PROGRAMS AND PRIZES
Delta Phi Anniversary

Seventy-First Anniversary of the Delta Phi Literary Society in College Oratory, June 20, 1905.

Prayer.

Society Address .................................................. E. F. Warrington

Music.

Address ............................................................. Mr. E. M. Baker

"The Man Jesus and Democracy."

Music.

Farewell Address ................................................ F. B. Evans

Benediction.

COMMITTEE ON PROGRAMS.

G. M. Fisher, Jr.  E. W. Warrington  L. L. Cooper
Athenæan Anniversary

The Seventy-First Anniversary of the Athenæan Literary Society of Delaware College, June 19, 1905.

Music ........................................... Selection by Orchestra
Address ........................................... "The Value of Society Training."
                                 W. E. Harkness, Jr.
Music ........................................... By Orchestra
Oration ........................................... "The Maid of Orleans"
                                 C. P. Messick.
Music ........................................... By Orchestra
Address ........................................... "The Successful Dreamer"
                                 Rev. John McElmoyle, M. A.
Music ........................................... By Orchestra
                                           Benediction.
Junior Promenade

Held in the New Gymnasium
February 23, 1906

PATRONESSES.

- Mrs. Wolf
- Mrs. Penny
- Mrs. Short
- Mrs. Dawson
- Mrs. Foord
- Mrs. Houghton
- Mrs. Robinson
- Mrs. Neale
- Mrs. McCaskey
- Mrs. Freudenberger
- Mrs. Smith
- Mrs. Conover

COMMITTEES

INVITATIONS AND PROGRAMS

- H. D. Griffin
- T. B. Smith
- L. E. Voss
- O. A. Hudson
- W. Singles

REFRESHMENT.

- P. F. Rossell
- F. S. Price
- J. H. Perkins

DECORATION.

- W. M. Francis
- C. P. Messick
- E. L. Cain
- G. W. Francis
- H. W. Ridgely
- R. J. McFariin
- E. Buckmaster
- S. B. Stine
- H. M. Price
- W. V. Cullen
- W. Homewood

MUSIC.

- C. O. Diffenderfer
- C. Blake
- W. Homewood

FLOOR.

- P. H. Keppel
- J. C. Smith
- G. F. Stevens
- F. F. Warrington
- H. Crossan

Music by Cook's Orchestra.
CLASS OF 1905

Commencement Exercises
JUNE 21, 1905

Annual Address ........................................ Hon. John Biggs
Commencement Orators
........................................ F. B. Evans
........................................ R. B. Frazer, Jr.
........................................ E. W. Warrington

Class Day Exercises
JUNE 19, 1905

Class Oration .............................................. F. B. Evans
Class History ............................................. L. L. Cooper
Class Prophecy ........................................... R. B. Frazer, Jr.
SENIOR BANQUET
of the Class of 1905

JUNE 16, 1905

At the Bellevue-Stratford,
Philadelphia

TOASTS.

Toast-Master ........................................... Frank B. Evans
Blue Hen's Chickens ................................ E. W. Warrington
Our Sweethearts ....................................... L. L. Cooper
Our Metropolis ........................................ W. F. Bevan
Funny Side of Our Classmates ................. T. M. Gooden, Jr.
Dixie .................................................... R. W. E. Bowler
Love ..................................................... H. W. Lyndall
Sussex .................................................... E. C. Davis
Booze .................................................... S. M. D. Marshall
Separation ............................................. R. B. Frazer, Jr.
Held at Clayton House, Wilmington, Del.
January 26, 1906

TOASTS.

Toastmaster .................................................. W. F. Wingett
“Prospects” .................................................. J. H. Raymond
“Class Spirit” ............................................... James Adkins
“The Faculty” ............................................... S. L. Hamilton
“Old Delaware” ............................................. Herbert L. Whiteford
Inter-Society Debate
For the Alumni Prize

March 2, 1906

At the College Oratory

DEBATE.
Resolved, "That Labor-Unionism has exerted a beneficent Influence on the Industrial Development of the United States."

AFFIRMATIVE.
Delta Phi
A. J. Stockly,
W. F. Wingett,
H. A. Miller,

NEGATIVE.
Athenaean
S. L. Hamilton,
J. C. Smith,
C. P. Messick.

Music by College Orchestra.

JUDGES.
W. W. Knowles, Esq., Wilmington,
Dr. Howard Bratton, Elkton, Md.,
Prof. Foord, Delaware College.

M. A. C. vs. Delaware Debate

March 23, 1906

In the College Oratory

Music .................................................. College Orchestra
Address of Welcome .............................. President Geo. A. Harter
Response ........................................ Professor B. M. Bomberger of M. A. C.

DEBATE—
Resolved, That Labor Unionism has exerted a beneficent influence on the industrial development of the United States.

JUDGES.
Henry C. Conrad, Esq.,
Charles Earl, Esq.,
Robert H. Richards, Esq.

Affirmative ........................................ L. F. Zerkel
of M. A. C.
Negative ........................................... S. L. Hamilton
of Delaware
Music .............................................. College Orchestra
Affirmative ........................................ M. H. Adams
of M. A. C.
Negative ........................................... E. F. Warrington
of Delaware
Music .............................................. College Orchestra

REBUTTAL.
Decision of Judges: Unanimously in favor of Delaware
Music .............................................. College Orchestra
TEMPERANCE ORATION

Under the Auspices of the Department of Scientific Temperance Instruction of W. C. T. U.

In the College Oratory, March 26, 1906

PROGRAM

1. Music ................................................. College Orchestra
2. Oration ............................................. "Alcohol the Enemy of Humanity"
   Mr. Jacob Taubenhaus
3. Oration ............................................. "Warning Against Intemperance"
   Mr. C. P. Messick
4. Oration ............................................. "Liquor Laws in the Eye of Political Science"
   Mr. E. F. Warrington
5. Music ................................................. College Orchestra
6. Oration ............................................. "Scientific Investigation and Instruction"
   Mr. G. A. Papperman
7. Oration ............................................. "Drink Versus Manhood"
   Mr. S. L. Hamilton
8. Oration ............................................. "Alcoholism and Degeneracy"
   Mr. W. E. Harkness, Jr.

Presiding Officer ..................................... Rev. W. J. Rowan, Ph. D
Judges:—Messrs. Brooks, Carroll and Spaid, County Superintendents of the Public Schools of Delaware.

Result:—
   First Prize of $35.00:—G. A. Papperman.
   Second Prize of $15.00:—S. M. Hamilton.
ORATORICAL CONTEST

In the College Oratory
March 9, 1906

Music .............................................. College Orchestra
“America” ......................................... Joseph E. Newman, '08
Music .............................................. College Orchestra
“The Confederate Flag” .......................... D. Ewell Atkins, '08
Music .............................................. College Orchestra
“William McKinley” .............................. William C. Draper, Jr.

The judges, Rev. John McElmoyle, of Elkton, W. S. Prichett, Esq., of Wilmingto mington, and George S. Messersmith, Esq., Principal of the Newark Public Schools, awarded the prize to William C. Draper, Jr., '08.
ORATORICAL CONTEST

BETWEEN

S. L. HAMILTON
ORATION
"THE BURNING GLASS"

AND

E. F. WARRINGTON
ORATION
"OUR ARISTOCRACY"

HELD IN THE College Oratory
Wednesday, April 11, 1906
8.15 P.M.

The Judges: Prof. Geo. S. Messersmith, Mr. Chas. Blandy, Mr. A. R. Spade.

Decision rendered in favor of S. L. Hamilton