CLAMOR FOR MONEY TO CARRY OHIO AND INDIANA.

Letters From Republican Leaders in the Campaign of 1880 Dorsey Begins to Be Avenged.

Special to the Gazette.

New York, August 28.—The Sun to day prints correspondence between Garfield, Dorsey, Marshal Jewell and other Republican leaders about the Indiana campaign, in which Garfield took the greatest interest. Frst comes two ietters of Garfield to Dorsey showing his anxiety about Indiana and two more to Jewell on the same subject in the latter of which Garfield says: "I have no doubt that the result in Indiana can be made secure by following up vigorously the work which has been begun. Of course it is imperative that whatever is done in this direction should be done quietly."

Next comes a letter from Blaine to Dorsey, complaining that Maine had not received any money from the committee, and the campaign was imperilled.

ey from the committee, and the campaign was imperilled.

After the defeat of the Republicans in Maine, Senator Allison wrote Dorsey: "You must gather about you a corps of strong men who can aid you in raising funds. We must recover this disaster in Maine by carrying Ohio and Indiana." Maine was carried by money, and the still hunt tactics must be played in Indiana and Ohio.

L. tters are given in which Stewart L. Woodford makes a mild appeal for $50,000 to carry Virginia, closing with the expression: "Heip us, Cassius, or we sink."

D. B. Henderson, who succeeds Dorsey as sceretary of the committee, wrote: "Plant the troops in New York and put money in the purse."

Deacon Richard Smith wrote Jewell as follows:

as follows:
"I new tell you that as matters are going in Indiana and Ohio we are beaten in both states. There should be $50,000 judiciously placed in each state within the next ten days, and two-thirds of it should be reserved for use on election day. If your commit-tee concludes to let Ohio take care of herself and meet the enemy in halt-way style, you might just as well give up style. now and not spend another dollar in any efforts."

Gov. Foster writes that they ought to have $40,000 in Ohio, and that he was trying to get hold of some men that could contribute liberally. Levi P. Morton wrote on August 28

that a note should be sent to each member of the finance committee excepting Keen, and that he feared that they would get only small contributions. Senator Platt wrote advising Dor-sey to call on Rutter and Blanchard, Trunk Line railroad men, who would do all he wanted. Hon. Jno. W. Forbes of Boston wrote that he would send money to Harrison in Indiana, but would not send to Dorsey, whom he seemed to Dorsey, whom he seemed to district. The same rentlemen also send to Dorsey, whom he seemed to distrust. The same gentlemen also complained that New York was not raising as much money as Boston for raising as much money as Boston for the cause.

A whole batch of letters from John C. New are given, in which he says they must have material aid in Indiana, also that the Wabash railroad had been nicely milked, and that Secretary Sherman is a director in the Pittsburg & Fort Wayne road. "Wonder if he would help us," asks New; Gould can conirc! a couple of Clevelland parties; Devareux and Hürlburt two others; Garfield can work the level and people." This letter closes with the statement that they must with the statement that they must have $10,000 more or stop fighting. Several letters from New acknowledge the receipt of sums of $3,000 and $4,000, and the last one closs s: "It we can only carry Indiana, we can let them all be damined."

The whole correspondence shows the Republican leaders were in a partnership of fraud, levying contribu-tions on railroads, big corporations and wealthy men to carry the election by the use of money. Dorsey has plenty more letters on hand. The writing cannot be denied.

The front trucks of the third car from the rear of a construction car, of the south bound freight, No. 157, jumped the track on the Missouri Pacific rallway at 2:45 this morning, two and a half miles south of West station. The front trucks left the track and the front end of the car then rested on the coupling and thus the train was prevented from being wrecked. Two men, bridge builders, were asleep on the construction car, and they were awakened by the disturbance, and doubtless believing the train was about to to be wrecked they jumped from their ar while the train was running at a speed of sixteen or seventsen miles an hour, and one of them was killed and the other had his legs badly strained and bruised about his knees. The man who was killed was named B. Stowers, and the wounded man's name is Phillips. An inquest was held this morning and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts. The remains, by order of the company, were neatly dressed, placed in a coffin and shipped on this afternoon's five o'clock passenger train to his parents in Whitesboro, Texas. A Prosperous and Thriving Year-Old Town -Business and Crops.

Special to the Gazette. Special to the Gazette.

Bowie, August 28.—The dry, oppressively hot weather continues in this locality. Scarcity of stock water, and more or less damage to the lower or second crop with fulling off of squares of cotton are among the results. The boil worm is at work, though injury therefrom is not great as yet, nor general. Despite these hindrances a fine yield is reported, an average of not less than half a bale per acre, possibly more. Our little year-old "Wonder of the West" continues to grow stendily, and the improvements henceforth will be of a substantial kind. Messrs. Green & Crowel's handsome stone building is nearing completion. Contracts have been let for another substantial business house by Mr. Shy of our town, to be 25x60 feet, of stone; another is in contemplation, 55x100 feet, and Mr. Proctor is commencing the erection of a frame storehouse, 24x50 feet. In brief, a building boom and an era of prosperity have just begun. Our little year-old "Wonder of the Apropos of th above, a census of our population, etc., taken private the 15th inst, gave us near 1,100 souls, with over fifty business houses. Add to this a good school building and school, five or six good better six and all five or six good hotels, etc., and all within twelve months, and can a better showing be made?

Sheriff Smith took several attached witnesses to Weatherford to-day to testify in the case of the state vs. Ell McConnell, the child musterer.

There have been many exciting court scenes, but it is soubtful if any one can record one which created a greater stir tham one in Justice Kendall's court to-day. H. Goldenburg was arraigned for cursing the wife of one Seigler, all Russian Jews of recert importation. Witnesses were summosed and an interpretor called. It was a good case against Goldenburg, for all the witnesses swore they heard him curse the woman. The wife of the defendant dropped in during the progress of the trial to encourage her husband by her presence. Besides the witnesses, there was a large crowd attracted by the novelty of Russian Jews being in court. Of a sudden, Mrs. Galdenburg fell ower, vorsited, and went through a series of agonizing contortions trightful to behold. She was picked up and placed on a bed in the rear of the court roem. Im. Schiff took in the situation at a glance, and avowed that there was about to be an increase in the Goldenburg family. Court was selicurned, and in a few minutes a son was announced in the Goldenburg family. The case against her father was continued till to-morrow. Court-house births are rarities in this latitude.

New York, August 28.—About ten minutes to four this afternoon people who were in the neighborhood of the foot of Fourteenth street and North river were startled by the sound of an explosion coming from the direction of the river. Some of these were hurled into the air and then fell back in the water; others were compelled to jump in the river to escape the histing steam that filled all parts of the vessel, or to avoid going down with her. The cause of the disaster was the explosion of the boiler, which was amidships. When the boiler burst the air was filled with the boiler burst the air was filled with flying debris and broken woodwork. The pilot house snapped like a pipestem and toppled over into the water.
