, and Joan Leahy did the scoring, with Joan racking up 14 points in her first game as forward. Captain Margaret Valkyles, Rae Cericola, Alice Gorny, and Ursula De Marie supported their teammates at guard positions.

New Castle Trims Boletus

New Castle B turned in a 43-23 win over Boletus Monday night. In their first performance of the year, the New Castle gals, captained by forward Ginny Graves, did an outstanding job. "Dos" Goodley earned high scoring honors with a neat 16 points, while Janet Ralph and Ruth Clements were close behind with 12 and 10 respectively. Ginny Graves and Jane Wood also helped to spur the New Castle attack.

Providing strong zone defense for the winning team were Nancy Thomas, Barbara Bowers, Collen Ralph and "Rosie" Reed.

Boletus, putting up a close fight during the first portion of the game, was trailing by only 4 points at half-time. During the final quarter Continued on Page 5

Bear, Garnet Frays Spark Cage Action

Swarthmore, Pa., Feb. 18 (B.S.)—The University of Delaware's six game winning streak was snapped by Swarthmore College last Saturday night at Swarthmore. The final count was 55-52.

Capt. Jim Reilly opened the game in typical fashion by bucketing 4 action shots in the first 10 minutes of play, to get the Little Quakers off to a flying start. "Moneybags" Albera teamed up with Johnny Buechele to keep the Hen five within striking distance of the lead. At intermission the scoreboard showed Swarthmore on top 32-26.

After a see-saw battle the Hens knotted the count at 49-49 with three minutes remaining on the scoreboard clock. Reilly then dropped a field goal and Kruzinski retaliated with a foul shot. Place hit from the charity stripe for Swarthmore, but "Moneybags" tied the score 52-52 with an action shot. With 60 seconds to go, Roger Pott made a quick layup for the home team and Reilly followed with a foul shot putting the game on ice.

The score:

Hens Meet Bears In Easy Knockout

Newark, Del., Feb. 16 (B.S.)—The Hardwood Hawks of the U. of D. made the Ursinus Bears seem like lowly cubs last Wednesday night in a basketball game played at the Carpenter Field House as they romped to a 65-49 decision.

"Dodo" Kruzinski banked in a field goal in the first few seconds to give the Hens a lead which was never relinquished.

In the second period "Seed" Emson's charges hit from all angles. This canto produced many thrills. The greatest thrill came when Ace Hoffstein, 5 ft. 5 in. of diminutive dynamite, connected with a 25 yds., 37 1/2 inch set shot, and the crowd went into a frenzy of excitement. They cheered for three full minutes. Ace's dynamic shot increased the Hens lead from 18 to 20 points. As the halftime buzzer sounded, "Buddy" Kee hit the cords with a sensational hook shot and Delaware led 43-23.

When play was resumed, "Seed" cleared the bench in an effort to hold down the score. "Hammer" DeGasperi led the Hen subs with 10 counters. Capt. Bill Forsythe kept Ursinus in the ball game by dropping shots from all angles.

Delaware Host

The Battlefields won going away last year, but strong opposition is expected from Ursinus, Haverford, and Delaware next weekend. Bucknell, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, and Swarthmore will also be represented by teams.

Although they've lost four of their seven conference matches, the Blue Hens figure to score heavily in the tournament. Burnham points to their recent improvement as a good indication of their mounting strength, and he feels that if the applicart is upset, it will be Delaware that does the trick. With Hank Paris and George Snyder in top form and Captain Ted Youngling rolling along with little opposition, Burnham expects to score heavily in the top weights.

If his rapidly improving light-weights can come through, the Blue Hens could possibly slip into the conference crown. Beating Gettysburg, however, will prove to be somewhat of a problem, and Burnham and his fellow Middle Atlantic coaches admit that the Bullets will be tough to top. They're headed by sensational Russ Reigal, the 155 pound Middle Atlantic Champion of three years running who has copped 40 of his 41 collegiate bouts. Reigal's string of 37 consecutive wins was recently snapped by F & M's Charley Cope.

Martin has announced that the preliminaries will be held on Friday evening at 8:00 p. m., and the semi-finals on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. Champions will be crowned on Saturday evening after the finals which are scheduled to begin at 8:00 p. m.

Three nights have been chosen for the presentation of the show—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 25, 26, and 27th. Last year the pageant proved so successful during the two nights it was given that it was decided to extend the show to three nights this year.

a last second shot on the part of the Swarthmore Jayvees to finally defeat them 64-62 on Saturday. The prelimin gets underway at 7:00 p. m., the feature attraction starts at 8:30 p. m. A sizable delegation from West Chester is expected to come down for the game.

Next Wednesday, the Hens will ring down the curtain in Carpenter Field House in their last home game of the 1950 season. They tangle with Haverford College of Haverford, Pa. In the previous meeting of the two teams, on January 12, the Hens came from behind to win out by a slim one point margin in the final few seconds of the play.

Veteran Sol Tollin, a stalwart in conference play for the last four seasons, will lead his squad in a final bid for a play-off berth. Also featured on the Haverford five are Don Amussen and young Paul Bomze, a freshman sensation in the Philadelphia district. The varsity and preliminary games begin at the usual times.

Saturday night's houseparty put the finishing touch on the Sig Ep rushing schedule for this year. George Washington silently but graciously extended his aid in providing a theme for the decorations. Most of the rushees and members were already well acquainted, and this function served to strengthen these friendships. Chaperones for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

A tribute is in order for the rushing committee and its guiding hand Glenn Wright. Brother Wright quietly and efficiently planned and managed this program so vital to the life of a fraternity.

After the loss to KA last week the SPE basketball team's position in the league has slipped. Hampered by casualties the team dropped its early lead in the inter-fraternity loop.

Congratulations are to be extended to "Seed" Walker upon his formal initiation. This raises the active membership to forty-five.

Mention should be made of the plaque which now resides on the east wall of the chapter house. This well-done piece of craftsmanship is the work of graduate "Slim" Mullin who was assisted by Judd Stewart and Bill Burnett.

March of Dimes

Alpha Phi Omega, the service fraternity on campus, has announced that a total of $45.49 was collected for the March of Dimes Campaign.

The small containers in the shape of iron lungs were distributed around the Campus on the 23rd of

Groo To Receive 2nd Lieutenantcy

Richard Dean Groo, executive secretary of the University of Delaware Alumni Association has been commissioned a 2nd Lt. CAC-ORC. Lt. Groo was sworn into office by Lt. Col. Layton A. Zimmer, PMS&T. During the war Lt. Groo served overseas in the European January and collected on the 10th of February.

Seven of the containers were stolen during this three-week campaign. The $45.49 is a decent sum, but imagine how much it would and should have been.

Major Bill Reynolds, Oregon '40 Pilot-Professor, U. S. Air Force!

Bill was an all-round athlete. He chose football as his favorite sport, made the varsity teams at Pomona Junior College and also at the University of Oregon.

A Theta Chi, Bill enjoyed campus social life. Found that it eased the pressure of rugged athletics and his heavy study schedule in Personnel Management.

Upon graduation, Bill chose a future in the Air Force. He "flew" his first Link trainer as an Aviation Cadet in 1940. By March, 1941, he had won his pilot wings.

The 1st Observation Squadron, Fort Riley, Kansas was Lieutenant Reynolds' first assignment. While there he met the future Mrs. Reynolds. They married a year later and now have two fine sons.

The Squadron moved to Panama, then to the Pacific. Bill advanced from pilot to operations officer to squadron commander. He came home a Major and qualified for a Regular Commission.

Recently commended for peacetime work — organizing and improving instruction techniques — Major Reynolds, a "Pilot-Professor", looks forward to a long and gainful career in the U. S. Air Force.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider the many career opportunities as a pilot or navigator in the U. S. Air Force. Procurement Teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for them. You may also get full details at your nearest Air Force Base or U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attn: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
