

Oct. 9. 57

Dear Jimmy -

Many thanks for your interesting letter of Oct. 6 and the news about the changes in Brussels and your comment. I shall be interested in the next action - and its results. Did I understand correctly from your letter that C. W. is no longer on speaking terms with Adolphe Meyer? I always said that Meyer would use C. W. as long as he was useful to him, and then drop him like a hot potato!

I'm sorry to hear about your mother and her hospital stay. I hope she will soon feel entirely fit, and give her our love and hopes that she will soon be home. I know what hospital stays are even in the best hospitals, and I'm hoping not to have to make another. The treatment I'm going there seems to be helpful - but I shall be happy when I feel more like my normal self again.

Mr Perry Jones had a flare up of arthritis. She may never have a return, one never knows, but it is one of the milder ills to which we all are subject.

I appreciated you + your thinking of my birth day and your Telegram. Thanks for the news of your father. Mr 85 he is almost incredible.

This is just a word to tell you how much I appreciate your letter.
I shall be writing your mother very soon.
I have scores of letters I should write but I simply can't get myself to write long laoid letters, and up to now I have no secretary.

Mrs. Cydon has a job and they have built themselves a house in the Lakes, and her children keep her busy when she is home. Mrs. Fox de Aguirre who also did work for me, is so busy with her time in the company that she really can't do anything for me.

I shall have to find some one who is really competent to replace them, and in whom I can have confidence, and that isn't too easy. I will not find any one so competent & trustworthy as Mrs. Cydon and Mrs. Fox de Aguirre are.

Marion joins in love & good wishes to you & Jane & the family —

Always faithfully

George
