Original Plays To Be Featured By Five Fraternities In Playbill

Five original plays will be featured in the 1954 edition of the Intra-fraternity Playbill which will be presented Monday and Tuesday evenings in Mitchell Hall at 8:00 p.m.

The five houses which will give plays written by one or more of their members are Theta Chi, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Kappa Tau, Alpha Epsilon Pi and Alpha Tau Omega. The ATO's will be attempting to retain possession of the playbill trophy which they won last year.

The program and the order of appearances is as follows:

- Monday, March 29
1. Delta Tau Delta — The Oxbow Incident — and original play by Dave Menser and Bill Brown.
 2. Kappa Alpha — Four on a Heath — by Foster Fitzsimons.
 3. Theta Chi — Strike Three — an original play by Don Miller.
 4. Alpha Epsilon Pi — Just a Little Fate — an original play by Carl Goldenberg.
 5. Sigma Phi Epsilon — Hope is the Thing with Fathers — by Richard Harrity.
- Tuesday, March 30
1. Pi Kappa Alpha — I Never See Maggie Alone — anonymous.
 2. Phi Kappa Tau — The Big Promise — an original play by Wayne Kirkin.
 3. Alpha Tau Omega — Bright Glows the Candle — an original play by Dyke Pollitt and Bill Harkins.
 4. Sigma Nu — News from Home — by Charles George.

The judges for the playbill will be Dr. Ned B. Allen, head of the English Department; Dr. Ray E. Keese, associate professor of the department of Dramatic Arts and Speech; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacot, resident dormitory advisors.

Resident Students Pay Room Deposit Starting March 29

Students who plan to live in university dormitories during the 1954-55 school year are notified that room deposits of $25.00 are payable at the Business Office during the period March 29 to May 15, inclusive.

The $25.00 deposit is credited to the student's account as a payment on his room rent for the first semester 1954-55. The full deposit will be refunded if the student gives written notice of cancellation of the reservation to the Office of the Dean of Students before August 11, 1954.

Each student will receive instructions through campus mail regarding the procedure of room drawings and deposits. The annual room drawing will be held for women students in late April or early May, but the deposit must be made with the Business Office as indicated in the notices which are being mailed. The form for men students will permit those making reservations to indicate a

Current E-52 Musical Tickets Still Available

Tickets are still available for the final two performances of "A Connecticut Yankee." The combined E-52 University Theatre — Music Department production will be presented for the last time tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 p. m. in Mitchell Hall.

To date some 1400 persons have seen the Rodgers and Hart musical comedy which has been acclaimed by both critics and audiences. Six hundred persons were on hand for Saturday's show. At the beginning of the week, approximately 800 tickets had been sold for the final two performances.

SGA Passes Measures To Improve Attendance During Weekly Meetings

Irregular attendance at S. G. A. meeting was attacked in five of the eleven by-laws passed on Thursday, March 18, at the regular S. G. A. meeting.

Among other resolutions enacted was one which provided for the awarding of SGA keys to its members each year.

It is hoped that these measures will alleviate much of the laxness on the part of the SGA members, which has often resisted effective functioning by the organization and its committees in the past.

The new by-laws as they are now in effect are:

1. Attendance at all meetings is compulsory; absences are excusable only by the Chair.
2. Three unexcused absences shall constitute grounds for dismissal. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner prescribed by the Constitution of the Student Government Association.
3. Two-thirds shall constitute the necessary quorum for business. To provide that the SGA shall not be impeded in the transaction of business by failing to achieve the necessary quorum due to unavoidable absences, this number shall be calculated from the number whose attendance is required at the specific meeting, and not from the total membership.
4. Student Government Association meetings will start at 7:15 p. m. promptly and will extend until the evening's business is completed, since women members

Winterthur To Sponsor 8th Of Lecture Series

"Architecture in Philadelphia during the Colonial Period" is the topic of the eighth lecture in the series sponsored by the Winterthur Program on Tuesday, April 13, at 8:15 in Wolf Hall Auditorium.

The lecture will be given by Dr. Anthony M. B. Garvan, assistant professor of American Civilization at the University of Pennsylvania. The program is open to University of Delaware students and faculty without charge and is followed by a coffee hour in the lobby of Wolf Hall.

From the audiences' reactions, it seems that the show has been received as well or better than expected, and no individual or group of performers can be singled out for all the praise.

Those who saw the show reacted favorably to almost every minute, and every actor from the leads—Jane Banks, Pattie Phillips and Dave Tompkins — down through supporting players—George Cavey, Elaine Labour and Tip Larkin—deserves special commendation. The chorus is undoubtedly the best such group to appear in an E-52 production.

Coeds To Show Men Social Whirl At Women's Weekend

Dorms To Provide Various Functions On Saturday Night

Coeds take the social initiative here at the university this weekend in their annual Women's Weekend. This is the only big whirl of the year in which the tables are turned and girls do the asking on this campus; they begin tonight with the semi-formal dance, followed by dormitory parties tomorrow night and various plans for Sunday.

The dance, to be held in Carpenter Field House from 9 to 1, will have as its theme an "Oriental Garden." Although details are a secret to the male population, rumors go that the women have been painting butterflies and dragons for the past two weeks. Dancers will be beating time with the Delmelodians, back with a new vocalist and more Dixieland music.

Some of the dormitories are planning to complete the weekend with "Open Houses" on Sunday. Men will get the rare opportunity to see the women's rooms and pass judgment on their housekeeping abilities. Also on the agenda are picnics or similar activities.

The weekend is being sponsored by the Women's Executive Council. Lucy Lasher is general chairman for the dance. Heading the committees are: Joan Damico and Ann Lloyd, tickets; Jean Ross and Dorothy Brugge, publicity; Winifred Skeen and Jean Ross, refreshments; Mary Anne Lindale, invitations; Lucy Darbey and Peggy Tighe, decorations; Shirley Tibbitt, programs; Lois Cassidy, favors; Nesta Warfield, chaperones; and Phyllis Baker and Carolyn Phillips, miscellaneous.

Dr. Oppenheim Plans Renewal Of Monday Night Smoke Talks

Smoke talks, a phenomenon common to the University of Delaware in the past years, may be listed again among campus activities. A group, spearheaded by Dr. E. Oppenheim, plans to renew the "talks" if sufficient student and faculty interest is shown.

Smoke talks are informal discussions on varied topics, not in fixed discussion groups, but rather in small groups.

A meeting for all interested persons will be held in Brown Hall card room at 4 p. m. on Monday, March 29.

Eklund Wins Graduate Walk; Sands Takes Undergrad Title

Two hours and twenty-three minutes after leaving the B&O station in Wilmington at one o'clock, the first walker crossed the Old College gate in Newark. Rolf Eklund, a graduate student in Chemical Engineering, was the first contestant to make his way down Main Street to Old College gate.

He was closely followed by Charlie Sands, the undergraduate winner who covered the 12½ miles in 2 hours 28 minutes, just five minutes behind Eklund. Charlie, who lives in Wilmington, said, "Now that I know I can do it. I think that I'll start commuting." It seems that Rolf, who "favored myself out of the walk," was entered by Al Holzman, his manager, who felt all along that Rolf was the man to beat.

The coed division was won by two sophomores from New Castle Hall. June Andres and Gladys Strobel, who will each keep one of a new pair of shoes donated by Mary Jane Shoe Store in Wilmington, as a memento of the race, finished in 2 hours 47 minutes.

The only other graduate student entered was Milt Leighton who finished third in the entire group in 2:30 but was judged second in his division. Milt's manager, Frank Wallis, said that his man, who Frank referred to as the "Flying Maine-iac," would definitely have pulled in first had he "trained on beer as I advised."

Although Lila Smoleroff, a freshman from Mount Vernon, New York, set the pace for the first 10 miles, she was overtaken by Gladys and June a few miles outside of Newark and came in in 2:50, just three minutes behind the winners. Lila couldn't figure out where it was that they got that "homestretch burst." She also commented, "I'm an English major—and this is really something to write about!"

All along the way the walkers were offered rides and were cheered on by the honking of car horns. Some motorists stopped to inquire about the proceedings.

Kay Valentine, the make-up editor of the Review helped to refresh the walkers with a refreshment stand along the way. The water she had on hand about four miles outside of Newark helped to boost the contestants for the home stretch. Aiding and abetting Kay were Martha Murphy, Jean Tull, and Lucy Darby.

Delta Tau Delta fraternity, led by their prexy Diz Day, were arrayed in their striped caps for the contest. Diz, who came in together

Petition For Lloyd To Be Re-Entered In SGA Elections

The student government voted last Thursday night not to re-open nominations but to re-enter the petition of Joan Lloyd, candidate for SGA vice president.

The possibility of re-opening nominations was suggested by some members of the student body when the final list of petitions appeared with several candidates unopposed. The proposal was in the wake of the unconstitutional extended petition period last year.

Last year's election was insufficiently publicized, in opposition to the SGA constitution. This lack of publicity far enough in advance of the election date necessitated extending the period for petitions. Such was not the case this year, as the announcement of the petition deadline was made by the time specified in the student

Class Of '54 To Sign Pledge Concerning Senior Weekend

Members of the graduating class will be asked to sign a pledge concerning senior weekend when they vote at the coming SGA election, announced class president Ted Zutz recently.

The pledge, in effect, will be the promise of the members of the senior class to limit all social functions to the ground floor of the Hotel DuPont when the seniors hold weekend festivities. This request is intended to curb all parties held in parts of the hotel other than the ballroom itself.

The guarantee from the members of the graduating group that activities will be necessary in order to gain permission to hold the senior formal there. The situation arises from a ruling imposed by Dr. Carlson, former University of Delaware president, that no university function could be held in a hotel. This decision stemmed from the disorderly conduct of other senior classes up to that time, as reported by hotel officials.

President Perkins, in view of the impossibility of securing the DuPont Country Club, has offered to waive the ruling of Carlson, provided that the class president can secure the word of honor of a large percentage of the class that the

Newark's Quaint College Inn Acquires New Management

On February 18, the university acquired two new neighbors when the College Inn, on the corners of Main St. and College Ave., changed hands. The new managers, Mrs. Zerelda H. Carpenter and Miss Margaret G. Humphreys, are now in charge of the quaint little restaurant, which has almost become a part of the campus itself. On weekends, the inn is usually filled with students and visitors and at other times members of the faculty and their guests are frequently found there. "We are proud of the fact that the college uses our facilities as much as it does," said Mrs. Carpenter. She went on to state that she and her sister are very interested in having the College Inn become an important part of the town, for "Newark's a growing community, and we want to grow with it," she said.

At present, the two ladies are also interested in finding out more about the history of their little establishment. Mrs. Carpenter conjectures that the building must be around 200 years old, but she has not been able to find out the exact date it was built. She does know, however, that the building was originally a house, later made into a photographer's studio.

Both Mrs. Carpenter and Miss Humphreys are from Wilmington, where they live together on Murphy Rd., Fairfax. Previously, they were in a similar business in Swarthmore, Pa., and later owned a trucking company in Wilmington. All in all, they have been in business together for fourteen years, although Miss Humphrey's experience dates back even farther. During the war she managed Army and Navy cafeterias, and she was associated for some time with her brother in a restaurant business in Salisbury, Md. She was also connected with the Mayflower Doughnut Shops for a little while. Since she and her sister are not newcomers to this field, they have quite a good chance of realizing their aim of expanding the business and making the College Inn the finest place of its kind.

U.D. Ag Students To Help In Annual Field Day Events

Several University of Delaware agriculture students will participate as assistants in the annual Agricultural Field Day to be held Wednesday, March 31.

At the field day, consisting of state FFA public speaking contests and judging contests, the UD undergraduates will show cattle, aid staff members in arranging the judging products, guide individual groups and conduct tours through Agricultural Hall.

In addition, a lunch stand will be conducted by members of the UD Agriculture Club. Chairman George Simpson lists as assistants for the counter Walt Garber, Ed Ralph, Orlando Houston, Dick Howell, Charles Patterson and Earl Webb.

Approximately 500 high school students are expected to attend the event. Eligible participants include all high school students enrolled in vocational agriculture.

Competitors for the public speaking contest are selected through preliminary speaking contests in the three counties of the state. The successful finalist will represent Delaware in a regional contest in the near future.

Delaware Play Festival Begins Thursday, April 1

The schools present their plays during the mornings beginning at 10 a. m. and in the afternoon beginning at 1:30 p. m. The community theatres take over in the evenings after 7:30 o'clock. Tickets at $.50 will admit the public to all 22 performances.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

We, two members of the Junior class, think the SGA elections this year will be a farce. In the first place, thirteen candidates for the twenty-nine offices are unopposed. This means that almost one-half of the offices have been decided before election day. Who wants to vote now! Last year there was a tremendous and reasonably successful drive to get a large student participation in the voting. This year the idea seems to be to "put one over" on the students so that only certain "desirable" candidates will run. How many people will be motivated or encouraged to vote when so little depends on the outcome of the voting.

The most outrageous example of the mismanagement of election affairs is the fact that the most important office, that of president of SGA, is unopposed. Any office this important should be decided by the campus at large and not just a limited group like the IFC. It is also rather galling to note that the president of every class is unopposed.

Of course, those who reject our complaints will say that everyone had equal opportunity to submit petitions for candidates. Our contention, however, is that there was not sufficient publicity as to the deadline for petitions and the election procedures in general. We knew more about SGA elections our freshmen year when we were relatively unfamiliar with these procedures. This year it appears that only those directly concerned with SGA were kept adequately informed. Lack of time for careful thought resulting from insufficient publicity in advance is probably one of the main reasons why the same people are selected as candidates year after year. We are not saying that these people are not competent, but that there are far more people than these on campus who are capable of direct participation in our student government. Publicity in sufficient quantities concerning the submission of petitions should begin at least one month prior to the deadline so that everyone will have sufficient time to participate.

The fraternity men who read this will no doubt say that the women had ample opportunity to offer their own candidates since they conducted their own primary elections. These primaries, however, were not successful because there was much confusion and misunderstanding concerning them. For some reason, unknown to us and everyone with whom we have discussed the matter, there are no women candidates for some of the offices for which we definitely voted in the primaries. One of these offices had at least eight women candidates suggested and voted on. Yet none of these women are contending for the office.

Another principal defect in the women's primaries concerns the candidates for the Chairman of Women's Affairs. The freshmen women were informed at their primary elections that this office was to be voted on at a later date. Thus, over a third of the women on campus were not given a chance to participate in the selection of candidates for this office. This situation again illustrates the need for adequate publicity and information concerning the elections.

So that this letter will not be regarded as merely another "crank letter," we would like to offer a suggestion to improve the elections in later years. We think there should be an amendment to the SGA constitution that no candidate for office be unopposed. But surely something constructive should be done to improve and remedy this disgraceful situation.

Sincerely yours,
Shirley O'Day
Lois McKay

To the Editor:

A great deal of energy has been spent recently both in print and in campus discussions on the subject of the forthcoming SGA elections. As the actual election date draws near, most students have already made up their minds concerning their choice of candidates for the various offices.

There has often been the comment made that not enough interest is taken in campus elections. This fact is indicated by the evidence of so many students who are seeking offices uncontested. There are, however, a number of offices which have given rise to much campaigning and have been, even at this early date, bones of contention.

We all like to see a job that is well done, especially if we ourselves have a part in that job. The SGA offices are jobs that are held by a few. We can all, however, have a part in seeing that these jobs are well done if we will only consider carefully our choices for these offices.

One of the most important jobs is that of the vice president, to whom so much responsibility is entrusted. To fill this office it is necessary to elect a competent student, one who is acquainted with the workings of the Delaware SGA and who will be a conscientious worker for the betterment of the SGA and the interests of his fellow students.

In the opinion of many students as well as in my own, no one can possibly fill this office any better than Mickie Blaine. Mickie's picture appears in this week's Review, and her activities listed with it speak for themselves as to her capabilities. Therefore, let us consider her as an outstanding candidate, worthy of our votes.

The student who backs Mickie Blaine will have the satisfaction of knowing that he is voting for a candidate who, when elected, will render a "job well done."

Sincerely,
Jane Schaller

To the Editor:

This is an attempt to answer a question that I have heard many times in the last few days: "Who is Joan Lloyd?"

Although this is Joan's first year at Delaware, she has been nominated for the important job of vice president of the SGA. She is well qualified for this position, as shown by her record of participation at Union Junior College in such various offices as vice president of the student government, treasurer of her sorority, president of the International Relations Club and president of the French Club. She was also valedictorian of her graduating class.

Here at Delaware Joan is literary editor of the Blue Hen, besides working on the social committee of Cannon Hall.

I feel that, if elected to the SGA presidency, my candidate will do a tremendous job. Let's get behind Joan Lloyd!

Sincerely yours,
Jean Sloman

To the Editor:

Don't forget, undergrads, S.G.A. and class elections are coming up soon. Everyone should cast their vote for the unopposed candidates as this may swing the election. S.G.A.'s top office and the class presidents are campaigning like they never had to before! Why not? Look at the competition—NIL! Do you want the top offices to become pawns or puppets that are manipulated at will, or do you want a representative of the ENTIRE STUDENT BODY in each and every office?

S.G.A. offices have come to mean Sure Gift Always. Let's do something about this. An office should not be allowed to have only one candidate, and I use the word candidate for a lack of a better word. Times are such that 25 signatures can elect a Senior class president and an S.G.A. president. Wake up Delaware!

'Neath The Arches

MICKIE BLAINE and DAVE MENSER

I really wanted to call this "fallen arches" this week, but my partner wouldn't let me. The arches are fallen as a result of the walk to Newark that this paper promoted last Saturday afternoon. Seriously, it was the greatest. Someone suggested burning Mary Balick in effigy, but we never could find out whether anyone did or not. But enough of this prattle about hiking; if you're interested look elsewhere in the paper.

One of the Theta Chi's woke up on Sunday morning and looked in the mirror. "Ye Gods, I'm naked," was his only comment. All kidding aside, that must have been a real hairy party. All kinds of people were back for the annual blast—Harry Dunn, Freddy Hartman, Kiwi, Bill Butler and quite a few ex-Udells. Lou Gross furnished the music for a real nice party.

AEPI had a little party after the musical Saturday night. Most of the boys managed to float up in the typical Newark monsoon. Bobby Simon made the punch and said "it was lousy." Nobody did anything 'cause the party was too short.

The musical we liked, but most of the kids in it enjoyed the party at Jack Mealey's more than anyone in the audience enjoyed the show. We've got orders to make the column short this week, 'cause of all the pictures and stuff about the elections.

Bye now.

CLIPPINGS

By ART HODGES

A drunk walked into an open elevator shaft and fell three stories. Gingerly he stood up, brushed himself off, and reset his hat.

"Dammit!" he exclaimed, "I said UP!"

"Just one more kiss, darling," she pleaded.

"On an empty stomach?" he asked.

"Of course not!" she replied, "right where the last one was."

A man's ear was bleeding like a stuck pig. "I bit myself," he explained, "That's impossible," said the doctor. "How can a man bite himself in the ear?" The man said, "I was standing on a chair."

The selfmade millionaire was addressing a graduating class. "All my success in life," he said, "I owe to one thing—pluck, pluck, pluck."

A bored but realistic senior in the rear of the room spoiled his effort by saying, "Yes sir, but will you please tell us something about how and whom to pluck?"

Freshman Discuss Plan For Collection Of Dues

At the Freshman meeting held on March 11, class dues and activities were discussed. Nancy Ennis, speaking for the finance committee, reported on a plan for collecting class dues. The plan calls for fifty cents a semester, and the money will go toward financing Senior Weekend and freshmen activities.

Class President Jim Maloney announced plans for a freshmen activity, to be held on April 23. Square dancing and "Sock Hop" were suggested, but the matter will be decided later by the entertainment committee. Other suggestions may be submitted to Carolyn Phillips.

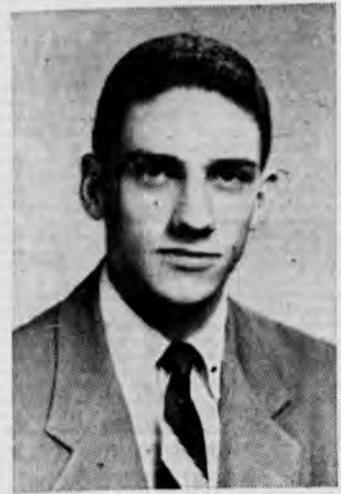

The freshmen present at the meeting voted to leave the question of dues to the entire class. A question will be placed on the ballot for class elections, and all freshmen will vote for or against dues when they go to the polls.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

When students burn the midnight oil
 While cramming for a test,
 The smooth, fresh smokes they reach for most
 Are Luckies...always best!

Marilyn Sergeant
University of Arizona

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

If cleaner, fresher, smoother taste is that which you would prize, There is but one solution, friend, Buy Luckies if you're wise!

Blue Hen Track And Field Squad Wins Fourteenth Downing Albright College

The Blue Hen track and field squad last Saturday stretched its streak of wins to fourteen by downing Albright College.

Delaware again depended on the field events to compile the majority of its points. The two outstanding feats of the day came in the pole vault and the shot-put competition. In the pole vault Bill McWilliams broke the indoor record previously held by Joe Miller by scaling a height of 11 feet, 3 inches.

Steve Butcher continued to extend his own shot put record to 44 feet, 4 1/2 inches. The high jump was won by Dick Saunders at 5 feet, 9 inches, and Bill Wagner placed second.

In the broad jump Mike Ferver and Bill McWilliams placed second and third.

Delaware's attempts to pile up points in the track events were hampered by the fine distance running of Albright's Bill Shirk, a sophomore and one of the smoothest runners in the Middle Atlantic Conference.

The Blue Hens, however, romped ahead in the middle distance races. Charlie Skinner repeated his performance of last week by winning the 440 yard race.

Frank Davidson, bothered by shin splints lately, managed to continue his winning ways in the half mile run.

Jim Flynn posted a win in the 50 yd. dash. Stuart Koch, Don Rau, Jim Glick and Roger Fouracre also contributed to the victory.

Tomorrow the West Chester State Teachers will challenge this string of victories with a tough team and an impressive record.

This is the Hens' last meet of the indoor track season, and the evenly matched teams should make the competition exciting.

The Aquatic Club is planning to hold tryouts again for those interested in joining the club. The tryouts will be preceded by a demonstration by the club of synchronized swimming and aquatic skills. The demonstration is open to all interested women students and will be held on April 12. Tryouts will follow on April 13, 14 and 19. Take a few practice slips in the pool, gals, and watch for more information in the Review!

The basketball season is approaching its last week of games on south campus. The winners of the Gold League are Turvey and Smythe Juniors, both of whom are undefeated. They will play each other March 25; and since the score from this game will not be obtainable when the Review goes to press, congratulations to the winners. The Blue League is headed by Fran Phillip. The Sussex A team has just about finished the season undefeated.

Nesta Warfield still holds first place among high scorers with a total of 68 points; however, she is closely followed by Norma McClellan with 65 points.

The bowling tournament, managed by Charlotte Phillips, got underway this week with the first game Monday night. The bowling teams are composed of four girls; so if there are any girls who would still like to get together and form a team, see Charlotte Phillips immediately.

We hear that the Junior Physical Education majors are throwing a "come-as-you-are" party on April 1st for all the P. E. majors. It sounds like a lot of fun for all.

Blue Hen Lacrosse Team Scrimmages West Point

Today the Fightin' Blue Hen lacrosse team will tackle the Cadets of West Point in a practice game before starting their regular schedule with MIT on Monday. This game should prove to be a real test for the Blue Hens, since the Cadets are rated with the top teams of the country. The practice game is scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m.

This year the team is coached by veteran Milt Roberts and captained by Boyd Cook and George Chaloupka. These two will make up the majority of the Hens' strong defense. Probably rounding out the defense will be Bill Gurney, Pete Braungart and Jim Kinch.

The attack will line up with Sandy Whitney, Pete Brosius and Jerry Angulo, with Jack Wiberg and Ward Carson held in reserve.

Wayne Kirklun, Bob Horn, Clark Carbaugh, Dick Knoll, Ronnie Haines and Frank Goeckler will probably see plenty of action also.

This coming Monday the stickmen will play host to MIT. The Hens were victorious over the Engineers in the contest last year.

The Armchair Umpire

CHARLES WILLIS

The indoor track season draws to a conclusion tomorrow afternoon when Ken Steers' thinclads play host to the future teachers from West Chester in Carpenter Field House. This meet is most important to the Delaware squad, which has a winning string of fourteen consecutive dual meet victories over a two year period. The Hens have displayed considerable strength in the field events thus far this season. Steve Butcher, who has set new shot-put marks the past two weeks, and Bob Graham are a strong one-two combination in the shot-put event. Bill McWilliams and Jack Simpson provide an equally effective pair in the pole vault; and Dick Saunders and Bill Wagner are consistent scorers in the high jump. The middle distance events should be strengthened with captain Bill Reybold in action.

Spring football practice, will be entering its final week Monday with coach Dave Nelson and his assistants seeking to find out who will best play the various positions. The overload of centers has been relieved temporarily by placing Jerry Weis at tackle and Jimmy Quinn at end. Both Quinn and Vince Grande were sticky-fingered ends during last Saturday's scrimmage. Joe Lauletta, a sophomore fullback who was hampered with injuries last season, reeled one of the longer runs during the two hour scrimmage. Captain Dan Ford gained sizeable chunks of yardage from his fullback post and was impressive on defense.

The National Basketball Committee which met in Kansas City this week made several rule changes. First of all the game has been divided into two twenty-minute halves instead of the present four ten-minute quarters. The other rule change involves the one and one foul rule. The new rule reads that if a player makes the first shot on a personal foul situation he will get a "bonus" shot. If the player misses the first shot, it is a free ball, and if the second shot is missed, it is also a free ball. The present three minute rule is still in effect which provides for two free throws during the last three minutes of the game when a foul is called. Confused—so am I.

University Baseball Squad Opens Season Against Yale

Thursday afternoon at 3:30 the Delaware baseball team will open the 1954 season when it plays host to the hard-hitting Yale Bulldogs.

The team will be minus Frank Serpico who is still nursing an ailing shoulder. To date the Hens appear to be ahead of the pitchers, and a free scoring affair with Yale is expected. Co-captain Bill Annonio is the only starter on the team who is a senior.

The probable starting lineup is Andy Wagner on first, Annonio on second, Tom Romagnoli at short and Bob Hooper at third.

Along the picket line will be last year's leading home run hitter, Tom Redfield, in left, sophomore Jimmy Zaiser in center and Gary Buckwalter in right. Behind the plate will be veteran Bob Trivits, while the opening pitching assignment will go to either Ed Morrow or sophomore Dallas Green.

DIAMOND DUST:

Only big losses from last year's nine are Johnny Allen, the team's only 300 hitter, and Chuck Abrams who captained the club.

Intramural Highlights

In the intramural volleyball league "A," both Sig Ep and Kappa Alpha "A" sport unblemished records; however, Sig Ep 5-0 holds a two win advantage over Kappa Alpha "A" 3-0. In the "B" league, matters have taken an unusual twist, for ATO "B" team 2-0 is in 1st place ahead of ATO "A" team which is in a tie for 2nd place with PIKA, 1-0.

Englishmen Outwit Newark's St. Pat; One Night's Stand Nets Dishwasher

The English have once again proved their strength over the Irish by outwitting the spirit of St. Patrick himself. When the local businessmen of Newark tried to give a boost to St. Patrick Day buying by a price-slashing campaign, two Delaware students teamed together to win the day's biggest award.

John Farley and Lew Whitaker, both members of the KA fraternity, spent the night of the 16th standing in front of the Oscar Trivits Appliance Store waiting for the store to open. When it did at nine o'clock, John Farley entered the store and bought a $289.95. Youngstown dishwasher for $22.50. While fantastic, there are two KA's now looking for some prospective person with a pile of dirty dishes—object: unloading.

The story of the all night stand proved to be most unusual. Farley took up his vigil at 7 p. m. At eleven a woman drove up and started to unload a chair, a coffee-thermos and a pile of other unlisted material. At two in the morning, two bobbies from the local Scotland Yard office stopped and almost had the boys before the constable. "Nay," said Farley, "In sooth I am on my way home." He explained his goal, to which one of the men offered a bribe for his place in line.

Other visitors to the scene were John Mealey, Glenn Dill, Ray DeVries, Bob Cunningham and a host of KA's. Each arrived with some food and coffee for the vigilant dishwasher sitters. Farley was quoted as saying, "I never have eaten better."

Whitaker exclaimed, "Just wait for next year. This way, I stand my way through college."

Recreation Center Seeks Applicants For Summer Job

The Newark Recreation Association is seeking applicants for the position of general program director to administer its seven-week program this summer. Applicants are also being sought for part-time jobs as director's aides.

The summer program from June 28 to August 15 consists of swimming, playground programs, arts and crafts and a youth center several nights a week.

The director must be experienced in some phase of community recreation service, capable of exercising over-all supervision of the entire program, its varied activities and the personnel assigned to carrying out these activities. He must be available several weeks prior to June 28.

Personnel are also needed for part-time work in swimming instruction, guard duty at the park swimming area, playground activities, arts and crafts instruction, supervision of league softball games, and evening supervision of the "Drop-In" youth social center in the old Newark school building on East Main Street. Previous experience, while desirable, is not required for these jobs.

The playgrounds are located at the Newark Public School, the New London Avenue School and the George Read Village School. General supervision is needed for all three of these play areas.

Applications for all jobs should be addressed to the Newark Recreation Association, P.O. Box 473, Newark, Delaware, by April 15 at the latest.

Annual Spring Vacation Starts Saturday, April 3

Though the Easter Bunny has some three or four weeks yet to put in an appearance, University of Delawareans soon will trek to their homes for a solid week's vacation with the annual Spring recess, this year slated April 3rd to April 12th.

All women's and men's dormitories will close for the Recess, which will begin at the end of classes at noon on Saturday, the 3rd. The last meal in the dining halls prior to vacation will be the Saturday noon lunch. Dormitories will be closed at 5 p.m. on Saturday. There will be housing arrangements made for students living long distances away and unable to return to their homes.

For the convenience of those returning early after the Recess has ended, all dorms will re-open on Sunday, April 11, at 1 p.m. The first meal served in the dining halls after vacation will be breakfast on Monday morning, April 12th, when classes resume.

This germanium refining method keeps impurities down to less than 5 parts in a billion

In this refining apparatus, at Western Electric's Allentown, Pa. plant, germanium is passing through multiple heating zones in tandem, producing a bar containing impurities of less than 5 parts in a billion for use in transistors. Note heating coils on the horizontal quartz tube.

A new method of metal refining, currently in use at the Western Electric plant at Allentown, results in the production of germanium that is better than 99.9999995% pure — the highest degree of purity ever attained in a manufactured product.

The need for germanium of such exceptional purity came about when research by Bell Telephone Laboratories in the field of semi-conductors led to the development of transistors, which are manufactured by Western Electric.

The transistor is a tiny crystal device which can amplify and oscillate. It reduces space requirements and power consumption to a minimum.

Germanium crystals of the size required in transistors do not occur in nature; they are artificially grown at Western Electric. At this stage in transistor manufacture, other elements are introduced in microscopic quantities to aid in controlling the flow of electrons through the germanium. But before these elements can be introduced, it is necessary to start with germanium of exceptional purity, so that the impurities will not interfere with the elements that are deliberately added.

So Bell Telephone Laboratories devised an entirely new method of purification, known as zone refining, which was developed to a high-production stage by Western Electric engineers.

In zone refining a bar of germanium is passed through a heat zone so that a molten section traverses the length of the bar carrying the impurities with it and leaving behind a solidified section of higher purity. By the use of multiple heating zones in tandem, a number of molten sections traverse the bar. Each reduces the impurity content thus producing a bar which contains impurities in the amount of less than five parts per billion.

Because of the importance of the transistor in electronics, the zone refining process—like so many other Western Electric developments—has been made available to companies licensed by Western Electric to manufacture transistors.

This is one more example of creative engineering by Western Electric men. Engineers of all skills—mechanical, electrical, chemical, industrial, metallurgical, and civil—are needed to help us show the way in fundamental manufacturing techniques.

Campus Entrants In 1954 Walkathon — Start To Finish

er with Pete French in a tie for ninth place in 2:53 minutes had the following comment, "Burp!" All Pete had to say was, "If it weren't for G. E. in Newark I never would have started—the last 15 miles were the worst." Bringing up the tail end of the race and the tail end of the Delt contingent in 14th place were the "almost lost" duo, Art Hodges and Ike Brown, who trudged to the finish line in 3:19 minutes. Art commented that he would like the instigator of the walk to drop dead, while all Ike had to say was, "I want a beer."

No one could hold back Warren Beh, the number eight spot man, whose time was 3:48, for he kept right on going past Old College gate and hollering, "Don't stop me now; Mrs. Mack has drawn me a hot tub!"

Our roving editor of the Review, Glenn Dill, who pulled up in a tie for sixth place with Bob Wilson in 2:45 minutes, with his back up against the fence gasped, "I feel fine, it's my legs that are bothering me. I shoulda stuck to writing editorials." Bob, his sixth place partner, had a few words to say, "(Gasp) — (cough) — Wait (pant) till next year!"

The second place position was another tie, this one going to Karl Buretz and Hal West of the Deltas. Both men covered the 12½ miles in 2:32 and agreed that "It's a good thing we found that energy producing Tootsie Roll along the way or we would have never made it."

Representing Pi Kappa Alpha was Art Oratorio, 2:42, and Biff Easton, 2:46, finishing fifth and seventh respectively. Art was "doing all right until a cop stopped me for speeding in Elsmere." All Biff had to say was that he hoped it would rain, for "after last night I'm a mudder at heart."

Three Deltas came across the line in a tie for third place in 2:39. They were Jack France, Walt Jebens and John Davidson. They commented respectively, "I would have made better time, but my canoe leaked." "And the photographer tells me to look tired, even now!" "Some people walk a mile for a camel, but I walked 12½ miles for laughs."

Among the remaining male contestants was Mal Silverman of Alpha Epsilon Phi, fourth position winner, who finished in 2:41. He winedly said, "I got off to a bad start." Jim Weaton, number eleven, finishing in 2:45, remarked, "Never again!" Dave Menser, number ten, coming in with 2:54 replied, "I know what they can do with this walk next year!" Larry Lore, who tied with Jim O'Neil for twelfth place in 2:56, had no comment to make after the walk, but his partner claimed, "If it hadn't been for those two red lights in Elsmere it would have been 2:54." Charlie Sloin, another AEPi entrant, pulled up in front of Old College gate as number thirteen in 3:04 and gasped, "Next time I'll take the train!"

All the coeds finished, and in so doing even beat out some of the male students. Marilyn Smith, third place winner in 2:53, observed, "New Castle Hall is the first with the most." Janet Hetzel, the next girl to finish in three hours commented, "Where's the next walk?" Pat MacFarlane and Jean Sloman pulled in a tie for fifth place in 3:03. While "Slug" wished it had rained! Pat observed, "The Hulks really came through." Faith Poole 3:05, complained that "The wind was against me!" Babs Kulp, who tied with Faith for last place drooled, "All this for a milkshake."

Congratulations are in order for all 32 of the walkers, for their efforts and for all having finished. There were more contestants, more blisters, more sore muscles, more Deltas, and more fun in this year's fourth renewal of the walkathon than in any other year.

University Given $1800 For History Fellowship By Museum Foundation

Dean Rees of the graduate school announced that the university has received an $1,800 Fellowship in American History which will lead to an M. A. degree.

This fellowship is given by the Eleuthere and Mills-Hagley foundation, which has just been established to create a historical museum and park along the Brandywine where the DuPont Company was founded.

A fellow under this appointment is expected to take two courses each semester with emphasis on either American History or Social Studies. He will also spend half of each week during the semesters doing historical research or other museum work for the Foundation.

Since it is expected that the fellow will complete his work (including a thesis which may grow out of his museum research) in two years, the fellowship is renewable for a second year. Another Foundation Fellowship will be available in September, 1955.

In addition, the Foundation has provided $1,400 for the university library.

Applications should be received by April 1. For further details, address the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies, University of Delaware, Newark, Del.

Sr. Women To Attend Coffee Hour March 31

The senior women of the University of Delaware will be guests of the Alumnae Association and the American Association of University Woman at a coffee hour Wednesday, March 31 at 7 p. m. in the Hilarium of Warner Hall.

Senior women are automatically members of the Alumnae Association and eligible for membership in the A.A.U.W. upon graduation.

The programs, aims and purposes of the two associations will be enumerated by Henriette E. Miller, executive secretary of the Alumnae Association, and Mrs. Roger Thomas, '39, president of the Delaware branch of the A.A.U.W.

Miss Miller, Mrs. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Perkins, Dean Bessie B. Collins, Dean John E. Hocutt and the deans of the five schools will comprise the receiving line.

The coffee hour, an innovation from the teas of former years, is an attempt to help the students fit the event into their schedules.

body constitution. Marianne Reinke, acting president in the absence of SGA proxy Frank Swain, also observed that there appeared to be little interest on campus to warrant reopening nominations.

The question of Joan Lloyd's SGA vice presidency petition was entered by Joe Stout, SGA elections chairman. The petition nominating her for the office was turned in to the Review before the established deadline. Later, in contact with Glenn Dill, editor of the Review, she stated that she wished to withdraw from the vice presidency race, thus leaving Mickie Blaine, current SGA recording secretary, unopposed for the office. After further consideration, Joan decided to re-enter the race.

The SGA ruled that Joan was still eligible, since her petition was in order and since she made no "official" withdrawal directly from the elections committee chairman.

An unofficial statement from an SGA official indicated that more exacting forms and petitions would be used in future student government elections.
