With a few exceptions, the following changes in local delivery services are affected by the recent ODT ruling:

1. The number of retail and wholesale deliveries which may be made in one week from one point of origin to one point of destination is limited according to the commodity delivered.

2. All Sunday deliveries except of ice and fresh milk and cream are forbidden.

3. The delivery routes of each company must be immediately rearranged so that they neither duplicate nor overlap.

RAPID 1943 POULTRY EXPANSION ALARMING

Shortage Of Materials May Be Disastrous To Industry

In order that Delaware's poultry industry may not face disastrous losses, officials of Delaware state and federal agencies advise poultrymen not to make further expansions in commercial broiler production.

Alarmed at the expansion of the industry in the State, representatives of all agricultural agencies issue this joint warning after a careful study of all factors involved in broiler production. This study has included prospects for chicks, feed, coal and housing materials and equipment.

This action was taken in a special meeting headed by Walker Mifflin, president of the State Board of Agriculture; C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware USDA War Board; A. E. Tomhave, head of the department of animal and poultry industry of the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station and George M. Worrlow, acting associate director of the Agricultural Extension Service.

In the light of recent state feed supply surveys a prospective shortage of approximately 500,000 tons of feed is in sight, these officials point out.

In view of the current and prospective balance between feed and feed needs, it appears appropriate to avoid further expansion in commercial broiler production at this time. They point out that the heaviest concentration of broiler production occurs in Delaware and the adjoining Delmarva peninsula counties — an area which has always been deficient in locally produced feed and which will be even more reliant on feed imports to sustain expanded production.

It is doubtful, they add, if all poultry house construction now underway can be completely equipped. Many hatcheries are now completely booked for all chicks they can produce until September, and chicks also may not be available to fill any new capacity.

Although it is believed that the supply of coal for broiler production will be sufficient to meet the broiler capacity equal to that of this past year, the production of anthracite coal is not expected to greatly exceed the expected requirements. Therefore any new expansion may mean that new broiler production capacity may have to remain idle because of the lack of coal to brood the chicks.

Up to the present, the Delaware USDA War Board has approved applications for broiler house in excess of $1000 with the understanding that the builder could secure materials and equipment and had sources of feed, chicks and coal. However, in line with the recommendations of the War Food Administrator and the action of the Delaware agricultural agencies cautioning against further expansion, the War Board is expected to announce in the near future drastic limitations on future broiler house constructions.

SUGAR FOR CANNING IS AVAILABLE

Stamps 15-16 Now Good For 5 Pounds Each

Final details on how consumers will obtain sugar for home canning under a simplified plan forecast earlier this week, were issued Monday by OPA.

According to the revised program, stamps numbered 15 and 16 in War Ration Book One will each be good for five pounds of sugar for home canning. Consumers will obtain this sugar by taking their ration books to retailers rather than applying to local boards for sugar coupons as was announced earlier.

Stamps 15 and 16 became valid on May 24, and may be used for obtaining canning sugar in amounts of 5 pounds on each stamp through October 31, 1943.

The change in the program for obtaining sugar for home canning will relieve local boards of a heavy load of work, since, under the new arrangement, only the relatively few families who require more than ten pounds of sugar per person for home canning will make application to the boards.

This amount of sugar, explained OPA, will put up as much fruit as most families will be able to can or intend to use. At the allowed rate of one pound of sugar to four quarts of finished fruit the ten-pound-per-person allowance would provide each person with 40 quarts of canned fruit.

Where home canners require less than 10 pounds of sugar but an amount other than 5 pounds, they will apply to their local boards for the exact amount needed. The application must be in writing and may be sent by mail.

INSECTS MENACE TO GARDENS

Insecticide Preparations Recommended

Here are some of the insects which will probably strike your garden first. Preparations for the recommended insecticides are listed below.

Flea beetles—small shiny black or striped beetles which hop like fleas—are in most gardens now. They eat small holes in the leaves of many different plants. Apply cryolite or arsenate dusts or sprays as soon as they start eating and repeat as necessary. These insecticides leaves poisonous residues.

so avoid using exposed parts of vegetables.

Aphids or plant lice, small slow-moving wingless or winged insects of various colors which cluster on stems and leaves of plants and make leaves curl and lose color, are best controlled by nicotine sulfate in spray or dust, applied on hot still days when pests appear and repeated as needed—hit the insects.

Yellow and black-striped adults and brick-red larvae of Colorado potato beetle, which defoliate potato vines and newly set tomato plants, should be dusted or sprayed with arsenate or dusted with copper-arsenate lime, which also controls certain diseases, when they appear, and repeated as necessary.

Arsenical spray: 1 oz. (9 level tea-spoonsful) lead (preferred) or calcium arsenate to 1 gal. of water.

Arsenical dust: 1 lb. calcium (preferred) or lead arsenate with 5 lbs. hydrated lime.

Cryolite spray 1 oz. (9 level tea-spoonsful) cryolite to 1 gal. water.

Cryolite dust 1 part cryolite and 1 part flour, talc, or dusting sulfur. Not lime.

Nicotine spray: 2 teaspoonsfuls 40 percent nicotine sulfate in 1 gal. water in which 2 tablespoons soap chips have been dissolved.

Nicotine dust: 1 liquid oz. (2 table-spoons) 40 percent nicotine sulfate to 1 qt. (1 lb.) lime. Prepared just before ready to use.

Copper-arsenate-lime dust 1 lb. monohydrated copper sulphate, 1 lb. calcium arsenate, and 3 lbs. lime.

Pleasant Valley School News

The final Parent-Teacher Association meeting of the Pleasant Valley School, Iron Hill, will be held on Thursday evening, May 27 at eight o'clock. Three motion pictures: "Safety Trouble," "On Two Wheels" and "Goofer Trouble" will be shown by the Delaware Safety Council.

Play-Day

On Friday afternoon, May 28, Play-Day will be observed.

A "Jeep" will be sent over to the school from Fort duPont at one o'clock and the children will sit in the Jeep and have pictures taken around it, inasmuch as the pupils of the school have purchased $1,159.20 worth of Defense Stamps and Bonds during the present school year. Earlier the school received its certificate from the Secretary of the Treasury for distinguished service in the war effort and the privilege of flying the Minute Man flag. There has been 100 per cent participation in sales since the first week in October.

At 2 o'clock games lasting an hour will be started and refreshments will be served. Parents and pre-school children are invited to be present.

Amateur Program

An amateur program will be presented by the pupils of the school prior to the picnic on the closing day of school, June 10.

FARM MEAT

Rationing of meat on the farm is simplified by several changes in the system, the Delaware USDA War Board reports.

Farmers no longer need surrender ration stamps for meat for their own consumption from their own livestock butchered at custom slaughtering plants; nor for meat raised on one farm but consumed on another of the same owner.

Farms and ranches no longer need register as an "institutional user" of meat if they feed employees in dining halls and bunkhouses operated apart from the employer's household.

INCREASE IN RATION OF COFFEE ANNOUNCED

Stamp No. 24 Good For 1 Pound For Thirty Days

Coffee-drinkers are encouraged this week at the announcement that Stamp No. 24 will entitle them to one pound of java for a thirty-day period which, broken down, is about one-quarter of a cup a day more than the heretofore ration of one pound for each 35 days.

According to an announcement made by Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown Stamp No. 24, which becomes valid May 31, will be good for one pound of coffee through June 30, a period of 30 days. Stamp No. 23, now valid, is good for a pound in the 35 days (five weeks) ending May 31. Since rationing began last Nov. 28, the ration has never exceeded one pound for five weeks and once dropped to a pound for six weeks.

Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown said, "The supply of green coffee in the United States has now reached the level where an increase in the ration is possible at this time."

He gave no assurance, however, that pound-per-month ration can be maintained on a permanent basis. Each ration period must be determined on the basis of currently available supplies and anticipated imports, and a change in the supply situation may make it necessary to change the ration in the future.

"But I can assure the public it will receive the benefit of increases in supply whenever they exist," he remarked.

OPA also announced that receipts of sugar at Gulf ports are running ahead of estimates. For this reason, Louisiana refiners were authorized to serve "deficit" areas of western New York and western Pennsylvania, in addition to Ohio, Indiana and part of West Virginia, which they normally serve. Louisiana refiners also now may serve Bristol, Va., as well as Bristol, Tenn.

The increase in the territory served by Louisiana refiners, OPA said, will permit greater utilization of barge lines and generally lower the cost of supplying adequate amounts of sugar to the New York-Pennsylvania deficit area.

The keynote of a new and firmer OPA policy will be given to Congress by Brown when he appears before an appropriations committee this week to seek funds for the next fiscal year, associates of the director forecast.

Among other objectives, the new policy will be intended to still some of the dissension within OPA and eliminate many of the causes of outside criticism.

One of OPA's major internal feuds has been resolved, informed but unquotable sources said, with the capitulation of Deputy Administrator J. K. Galbraith on his policy of uniform, nationwide price margins on foods.

A decision has crystallized within OPA that the uniform margins "just don't work," it was stated. When translated into dollars and cents ceilings, they may result in a 10 per cent price advance in one city and a 10 per cent decrease in another city, owing to varying trade practices in different localities, it was said.

The remedy expected shortly is the granting of broad authority to OPA regional directors to alter the dealer's margins set by Washington according to the needs of local distribution and ceiling practices.

WORDS ABOUT

W.O.W.'S.

(Women Ordinance Workers)

By

Ruth Safran

If the girls in Elkton needed any lessons in jive contortions, our W.O.W.'S. were ready to wow 'em last Saturday night. A group went down to the USO's first Saturday night frolic for dancing purposes. There were only a few last week but enough enthusiasm to suggest that there would be a busload at this week's dance. So, postcards have gone out to would-be rug cutters to traipse over to the Newark Community Center to plunk down 50 cents to cover the cost of bus services and fun fare. The first fifty candidates will be sandwiched into the bus to take them to Elkton. Soldiers, sailors and male war workers will take care of the escort problem once the girls arrive at the Army to dance to the music of George Feary's orchestra.

Please pitch in with stories about the girls you know—where they go, what they do and why they tick or have ticks. Address your news notes to me c/o the Newark Post or Triumph Explosives, Inc.

Letters Received From Service Men

The following letter was received by Mrs. William H. Adams, Sr., No. 1 Briar Lane, from her nephew Corporal Daniel S. Pratt, Jr., who is serving "somewhere in North Africa."

Dear Aunt Sue:
Easter again, but a very different one from the one I spent with you last year. Many times in the past year I've remembered that week-end as one of the most enjoyable times of my life, and Rev. Mayer's service on Sunday morning, as one of the finest Easter services I've ever been to.

I remember how pepped-up I was that time, having just been interviewed by the board for O.C.S. A lot of water has gone over the dam since then.

Thank you very much for the N. Y. Times clippings. They are most interesting and I would be very glad if you continue to send them. They are a good idea.

This morning at services they took some movies of the gathering. You might be able to recognize me in them. They were intended for the News-Reels, should you see them. I was fairly close to the front, and was sporting a nice bushy mustache.

There isn't too much news that I can talk about. Last night I spent the first four hours of Easter standing watch on the radio, in a fox-hole that had about three inches of heavy goopy mud in the bottom of it. But there are times when things like that must be, I guess.

Much love to you and all at Briar Lane.

Affectionately, Daniel

4-H CLUBS MEMBERS TO AID WAR PROJECTS

Movement Enlarged To Aid Production

In 1620, pioneers came to America to establish freedom; this year 1,620 4-H club members in Delaware are working to maintain that freedom.

Early in the spring a mobilization campaign was developed to interest farm youth not already club members in joining the organization, because it was felt that, while generally Delaware's farm youth has been doing a large share of work, their work could be better directed toward essential jobs within the organization. This campaign has proved highly successful. According to C. E. McCauley, county club agent supervisor for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, the enrollment has been increased one-third over the 1942 enrollment—it now stands at 1,620.

These boys and girls are all enrolled in definite projects set up to increase food production, conserve materials, or in some other way aid the war effort. And at the same time they are being trained to do this work efficiently, both to increase their results for the emergency period and to help them in their work of farming and homemaking in later years.

New members have been enrolled in clubs already organized and under supervision of local leaders, wherever possible. In six communities, new clubs have already been set up. And many boys and girls are enrolled as members-at-large, working under direct supervision of the county club agents.

They have all started important projects which will help build the Nation's strength; they will complete those projects, efficiently and on time.

Mrs. F. C. Avis Rites Held On Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Carter Avis, widow of the late Captain E. S. Avis were held on Wednesday afternoon from the Yeatman Funeral Parlor in Wilmington with interment in Head of Christiana Cemetery.

Mrs. Avis will be remembered by the older residents of Newark as her husband Captain Avis was a former commandant of the Delaware College R.O.T.C. and a graduate of West Point.

SURE SHOT

The Play-Day at the Newark High School last week was one of the kind of affairs that we need more of.

The athletic competitions showed that Newark has some really fine material.

Harry Morrow's running was tops and it is believed that Harry broke a school record if not a world record on the baseball throw. It is a real shame that no official records of the time was kept on the various races. Harry threw the ball 306 feet.

Paul Teller won the running broad jump with 16 feet 6 inches. When one considers Paul's weight that is some distance to hurl all those pounds.

Then there was that handsome Talucci boy (Joseph, not Sammie). Joe won the soccer throw with a distance of 65 feet.

Danny Ferry won the standing broad jump. Distance unknown. That is a shame, I mean about the distance.

Now while I have been ballyhooing the seniors, don't think that they were the only ones that were good. Brandon Davis, that outstanding, promising young star in the sophomore class won the 440 yard dash and Tommy Runk, winner of the 880 yard run was real good. Tommy ran a great race and deserved to win.

The freshman class showed up real well with Roddy Holton winning the high jump, 5 feet 2 inches was not so bad. It was better than the rest could do and Roddy also took second place in the 220 yard dash.

Don Griffin won the 60 yard dash and tied with Harry Morrow in the 100 and took third place in the broad jump. That freshman class will bear some watching.

The girls' section of the Play-Day showed that the girls also have some good athletes. Elizabeth Strickland, a sophomore, won the 50 yard dash with Mildred Gray a senior a close second.

Marilyn Fox is some runner. A member of the junior class, Marilyn easily won the 75 yard dash and also won the running broad jump. Janet Godwin a freshman won the standing broad jump and the baseball throw. Eleanor Grundy, a senior won the soccer throw.

The senior class was not so hot. Aside from Eleanor Grundy only two other members of the class placed at all. Mildred Gray won one second place and Ruby Dann took third place in the running broad jump.

The freshman class easily won the Tug-of-War. That Freshman class has a lot of weight and they all know how to pull together.

The 440 yard relay was a very exciting race. Betty Reed, leadoff for the seniors put her class in the lead and each of the other runners gained a little until Marilyn Fox got the baton and raced home way ahead of the crowd.

The sophomore class was left at the starting line when Elizabeth Strickland failed to hear the word go.

The fellow that seemed to be enjoying himself the most was a young fellow that lives on Haines Street who spent most of the time on the bleachers between two girls. Possibly it was that Red hat he wears. Anyway he was doing real good.

The sophomore boys handed the seniors a trimming in the softball game; 8 to 5 the score was, and those seniors are big boys too and should be able to play ball.

It must be that the older boys are slipping or possibly they are thinking about the time, real soon when they will be called into the armed services of their country. McMullen, Wells, Sanbourn, and McNeal each romped across the home plate to score for the younger team and that Murphy feller and Brandon Davis each scored twice. Gee, those two guys must think that they are REAL good.

Fourteen more Newark boys are scheduled to leave for service in the armed forces. Ten will see service in the army and four of the boys will see the world through a port hole.

The way that our boys are being inducted into the service you might think that some one down in Washington was getting a commission out of all the uniforms that they are trying to fill.

The writer of this column would like to hear from all the boys in the service. If you will write to Sureshot and tell how you are making out I will be glad to see that your names are kept before the public. If John Cunningham should read this week's issue of the Post he will be glad to hear that the old Siren on the fire house has been silent for quite a while. A certain member of the fire company had a tag put on his car for parking in front of the entrance to the fire house.

Professor Frederick B. Kutz, we are told, put on a good performance when the high school band went to Wilmington the other week. Some one said that the Professor was invited by the Governor to lead the massed bands in one or more numbers. The professor always ready to oblige, really gave the governor and the assembled crowd a real treat.

Professor Kutz who is very good at his music is also good at airplane spotting. Accompanied by Billy Wilson, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wilson of near Milford Cross Roads, the professor, and his young assistant spotted and reported 138 airplanes a short while ago.

That number is a record for this section and Kutz who is getting old, stated that it was the boy who was really responsible for the record output. He said that Billy was able to

MOTTO UNCHANGED

"Semper Fidelis," meaning Always Faithful has never changed. It has always been the motto of the Marine Corps.

It has been stated by other airplane spotters at the Possum Park post where they spot that Billy rides his bicycle to the spotting post and is always on the job a quarter of an hour ahead of time. Good spotting Billy.

Where is the W.C.T.U. while all those food conference people down in Virginia are drinking up that large quantity of liquor? Possibly that accounts for the liquor shortage, and Who Pays the Bill?

Who is the racketeer behind the potato shortage?

THINK BEFORE YOU GRIPE

It Might Have Been Your Boy

With everyone fussing and fuming about the "Ban On Pleasure Driving" and the other forms of rationing that confront us at this critical time, the following was brought to my attention and thinking it was good I am passing it along.

After reading this, some people may have a different outlook on the conditions that we have to face if we want to win the war. Sure we buy bonds, but we get the money back when we get hard up. The soldier who loses his life, what does he get back?

A BOY DIED LAST NIGHT

"A boy died last night. It doesn't make much difference now about his name. The important thing is that he died, in poignant and awful loneliness out somewhere on a waste of sand, out in a starless silence, 10,000 miles from home.

"Missing in action" read an obscure line in this morning's communique. That was all. Now he lies there, crumpled beside the twisted wreckage that yesterday was his ship, riding high in the sunlit heavens. The fine head and the shining face and the broad shoulders remain only in a picture that looks out upon a quiet living-room on a shaded street an eternity away.

"Last night, in those agonizing hours of unspeakable isolation, he went through a thousand deaths without the one thing that might have helped a little—the sound of a familiar voice, the pat of a friendly hand. Many people died last night in their bed at home, surrounded by those who cared. Last night he died in utter desolation, in an unimaginable loneliness.

"The pain was terrible enough. But then there had to be that dreadful burden of thought in those endless last hours. Mom and Pop. The flowers blooming again in the back yard. The good old roadster in the driveway. That last sweetheart kiss at the station. Those dances last summer. That half-finished letter in his blouse. All those plans for the future. Buddies back at the field, 5000 miles across the water, wondering. Couldn't somebody find him, please? The wracking pain again. "Too much for you, all this. But it really happened last night, just like that. If people could just understand it, if they would just grind deep into their thinking the stark, terrible reality of it, every petty, selfish interest would be swept away. They would sacrifice anything and everything just to make themselves worthy of that boy. They would hasten to forge an instrument of revenge, that would wipe from the earth the traffickers in war.

"If people who have basked and prospered and walked secure in a land that has felt no more than the shock of a Fourth of July firecracker since 1865 would understand about this boy, they would wait no longer for Government promulgations and the urging of rallies. There would be no one left to think any more about what the war might do to his mere personal interest tomorrow or the next day.

"People would rise up and demand that their Government take anything, exactly everything needed, make them walk, feed them the commonest fare, blackout every city, take away every last penny of profit, render uncertain every commonplace comfort and easy security, just to avenge that boy.

"He died last night, you see. There's no way to get around that."

Newark Cleaners Adopt New Policy On June 1

Elsewhere in this issue of the Post is an announcement of The Newark Cleaners, Inc., stating that crowded conditions, limited space and an ever increasing volume of business forces them to ask customers to call for apparel within ten days. All garments will be completed within three days, Doyle McSpadden, president of the firm, said, and must be called for promptly or responsibility will not be assumed for them.

Customers calling for clothes must also bring hangers in exchange for the ones received with their garments, Mr. McSpadden said, as present conditions make it impossible to purchase hangers of any description and the present supply is practically depleted.

Pencader Anniversary

The business meeting of the Pencader Cemetery Association will be held at one o'clock and will be presided over by Mr. Edward W. Cooch, Esq., president of the Association.

The afternoon session will start at 2:15 o'clock at which time Rev. Loetscher will deliver the message.

Miss May B. Leasure in charge of the program has announced that special music will feature each session, by members of the Pencader Church choir. A quartet composed of Mrs. Dorothy Connor, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, Stewart Brown and Edward Wilson will sing "He Lives". Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Wilson will sing a duet "Whispering Hope" and the Misses Florence and Betty Ford will sing "Have You Counted The Cost". The entire chorus will sing "Awakening."

Officers of the Pencader Cemetery Association are: president Edward W. Cooch, vice-president, Harry W. Frazer of Wilmington; secretary, Miss May B. Leasure of Glasgow and treasurer, Miss Mary M. Janvier of Philadelphia.

Back in the Revolutionary War days the present church building was used as a hospital base during the battle of Cooch's Bridge and at the present time the church is again doing a patriotic duty as it is being used as a First Aid building and for the purpose of making surgical dressings.

Deliveries Banned

ducts and explosives, medicines, telegrams, and U. S. mail.

The exemptions apply only to frequency of delivery, however, and not to the 40 per cent mileage cut in commercial "T" gasoline rations ordered by ODT Saturday.

ODT explained that the order was not the priority list of industries to be used in applying the 40 per cent mileage cut, explaining that list still is in process of preparation.

The announcement said that "limits on retail milk deliveries will apply to horse-drawn vehicles as well as trucks under the order."

ODT sides explained that this was intended to preserve competition among dairies, pointing out that if one dairy had all horse-drawn vehicles and a competitor had all motor vehicles, the concern using the horse-drawn vehicles would have a tremendous advantage over the other fellow unless restrictions were applied to each firm.

The effect of the "widespread disruption of the West-East petroleum movement caused by the Midwest floods, is just now being felt" in transportation of gasoline, ODT said.
