PREFACE.

(Put here because we know that people are sometimes so unkind as to skip the Preface when at the beginning of the book; and we don't want them to skip this.)

For the information of those business men who have established themselves in Wilmington since the last issue of the City Directory, and of those who, though perhaps of long residence in the city, may not be acquainted with our business, we give here some information in regard to it.

THE publication of the City Directory, though a private business enterprise, is yet in a great degree a necessary public work; for a Directory is one of those modern contrivances which are so important to our convenience and comfort as to be really indispensable. It is, for many reasons which will be easily perceived, most desirable that the Directory should be published at home, by persons familiar with the business,—for Directory canvassing and compiling is a business of itself, requiring experience, capacity, and unceasing care and watchfulness,—and by parties who are fully responsible for the fulfillment of contracts, and accessible in case of complaint. It is, beside, a matter of public interest that the Directory should be in charge of enterprising and progressive publishers, and that it should be profitable to them; so that its regular annual issue may be depended upon, and that new features and desirable improvements may from time to time be added, which cannot be done if the profits of publication are not sufficient to warrant it.

The present publishers have issued the Directory since 1877, when the firm of Ferris Bros. began business, they having purchased the copyright from the former owners. It has for many years been issued regularly every spring; it has been improved and enlarged, and new features have been added to it. Among these may be mentioned the addition, after each person's name, of the name of his employer, where it can be found,—a feature which is of the greatest use, and is greatly appreciated; an accurate map of the city, which has been engraved for the work, and is inserted in each issue; the careful canvass of suburbs and outlying villages, such as Edge Moor, Riddle's banks, etc. (The addition of New Castle, Middletown, Newport, Newark, etc., to the issue for 1885, is contemplated.) In the present issue an improvement is made which the publishers feel confident will be of still greater use, and very largely increase the value of the Directory. This is the "Block Directory," giving the houses in their order by streets, and showing the occupant of each. It is hardly necessary to say that this is a costly addition, and that making it involves a voluntary sacrifice of a large part of the profits of publication ; but the publishers do not assume to have made it from philanthropic motives,—it is purely “business,”—and it is mentioned merely in order to emphasize the fact that it is to the interest of the public, as well as of the publishers, that the Directory should be financially successful ; for otherwise such improvements, involving such sacrifices, would not and could not be made.

It may not be out of place to say a word here to those who think the price of the Directory too high, and wish for “competition” to reduce it ; who talk of its publication as a “monopoly,” and long to see its (alleged) unholy profits cut down. To be successful, the Directory must be a “monopoly,” for the simple reason that if two Directories were published, probably both, and certainly one of them, would result in loss to the publisher. He, having had his fingers burned, would probably keep them out of the fire the next year ; and Wilmington would still have only one Directory. Continued competition is from the nature of the case impossible ; and therefore those who cannot sleep well for brooding over the “monopoly” which grinds three dollars a year out of them, should reflect that they have only to choose between the present monopoly and some other monopoly,—whether they will rather bear the monopoly that they have, or fly to a monopoly that they know not of. The truth is that the publication of the City Directory is no more a monopoly than is the case with any other business where the profits are not worth competing for. Any discontented citizen can publish a second directory of Wilmington to-morrow. We don’t think he would find it very profitable—but there is no “monopoly” to prevent him from proving the contrary.

It is not to be denied that a book called by courtesy a “Directory” could be published for less than the price of the present work ; and indeed scarcely a year passes that some disinterested friend of humanity does not appear to assure the people of Wilmington that he will release them from the extortion under which they groan, and make them happy by publishing a Directory for two dollars. (“Sign on the bottom line, please.”) Probably such persons will continue to make their unselfish offers yearly for an indefinite time,—though up to the present time their books here have not been heard from. And while the present publishers are entirely indifferent to their competition, if it can be so called, yet they are most desirous that nothing shall alienate from them, even in a small degree, the genuine, hearty good-will and cordial support of the people of Wilmington, which alone can make their business permanently prosperous. It is their steady purpose to win for themselves this good-will by making it clear to every customer that for every dollar he pays he shall receive a full and just return. They are convinced that a low-priced directory could not be made a good one ; and their efforts therefore will be toward the only real cheapness,—that is, toward making a most excellent Directory, at a moderate price. That their intention in this respect is real and earnest, they think will be evident to those who examine and use the present issue of the Directory ; and they also hope to make it apparent to all who deal with them that it will be carried out likewise in every department of their business.

General Printers and Binders, Wilmington, Del.*

THE purpose of this establishment will be in the future, as it has been in the past, to do the best work, to do it promptly and satisfactorily, and to charge moderate and uniform prices for doing it.

We do not intend to charge high prices, for we mean to keep our customers; we do not intend to do work for less than cost, for we mean to pay our debts; we do not intend to make prices too high to some customers and too low to others, for we are convinced that we are not qualified to build up a successful business on that plan. We believe that the only safe rule of practice, on which a successful business can be built, is to charge the same prices to all customers, and to make them as low as they can be made, and yield a small margin of profit.

During the past year we have added to our equipment a complete bindery, and shall now be able to execute orders for work of this character more promptly and satisfactorily than heretofore. We invite our customers to send us their orders for Blank Books, Book and Magazine Binding, Ruling, Numbering, Perforating, Wire Stitching, etc., as well as printed work, and think they will find satisfaction in our work in this line also.

BLACK BARREN MINERAL SPRINGS.

Pleasant Grove P. O., Lancaster County, Pa.

JAMES BLACK, Proprietor, Lancaster, Pa.

A remarkably successful remedy and specific in the following diseases, in most of which we are able to give certificates or medical authority:

Female Diseases,	Rheumatism,	Dyspepsia,
Gout,	Jaundice,	Constipation,
Diabetes,	Neuralgia,	General Debility,
Bright's Disease,	Indigestion,	Dropsy,
Diseases of the Liver,	Brick Dust Deposits,	Incontinence of Urine,
Inflammation of Kidneys,	Inflammation of Bladder.

This water belongs to a class of mineral waters which have but little or any taste or odor to distinguish them from ordinary water. Persons who have knowledge of such subjects know that the most valuable waters in the world belong to this class, and at the same time those waters which are most offensive in both taste and smell are regarded by the ignorant as efficacious from that fact alone. From the first its effects are agreeable; the stomach is invigorated, the bowels are regulated, no matter whether the previous habit has been one of relaxation or costiveness; the appetite improves, and all the functions of the body generally are led back to their healthy condition.

The Medical and Surgical Reporter of August 26, 1871, contains a full description of the properties and curative effects of BLACK BARREN SPRING WATER, by Dr. Francis W. Lewis, of Philadelphia, in which he says:—"In a recent journey through the southern part of this State, near the Susquehanna river, my attention was called to a mineral spring, which seems to possess remarkable virtues." After detailing a number of cases, he specially names a case, under his care, of "malarial fever, followed by dropsy," of an aggravated character, and says: "After suffering for two years, he was induced to drink this Water; he took several pints every day, and in six weeks regained his former strength, appetite, weight, memory, and was entirely free from pain." He concludes by saying, "Many other cases might be brought forward to show what this water promises to do, but these are sufficient to demonstrate its value. The Water is pure, sparkling from nature's laboratory, delicious to the taste, and free from all impurity of taste or smell, and has the property of keeping in glass for years unchanged."

DYSPEPSIA.—In the great discomforts brought on by indigestion, you will find the Black Barren Water the most efficient remedy ever used for that disease.

RHEUMATISM.—In this most distressing and painful disease it has been used with marked benefit and relief.

DROPSY.—In all dropsical affections this water has been remarkably efficacious, in a short time producing a change and driving off the accumulation of water, and cases of long standing have been cured in a short time.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.—This water is highly recommended by physicians as a remarkably successful remedy.

BLACK BARREN SPRING WATER is put up in half-gallon bottles, and also in demijohns of one, two, three, and five gallons, or carboys of ten gallons, and sold at the following prices:

Half-gallon Bottles, 40 cents each; per case of one dozen, $4.00; per Carboy of ten gallons, $5.00.

Bottles and packages may be returned at cost, less freight.

For sale at the Springs.

FUNK & SPENCER, Thirteenth and Market Sts., Philadelphia.

Dr. GEO. H. MARKLEY, Opera House, Harrisburg, Pa.

A. J. DITMAN, 10 Astor House, New York.

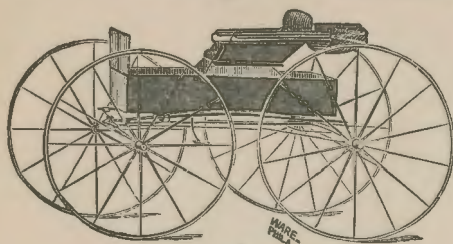

And by Druggists generally.

THE BLACK BARREN SPRINGS HOUSE,

Open for a limited number of guests July 1st, 1883. ACCESS—Via Columbia and Port Deposit R. R. to Haines Station, or via Oxford and Peach Bottom R. R. to Arcadia Station, each being within two miles of the house. Guests should engage rooms and notify James Black at least three days before departure, stating day, train, and station at which they expect to arrive, when only carriages will be in waiting. Transportation of person and baggage 25 cents each way.
