COLLEGE SERVICES, EDUCATION AND PUBLIC POLICY

- Advisement and Academic Enrichment Opportunities
- Dean's Scholar Program
- Teacher Education Programs
- Discovery- and Service-Based Learning Opportunities and Clinical Experiences
- Minor in Disabilities Studies

The College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy (CHEP) is an interdisciplinary, professional, service-oriented college that addresses some of the central intellectual and social challenges of our time—those affecting children, families, schools, communities, the environment, consumers and service institutions, and public policies.

CHEP offers undergraduate degree programs through the School of Education and through the Departments of Consumer Studies; Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management; and Individual and Family Studies. In addition, an interdisciplinary major in Human Services, Education and Public Policy is available, as well as three minors: Disabilities Studies, Educational Studies, and Leadership.

ADEVISED AND ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT OPPORTUNITIES

CHEP is committed to students' success and provides the resources and support services that will enable students to fully participate in the opportunities available throughout their undergraduate years. Undergraduates have an unequalled opportunity to gain valuable practical experience that complements their academic studies by participating in internships and practicum experience in schools as well as projects through CHEP's public service and research centers. CHEP also promotes opportunities for students to enhance their undergraduate experience through the Dean's Scholars Program; the CHEP Summer Scholars Program; service, leadership and mentoring experiences; undergraduate research; and study abroad opportunities. Most academic areas offer an Honors degree including research opportunities leading to a senior thesis for the Honors Degree with Distinction or the Degree with Distinction.

The CHEP Office of Student Support Services coordinates orientation activities for new students, supports academic advisement, administers academic policy, and maintains students' records. Students with academic questions or concerns, those interested in becoming involved in special opportunities available to CHEP students, and those experiencing academic difficulties are all encouraged to contact their assigned faculty or professional advisor. For additional assistance and information, CHEP students are welcome to contact the CHEP Office of Student Support Services, 106 Alison Hall West, (302) 831-2301, visit www.udel.edu/chep/osss or email chep-osss@udel.edu.

DEAN'S SCHOLAR PROGRAM

The Dean's Scholar Program exists to serve the needs of students whose clearly defined educational goals cannot be effectively achieved by pursuing the standard curricula for all existing majors, minors, and interdepartmental majors sponsored by the University. Driven by an overarching passion or curiosity that transcends typical disciplinary bounds and curricula, a Dean's Scholar's intellectual interests may lead to broad interdisciplinary explorations of an issue or to more intense, in-depth studies in a single field at a level akin to graduate work. In consultation with faculty advisors... and the Associate or Assistant Dean of their college, Dean's Scholars design an imaginative and rigorous individual plan of study to meet the total credit hours required for graduation. Contact the Assistant/Associate Dean in the college or go to www.udel.edu/deansscholar for more information and the application.

TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Responsibility for the coordination of the teacher education programs rests with the University Council on Teacher Education (UCTE). Teacher education programs in specific areas are administered by the Colleges of Agriculture and Natural Resources; Arts and Science; Health and Nursing Sciences; and Human Services, Education and Public Policy.

For more information on teacher education programs, students who wish to prepare themselves to be certified teachers should consult the teacher education web site at www.udel.edu/teachered or the faculty advisor for the specific area of certification sought, as follows:

In all its teacher education programs, the University of Delaware is guided by a unified conceptual framework. Programs aim to develop teachers who are reflective practitioners serving diverse communities of learners as scholars, problem solvers, and partners. While the specific course requirements in the programs vary widely, they all support the conceptual framework and outcomes. All University of Delaware teacher education programs have a general education component of liberal studies, a major field or discipline component in the teaching field, and a professional education component of formal study in the educational foundational disciplines and clinical studies of curriculum design and instructional strategies. In addition, all teacher education students benefit from early and graduated "hands on" experiential and instructional opportunities in schools. Information on the University of Delaware’s Title II Higher Education Act can be obtained at: www.udel.edu/teachered or by calling 302-831-3000.

STUDENT TEACHING is required of all students who wish to obtain an undergraduate degree in teacher education. To participate in the student teaching program, students must satisfy their program’s course prerequisites and criteria for admission to EDUC 400, Student Teaching, including minimum GPAs. Students must also pass the competencies as established by the University Council on Teacher Education. The appropriate teacher education program advisor (See the list of advisors for teacher education programs) should be consulted for the exact GPA requirements and other policies concerning qualifications for student teaching. Applications for student teaching must be submitted and approved prior to the student teaching semester. Deadlines and procedures for submitting applications for student teaching will be published each year. Students are expected to assume responsibility for their own transportation to and from the schools to which they have been assigned for student teaching.

CERTIFICATION. The professional education unit of the University of Delaware is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The individual teacher education programs have received State Approved Program status and have been recognized by national specialty organizations or by the National Association of State Directors for Teacher Education and Certification as having met their standards. Students who complete a University of Delaware Approved Teacher Education Program receive an institutional recommendation for teacher certification. To be certain of the University’s recommendation, students must complete the Approved Program in its entirety. Upon receiving the University’s recommendation, students must apply for certification through the individual state’s Department of Education. Most states require that students pass a standardized test to qualify for teacher certification. The Delaware Center for Teacher Education has information available to students on the testing requirements and the certification procedures.

DELWARE CENTER FOR TEACHER EDUCATION

The Delaware Center for Teacher Education (DCTE) strengthens both pre-service and in-service teacher education, improves access for the education community to the University’s teacher education and professional development programs, and supports the state’s efforts to enhance teacher and professional development in line with new state content standards and accountability requirements. For further information about DCTE generally, call (302) 831-5000 or visit the web site at www.udel.edu/dcte.

Of the programs and services within DCTE, the following are of particular interest to undergraduates.

The Americorps VISTA program works with schools across the state developing mentoring programs. It places college graduate VISTA members in schools to recruit and organize mentors for students in need. Following a year of service, members admitted to select College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy programs are guaranteed graduate assistantships. For more information call 831-0520 or e-mail Tclower@udel.edu.

The ASPIRE program encourages minority students to pursue a career in teaching. In addition to recruiting qualified minority applicants, ASPIRE provides students in all the University’s teacher education programs with academic support, if needed, and professional development activities.

The Delaware Mentoring Council provides support and technical assistance to mentoring programs throughout the state. For additional information, call 831-0520 or e-mail Tclower@udel.edu.

The Education Resource Center is a multimedia, special purpose curriculum materials center that provides both circulating and reserve collections for use by teachers, students, and administrators. It also houses a site of the Delaware Teacher Center for constructing learning materials for use in classrooms with K-12 students. In addition, the Resource Center coordinates courses for school library media specialist certification. For further information, call (302) 831-2335.

First State Service Corps Americorps programs places undergraduates and graduate students in schools and community settings to design and implement programs for children and youth. For information, call 831-0883 or e-mail lynnpaul@udel.edu.

The Office of Clinical Studies assists faculty in implementing a program of field-based professional practice that includes several sequential phases of increasing involvement and responsibility and in placing students in appropriate clinical settings. For further information, call (302) 831-2319 or e-mail acase@udel.edu.

The America Reads program recruits undergraduates to tutor young children in basic reading skills. For information, call 831-0520 or e-mail Tclower@udel.edu.
knowledge of the legislative process that will be useful in a wide variety of careers. In addition, Fellows become acquainted with state and local elected officials, agency directors, business heads, and community leaders. Selected through a competitive process, Fellows work in Dover for twenty hours per week from January to June and earn a stipend comparable to a research assistantship. For more information contact Lisa Moreland at (302) 831-4955 or e-mail lisamk@udel.edu.

Professional Development Schools have been initiated by the Holmes Partnership, a national network of universities in partnership with schools, to provide professional training in teacher education, much in the way teaching hospitals serve medical education. The University of Delaware is working with several elementary and middle schools in the Christina and Milford School Districts. Some undergraduate students in elementary education complete their clinical requirements at these sites.

The Reading Studies Program offers classes for students in grades K-12 who need help with reading, spelling, and writing. Students’ classroom lessons are supplemented and reinforced with individualized computer programs in the program’s computer lab. The center also provides remedial tutorials for students in secondary schools throughout the Christina School District. Training in the remedial method used by the center is available for teachers, student-teachers, and parents during the summer in Intensive Literacy Instruction (EDUC 524). For further information call (302) 831-2307.

The University of Delaware Laboratory Preschool is administered by the Department of Individual and Family Studies. The Laboratory Preschool, an NAEYC accredited model preschool program, provides appropriate developmental programs for children with and without disabilities; teaches University students to work with young children through classroom practicum experiences; provides opportunities for students, faculty and professionals to observe exemplary preschool programs and teacher role models; enables students to observe children ages two through six so the students can better understand developmental progression; and provides a research site for students and faculty. For further information, contact Alice Eyman, Director (302)831-2304 or e-mail: aeyman@udel.edu.

The Vita Nova/Foodservice Laboratory is managed by the Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management (HRIM) Department and is located on the second floor of the Trabant University Center. The laboratory consists of a student-operated, 65-seat dining room open to the public; a display kitchen; the Copeland Vinotek wine cellar; and a teaching and demonstration kitchen with state-of-the-art video and satellite capabilities. Students in the HRIM program use the facility to understand the challenges and dynamics of operating a business. On a daily basis, students rotate through management and skill-level assignments to learn the details required to exceed guest expectations. For further information, contact Fred DeMicco, Department Chair, (302)831-6077 or e-mail: dlaws@udel.edu.

CHEP Undergraduate Internships and Research Assistantships

CHEP offers students many opportunities for public and community service research assistantships and internships through its research and public service units. Undergraduates are able to work closely with faculty, staff and graduate students on key issues involving children, families, schools, communities, the environment, consumers and service institutions, and public policies. The following CHEP research and public service centers, profiled in detail in the chapter "Research Centers, Institutes, and Special Facilities," offer public and community research assistantships and internship opportunities:

- Center for Applied Demography and Survey Research
- Center for Community Research and Service
- Center for Disabilities Studies
- Center for Energy and Environmental Policy
- Center for Historic Architecture and Design
- Delaware Center for Teacher Education
- Delaware Education Research and Development Center
- English Language Institute
- Institute for Public Administration
- Mathematics & Science Education Resource Center

Minor in Disabilities Studies

The College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy offers a minor in Disabilities Studies, with courses taught by an interdisciplinary team of faculty associated with the Center for Disabilities Studies. The minor in Disabilities Studies requires 18 credit hours, distributed as follows: all core courses listed below (9 credits) and three additional courses (9 credits) selected in consultation with and approved by the student’s minor advisor. These courses shall be chosen from each of the following topic areas: Human Development, Social Systems, and Service Delivery Methods. At least one of these courses must be from outside the requirements of the student’s major and outside his or her major department. All courses included in the minor must be completed with a grade of C- or better.

IIFST/PSYC/SOCI 270 Families and Developmental Disabilities .................................. 3
EDUC 230 Introduction to Exceptional Children .... 3
HEPP 465 Senior Seminar in Disabilities Studies 3
Topic Area Courses ........................................ 9

Information regarding courses recommended in the topic areas and the procedures for completing the minor can be obtained from the Center for Disabilities Studies, 166 Graham Hall, (302) 831-6974.

Consumer Studies

The Department of Consumer Studies addresses the design, development, analysis, delivery and use of products and services through its three undergraduate major courses of study. The Apparel Design major studies the conceptualization and production of products for apparel-related industries to meet consumer needs. The Leadership and Consumer Economics major and the minor in Leadership emphasize leadership studies and interdisciplinary analysis in examining the interaction between the for-profit, private non-profit, and public marketplaces and consumers. The Fashion Merchandising major addresses the planning, production, promotion and distribution of products in fashion industries to meet consumer demand. An Honors Degree option is available for each major. An accelerated degree program is available for students majoring in Leadership and Consumer Economics. With careful planning and advisement, Leadership and Consumer Economics majors have the opportunity to earn a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Public Administration (M.P.A.) degree in less than the usual six years. Additional information is available from the program office.

Students in all majors can benefit from the Department of Consumer Studies’ collaboration with the Center for Historic Architecture and Design. Opportunities are available for students interested in material culture and preservation as they relate to apparel design, historic costume, dress and culture, and contemporary consumer behavior.

Students who wish to change from another major in the University are advised to contact the Department office regarding selection policies and procedures.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINOR IN LEADERSHIP

The Department of Consumer Studies administers the minor in Leadership, which provides an opportunity for students from a variety of disciplines to gain a substantive introduction to the concept of leadership and the application of leadership to designing, managing, and evaluating change in our public, private, and non-profit institutions. The hallmark of the minor is a focus on how vision, integrity, change, communication, decision-making, and evaluation influence leadership and shape change in organizations and in the community.

The minor in Leadership requires 18 credit hours, distributed as follows: all core courses listed below (9 credits) and three additional courses of restricted electives (9 credits) selected in consultation with and approved by the student's minor advisor. One of these restricted electives must be selected from approved COMM courses. The remaining 6 credits must be selected from outside the student's major field of study, and must be chosen from the following topic areas: Leadership in Context; Integrity/Ethics; and/or Leadership Competencies. All courses included in the minor must be completed with a grade of C- or better.

EDUCATION

The School of Education offers undergraduate degree programs in Elementary Teacher Education and Educational Studies. Both majors include an Honors Degree option. The School's exemplary teacher education and specialist programs produce skilled professional educators who are able to work with today's diverse learners. Through their coursework and field experiences, undergraduate teacher education candidates become skilled in developmentally and educationally effective approaches to instruction. With reflective practice as a guiding principle, the School prepares candidates to become scholars who are grounded in the knowledge of their discipline and pedagogy; problem solvers who are able to design effective instruction and address challenges; and partners who can support the development of the children with whom they work. The School of Education is also concerned with the assumptions and decisions whose end result is the act of teaching as well as with such fundamental structures of the educational process as evaluation and measurement, curriculum design, and the history, philosophy and sociology of education.

PROGRAM IN ELEMENTARY TEACHER EDUCATION (INCLUDING SPECIAL EDUCATION)

The Elementary Teacher Education Program is designed to help students meet the following goals:
1. become outstanding general elementary teachers and teachers of exceptional children
2. develop a strong background in the academic subjects taught at the elementary level
3. develop the employment flexibility and security to become a teacher of exceptional children and/or a regular elementary teacher, with additional options in bilingual education, English as a second language, and middle school mathematics or science
4. provide all children, including those with special learning needs, with the best possible education

The current elementary teacher education program has evolved as a result of a determined effort on the part of the faculty to coordinate their efforts with public school personnel in education. Programs of clinical experiences have gradually increased and improved because of the continuing contact with classroom teachers, principals, and administrative officers of local schools. The program curriculum is designed to provide students with a range of practicum experiences in a variety of settings. These practicum experiences begin with observation and tutoring of children in the freshman year and culminate with student teaching in the senior year. These direct experiences in actual classroom settings give the teacher candidate important opportunities to apply the knowledge gained in college courses to his or her work with children and to gain critical on-the-job training.

The program is divided into three general areas. The General Studies area includes courses in the following subject areas: natural sciences, mathematics, social sciences, English/linguistics, and fine arts. A grade of C- or better is required in all of the courses in this area.

The Discipline area provides the teacher candidate with an opportunity to select one of the following disciplines: English, foreign languages, general science, mathematics, social studies, or language studies. A list of the specific courses that comprise each of these areas is available in the School of Education Office. If a student pursues certification in the Discipline area, a grade of C- or better is required in all courses in this area.

The Professional Studies area is designed to develop the candidate's teaching skills. The courses place strong emphasis on the development of teachers who can plan and implement appropriate educational experiences for children of varying levels of ability. A grade of C- or better is required in all of the courses in this area.

APPLICATION FOR CLEARANCE FOR UPPER DIVISION STUDY IN TEACHER EDUCATION

Students enrolled in the Elementary Teacher Education major wishing to begin upper-level work must make formal application and satisfy the requirements for Clearance for Upper Division Study.

Students wishing to pursue teaching as a professional goal should secure a copy of clearance requirements from the School of Education Office, (Room 120, Willard Hall). Students will be notified of deadline dates for making application for clearance.
The purpose of clearance is to assure that each student is satisfying requirements in the major and is prepared to undertake junior-level work including in-school clinical experiences. Students not meeting criteria are provided support services including study skills assistance, vocational counseling, and academic planning.

PROGRAM IN EDUCATIONAL STUDIES

The Bachelor of Arts in Educational Studies program is designed for students who are interested in the subject of education as part of a liberal arts curriculum pursuant to education-related careers that do not directly involve classroom teaching. The degree does not prepare teacher candidates for certification. The program requires students to minor in an Arts and Science field related to education. Application to the program must include a writing sample and a letter indicating specialization interests within the program (normally, the actual or proposed minor). Students are admitted no earlier than their sophomore year and must possess at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA.

The program features intensive attention and guidance by faculty members, including personal advisement and a year-long research project culminating in a senior thesis. During the thesis process, students will intern with an educational researcher (on or off-campus) and will conduct the thesis under the direction of two faculty members. There is significant flexibility regarding the content of the thesis as a function of a student’s background and interests. Students may select the program as a single major or as a double major with a field outside of education. An Honors Degree option is also available.

Students may change to the major in Educational Studies from any program in the University. An application form must be completed and submitted to the Coordinator of the Program along with the writing sample and statement of specialization interests.

CORE CURRICULUM

CREDITS

UNIVERSITY REQUIREMENTS

ENGL 110 Critical Reading and Writing (minimum grade C-) .................. 3

ENGL 110 will be taken by all students as freshmen, except by students who have otherwise demonstrated the skills taught in that course. A score of 710 or higher on the SAT-II Writing Test will be a satisfactory demonstration of basic writing skills. ENGL 110 must be completed by the time a student has earned 60 credits. Students who transfer into the College of Arts and Science with 45 credits or more must complete this requirement within two semesters.

Three credits in an approved course or courses stressing multi-cultural, ethnic, and/or gender-related course content (see p. 66-71) .............................................. 3

BACHELOR OF ARTS

COLLEGE SKILL REQUIREMENTS

Writing: (minimum grade C-) .................. 3

A second writing course involving significant writing experience including two papers with a combined minimum of 3,000 words to be submitted for extended faculty critique of both composition and content. This course must be taken after completion of 60 credit hours. Appropriate writing courses are designated in the semester’s Registration Booklet. (See list of courses approved for second writing requirement, page 100-102.)

Mathematics: (one of the following) .............. 0-4
MATH 113 .................................. Contemporary Mathematics (designed for students who do not intend to continue the study of mathematics)
MATH 114 or MATH 170 College Mathematics and Statistics (designed for students who do not intend to continue the study of mathematics)
MATH 115 or MATH 171 Pre-Calculus (designed for students who intend to continue the study of mathematics)

SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCE ON A PROFICIENCY TEST IN MATHEMATICS ADMINISTERED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES THROUGH THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE ADVISEMENT CENTER. (0 CREDITS AWARDED)

The math requirement must be completed by the time a student has earned 60 credits. Students who transfer into the College of Arts and Science with 45 credits or more must complete this requirement within two semesters.

Foreign Language: ........................................ 0-12
Completion of the intermediate-level course (107 or 112 or 214) in an ancient or modern language. The number of credits needed and initial placement will depend on number of years of high school study of foreign language. Students with four or more years of high school work in a single foreign language may attempt to fulfill the requirement in that language by taking an exemption examination.

Breadth Requirements (See page 102-111)

Group A ........................................ 12
Understanding and appreciation of the creative arts and humanities. Twelve credits representing at least two areas.

Group B ........................................ 12
The study of culture and institutions over time. Twelve credits representing at least two areas.

Group C ........................................ 12
Empirically based study of human beings and their environment. Twelve credits representing at least two areas.

Group D ........................................ 13
The study of natural phenomena through experiment and analysis. A minimum of thirteen credits representing at least two areas including a minimum of one course with an associated laboratory.

HOTEL, RESTAURANT AND INSTITUTIONAL MANAGEMENT

The Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management curriculum leads to a Bachelor of Science Degree (including an Honors Degree option) and is based in liberal arts, business and specialized courses in technical applications for the hotel and restaurant industries. Students are provided a foundation in the traditional academic areas to complement the state-of-the-art business and hospitality courses. The curriculum is structured to provide both a practical and a theoretical education. An integral part of the curriculum is the hospitality-related work experience. A documented and paid student work requirement of 800 hours is required prior to graduation. These combined work experiences assist in the preparation of students for the increasingly complex and challenging hospitality industry.

Transfer student applicants and those wishing to change from another major at the University of Delaware are considered on a space available basis. The chief criterion used in selection is academic performance. Applications are reviewed on January 15, March 15, July 15, and October 15.

Students in the Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management program also have the opportunity to participate in a 4+1+1 MBA program with the College of Business and Economics. With careful planning academically eligible students can complete both their undergraduate degree in Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management and the Master of Business Administration degree in five years of academic study plus a 12 month internship.

HUMAN SERVICES, EDUCATION AND PUBLIC POLICY

The Human Services, Education and Public Policy major combines science, humanities, and social science requirements with a breadth of courses from the College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy. In addition to the Core requirements, which represent the interdisciplinary nature and service-learning focus of the College, students select a Primary Interest Area of at least twenty-four credit hours from among the Interest Areas offered by the academic units in the College. Students also select a Secondary Interest Area, typically in the form of an existing University minor; however, there is an option to individualize the Secondary Interest Area with prior approval from the CHEP Faculty Committee. The selection of each interest area is designed to allow students to explore their own personal and career objectives, while exploring the diverse areas within the CHEP College.

Students who wish to change from another major in the University are encouraged to attend an interest meeting prior to submitting an application. To obtain the application materials and dates for upcoming interest meetings, please contact the CHEP Office of Student Support Services (106 Alison Hall West). For additional information on the CHEP major, please contact:

INTEREST AREA E: FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES EDUCATION

Students desiring certification for teaching Family and Consumer Sciences in grades 5-12 in Delaware schools can major in Human Services, Education and Public Policy. As part of their academic program, they will be advised to complete the necessary content and professional course requirements to meet Delaware’s licensure requirements. (Note: Under this option, the Primary Interest Area will total more than 24 credit hours, reducing elective credits available. Professional courses are not offered each year. Students must consult with their academic advisor to determine availability.) Detailed information on current requirements for certification is available from the Department of Individual and Family Studies. Student teaching requires a GPA of 2.50, a major field index of 2.75, and C- grades in required courses. Additional information is available from the program coordinator.

A student who has already received a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college (which includes a general studies component) can fulfill the requirements for certification in Family and Consumer Sciences below and apply for certification. For details, see Teacher Education Programs in the beginning of this chapter.

INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY STUDIES

The Department of Individual and Family Studies offers undergraduate majors in Early Childhood Development and Education and in Family and Community Services, both with Honors Degree options. The curricula prepare students for challenging careers with individuals and families throughout the lifespan. Graduates become leaders in early education, family support, and human service programs, with many students pursuing advanced study. In particular, students use this program as preparation for advanced degrees in school counseling and social work.

The major in Early Childhood Development and Education is designed for students who plan on working with children in a variety of educational settings, including schools, preschools, early care and education and home-based programs. The Early Childhood Development and Education major allows students to choose one of four certification options: Early Care and Education, Early Childhood Special Education, a dual certification in Early Care and Education and Early Childhood Special Education, and a dual certification in Early Care and Education and Primary Education (kindergarten through 4th grade). Certification requirements for state approved early childhood programs can be met by completing the identified course work for each certification option. The program emphasizes developmentally appropriate, family-centered practices to meet the needs of all children, including those with disabilities.

Students in the Family and Community Services major choose one of two concentrations. The Human Services Concentration is designed for students wishing to work within public and private agencies serving clients, infants through the aged, and their families. Combining course work and clinical experiences, the program of study prepares graduates for positions in direct client services and/or management and administration in a variety of institutional and community settings.

The Family Research Concentration is designed for students with broad interdisciplinary interests and whose career plans may require subsequent graduate education. Students undertake a substantial research experience and develop an area of interest in a related field. Individualized programs prepare students for careers in government work, policy, advocacy, health, and social services.

Selection and retention policies for the Early Childhood Development and Education and Family and Community Services majors have been established and must be followed. In addition, there are limitations on the number of students who can be enrolled in each major. Students are responsible for travel arrangements and costs for clinical/internship experiences.
