ROTENONE SUGGESTED FOR GARDEN

Victory Gardeners buying rotenone dust in quantities of one pound or less, may use these insecticides for all garden crops, through WPB's amendment to the rotenone restriction, says Paul L. Rice, associate entomologist for the University of Delaware.

The original restrictions, set up to conserve limited supplies of rotenone, set it aside for use only on peas for control of pea aphid and pea weevil, beans for control of Mexican bean beetle, and cole crops other than cabbage. Substitutes are generally poisonous, but can be used on such crops as cabbage, from which exposed parts need not be used.

Victory Gardeners buy in small quantities, however, and one small purchase of rotenone is probably sufficient for the entire garden, without additional purchases or serious reduction of the total supply. The amendment simply permits the use of rotenone left over from crops on which it is essential for others on which it is also the best insecticide. And it also saves the gardener's buying other insecticides for these other crops.

So you can use rotenone on any of your garden crops, provided you do not buy more than one pound in dust form or one pint in spray form.

"Postman Hasn't Rung Once"

The satisfaction of having the last house on the corner (or the first, according to the way you look at it) goes to John and Evelyn Torrisi who have just hung out the "At Home" shingle at 312 E. Park Place. (Congratulations). The only one who hasn't visited them is the postman—who hasn't struck out into that uncharted territory yet.

"Home's Where You Hang Your Heart"

They listened to the nostalgic tune "I wanna go back to West Virginia," and five of the gals trekked home for a short stay. They're back now—and busily at work Vivian Janney, Dorothy Drake, Jane Greshouse, Vonna Belle Moore, Julia Adonos.

"A Slight 'Slight'"

Mouths were stretched into gape-shape last Sunday night, as magical wonders were performed, at the Newark Community Center. Then Maggie Martyn dipped into her game collection and came out with some gleamers. Another bow to Maggie for sharing her love for fun with the other WOW's. This is the third Sunday Maggie has helped with the Community Center program. Good for her!

"Baseball Bats"

Orchids and Guffaws to Jimmy Greenwood who "shortcut" from second base to home without the formality of stopping at third... and to Doc Loter, whose efficiency as catcher was somewhat impeded when his stomach kept him from stooping to reach for the ball. (Oh, for the slim-as-a-jack-knife days).

Quite a few of the Newark MOW's (Male Ordinance Workers) find time to pitch a few in Elkton before they leave for home—Cecil Phelps, Frank Chaiken, John Torrisi, David Douglas, Ens. Ray Tritton—and lots more.

"They Saw It Happen"

Your correspondent got a V-mail note from a Stars and Stripes staff writer who saw the end of "Act I", in North Africa. He writes—"I was in Bizerte when the snipers were still very much all over the place, when Jerry was still shelling from across the lake. —And it was the craziest thing in the world, because I was drinking wine and singing National Anthems with a small bunch of British, Americans, French, while shells were ripping off rooftops just a couple of blocks away—and a tank was blasting away at a machine gun nest at the corner. From there we went to Tunisia where everybody started kissing us and giving us wine and clapping and cheering, and it was wonderful!"

SURE SHOT

Coach Bill Gillespie at the Newark High School has not lost any of his ball playing ability as he demonstrated that fact Saturday when the University of Delaware Alumni defeated the members of the faculty by a score of 11 to 8.

Coach Gillespie and Coach Bill Murray of the University had quite a pitching duel and it looked as if Coach Gillespie had a shade the best of the college coach.

Paul Griffith was the batting sensation of the day and can that Griffith boy hit the ball? Well, Paul lined out a nice home run for the Alumni.

Dr. Joe Gould was a sensation in the outfield and proved that economics or no economics you have to put out your hand to catch the ball and Doc sure did catch a lovely fly.

I trust that everyone went to the Newark High School last Friday evening when the senior class held their annual class night exercises. Those of you who did not go really missed the treat of your lives.

That Dick Robinson sure had the audience in an uproar. To be honest all the folks on the stage were good, and I mean real good. That Hitler act was swell. Dick should go on the stage instead of wasting his time in the army. But there is the possibility that he can get to Germany and impersonate that guy Hitler and then he could play a joke on the Nazi bunch.

Word has just been received that Coach Bill Gillespie has made arrangements for the To Be's (that is the boys at the Newark High School that will be in the service real soon) to play the college faculty this Friday evening a game of ball.

All you baseball fans will sure want to attend this game because coach Gillespie is some pitcher and those boys of his are some ball players.

The students of the Newark High School had a dance last Friday evening but it looks as if they get more kick out of intermission. One of the school's star football players must be afraid that his girl would get away from him. He was seen walking along Academy Street holding her hand.

The test air raid on Tuesday night was a real success it has been reported by Civilian Defense officials and the siren up at the top of the hill could be heard faintly. No fooling — I thought that the town was at fault for that siren being put away up at the edge of town but I just was informed that a certain person who was formerly Chief Air Raid Warden wanted it put there so he would be sure to hear it.

It is reported that residents of East and West Park Place are going to install one of those betting machines that they have at the race tracks so that they can place bets on the autos that speed along those streets.

I read a funny story in another paper recently where a man was stopped by OPA officials and accused of pleasure driving. He said what do you mean pleasure driving? He then said that he paid the state $20 for a car license; $5 to the government for a stamp that entitled him to use his car; twenty cents a gallon for gasoline and to top it off his mother-in-law was on the front seat with him. Do you call that pleasure driving, he said.

Two soldier boys from Newark were made happy last week-end when their wives, Mrs. Glenn Taylor and Mrs. Haywood Todd journeyed to Camp Robinson, Arkansas, just to have a few days with their husbands. That is real love.

Mrs. Hudson, the society editor and bookkeeper for the Newark Post would like to go see her husband who is stationed somewhere in North Africa but she feels that it is too far to walk. She would have to walk part way as she only has a "B" ration book.

The town of Newark has done right well for itself. The town started the new year free of debt and now with five months gone by there is a cash balance on hand of $34,603.39. Not bad at all. How do they do it? Well, they have a little Gold Mine in their light contract and their water works. During the month of May the town just cleared $7,137.17 over their disbursements.

Mike Gillespie was the victim in an imaginary incident on Tuesday night during the test air raid. Mike was supposed to have received a broken arm. He was given first aid at the scene of the supposed accident and then taken to the casualty station where Dr. Downes, the medical officer in charge, examined the patient. Mike said that if his arm was not really broke at first, it felt like it when Doc got done with him.

The seniors at the Newark High School finally walloped the sophomore baseball team to win the championship and are they proud of themselves. Out of 11 hits, they only crossed the pan for 3 runs and they only made them in the final inning after the younger kids were tired out.

'BILL' GILLESPIE'S PITCHING GIVES U. OF D. ALUMNI 11-8 VICTORY OVER FACULTY

Paul Griffith's Home Run Is Sensation of Game; Coach Murray Hits Home Run And Triple; Young Scores 3 Runs

The baseball game between the University of Delaware faculty and Alumni was the highlight of Alumni Day at the university on Saturday and resulted in the Alumni beating the faculty 11 to 8.

The faculty took the lead in the first frame when they nicked Coach Bill Gillespie for 6 runs but the Alumni came back in the second inning to gather in 4 runs.

The Alumni gathered in three runs in the third and the faculty annexed two more. Jimmy Young's tally in the fifth frame tied the score 8 to 8 and the Alumni gathered in three more runs in the sixth to win the game.

Coach Bill Gillespie struck out five players against two for Murray.

Paul Griffith's homer in the sixth proved the sensation of the game.

It is reported that Coach Gillespie will attempt to secure another game with the University faculty.

The sensational fielding of Dr. Joe Gould was good for a lot of applause from the stands.

Surf Fishing Restrictions Partially Relaxed

Captain E. A. Coffin, District Coast Guard Officer of the Fourth Naval District, has announced that restrictions on surf fishing along the South Jersey-Delaware coast have been partially relaxed, effective June 1. The text of his notice to the public is published below.

"Persons will be permitted to surf fish along the beaches of the Fourth Naval District — during daylight hours — except at such places where 'no loitering' or 'no parking' notices have been posted.

"Where such notices have been posted, consideration may be given to permit surf fishing under special circumstances by addressing requests to the Commanding Officer, District No. 5, Second Service Command, U. S. Army, Chestnut & Hamilton ave., Trenton, N. J.

"In certain sections of the branch — paralleled by boardwalks — surf fishing may be restricted by local ordinances." The notice modified instructions issued by Captain Coffin on April 15, 1943, in which he warned that "surf fishing is prohibited by Army beach regulations except on beaches paralleled by boardwalks — and there during daylight only.

1942 Soybean Loans Must Be Paid July 1

Commodity Credit Corporation loans to farmers on 1942 soybeans must be paid not later than July 1, Clarence E. Ocheltree, Chairman of the Delaware Agricultural Adjustment Agency, announced today. They become the property of the Commodity Credit Corporation after that date in settlement of the loan.

They must be paid either in cash or by delivery of the crop to the Commodity Credit Corporation. Notes held by private lending agencies will be purchased by the Chicago office of the Commodity Credit Corporation on July 1.

Farmers holding soybeans under CCC loans should immediately consult their County Agricultural Conservation Association office.

Powell, Rothrock and Cashell were the scoring stars for the seniors while that flashy Brandon Davis scored the lone run for the sophomore class. Don Huston was the hitting star with two singles and a double. Jack Powell proved the slugger with two triples.

BASEBALL AROUND THE CLOCK

Swing Shift Ball Planned By Phillies

Playing around the clock — or "swing shift" baseball — is the novelty that will be introduced by the Phillies when they return to Shibe Park on June 15. William D. Cox, club president, devised a brand new method of offering big league baseball at "off hours" to get the reactions of War workers.

Five games in three days will be on the "Swing Shift" program in Philadelphia. The 45 innings, (or more) of baseball will extend over a span of 12 hours — from 11 A. M. to something like 11 P. M. The up-and-at-'em Boston Braves will be the Phillies opponents.

Here's the schedule for playing around the Shibe Park clock:

Tuesday, June 15 — Forenoon-afternoon double header; first game starting at 11 A. M. (Ladies Day).

Wednesday, June 16 — Night game under the floodlights, starting at 9 P. M.

Thursday, June 17 — Afternoon-twilight double header; first game starting at 3 P. M.

A glance at the schedule for the Bill Cox model of "Swing Shift" baseball will show that, in the course of 3 days, there will be activity on the Shibe Park diamond during any 3 hours a fan may find most convenient to seek recreation at the ball game, in the 12-hour span between 11 A. M. and 11 P. M.

One admission fee will entitle a customer to watch both games of the two double headers. Tuesday is the day for workers on the night shift, (12 midnight to 8 A. M.), and since it is Ladies Day, he can bring his wife or sweetheart for an additional twenty-five cents. When their 8 hours of toil are completed, they can enjoy breakfast and arrive at the park in plenty of time to hear the umpire holler "Play Ball" at 11 o'clock. A worker who punches the out-going clock at noon can hurry to the 21st and Lehigh Stadium and see the late innings of the first game and all of the second contest.

The game under the arcs, Wednesday night, is one of 12 to be played at Shibe Park by the Phillies. It fits into the "playing around the clock" schedule because it will provide entertainment at the ball game for fans who are at leisure only after dark.

The afternoon-twilight double header on Thursday is a brand new idea in the majors and should appeal to War workers who are seeking recreation between the hours of 3:15 and 8:30 P. M. A fan who is released from his job at 4 o'clock, say, can see most of the first game, and all of the second game, by proceeding directly to Shibe Park.

The Phillies president is playing around the clock in the series with Boston to provide an opportunity for all fans in the Greater Philadelphia area to see the team that Bucky Harris has remodelled into the talk of the National League. Cox is saying to the War workers, in effect, no matter what your off hours may be, you will find a ball game in progress at Shibe Park on one of the 3 days when the Phillies will be playing around the clock — Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 15, 16 and 17.

Swing shift baseball is an experiment that may or may not be continued by the Phillies. Its future is up to the fans.

TO BE'S VS. COLLEGE

Game Will Be Played Friday

The To Be's at the Newark High School will play the University of Delaware faculty baseball team on Friday at 6 o'clock.

The To Be's at the high school are those boys who have graduated and are waiting to be inducted into the armed services of their country.

The lineup of the To Be's will consist of Coach Bill Gillespie on the mound. Don Huston will be back of the plate and DuVal Cleaves will hold down the first sack. Cliff Lee will cover second base with Harry Morrow at short and Bob Phillips on third.

The faculty lineup has not been released but it is expected that Head Coach Bill Murray will do the hurling with Ed Prince back of the plate.

Blue Hens To Play Fort duPont Tonight

The University of Delaware baseball team will play the soldiers from Fort duPont at Frazer Field this evening at 6 o'clock it was stated by Ed Prince, business manager of athletics at the university.

He will find two additional Cox innovations at Shibe Park which have pleased the customers. One is the posting on the score board of the official scorer's decision on a batted ball that could be called either a hit or an error. The other is the printing of each player's individual batting average, up to the game time, in front of his name in the score card.

The final game was played last Friday and the seniors scored eleven hits. The sophomores were limited to 4 hits.

Jack Powell lined out two batters for the seniors and Brandon Davis a triple for the sophomores. Rothrock also hit a triple for the senior class. Powell, Rothrock and Cashell were the plate for the seniors and Brandon Davis was the lone scorer for the sophomore class.

Brandon Davis' run in the first frame gave the sophomores the lead but the seniors were held scoreless in the seventh inning when they won their three runs.

1943 A.A.A. Benefit Payments Modified

Full benefit payments will be allowed by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency to Delaware Farmers who were unable to plant 90 percent or more of the war-crop goals because of floods in the cold, wet spring, Clarence E. Ocheltree, Chairman of the Delaware Agricultural Conservation Committee, said today.

Under the 1943 AAA program a farmer adopted war-crop production goals for his farm and his benefit payments were contingent on his planting at least ninety-percent of the total goal.

This modification of the program was urged by the War Food Administration to encourage farmers to plant late crops on acreage where abnormal rains interfered with their war crop planting.

POMONA GRANGE IN MEETING

Reports From County Show Activities Conducted

Newark, June 10th — The New Castle County Pomona Grange held its regular session Thursday evening in the Women's Club Building, Newport, with about 50 members present.

The meeting was presided over by the Master Edward Megginson of the Hill Grange, who welcomed the members. The response was made by Walter Carpenter of Center Grange.

Reports from the granges throughout the county showed many activities during the past quarter, even though meetings are not being held according to the usual schedule, even though OPA authorized farmers to go to their own sessions by automobile for the purpose of farm problems. Granges have already eliminated programs and held as held previously, and do not have refreshments at meetings.

Harry Bracklin, Chaplain of the Grange, conducted a Memorial Service for three members, namely, Edna Grandhomme of Center Grange, Mrs. Edna Pordham and Arthur Bracklin, both members of Delaware Grange of Newport.

Officers unable to be present at the various installation were installed during the evening. These included Mrs. Harry Bracklin, Chaplain; John Nivin, Treasurer; and Lewis Phipps, Frank Megginson and B. B. Taylor, members of the Executive Committee. The group was installed by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bracklin of the installing team.

The Auditing Committee reported having audited the books of the Treasurer. In order to cooperate with the OPA, was voted to dispense with all essential business meetings. It was decided to dispense with the Pomona Picnic usually held in August and there will be no special meetings for the initiation of candidates, as has been the custom in the past.

GASOLINE RELIEF FOR FARMERS

Boards Are Reviewing All B, C and T Books

Immediate relief for Delaware farmers from the gasoline famine is being rushed through several mediums, Clarence E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware United States Department of Agriculture War Board, said this week.

Rationing boards are now reviewing all B, C and T gasoline ration books with the intention of cutting these allowances to the minimum, thus freeing more gasoline for farm tractors, from trucks and milk carriers.

Gasoline quotas for transportation agencies have been reduced by forty percent to divert more of the limited supply from highway to non-highway farm uses.

County War Boards were asked by the State War Board today to emphasize the importance of farm cooperation. Farmers are urged to ask for additional "T" or transportation ration only when necessary. These requests will be reviewed by the County Farm Transportation Committee.

The gasoline shortage was caused by unusually heavy withdrawals from reserves by the armed forces, wrecking by floods of two pipelines feeding the East, stoppage of barge and tanker deliveries by floods and the flooding of several railroads radiating from the oil fields.

BOY SCOUT MEETING

Organize Patrol

Newark Troop No. 55, Boy Scouts of America held their regular meeting last night in the Scout rooms of the Old Academy building and conducted the second part of the summer contest preparatory to going to Camp Rodney.

The winners of the spring contest were: Pioneer Patrol, first; Flaming Arrow Patrol, second; and the Panther Patrol, third.

A new patrol was organized called the Flying Eagle with Jack Fossett, patrol leader, and Ronald Ewing as assistant patrol leader.

Two Scouts, Harvey Renshaw and Julian Rittenhouse were advanced into the senior patrol which is a new club formed from the elder members of the troop.

Members of the senior patrol are remodeling their club room and will appreciate the donation of any upholstered furniture. Call Charles Wollaston, 3812 or Conrad Lewis 8521 and they will make arrangements for moving the furniture.

Insert In Front Auto Tags To Be Dropped

One out of every two metal year inserts used in Delaware's automobile licensing system will be next among the war shortage casualties suffered by motorists.

Motorists applying for re-registration of their cars in the near future will be given inserts for only the rear license plates. The old inserts from the front plate and possibly the entire plate will be removed. The rear tag has been selected to bear the one insert because a survey has shown that it escapes damage more readily than the front plate.

The decision to use only the one insert was made necessary because the factory supplying them is engaged in war work. Specific instructions on the change will be announced in a few days by the State Motor Vehicle Department.

Some states already require only the rear license tag.

"MIKE" IS DEAD

Succumbs To Heart Attack

"Mike", the 26 year old pet monkey owned by I. Newton Sheaffer, East Main Street painting and wall paper contractor, passed away last Thursday after having suffered a heart attack.

Mike, who was a friend of everyone was well known to both young and old residents of Newark, many of whom made regular visits to his cage back of the Sheaffer store to watch his capers, and monkey business.

Mike has endeared himself to the Sheaffer family who have had him since he was six months old. He was of the ring tailed variety and was presented to Mr. Sheaffer direct from the tropics 26 years ago.

Mike on many occasions has opened his cage and made frequent visits about the town seeking his many friends. He was particularly fond of the children.

On one occasion Mike was missing on a bitter cold night and police and firemen both entered in the hunt for the monkey but he could not be found. The next day Charles W. Colmery who lives on East Delaware Avenue heard a commotion in his chicken house and upon investigation found that Mike had spent the night with the chickens.

Test Raid

speaker at the exercises was in the midst of his address when the whistles and sirens started to blow and he continued with his talk to the seniors and there was no visible sign from the audience that the raid was on, the program continuing as scheduled.

Two imaginary incidents were taken care of during the test. The first incident was where a person was supposedly injured on Main Street in front of Dales Jewelry Store. The victim was young Mike Gillespie who was supposed to have sustained a broken arm. He was given first aid on the scene of the accident and taken to the casualty station in the ambulance where he received medical attention under the direction of Dr. John R. Downes, head of the medical division.

The second incident took place on Prospect Avenue where a 1100 pound high explosive bomb was supposed to have been dropped. This incident showed up some defects in the setup as Auxiliary Police in the area allowed Civilian Defense workers to approach too close to the danger zone. It was stated by C. D. officials that in a case of this kind no one should be allowed to approach the danger zone without special permits.

The public dance being held at the Red Mens Hall went on uninterrupted as members of the committee closed the shades and dimmed the lights in the hall.
