THE SECRETARY OF STATE

WASHINGTON

April 20, 1940.

My dear Messersmith:

I am glad indeed to get your letters of recent date. We had a hard fight on the trade agreements measure.

I am much interested in the subject matter of your letters, and wish I had time to write you at length.

Am glad you are moving along nicely. I trust that you and Mrs. Messersmith are well and pleased with your new location.

My best regards,

The Honorable
George S. Messersmith,
American Ambassador,
Havana.
