Dear [Name] -

I have been wanting to write you but I have been working so hard I have not had a chance to sit down and write a letter. I have been spending most of my time in Cuernavaca and have been working on some books. I have been feeling much better today, and I am writing to you to let you know that I am still alive.

I was in Houston a few weeks ago, and I was surprised when you called me. I was not expecting to hear from you so soon. I hope you are doing well.

I am feeling much better now, and I am looking forward to seeing you soon. I will be in Mexico City next week, and I hope to see you then.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
Your points, for I can't bear them. That heavy on me like a stone. Now I think I feel somewhat better, but it is a slow process, and you know my temperament.

Marie has finished with the dentist, and everything seems to be over, but she has counting up last night. She had him to see the dentist 41 times in about 7 weeks.

Some kids are still in New York at the hotel, broke with grace. He is leaving the home, protracted dental visits done. He phoned me he had talked with you, and Mother is home from the hospital for some days and that she is well.
she will rapidly be able to forget her tragic experience.

Here the rains are letting up but we shall have flood waters. The heavy rains in all our dams, and for the first time in decades, the dams all over the country are full. The dam all over the country are full. The dam all over the country are full. The dam all over the country are full. The

All depends on the understanding of The new process and the change after Dec. 1 - But we at the last we shall have hard bedding, the journey has taken us a very long deal.

We are now having questions back tomorrow, but still in Europe and is taking a few week holiday there.

The election is time and soon to be over, but I can't get excited about them.

We shall have the same problems with the Democrats in control and the same attitudes. Like as between Nelson Rockefeller and Ronald Reagan - I know them both. So well that there is no real choice.

There's so much to talk about
and letters are a poor vehicle.
Much love and much love to you all—
Always faithfully,
