List new courses required for the new or revised curriculum. How do they support the overall program objectives of the major/minor/concentrations)?

(Be aware that approval of the curriculum is dependent upon these courses successfully passing through the Course Challenge list. If there are no new courses enter “None”)

Explain, when appropriate, how this new/revised curriculum supports the 10 goals of undergraduate education: __http://www.ugs.udel.edu/geden/_

Identify other units affected by the proposed changes:

(Attach permission from the affected units. If no other unit is affected, enter “None”)

None.
Describe the rationale for the proposed program change(s):
(Explain your reasons for creating, revising, or deleting the curriculum or program.)

Although these are optional concentrations, it has been difficult for students to take the courses required for this concentration without delaying graduation.

Program Requirements:
>Show the new or revised curriculum as it should appear in the Course Catalog. If this is a revision, be sure to indicate the changes being made to the current curriculum and include a side-by-side comparison of the credit distribution before and after the proposed change.

Currently the concentration option is listed at the end of the applied nutrition, dietetics and nutritional sciences course listing in the online catalog. The concentration section can be deleted in its entirety for each major. This will not change the major requirements in any way.
