MONTHLY CHAMBER MEETING MONDAY

Will Discuss Plans For Merchandising Show

Plans for the forthcoming Merchandising Show and Food Exhibit will be discussed by members of the Newark Chamber of Commerce and Battery E. National Guards, at the regular monthly meeting of the chamber at the Town Council office Monday evening at eight o'clock.

Letters of invitation have also been mailed to more than forty potential exhibitors in this year's event. Many of this number have participated in shows held here the past two years. It is probable that the 1940 exhibit will attract a greater number of exhibitors than ever before and several new prospects are being invited to attend the meeting.

This year's show will be the third annual affair jointly sponsored and promoted by the local Chamber of Commerce and Battery E. Both prior shows were highly successful with more than twenty merchants and manufacturers cooperating to exhibit their wares before the more than twelve hundred visitors who jammed the floor of the armory at each session. Art exhibits from the Newark Public Schools, music, entertainment, prizes and souvenirs from the exhibitors give the occasion a festive air. Admission is free to all with the doors open each afternoon and evening for the three days.

Anyone interested or desiring to attend is invited to the meeting Monday night, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not.

NATIONAL DEFENSE IS TOPIC

Capt. T. L. Waters Gives Talk For Legion Auxiliary

"Public indifference to our present condition of preparedness must be cast aside and replaced by an intelligent appreciation of the necessity of bringing our defense up to reasonable efficiency," Capt. Thomas L. Waters, a member of the military staff at the University of Delaware, told the J. Allison O'Daniel Post No. 10, American Legion, at its meeting Monday night.

Speaking briefly on the necessity of maintaining a national defense, Capt. Waters pointed out that the law, passed in June, 1920, has been neglected for many years until recently put into effect by executive order.

He urged members of the auxiliary to maintain its interest in the country's welfare and continue to promote patriotism. Mrs. Lee L. Lewis introduced the speaker.

Party Postponed

Mrs. Clarence H. Hopkins, vice president, was in charge of the session while Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey headed the refreshment committee. Members of the Legion present were: John R. Fader, Dr. John R. Downes, W. Floyd Jackson, and Harold Sheaffer. Mrs. Floyd Jackson played several piano pieces and led group singing.

It was announced that the party, scheduled to be held for junior members on Saturday, has been indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. John R. Fader, Nottingham Road, accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Hopkins, department president; Mrs. George Hill and Mrs. Leslie Gooden, of Dover, attended the three-day conference on national defense held in Washington, D. C. last week.

Lion Dramatic Club To Give Play

The Red Lion Dramatic Club will present "Three Days of Grace" a three-act comedy, in the Social Hall of the Newark Methodist Church, on Thursday evening, March 7th at 8 o'clock. The play is sponsored by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church.

Mrs. Leon Gilmore is in charge of music; Mrs. John Holloway candy; Mrs. Robt. Campbell tickets, and Mrs. Beck publicity.

FINNISH SERVICES

Services will be held at Ott's Chapel, Newark on Sunday evening, February 11th, at 7:00 o'clock. Our Finnish friends and neighbors will contribute the services and offerings will go to the Finnish Relief Fund. We urge you to join us.

To Present "Abie's Irish Rose"

their sixth annual production, "Abie's Irish Rose" in the school auditorium. Pictured are members of the Newark High School faculty who will present on Saturday evening. A matinee performance will be given tomorrow afternoon for students. Miss Anne Stauter is directing the play.

INAUGURATE SENIOR PRIVILEGES

High School Installs New Senior Plan

A plan allowing "senior privileges" was inaugurated at the Newark High School Tuesday, according to Superintendent C. E. Douglass, which so far is working out very satisfactorily.

The plan applies to all seniors who have all their work up with satisfactory grades and "no incompletes." Such students, under the new plan, may be excused from study groups and are requested to report for recitations only.

"This is a similar plan to that followed in most colleges. It enables the seniors to have a long lunch period or be excused an hour or two earlier in the afternoon."

The "senior privileges" plan is not generally practiced in high schools but it is felt that it will serve to encourage students to keep their work up and give them training in the proper use of their time. As a large percentage of Newark High School students attend colleges the "senior privileges" plan will help bridge the gap between high school and college life.

It is estimated that about eighty percent of the senior students are entitled to and availing themselves of the "senior privileges."

FINNISH FUND NOW $646.57

Contributions to the Finnish Fund, from Newark, soared well over the self imposed quota this week at the total reached $646.57 to date.

With contributions still coming in, although somewhat more slowly, it is thought that the local total may yet reach $700 as the climax of the drive has passed and February will see the end of active campaigning for funds.

Newark collections for the current week were due largely to a contribution of $68.00 received from the Newark Methodist Church. A ten dollar donation was received from a friend who sent the check in attached to a copy of the advertisement requesting aid, which had appeared in last week's Newark Post. This contributor requested that her name not be divulged.

Victor Lehtinen and sons, Junior and Oliver, brought in another ten dollars which together with other checks and miscellaneous cash deposited in the box at Town Council headquarters went to bring the total to the present gratifying amount.

While no further intensive campaigning is planned, donations are still needed and will be accepted at either local bank, the town council office or this newspaper.

All funds received locally will, as in the past, continue to be turned over to John B. Jessup, state committee treasurer, weekly.

Business Women To Meet Tuesday Evening

The regular dinner meeting of the Business Women's Club of Newark will be held at Powell's restaurant, Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Following a short business meeting, members of the club will attend the "Soiree Musicale," in Mitchell Hall at 8:15.

This will mark the third of a series of P.T.A. meetings at which the topic has dealt with preparation for business life after graduation.

The "model school" program originally planned to be held in the elementary school building this month has been indefinitely postponed due to the lack of proper lighting facilities for a night program.

The Newark High School band will furnish music in the auditorium before the P.T.A. meeting convenes. The hospitality committee, headed by Mrs. C. Emerson Johnson, will serve tea at the conclusion of the meeting.

Supplementary Construction Work On University Of Delaware Structure To Be Done By Local Men

Ark Restaurant Changes Hands

The Ark Restaurant, 73 West Main street, formerly owned and operated by Herman T. Renshaw, has been purchased by Mrs. Nina Welker.

The sale was consummated Tuesday. Mrs. Welker took active charge of the establishment, which she will personally supervise, this morning. Elsewhere in this issue is an advertisement announcing the change of ownership.

Hugh M. Smyth, of 203 W. Main Street, Newark, general contractor with offices in the Mullin Building, Wilmington, will begin work on his contract for finishing the university's new administration building and Memorial Library today. It was learned last night.

The general contract in the amount of $14,730.00 was awarded to Mr. Smyth last Friday and signed Wednesday, Wayne C. Brewer, another local business man, wrote Mr. Smyth's bond for the job.

The largest single sub-contract has been awarded to I. Newton Sheaffer, Newark interior decorator, who will complete finishing work on book cases, all wall work, entrance to the museum, five seminar rooms, men's and women's locker rooms, and other minor jobs in the two buildings.

Mr. Sheaffer's work is expected to begin within the next week or ten days. Confirmation of the contract was received last night by telegram from the office of Charles Z. Klauder, Philadelphia architect.

Mr. Smyth, Mr. Brewer and Mr. Sheaffer are all prominent in local business and civic affairs. It is gratifying that three local men will participate in the university building program.

PLAYERS REHEARSE

Set Designed By Chesser To Be Used In Play

The E 52 Players of the University of Delaware have completed two weeks of rehearsals for their second production of the season, "The Circle," by W. Somerset Maugham. This successful comedy which has been revived many times, most recently with Grace George and Tallulah Bankhead in the leading roles, it will be presented by the Players on Thursday evening, Feb. 22, in Mitchell Hall.

Achieving fame with such plays as "The Breadwinner," his first satiric comedy; "Landed Gentry," "The constant Wife," "Our Betters," and "Penelope" and his great novel, "Of Human Bondage," the author reached the culmination of his dramatic career in "The Circle," which the New York Times called "Somerset Maugham's most brilliant comedy."

Special Set

A special feature of this production will be the set which has been designed by Gordon Chesser, former scene designer and stage manager for the E 52 Players, who will be remembered for his excellent sets for "Peer Gynt," "The Green Cockatoo," and "Hell Bent for Heaven." The set which Mr. Chesser has designed for "The Circle," that of a beautifully planned Georgian drawing room, is even better than the ones designed by him while attending the university, since he now has the benefit of experience gained in community theatres in Baltimore and Washington, and from his present studies at the University of Pennsylvania School of Architecture.

The comedy is being directed by Dr. C. R. Kase. Mrs. Kase is assisting with properties. Miss Phyllis Wood, a transfer student from Stevens College who successfully portrayed the role of Mrs. Gibbs in this year's presentation of "Our Town" is serving as assistant director of the play.

H. Wallace Cook To Illustrate With Slides

Farmers, especially dairy farmers, are invited to attend a meeting to be held in Wolf Hall, University of Delaware, at 7:30 P.M., Monday evening, February 12th, under the sponsorship of the University Agricultural Club, to discuss pasture and roughage production in this area.

H. Wallace Cook, Field Representative for the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, will speak on the subject, "Reducing the Cost of Milk Production with Good Roughage." The talk will be illustrated with colored slides taken in 1939 in pastures on the farms of Boyd McCoy, Peter Zeitler, and Frederic Samendinger of Elkton, Maryland. Results of various methods of pasture fertilization and management, as well as means of filling in the summer drought period will be explained.

According to Mr. Cook, "Results of pasture and sod fertilization experiments in this area show that it is possible to grow as much or more pasture and hay on an acre of land in this area, in spite of our hot climate, as can be grown in the more northern dairy regions."

Results of tests on fertilizing alfalfa with small quantities of Borax to reduce yellowing of the second crop during dry spells with also be shown by colored photographs.

BOOK SHELF

TITLE FINS ON THE DELAWARE.
Author: John H. Wuorinen

On a day in March in the year 1638 two ships carrying a flag strange to American waters sailed up the Delaware River. The ships hailed from far-away Sweden-Finland. Months earlier they had left their home port in search of the riches and opportunities which the New World had held out to the Old ever since the Spaniard had begun to exploit his colonies across the seas in the fifteen-hundreds. The expedition was under the command of Peter Minuit, the former governor of New York, who proceeded to purchase land from the Indians and to found the settlement at Fort Christina.

The New Sweden colony was lost to the Dutch only seventeen years later. During the period 1638-1655 the story of the colony is largely the story of expeditions inadequately prepared, in many instances interminably delayed, not only by the hazards of navigation, but also by the inadequacy of human and material resources.

This seventeenth-century colonial venture of Swedes and Finns in America was but one of many similar ventures by various nations which played a part in settling what was to become the United States of America. Now the 300th anniversary of the Delaware settlements is being celebrated, and the Delaware Tercentenary pays tribute to the pioneers from Sweden-Finland who came to these shores. This volume is a history of the background, events and significance of New Sweden, and pays particular attention to the part which the Finns played in the development of the colony.

BRIDGE JUDGED UNSAFE

Stanton School Board Takes Steps Against Structure

Stanton, Feb. 7.—At a meeting of the Stanton School Board held Friday evening, a resolution was adopted declaring a narrow bridge near Stanton, over the White Clay Creek, as unsafe for travel. This bridge has long been a topic in the community, as children coming from beyond that point are compelled to walk over it, and it is considered entirely too narrow for the children in meeting traffic. This bridge was also declared a menace because of the very heavy traffic over this point at the time of the racing meets at Delaware Park. The School Board is sending a copy of their resolution to the Delaware State Highway Department, appealing to them to have this hazard overcome by widening the bridge. A copy of the resolution is also being sent to the Delaware Safety Council.

The School Board also discussed plans for adding to the present school building, a school auditorium and adequate cafeteria facilities. They are determining the amount for which the district could be bonded to provide such facilities.

Mrs. Ada B. Helmbreck, teacher of the first and second grades at the Stanton School has been conducting a unit of study on "The Home," and as the culminating activity of this work, a play will be presented this week, depicting the activities of the various members of a family.

The Young Women's Class of the Stanton M. E. Sunday school met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Emily Lucas.

Mrs. Clarence McVey had as dinner guests on Wednesday evening, Mrs. William Bradley and Mrs. Sue Smith, in honor of Mrs. Bradley's birthday anniversary.

Joseph Kelley, who has been confined to his home by illness for several months, is much improved, and is now able to be out again.

Herbert Rothwell, who has been confined to his home for several weeks suffering a relapse of the grip, is improved.

IN OUR OWN BACK YARD

We revert to weekly newspaper size and appearance this week as we resume the original six-column page instead of the eight-column page size newspaper which has been published since August, 1937.

Curtailment of the page size is strictly an economic measure. One designed to eliminate unpopular boiler plate and filler material. The present size newspaper was successfully published here for twenty-eight years prior to 1937. It is still the traditional size of the average small community weekly paper.

In reverting to the smaller size we feel that we will be able to publish a newsier, more interesting paper filled with live news of local happenings and worthwhile features. We believe that the paper will be less bulky and more commensurate with our income.

We ask our readers to cooperate with us in our endeavor to make the Newark Post a progressive factor in and for the advancement of the community which we serve. We ask your indulgence in our shortcomings and your help in publishing all the news of local interest.

Your news and views are always welcome and with the cooperation of our readers we pledge you our best efforts in giving Newark a sane and unbiased presentation of weekly activities within our scope.

Personal items, organization activities and views on civic affairs are invited. It is impossible for our limited staff to cover all events held during the week. We ask your aid in reporting meetings, parties or other activities which have a news value.

The Newark Post is YOUR newspaper and we trust that you will consider it as such. All correspondence will be given our profound consideration. It must, however, be signed. Signatures may be withheld from publication upon request.

PAY 'EM PROMPTLY

Recent experiences have forcefully brought home the importance of paying our local utility bills promptly if we are to save the five percent discount allowed.

We refer particularly to Newark Town Council bills for electricity which are sent out monthly, fifteen days ahead of the deadline on the discount period.

Often we feel indignant when we are perhaps only one day late in paying our bill and the force at the council office insists upon payment of the full amount. We have felt that we could expect them to waive the five percent discount in isolated instances.

But, one thing must be said of the present Town Council. They had several electric light bills of long standing on their books when they went into office. These bills were promptly collected. The Council then and there laid down a hard and fast rule that all bills MUST be paid on time if the discount was taken. Since that time NO exceptions have been made—nor will any be made, if we know our town councilmen.

Too many of us have the mistaken idea that we are privileged characters, that rules and laws were made for the other fellow but not us.

In the case of the Town Council, the fellow who agrees that he should be allowed the discount, after the deadline, puts the office force directly behind the well-known eight ball. They have their jobs to do and must do them in keeping with instructions from the council. If any exceptions are to be made the council might just as well declare the deadline entirely off and let customers pay when and as they see fit. In such a case the council would very shortly find themselves with a lot of delinquent bills on their hands which, to say the least, might prove difficult to collect.

The Town of Newark is on a sound financial basis. It is in better financial condition than it has been for years. It is operated on a sound, efficient basis. It must be kept that way.

We, for one, feel it our duty to do everything in our power to help the council maintain their present record of achievement. We hope that you feel that way too.

OBSERVANCE OF LENT

The Lenten season, which is observed by the Roman and Greek Catholic churches, as well as in some degree by the Church of England, the Protestant Episcopal church in America and others, began on Ash Wednesday, February 7, and will continue until Easter Sunday, March 24, a period of forty days, not counting Sundays.

In the early days of the Christian era the fast of Lent was observed for varying periods, by others for longer time, according to the writings of Irenaeus, Greek Bishop of Lyons, in the second century. Pope Leo I, in the fourth century, recommended the fast of forty days as having apostolic authority. This period was taken to commemorate the forty days' fast of Moses, of Elijah, and especially that of Christ.

Theoretically, at least, the faithful abstain from food on fast days until evening, worldly amusements and secular celebrations are to be avoided and marriages are held to be undesirable during Lent.

The duty of fasting is modified with respect to laboring people, children, and women under certain conditions, but increased diligence in works of charity is enjoined upon all, as well as extraordinary attention to all religious observances, throughout this period.

Junior Christian Endeavor Banquet Held Tuesday

More than 30 guests attended the Junior Christian Endeavor banquet held at the First Presbyterian Church of Newark Tuesday night after which a program of entertainment, in charge of Miss Ann Hamilton, was presented by members of the organization.

Officers installed by the Rev. H. Everett Hallman following the banquet were: President, Edmund Lewis; vice president, Joyce Bailey; secretary, treasurer, Ray McMullen; lookout committee, Pearl Rose; prayer meeting committee, Joseph McVey; social committee, Bill Hamilton, and missionary committee, Dan Hamilton.

Piano solos were given by Joseph McVey and Lydia Smith while a quartet, composed of Jane Trivitt, Pearl Rose, Annette Deck, and Audrey Hanson, sang. Edmund Lewis entertained with a piccolo selection and Ray McMullen sang.

A puppet show, handled by Bill and Dan Hamilton and Frank McBerly, featured the entertainment.

Among the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hallman and Arthur B. Eastman, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. Eastman.

The committee in charge of the dinner was composed of Mesdames Nora Bryan, Irene Reed, William S. Hamilton, Ford McBerly, and M. W. Hanson.

WE'RE JUST A
little more cramped
for horizontal space
than we were last week—seems as if we
no more stretch out
a sentence that we bang smack up against a column rule.
IT'S LIKE MOV- ing into the city
from the wide open spaces, but it won't take long before we're used to pounding it out again this way and you're used to it now reading it as you haven't done for the past four years.

Everything will continue to run along the same as before—we'll continue to dish it out and you'll continue not to take it. After all, hash is hash (we said hash, wise guy!) whether it's served on sterling or aluminum—just so you don't have to eat it. Only trouble is—we have to cook it.

ANYTHING THAT DOESN'T MAKE
sense in this little masterpiece—blame
it on our confinement. After all, you can't continue to bang thoughts up against tough metal and not expect a little distortion. You're not reading it anyhow—so why all the kick?

Dr. Clyde Montague Cox, locally famous athlete, claims to have graduated from the "ping pong" stage and become a full-fledged table tennis player. Forementioned claim is based on his hero's reported victory over C.
Emerson Johnson, who is said to be better behind home plate than he is wielding a paddle.

Like Gene Tunney in his victory over Jack Dempsey, C. Emerson is said to have benefitted immensely
from a "long count" which was so considerably tabulated by two or three partisan spectators when he clashed with Montague last week.

INCIDENTALLY, DR. COX, A
quick mind, trained to tabulate each point as it is scored, will improve your game no little. Rumor has it that the scores were juggled around faster than a circus performer can throw plates.

Biggest news following mid-year examinations at the University of Delaware wasn't the failure of certain individuals, but the eligibility of Bill Gerow who is playing basketball and will perform in track for the first time following the mid-year tests since his freshman term.

"Willie," who has been used to slumbering away his winter afternoons
during past sports seasons, feels a little out of place at present and goes around with a guilty look as if he's doing something he shouldn't, but he'll get used to it in due time.

With the Bearcats, Highlanders, and Crescents holding securely the first three places in the Newark Table Tennis League, a real fight is coming up for the fourth spot and the right to engage in the Shaughnessy playoff.

THE SLIPPING TERRORS, WHO
have won only one of their last six contests, will probably be shoved back to fifth place tonight while the Travellers, one match behind will move into the vacated spot if they turn back
the Pedagogues which they should.

Delaware's victory over Drexel Saturday night was one of the finest rel-lies we've ever seen the local club make and Steve Grenda, playing the dual role of coach and cheer leader,
worked as hard as any man on the floor.

His yells weren't spasmodic—just continuous and if they were at all responsible for the comeback showing
—maybe the authorities should consider a public address system.

Anyway, something brought the club to life and enabled it to stage one of the sweetest rallies ever made on the local court.

Eddie Anderson still hasn't been out of the double scoring figures in any game this year, but the Hens' leader is going to wake up some fine evening
and find himself locked in the gym
with everyone gone—with the exception of Crescents—Benny might be right along side of his captain.

When Morris Adams, the 300 bowler, starts telling you how simple a game
table tennis is—get him to tell you how we ran 14 straight points off against him and trounced him 21-1.
Ask him about the 13-point handicap games he lost and how many he played without getting more than three. Ask him, go ahead, ask him!

Newark Juniors Defeated
By Wilmington Bowlers

A duPont Experimental Station
bowling team turned in a 2,434-2,272 victory over the Newark Juniors, in a match rolled at the City Bowling Alleys, Wilmington, last week. Gregg paced the locals with a score of 490, while McVey, with a 528 pins, was high for the victorious outfit.

DOWN DREXEL, LOSE TO P.M.C.

Hens Stage Rally To Turn Back
Invading Dragons But Cadets Produce Spurt Of Their Own To Win; Swarthmore Here Friday

A breath-taking rally saved the evening for the University of Delaware cagers Saturday when they edged out a 38-35 victory over Drexel Tech on the local boards, but after materializing against P.M.C. Tuesday, failed to sustain itself as the Cadets went on to win, 53-42.

Aggressive Play
Playing an aggressive brand of ball,
the Cadets marched on to a 16-3 lead
at the end of the first period, led 25-17 at the end of the half, but faded in the third quarter as the Hens rallied to close with a 35-30 edge.

The visitors, sparked by Willie Pitt, took command again, however, and tallied 23 points in the finale, knotting the count of 35-35, and moving on to decisively clinch their third win of the season at eight starts.

In heading the final drive, Pitt chalked up four field tosses, bringing his game total up to 14 points, high mark
for the night.

Capt. Eddie Anderson and Benny Crescenti, with nine points each, were tops for Delaware.

The Drexel story was different, however, for the Hens, after a slow start, created an avalanche of points in the last half to eke out a 38-35 conquest
over the Philadelphia invaders Saturday night.

The Hens, trailing 19-7 at the end of the first quarter, began chipping away
at the Dragons' margin in the second period but remained behind, 25-15 at intermission.

Hens Click
It was in the third period that the Blue and Gold started really clicking and when the third-period smoke had cleared away, the Hens had tallied 13
consecutive points to assume a slim 30-29 margin.

The score was tied at 31-31, Delaware moved ahead once more on Crescenti's field goal and Cas Blaska's
two pointer and foul conversion.
Packy Barris' deuce was Drexel's final score as Carty Douglass accounted for the game's final point a few seconds
later.

Barris led the Dragons' attack with 18 points, 14 of which were scored during the first half. Eddie Anderson led Delaware with 11.

The Hens will be seen again on the home court Friday night when Swarthmore will provide the opposition.

Following this battle, the Blue and Gold will not be seen in action here until Feb. 21 when Washington College invades Taylor Gym. The Hens will meet Drexel at Philadelphia on Wednesday; the Shoremen at Chestertown, Md., next Saturday, and Haverford at Haverford on Feb. 20.

The swimming meet, scheduled with Swarthmore yesterday, has been postponed until Feb. 21 due to illness of some of Delaware's mermen. Harry Nesce, Bob Diekey, and George Houch-
in are on the convalescent list.

TRIALS
STAGED

Wilmington
Dog Captures
13-Inch Class

Concord Connie, owned by William Winant, of near Wilmington, and Dutch Hollow Mickey, owned by J.
Wallace B. Pollett, of Salisbury, Md., captured top honors in the 13-inch and 15-inch classes respectively at the field trial staged Sunday by the Eastern Beagle Club on the Milford Cross
Road reserve.

Forty-nine hounds took part in the affair, one of the most successful to-date. Hunting and scenting conditions were perfect and game was plentiful,
according to Raymond Vansant Buckingham, secretary of the club. More than 100 were served dinner by members of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Other winners were as follows:
15-inch class. Second—Beach Brook
Blossom, owned by Beach Brook Beag-
les. Glen Mills, Pa.; third—Miller's Dan, owned by Stewart Swartz, Pikesville, Md.; fourth—Becker's High Star, owned by Preston Williams and J.
Wallace B. Pollett, of Salisbury, Md., and reserve, Beachbrook Ruff, owned by Beachbrook Beagles, Glen Mills, Pa.

Local Dog Reserve
13-inch class. Second—Smith's Beauty, III, owned by Mervin Bounds, Salisbury, Md.; third—Lady Di Landi,
owned by Ray Landis, of Wilmington;
fourth—Concord Spark, owned by Charles Hartman, of Wilmington, and reserve, Oakwood Joker, owned by R. V. Buckingham, of Newark.

A covered dish supper will be served at the club on Saturday by the Ladies' Auxiliary.
Harry Campbell, of Robisonia, Pa., and Clarence Humphries, of Marshfield, judged the 13-inch class, while James Brown, of Pikesville, Md., and Jack Collins, of Newark, rated the 15-inch division.

Following the Eastern Federation of Beagle Clubs trial here on March 16, an informal trial, sponsored by the local club, the next day, will conclude the season which will be re-opened on Oct. 6.

JACKETS DOWNED BY CONRAD AND CLAYMONT

Redskins Turn
Tables To Avenge
Previous One-Point
Setback By Locals

After grabbing a surprise victory
from P. S. duPont, the Newark High School cagers slipped back into low gear again this week and dropped a pair of decisions, a close one to Conrad and five point affair to Claymont.

It was a sweet victory for the Redskins, victorious 30-29, for the Richardson Park lads had been previously turned back by the Yellowjackets by a one-point margin.

A third-period rally by the locals
forced the game into a 25-25 deadlock,
but the visitors managed to hang up an extra point in the finale to emerge victorious. Conrad took a 10-7 lead at the quarter and held a 21-15 advantage at the half.

Bill Bellman, with seven points, was high for the locals, while Lindy Ballance, with a total of 10, was high scorer for the winning team.

Wells In Form
In the preliminary tilt, Wells paced the local junior varsity outfit to a 24-12 conquest. The Newark sharpshooter tallied 6 field goals and a foul for a total of 13 points.

In a low-scoring contest, Claymont marked up its sixth straight win with an 18-13 triumph over the Jackets.
The two clubs battled point-for-point
through the first quarter which ended knotted at 6-6, but Claymont blanked
the invaders in the second, 4-0, to lead
at intermission, 10-6.

Claymont continued to hold the upper hand through the second half by out-scoring the Newark quintet, 8-7.
Don Munger led the Claymont offensive by hanging up four field goals
for eight points, while Angie Cataldi was high for Newark with seven.

The Newark junior varsity dropped a 21-18 decision to the Claymont reserves in the preliminary. Morrow, with eight points, was tops for the locals, while Minutella was best for the winners with six.

Brown Vocational, already sporting a one-sided win over Newark, will invade the local boards for the only other game this week.

MOTORISTS—

Did you ever stop to consider, when you climb in behind the steering wheel of your car, how much your "load" is worth? Even when you are alone your cargo is valuable enough, but when you have your family with you it is priceless.

Did you ever stop to consider that you were carrying goods of equal value you would demand and have an army of police escorts to see that you delivered your load safely at its destination? Your responsibility would be shared. But when you take the family out in the car their safety is your sole responsibility.

You might take reckless chances with your own life, but don't gamble with the lives of those you love.

WINTER DRIVING HAZARDS—

Slipping accidents continue as the winter wears on. The weather is a factor in automobile accidents, of course, but according to the Delaware County Council, there is a psychological factor to be considered. Driving techniques must fit the weather conditions.

One day it is raining, the next day it is snowing, and the next day there is a heavy fog. Each condition calls for certain precautions and it is evident that many motorists do not take them.

When your driving to the weather. If the streets are slippery, slow down. Turn the corners more easily. Don't travel at a speed that will make a sudden stop at an intersection necessary. If the atmosphere is foggy, be sure your vision is adequate by having the windshield wiper in good working condition.

When snow is on the ground, children will play in it. Many of them are using the streets for coasting purposes. It is probably contrary both to the parents' orders and the city's ordinances, but that doesn't keep them off. It is up to the motorists to look out for them.

TO THE

Somehow, I never have felt that the way a woman drives and handles a car is a fit subject for a lot of cheap humor.

Sure, I've heard all the stock jokes about women forgetting to put gas or oil in the car, and about their not knowing what goes on under the hood or in the transmission.

Well, the way I look at it is this: Why should a woman know what goes on under the hood? She has to know too many other important things—how to cure Junior's poison tory and Sister's gripe, how to keep meals hot when her husband is late to dinner, where to find bargains in food and clothing, and a hundred other things that would make most men holler "Uncle."

And the fact is, the women drivers I know are mostly mighty good drivers! I can name you some women drivers who aren't very good at the wheel, but I can also name you some men drivers who are terrible!

So I say to the ladies of this fair town: You tell your husband that it's not your business to know about automobiles. And when anything goes wrong, bring your car in to me, and if it can be fixed, we'll fix it! God bless you!

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear husband, George S. Morrison, who passed away February 11, 1937. The month of February is here again. The saddest of all the year. No one knows the silent heartache of those who have lost a dear friend. Of the grief that is borne in silence. For the one we loved so well. Your memory is as dear today as the hour you passed away. Your grave I tend with loving care. For part of my heart is buried there. I miss you when I need a friend. On you I always could depend. Sadly missed by wife and brothers.
