these very Eagles and Carolinas windy. Then things began to happen which made it appear that any such prediction was wholly premature. On November 23 the only once-beaten Cardinals met the Washington Redskins, losers in five straight clashes. It certainly looked like a set-up-but it was "Sammy Baugh Day" at Griffith Stadium and Slinging' Sam really took it seriously. Six of the prennal Texan's passes went for touchdowns-and the Cards went down before Baugh and Company 45-21. On the same day the Chicago Bears tied up the Western Division race by smelter-ing the Pitt Steelers 49-7, thus ad-ministering the worst defeat ever ab-sorbed by a Joek Sutherland-coached eleven. 4-H STYLE

Up in Boston on that same Sunday

Up in Boston on that same Sunday, Greasy Neale's Eagles meeded only a win over the Yanks to wrest the East-erra lead from the Steelers. As the Eagles had trounced the same Boston Yanks 32-0 only seven days earlier, Steve Van Buren and his mates ap-parently had no problem. Nevertheless the Yanks won 21-14. One week later this is what happen-ed as each NFL division had a new top team on the totem pole. Philadel-phia revenged an earlier 35-24 defeat by Sutherland's Steelers by blanking the Smoky City entry 21-0. In New York the once potent Giants won their first 1947 league victory by capsizing the Cardinals 35-31 in a real thriller in which the lead changed hands nine which the lead changed hands nine times. While Pittsburgh gained assurance of at least a tie in the Eastern section by beating Boston 17-7, the Eagles blew by beaching Boston 17-7, the Lagres blue a 7-8 half-time lead and lost 45-21 to Jimmy Conzelman's Redbirds in a furious fuss which saw the Cards score six TD's in the last half. In the final quarter alone, 42 points were register-ed by both teams. Out in Chicago the Bores had the Western title anothed

Settling the Western Division tie was accomplished with the dispatch, for the visibhoring Cards and Bears had a regularly scheduled match carded for December 14. The Cards scored on an 80-yard touchdown play the first time they gained possession of the ball-and were never headed as they finished in the lead 30-21. are being sent for a week to a special projection equipment school at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y. Back in Philadelphia on December 14 the chips were really down for the Eagles. They faced the Green Bay Packers, whom in 11 tries they had never defeated. The Eagles needed a win. Even a tie would toss the Eastern title to Pittsburgh. Well, folks, you may remember that the Eagles evi-denced no Brotherly Love and packed off the Packers by a decisive 28-14 count. Sanders, as the top performer of 1947 in pro football. The remaining five votes were distributed among Sid Luckman (2), Paul Christman, Sammy Baugh and George Ratterman. To all we wish a very Happy New Year filled with thrilling, exhilarating sports events-and suggest that we all remember the off-quoted advice. "If you can't participate in a sport, be one."

Having gained the tle they sought, the Eagles journeyed to Pittsburgh for the play-off. The Birds clawed, the Steelers were stymied. Van Buren set a new rushing record, and Neale's men a new rushing record, and Neale's men annexed their first divisional title. The stage was finally set— and here's where we came in. The Cardinals of Conzelman clipped the Eagles wings for the third time in 1947. They did the deed by four break-away touch-down runs-two each by Georgia's Charlie Trippi and Notre Dame's Elmer Angsman—the shortest of which was for a mere 44 yards.

All of the foregoing is about the National Football League—but it is not our intent or purpose to adopt the ostrich-like attitude of the NFL that out much to purpose to adopt the ostrich-like attitude of the NFL that the All-America Football Conference does not exist. The All-America does indeed exist and has just enjoyed a highly successful season. The junior circuit is as much a major league as the NFL-but its member teams were not as evenly matched and Claveland's Browns and the New York Yankees walked away, respectively, to Western and Eastern titles. In the championship play-off at New York on December 14. Cleveland's great Otto Graham passed and paced the Browns to a 14.3 win and their second straight conference title. Last year, at Cleveland, the Browns also met the N. Y. Yanks and won 14-9.

Licensed hunters in Delaware have increased sharply during the season which drew to a close Wednesday. According to Frank A. Lawson, chief warden of the Delaware Game and Fish Commission, licenses sold this season totaled 25,000 as compared with the 1946 figure of 15,000. For this reason more violations were found than in previous years, chief among them being hunting after dark. Few huntsme were arrested in the unsportsmanlike activity of shooting game from ears, due to the vigilance of the state police. Despite the increased number of

In Appreciation

T IS A time-honored Sherwood custom to pause, at the close of each year, for one of our most pleasant tasks . . . to thank the tens-ofthousands of Maryland motorists and home owners who chose our company and its products to serve them during the year.

Your purchases of Betholine Motor Fuel, Sinclair Petroleum Products, Sherwood Oil Burners and Sherwood Fuel Oil have been genuinely appreciated. They have helped provide employment to several thousand Maryland men and women . . . have made it possible for these people to enjoy the privilege of living and doing business in our native State.

On behalf of every member of the Sherwood Organization and their hundreds of Betholine-Sinclair Dealers, it gives me great pleasure to close 1947 by thanking you for your confidence in Sherwood Service and Sherwood Products-and to pledge ourselves to serve you faithfully during 1948.

To one and all, A HAPPY NEW YEAR.
