SPAN 490 Capstone Seminar in Hispanic Literature

Intensive capstone seminar conducted in Spanish and devoted to the study of a selected aspect of transatlantic Hispanic literature over time. The overarching goal is to synthesize prior literary and cultural studies in Spanish through immersion in an area that integrates and expands student's existing knowledge. The seminar emphasizes independent research and intensive critical writing.

Explain, when appropriate, how this new/revised curriculum supports the 10 goals of undergraduate education: http://www.ugs.udel.edu/gened/

As a capstone experience, this course is designed to cover the full spectrum of educational goals. Its aim is to engage senior Spanish Studies majors in a learning experience that is at once synthetic, reflective, creative, and integrative. To this end, students will apply what they have in prior classes in Hispanic literature and culture to work independently and collaboratively in critically solving problems and addressing issues related to the reality of the Hispanic world.

Identify other units affected by the proposed changes:
(Attach permission from the affected units. If no other unit is affected, enter “None”)
None

Describe the rationale for the proposed program change(s):
(Explain your reasons for creating, revising, or deleting the curriculum or program.)

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures wishes to make further strides towards fulfilling the ideal educational experience as envisioned by the College of Arts and Sciences and the University as a whole by providing its majors with a capstone experience.

The list of courses accepted for Related Work has been revised in accordance with current course offerings: courses which no longer exist have been deleted, relevant newly created courses have been added, and number changes have been recorded.
