Philadelphia, November 9th, 1814.

Dear Sir,

I suppose the farm, 152 acres, in Appoquinimink Hundred of Delaware, was sold by the Sheriff, as had been fixed, last month, as had been fixed, as purchased for me, and what price? Be so kind to inform me, that if I am the purchaser, a deed may be drawn and presented to the Sheriff for execution.

It would please me to have it ascertained, whether letters testamentary or of administration have been granted by the Register of Newcastle county on Waer's estate, or not. This certain, that John Clark Esquire & Mr. Henry McCrady were appointed appraisers in that county, by whom I know not.

Your answer as soon as convenient will oblige, dear Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Thos. M'Keal.

James Rogers Esquire.
