   A. Announcements for Challenge: None

   B. Resolutions:
1. Recommendation from Senator Carroll Izard with the concurrence of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee (Avron Abraham, Chair) to commend President David P. Roselle for his accomplishments at the University of Delaware

Whereas, President Roselle has considerably strengthened the infrastructure and financial resources of the University during both lean and prosperous times, and

Whereas, he shows genuine concern for increasing excellence in scholarship and research through his support of competitive faculty salaries and an unprecedented increase in endowed professorships, and

Whereas, faculty and administrators across the nation have acknowledged him as an excellent University President who recognizes and encourages all academic programs and academic support units of the University of Delaware, and

Whereas, on being congratulated for his achievements in the University, he demurely replies: “It’s not about me. It’s about our colleagues and the things that are happening at the University,” be it therefore

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate recognizes that the accomplishments and strides made by the University of Delaware during the past 15 years, are in significant measure attributable to President David P. Roselle.
