Dear Demiel - I haven't written for some time as we have had so many house guests and will do as well until you come to the house. I went to a party when we returned to the house. I sent you a telegram some days ago and got your letter, I telegraphed again to see if you got mine. It is almost impossible to put in a long distance call - the lines are too busy. I got your letter and read it too.

The act of the ladies to Abe and to Peace is really extraordinary. I read it too. Your letter to Abe is really extraordinary. I read it too.

It is the memory of a young woman, but an event. It is the memory of a young woman, but an event.

Memory, Memory. My memory is not very good, but memory.

I don't complete with you.

The last in a line that is far too interesting for all that is happening is too important to

The worst of it is that in our country

The worst of it is that in our country

We are not invited to places where we

We are not invited to places where we

We are not invited to places where we Capacity has gone down - perhaps it has been too easy and men when things are hard - our American men are not up to the job. Inventor ism meddling is nearly a menace to an industry. I hope we will pull through.

Then just now that Thomas look the United States Treasury. You will wish to read it. It is a good book and what he writes about will cause a lot of discussion. In general the first Jenny. He is probably right in his major premises. He is really a first class man. He has the essential mind - a keen perception - and my good judgment.

We have really serious problems in the Company and have a Board meeting in Mr. Tom tomorrow. I will go up in the morning and hope to arrive in time for I may make a trip by plane to Washington in January or there may be some things I can do - though I said not to go. If I do go I may even fly to New York for at least a day or so we can have a visit. Please do not mention this proposal to anyone, as I prefer my plans not to be known for the present.

Frank has been away for 3 or 4 t days and will return this week. He is busy with a Board meeting in Toronto, Quebec on Jan 8 and then makes a trip back to Brussels before returning to Mexico, about Jan 24.

The Minister Coordinator of the Embassy of Cale, the Mexican Consul in the Embassy of Cale, the Mexican Consul in the Embassy of Cale, the Mexican Consul in the Embassy of Cale Stop. This is a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly a truly
From the tone of the letter, it seems that the writer is going to a social event and is looking forward to it. The letter is addressed to someone named John, and the writer mentions that they are writing in a hurry. The letter also includes a mention of Christmas and New Year's Eve, suggesting that the letter was written around the holiday season. The writer expresses their desire for a good time and a happy New Year. The letter is written in cursive handwriting, which makes it a bit difficult to read in some places.