Dear Jimmy,

I'm still not dictating which explains why I have not written you or your father. I'm feeling much better.

The critics persist but the nervousness is my normal state and I am much, my normal state and very much,

How is your father? I hope all is going well. Please write me a line as to how he is getting on. The troubles for the company yet and the common dividend will have to be passed. In short but the only thing to do. It is impossible for me with all my years to do.

fully appreciate what the circumstances are and that aren't too bad. They have the situation under control. It isn't quite as bad as it seemed to be beyond their control now. I don't have a very clear answer from December.

This is just a hurried note. Let's be done with this. I have to be done with it. I am to all the families. Let me have just a word about your father.

Always faithfully,
