Rezoning For Phone Building Approved By 5-2 Council Vote

Previously Defeated Measure To Rezone East Main St. Corner For Construction Of Telephone Office Building Passed Despite Protested "Highly Irregular Procedure"

Defeated by previous council action, and delayed another hour as the regular meeting of Newark City Council convened shortly after 9 o'clock last Tuesday night to permit attendance at a banquet in honor of retired Police Chief Bill Cunningham, a revived rezoning proposal for construction of a central telephone office building was approved by a 5-2 vote, with Councilmen William Coverdale and Leroy Hill in opposition.

Council approved rezoning from Residential R-1S to Business C, a lot on the southeast corner of East Main and Washington Streets, after the phone company submitted an affidavit to accept deed restrictions that would limit the property's use to a central office building only.

The company statement signed by W. A. Scott, vice-president and general manager, includes provision for the city to withhold a building permit unless construction plans are accepted by council.

These restrictions had been requested by council.

Councilman Coverdale termed it a "highly irregular" procedure and demanded to know "where is the city's legal advisor on this question?"

City Solicitor John P. Sinclair, who was present, had disqualified himself because his legal firm represents the phone company.

Coverdale maintained that a three-quarter vote was required to bring the measure for reconsideration since it had been defeated.

But other council members said council was "acting on its own motion."

Mayor Frank M. Durnall said that he would have had outside legal counsel on hand had he known it would be necessary.

Durnall said that he still had time to get legal advice before the phone company submits its building plans for approval.

Free One-Act Play Scheduled Friday At Mitchell Hall

"The Bald Soprano," first successful one-act play of the controversial playwright Eugene Ionesco, will be presented in Mitchell Hall at the University of Delaware tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. as a laboratory production of the E-52 University Theatre.

Regarded one of the major exponents of experimental theatre, Europe Ionesco received acclaim for "The Bald Soprano." Senior drama major Ken Shelin, who works professionally in Cleveland last summer, will direct the play.

Pete Fisher and Barbara Fisher will play the roles of the Martins, a typical middle-class couple.

William Harper and Juliet Wittman will play the equally middle-class Smiths.

Becky Brown will appear in her second comedy role of the season as the Smiths' madcap maid, Mary, and P. A. Sinclair will be seen as the neurotic first child.

The public is invited to attend the performance without charge.

3 Boys Arrested Ransacking Office At Central School

Three boys, one with a home-made blackjack in his pocket, were arrested Saturday while ransacking the office of Newark Central Junior High School Principal Gilmore B. Ott.

Newark police went to the school when the janitor called and said boys had broken in.

Two of the boys are 13 and one is 14.

Police said the boys climbed a rain spout to second floor window, let themselves down into the auditorium, ransacked a number of unlocked rooms, and then climbed a wall to go through a window into Mr. Ott's office.

At the time they were arrested they had gloves, ballpoint pens, and other articles taken from classrooms with them.

All were held on a fourth degree burglary charge for Family Court.

Swendsen Reports Mrs. Brookside Contest Chairman

Harold M. Swendsen, general chairman of the Mrs. Brookside contest for 1961, an annual event sponsored by the Brookside Activities Council, has announced chairmen for the three major events of the contest.

Mrs. Robert J. Hamill and Mrs. Robert J. O'Leary are co-chairmen of the Mrs. Brookside fashion show to be held Feb. 2 at the Oglethorpe Junior High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Edsel C. Pike is chairman of the "Coffee Break" to be held at Brookside Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. McGuire are in charge of the Mrs. Brookside II, at which time the Mrs. Brookside receives her crown.

The ball will be held at the Wilmington Manor Community Center, Feb. 11.

Foundation Hears Perkins' Report On U. D. Research

Investigation Includes
470 Problems With 60%
Faculty Participation

Some 470 research problems are under investigation at the University of Delaware, and more than 60 per cent of the faculty participate in organized, sponsored or contract research, Dr. John A. Perkins, president, told members of the University of Delaware Research Foundation last Saturday.

Speaking before 140 members and guests at the annual luncheon meeting in Kent Dining Hall, Dr. Perkins disclosed that the university is spending about one-fifth of its income—$1,680,000—in support of research. These funds come from 54 different sources, including state and federal government, private foundations, individuals, endowment, business and industry.

Of support of the foundation, Dr. Perkins said, "The University of Delaware Research Foundation, limited by its charter to supporting research in the physical and natural sciences, is supporting research in 11 of our departments. What cannot possibly be revealed is how strategically the UDRF funds are being used. The amount of $70,053, have been allocated into the university's departments and manpower resources to give research support where and when it is vitally needed to strengthen our long range efforts."

Dr. Perkins said that since its inception, the foundation has supported 51 projects, 32 research fellows, eight summer faculty fellowships and one travel grant.

Talks on research in progress were presented by Dr. Donald L. Dean, chairman of the department of civil engineering; Dr. Charles E. Birchenall, professor of metallurgy; and Dr. W. Lawrence Gulick, assistant professor of psychology.

Dr. Dean discussed "Structural Analysis of Iron Diffusion and Growth of Ferritic Sulfide," and Professor Gulick considered "The Ear as a Biological Trigger."

Officers of the foundation are Samuel Lenher, president; Samuel J. Rees, vice-president; Dr. Carl Burdick, secretary; Dr. C. Lalor Harry C. Haskell, Jr., treasurer.

Baird C. Brittingham is chairman of the research committee; George T. Weymouth heads the membership committee; and Dr. Robert W. Cairns is chairman of the research committee.

Foundation trustees are Baker, Brittingham, Burdick, Cairns, Lenher, Weymouth and Dr. George E. Holbrook.

Central Jr. High To Have Gym Club Assembly Program

Assembly programs at Central Junior High School this Thursday and Friday afternoons will feature exhibitions by the Newark High School Gymnastics Club.

The program has been arranged by Mrs. Clara Raffensberger and Mrs. Griffith of the Central Junior High School faculty, and Roman A. Ciesinski, Newark High School.

Cheerleaders will present members of the junior high basketball teams who start this year's schedule when they play Dunleith on the home court at 3 p.m. next Thursday.

Cheerleader Captain Ann Perkins is student chairman for the programs.

Music for both assemblies will be furnished by the Central Junior High School Band under the direction of Robert Maul.

Delaware 'Dutchmen' to Join Groundhogs In Weather Act At 11th Lodge Meeting

Delaware "Dutchmen" will get into the weather forecasting act on Feb. 4, with the 11th annual meeting of the Delaware Groundhog Lodge—Groen Lodge—in the cafeteria of Oglethorpe Junior High School.

Floyd Weidman, Jr., Habtman (president), has announced that festivities this year will include direct singing led by Dr. Fred Kutz, Newark High School principal; the groundhog's interpretation by Mrs. Anne Himmelberger Longenbach; and "fabulous story-telling by Dr. Russ Stauffer, director of the University Reading Center, who started 11 years ago and is improving with age."

Featured speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Merrill I. Ressler, pastor of Zion United Church of Christ, near Reading, Pa.

Mr. Ressler has earned a reputation in the Reading area as a teller of Dutch stories. The clergyman spent 10 years as a feed store manager before entering Franklin and Marshall College and Lancaster Theological Seminary, graduating in 1957.

"Fudermascher" Mervin Diefenderfer (dinner chairman) for the past 11 years, promises a family style dinner of delectable Dutch foods surpassing all previous dinners, for all persons of German descent making reservations with him at 17 Bassett Place, Newark, as soon as possible.

Princeton Choir To Sing At Newark Church

The Princeton Seminary Choir will present a service of sacred music in the First Presbyterian Church in Newark this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. All members of this male chorus are college graduates enrolled at Princeton Theological Seminary for at least three years of graduate study in preparation for the Christian ministry.

The choral repertoire ranges from Gregorian plainsong through Palestrina to Lotti, Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mendelssohn and contemporary composers, with spiritual folk songs. The choir's long-playing record released by RCA Victor contains 18 selections from this repertoire.

Edna Chalmers Dickey - "Mrs. Welfare" Honored For Church, Community Service

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey

An honorary membership "for her distinguished Christian witness and service to her church and community" was awarded to Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey at a special ceremony last Tuesday night, by the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Newark—the first such honor to be conferred.

In a special program printed for the occasion, it is reported that "Edna Chalmers Dickey united with the First Presbyterian Church of Newark . . . Oct. 7, 1906, and has been a regular attendant of Sunday School, Christian Endeavor, missionary societies, and church worship services."

The citation is concluded with: "Edna C. Dickey is known throughout this section of Delaware as 'Mrs. Welfare.' Her garage is a unique headquarters for contributions of all kinds for all causes. The association is proud indeed to confer this honor on one who has brought so many honors to her church and her community."

John Wilson, Jr., Wins DX Century Club Honor

John B. Wilson, Jr., 1905 Greentree Road, Newark, has been awarded membership in the DX Century Club, exclusive society of amateur radio operators who have made two-way short-wave radio contacts with at least 100 countries and colonies of the world.

Using the call letters K3AMC assigned by the Federal Communications Commission, Wilson talks regularly from his instrument-packed room of his home with "ham" associates all over the earth—a fraternity of 250,000.

Payment for the past 10 years, his friends from Continental surprised him with gifts which included a Polaroid Land Camera complete with the new wink-eye.

Mr. Wilson's daughters Nancy and Claire and his husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jeness were special invited guests.

Paul Jaquette was master of ceremonies, and the committee, Eleanor Yoder, George Reynolds, and Jim Howarth, Jr., "did an excellent job in planning and carrying out the arrangements and the Glasgow Arms," Mrs. Leila R. Little reports.

Mr. Wilson, in his acceptance speech of the gifts, guaranteed his friends from Continental that he would not be bored in his retirement, inasmuch as his hobbies are boating and fishing, and that he has enough work to do on his boats to keep him busy for at least another year.

He admits that he "does a lot of fishing without catching anything."

CD Chief Downes Reports Federal Aid Available

Captain Robert N. Downes, state director of civil defense, announced today that Delaware is one of the states which has qualified for federal contributions for civil defense under the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization's personnel and administrative expenses contribution program.

It is believed that preparedness and the ability of the population to survive and recover are among the strongest deterrents to an attack on our country by an aggressor nation.

Local Naval Reserve Recruiters

Pictured left to right are Charles L. Zill, 3rd Class Electronics Technician, Richard B. Freeman, Seaman; Leo E. Craft, 1st Class Performer at the Naval Reserve Training Center, 3920 Kirkwood Highway, Newark, who are members of the U. S. Naval Reserve. The training center houses two Naval Reserve surface divisions, meeting either Monday or Tuesday two evenings each week. Members of these divisions participate in a two-week cruise each year aboard a Navy ship.

The above men have been designated as local recruiters. Anyone interested in finding out more about the Naval Reserve program may contact them, Commander Ivan Parsons of Newark suggests.

2 Persons Injured In 3-Car Collision On Elkton Road

A Newark man drove a nearly demolished car a half mile following a three-car collision Saturday, smashing into a cross-country foot chase before he was caught and arrested.

Two persons suffered minor injuries in the accident.

Newark police said Arthur H. Johnson, 26, of North College Avenue was driving south on Elkton Road at 7:20 p.m., when his car smashed into the rear of a station wagon driven by Robert Pearson, 26, of 303 Radcliff Drive, Newark.

Pearson, driving south, had slowed to make a left turn into Amstel Avenue.

Johnson's car glanced off the station wagon and collided nearly head-on, with the car of Mrs. Florence Earl, of near Elkton, going north on Elkton Road.

Injured were Roberta Coursey, 11, North East, cut of the mouth and a broken tooth, and Johnson, cut of the left eye. The child was riding with Mrs. Earl.

Both the child and Johnson were treated by a local physician.

C. of C. Speaker Announces Topic For Jan 24 Event

Dr. Neal Bowman, guest speaker for the annual Newark Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held Tuesday, Jan. 24, at the Newark Country Club announced today that his topic will be "Pitfalls of Economic Illiteracy."

A World War I veteran, educator, author, lecturer, and sales psychologist, Dr. Bowman was professor of marketing at Temple University for 17 years before joining the National Association of Manufacturers as a staff speaker.

Officers and directors will be elected at the annual banquet, and President Roger Douglas urges attendance by members and non-members with their wives.

D-Day Vet Thomas Guyer Consulted For Ryan Book

Thomas Guyer, 8 Red Mill Road, Newark, was among the D-Day veterans consulted by Author Cornelius Ryan in his writing of "The Longest Day."

Ryan's story of D-Day, June 6, 1944, when the largest armada in the world with 5,000 ships and 200,000 men approached the German-held Normandy coast of France, has just been published as a paperback book.

Symphonic Band To Offer Concert At Student Center

J. Robert King To Direct
44-Piece University Band
With Free Public Concert

The University of Delaware's 44-piece symphonic band under the direction of J. Robert King, will present the second in a series of three Student Center concerts this Friday at 8 p.m.

Featured soloist of the evening will be James Pelletier, first flutist of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, who will join the band in the performance of the first movement of Suite In A Minor by George Philip Telemann, and Concertino by Cecile Chaminade.

A second presentation will be Aaron Copland's Lincoln Portrait arranged for band by Walter Beeler. Lincoln Portrait is being presented in recognition of the Civil War Centennial (1861-1961) which officially opened Jan. 8.

The portrait is a work based on two well known tunes from the Civil War period. Against this musical background, Copland has superimposed short selections from a number of Lincoln's speeches. Elbert Chace, director of alumni and public relations, will be narrator.

Other numbers on the program include Suite of Old American Dances by Robert R. Bennett; Tocata Marziale by Ralph Vaughn Williams; and Musica Simpatia by William E. Rhoads.

The symphonic band is a newly established organization and one of two university bands which will perform on the campus and in the public schools of the state.

Friday's concert is open to the public without charge.

Congo Missionary To Speak Sunday At Newark Church

The Rev. Eugene H. Lovell

With 30 years of Methodist missionary service in the central Belgian Congo, the Rev. Eugene H. Lovell will speak at the Newark Methodist Church this Sunday at 5:30 p.m. for the second session in the School of Missions conducted at the church.

A covered dish supper will precede the address.

Mr. Lovell, whose American home is in Old Hickory, Tenn., is in the United States for a year's furlough. He expects to return to the Congo, and continue development of church and school work in the primitive Kibombo area. A part of Mr. Lovell's teaching "curriculum service" has been the teaching of industrial arts to Congolese boys, preparing them for the new day into which the new republic is entering.

A native of Whitehouse, Tenn., Mr. Lovell was commissioned a missionary in 1930 and assigned to the Congo.

Mr. Lovell attended Emory University near Atlanta, Ga., for three years, receiving both the bachelor of arts and bachelor of divinity degrees.

The final session of the School of Missions will be held on Sunday, Jan. 22, at 7:30 p.m. when two films "Mission in Bolivia" and "Methodism in Moslem Pakistan" will be shown.

The School of Missions is sponsored by the commission on missions with Col. Daniel M. Sundt, chairman.

Chief Bill Cunningham Named Newark Citizen Of Year 1960

Dr. Wallace M. Johnson Presents Retired Police Chief With Special Award For Community Service At Banquet Sponsored By Service Clubs As Friends Honor Veteran

As guest of honor at a banquet sponsored by the service clubs of Newark in a combined dinner meeting at the Newark Country Club last Tuesday night, William H. Cunningham was named Newark "Citizen of the Year 1960," and presented with other awards including a gold police badge, sterling silver tray, and a U.S. savings bond.

Toastmaster George M. Worrlow, dean of the University of Delaware school of agriculture introduced special guests including Gov. David P. Buckson, Mayor Frank M. Durnall, Col. John P. Ferguson, Delaware State Police Chief Arthur Wilson, Wilmington, chief of police; and the presidents of men's local service clubs, as some 260 friends in the Newark community and throughout the state attended the banquet to honor Bill Cunningham who retired Dec. 31, after serving for 32 years as Newark chief of police.

Governor Buckson expressed his appreciation to Chief Cunningham "for all that you have done in helping so many over the years," and urged the chief to "come on down to Dover next week and prop your feet on the governor's desk—and I don't think Big Bert will mind, either," he concluded.

Challenges Met
Mayor Durnall presented the retired chief with a gold police badge from the city. "There have been many changes in Newark in many years," the mayor said, "and you have adapted yourself to all of them."

Chief Arthur Wilson of Wilmington said: "Chief Cunningham is perhaps the most popular in the state, but Bill Cunningham always led in prestige. He is the man we look to, and Colonel Ferguson added 'the thinking people of the community are here to thank you Bill, for a job well done.'"

Sam Handloff, spokesman for the Rotary Club, presented the guest of honor with a $50 U. S. Savings bond, and citing his association as an attorney with the chief of police, said that the "best advice" he had given youngsters was "talk to Bill Cunningham."

Dover Chief of Police James Turner presented "the old pro" with a framed copy of "You're a Policeman," by W. H. Drane Lester of the FBI.

Banquet Chairmen
Albert S. Priestley, co-chairman of the banquet committee with Samuel L. Diehl, Jr., and Hugh F. Gallagher, Jr., presented the retired chief with a sterling silver plate engraved with "To Chief of Police William H. Cunningham, Newark, Delaware, Jan. 10, 1961, retiring from your Delaware Friends," along with a water and cream pitcher, and a sugar bowl of sterling as gifts from the community.

Priestley explained that banquet attendance had been limited to men in order to accommodate a capacity audience of Chief Cunningham's business associates.

Sergeant Earl Lynch presented a money clip beneath a gold police badge from "the boys" of the Newark police department.

Dr. Wallace M. Johnson, in presenting the "Citizen of the Year Award," a framed parchment citation and a barometer-thermometer said: "You have helped mould the character of Newark, and of the State of Delaware."

"Bill Cunningham has been master of every situation—but one," Dr. Johnson said. And the former mayor recalled a day when the chief on his red motorcycle had halted a speeding automobile on West Main Street after a mud-splattering chase, only to learn that the occupant was a British ambassador traveling with diplomatic immunity.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold a banquet for Bill Cunningham's honor next Thursday night at the J. Allison O'Daniel Post Home on Barksdale Road, with Norval Robinson, Delaware State Police sergeant, as chairman.

Richardson Firm Aids Middletown For New Industry

The encouragement of new industry by a community is exemplified in the cooperation between Middletown with its engineering consultants, Edward H. Richardson Associates of Newark and the battery division of Globe-Union, Inc., Milwaukee, Wis.

Globe-Union is building a $15-million plant just north of the town of Middletown on a 16-acre tract purchased from the Episcopal Diocese of Delaware. The plant is to have 110,000 sq. ft. of floor space and employ 200 persons.

The Richardson organization analyzed the general area and designed sewer and water line extensions to serve Globe-Union and open up the entire northern section of town to sewer and water service.

The Middletown plant is scheduled for completion in early spring.

James Massfeller, Robert Utley Awarded Top Prizes In NRA Model Train Contest

Neighbors James Massfeller and Robert Utley won first place in the 1960 Christmas Model Train Contest. Both boys live on Unani Trail beyond Milford Crossroads, and have been amiable competitors in the railroad business for several years.

Jim, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Massfeller, won the H-O gauge division in a field of seven entries. Growing from a single track received when he was 11 years old, his model railroad system now includes two separate H-O layouts, and a narrow gauge layout.

The H-O will handle as many as seven trains on main lines and sidings, and 100-ft. of main track carries the operational loads into a system of yards, switches and the engine house.

Jim received his first train at age six, an 0-27, then switched to H-O. Bob, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Utley, won the O-27 gauge contest. There were seven entries in this division also.

Bob has been an active model railroader for the past five years, but has had a train since he was four. His 8x8-ft. layout contains two operational set-ups with 90-ft. of track. Bob's most recent addition is an icing platform 3-ft. long, representing 150 hours of construction time.

In the H-O division, second place went to John and Nellie Edwards, 206 Kingsley Drive, Harmony Hills, and third place was awarded to John Faulkner, Creek Road, Newark. Honorable mention in the H-O division was awarded to Clayton C. Russell, 13 Granville Lane, Chestnut Hill Estates.

Clarence Knopp, 119 Durso Drive, Harmony Hills, won second place in the O-27 gauge division, with Karl Reichenbach, 207 Capital Trail, placing third.

The 1960 Christmas Model Train Contest was conducted in two divisions for the first time this year. Initiated in 1959, entries grew from six to 14 this year.

The contest is sponsored by the Newark Recreation Association in its holiday program.

Plaques are to be awarded for first place layouts, with the H-O division plaque sponsored by the Newark Hobby Shop.

Women's Republican Club To Elect Local Officers

The Women's Republican Club of the Newark area will meet next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Building, 55 East Main Street, Newark, when officers are to be elected and installed.

Mrs. G. Herbert Calhoun of Dagsboro, Del., immediate past president of the Delaware State Federation of Republican Women, will conduct the installation.

All members have been requested to attend this reorganization meeting.

Mrs. DuVal Cleaves will be hospitality chairman.

The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Mill Creek Hundred reelected officers at the annual meeting last Monday in Harmony Grange Hall. They are: William H. Naudain, president; Robert Yearley, secretary; Ralph I. Klair, treasurer; and Wills Passmore, vice-president.

Directors reelected are J. Walker Pennington, W. Lewis Phipps, Harry S. Hanby, and Lewis C. Stafford. The company with a membership of 408, had fire losses of $2,739.77 for 1960.

Wilson Pierson, a member of the committee conducting a membership drive for the Farm Bureau, announces that meetings are held the last Tuesday of each month at Agricultural Hall in Newark. New officers are Donald Isaacs, president; Paul McCormick, vice-president; William David, secretary; Mrs. D. Isaacs, treasurer. This group has been requested to submit the names of five farmers to Gov. Elbert N. Carvel — one to be appointed to the State Board of Agriculture.

Club Activities
Art was the theme of the program for the Waverly Club last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ralph I. Klair with Mrs. W. H. Narvel, co-hostess.

Mrs. Lyle Amberg of Landenberg, gave an art demonstration explaining the procedure for painting. She also spoke of the painting of the old North Star rural school house on the H. C. Mitchell farm, by John W. McCoy, Jr., of Chadds Ford. Mrs. Klair displayed a number of paintings—several painted by her, with one of the Berg residence in New Castle.

The club had its initial book review reviving a former custom. This one on "The Sojourner" by Marjorie Rawlings was given by Mrs. Ernest Lomax.

Members began their knitting of squares for an Afghan. Mrs. W. H. Naudain, presided for Mrs. W. Steel Atwell who was absent.

Chrysler Engineer Alfred N. Anderson Dies In S. Dakota

Alfred N. Anderson, plant engineer for the Chrysler Corporation in Newark for the past seven years, died Jan. 3, in Sioux Falls, S. D., at the age of 47. Mr. Anderson had gone to South Dakota on Nov. 22, for further treatment after a long illness.

Funeral services were conducted last Friday afternoon at the Miller Funeral Home, Sioux Falls, and memorial services were conducted by the Rev. George T. Jamiesson, at the same time at Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church near Newark for Mr. Anderson who resided at Mill Creek Road, Hockessin.

In lieu of flowers the family requested that contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, a mechanical engineer, Mr. Anderson served with the U. S. Army as a technical sergeant from 1941 until 1946.

An athlete, he was a member of the Newark Country Club, where he was an active golfer and bowler. Mr. Anderson is survived by his wife, Phyllis Wood Anderson; three children, Dudley N., 14; Dennis W., 11; Phyllis Diane, 9; his mother, Mrs. Elna Anderson, Sioux Falls; a sister, Mrs. J. J. Overland, Sioux Falls, and a brother, the Rev. Clarence A. Leslie, Des Moines, Ia.

the home of Mrs. H. Ellis Pierson, Old Wilmington Road, with Mrs. Fred Earle co-hostess.

The Wm. Dawson Home Demonstration Club will begin its 1961 program with a business meeting on Jan. 18, at 10 a.m. and a covered dish luncheon at noon. Mrs. Dale Seymour and Mrs. Myrtle Cox will be hostesses at the Hockessin Fire Hall.

The Y's Owl 4-H Club installed officers and named its window display committee at the January session last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Nelson Goff.

Installed were Sandra Seymour, president; David Lindell, vice-president; Faith Dawson, secretary; Edmund Lincoln, treasurer.

Nina Dawson is chairman of the window display committee to be aided by E. Lincoln, Kurt Bachman, F. Dawson, D. Lindell, and Danny Seymour.

The club decided to donate money to the Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church purchase of three church hymnals.

Members made up their year book programs, and Nina Dawson conducted songs.

Harmony Grange will have a representative of the Delaware State Police speak on safety at its meeting next Monday evening at the grange hall.

Raymond Lamborn, master, presented a $200 savings bond and a bronze plaque to the grange for first prize in the annual community service project in the state. The prize winning report was read at the grange's recent session by Mrs. W. H. Naudain whose husband was 1960 community service committee chairman.

Harmony Grange again is going to furnish its hall to church for weekly worship. The third congregation to seek the use of the hall is the Trinity Community Fellowship Church of Dunlinden Acres and Kirkwood Gardens, currently worshipping in the Naval Reserve Center on Kirkwood Highway.

Mrs. Frank Cooper, lecturer, told of the baking contest at National Grange sessions in North Carolina which she attended. The state grange meeting was reviewed by Master Lamborn, who announced that Mrs. William H. Naudain was the new state juvenile director.

W. H. Naudain, Norman Dempsey, and Mrs. Edward Naudain were appointed as an auditing committee.

Monthly grange card parties will be resumed next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the hall. Mrs. George Parris is chairman.

Mrs. W. Harold Narvel, Harmony juvenile matron, explained 1961 projects to members last Friday night at the first meeting this year.

Donna and Carol Nichols were admitted as new members.

Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church
Ordination and installation of elders and deacons, and recognition of trustees will take place this Sunday at 11 a.m. services.

Officers for the church school were elected at the annual meeting last Thursday evening. James M. Keen is the new general superintendent and George Harris, new assistant superintendent. Ralph I. Klair was reelected general secretary, and C. Warden Gass, treasurer.

Lois, Dorcas, and Esther Circles will hold their monthly meetings at the church next Thursday beginning with covered dish luncheons at noon.

bank or banks are all your accounts? If you need some advice, who at the bank should you go to? Who are your husband's creditors?—debtors?

Do you have a safe deposit box? If you do, where is the key or keys?

Finally—where are your government bonds and stock certificates kept? All this information you should have.

"Some day I want to brief you on our financial affairs, Alice," is a remark so many men make to their wives. Make sure "some day" is soon. In fact—are you doing anything more important today?

At the Savings Fund our business is to help people save regularly. Why not start your savings program with us and make it your Savings Fund, too. Your money will earn interest at the current rate of 3½%, even in a special Purpose account. You can open an account with as little as one dollar, with full passbook privileges at any office regardless of the one at which you opened your account. You can even sit comfortably at home and bank by mail if you wish. Won't you drop in soon?

What is your husband's social security number? Know where the card is kept, because some day, for both of you, it means a monthly check in the mail from Uncle Sam. But payment is not automatic. You must apply for it upon eligibility.

Next... do you know right now where your marriage certificate is? Where the birth records are for each member of the family? Where your husband's military service and discharge records are?

Where is the deed to your house? The title to the car? Where are the tax receipts? Now—let's look at the financial picture. At what

Farmers Offered Meeting To Assist With Income Tax

Farmers who are having a bad time getting to sleep nights, worrying about that tax-time red tape, can ease their minds by attending a how-to-make-out-that-tax-form meeting at Middletown High School next Tuesday at 8 p.m., according to Edward H. Schabinger, New Castle County agricultural extension agent.

Designed to help farmers with income tax problems, the program will feature Edwin Benson, Internal Revenue Service specialist in farm tax matters, and Myron Milbourn, manager of the Wilmington Social Security office.

Benson will point out some common errors farmers make in filling out tax forms.

Many farmers miss opportunities to reduce their tax obligation by failing to depreciate various items by overlooking many small cash expenses; and missing capital gains items. One dollar overlooked as a deduction costs 20 cents, Benson pointed out.

Milbourn will discuss recent changes in the social security laws as they affect farmers, Schabinger said.

Copies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture publication "Farmers Income Tax Guide for 1961" will be available at the meeting, Ed Schabinger said.

48 Area Women To Attend
Southern States Meeting

Forty-eight women will attend a regional meeting of the Southern States Cooperative farm-home advisory committees next Thursday, at the Glass Kitchen from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Glasgow, to plan for the year.

Mattie Kessler, director of women's activities for Southern States Cooperative, will be in charge. Farm-home advisory committees from Elkton, Newark, Rising Sun, North East and Middletown are expected to attend.

Oaklands Pool Association To Elect Officers Tonite

The annual meeting of the Oaklands Pool Association will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church Westminster House. Five directors will be elected for a three year term, with William White, chairman of the nominating committee.

Reports will be given by Treasurer Page Ufford; Construction Chairman John Cook; Vice President Ben Johnson, and Pool Manager Walter Matt.

After reports and election, a directors' meeting will be held to elect officers for the year.

community projects. Kenneth L. Berry was sales chairman.

A program on physical education with a demonstration by students of Dickinson High School featured the January meeting Monday night with Calvin Wood, director of athletics, in charge.

Limestone Presbyterian Church
Installation of officers of the Women's Association took place Tuesday night in the church with Mrs. Ned Beard in charge assisted by Elder William F. Beveridge. Mrs. David Anderson of White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church, a Presbyterian officer, was the guest speaker. Mrs. John R. Mendenhall was in charge of refreshments.

Officers installed are Mrs. Daves Hartsof, president; Mrs. William M. Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Albert Conley, secretary; and Mrs. Curtis Keefe, treasurer. Department secretaries are Mrs. Luther Bicknell, fellowship; Mrs. Frank Coe, program; Mrs. Rufus Slaughter, local church; Mrs. William Sayre, world service. An executive board meeting will be held at Mrs. Hartsof's home in Klair Estates next Tuesday.

Circle leaders named are Mrs. John E. Altemier, Mrs. William Stout, Mrs. Ruth Thomas, and Mrs. John Tammany. Mrs. James Huston will serve on the nominating committee and Mrs. Luman Thompson, on the church officers' committee.

Assistants appointed department chairmen include Mrs. James Cassidy, Mrs. David Hendry, Mrs. Kenneth Kulper, Mrs. David Turner, Mrs. Paul McKee, Mrs. Cyril Hipkiss, Mrs. Winvert Matthews, Mrs. Norman Reis, Mrs. J. R. Mendenhall, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Harry Reid, and Mrs. N. F. Beard.

The Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Read and family have been on vacation for the past 10 days. Last Sunday, the Rev. John W. Christie of Wilmington filled the pulpit.

The Friends Fellowship of Hockessin Meeting will hold its January supper session tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. Alfred Morse will give a book review.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dempsey of

Corner Ketch are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Brian David, born Jan. 3, their first child.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dempsey of Mill Creek Road, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, Jan. 3, their fourth child.

Trinity Baptist Church on Milltown Road will be dedicated this Sunday at 3 p.m. Dr. Wilbur Bloom, executive secretary of the Delaware-Pennsylvania Baptist conventions, will give the dedicatory sermon.

John Floyd, chairman of the board of trustees, will receive keys of the building from James McClure. Refreshments will be served. The Rev. Brenton Dodge is pastor.

Ebenezer Methodist Church
Amity Circle held its monthly meeting yesterday morning with Mrs. J. Earl Lynch in Newark. Mrs. Julia Jackson is leader.

The Rev. and Mrs. Willard Robinson and family moved to Wilmington last Tuesday as Mr. Robinson is now pastor of Brandwine Methodist Church. The parsonage is now occupied by the new pastor, the Rev. Robert Kelly and Mrs. Kelly who moved last Friday from Harmony Hills.

A covered dish supper at 6:30 p.m. next Thursday will precede the monthly meeting of the Amity Circle in the social hall.

Kurt Frey Presents Paper As Symposium Of ASME

A paper on "The Use of Wall Trace Techniques to Indicate Flow Pattern" by Dr. Kurt P. H. Frey, professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Delaware, has been included in presentations summaries of the ASME's symposium on flow visualization.

The society's annual meeting was held in New York last month.

Dr. Frey disclosed that a recently constructed free surface tank in the fluid laboratory of the University of Delaware's school of engineering had permitted him to improve on earlier studies and conduct more definitive experiments on free surface flow.

Cosmopolitan Campus Character Evident With 30 Undergrads From 19 Countries

A cosmopolitan character is especially evident in the student body at the University of Delaware this fall.

Records show that out of almost 2,800 undergraduates, there are 30 from foreign soil representing 19 different countries. Among them are five Scandinavian scholars, the recipients of Britannia International scholarships from the Thomas Britannia family of Wilmington.

Donald P. Hardy, assistant dean of students and advisor to foreign students, said the number is an increase over last year and reflects the rising trend of foreign enrollment over the last several years.

All five schools of the university are represented among the students' majors. Twelve are enrolled in arts and science, 11 in engineering, four in education, and one each in home economics, agriculture and arts and science-engineering.

Brittingham award winners are Jens Erickson, of Denmark; Elour Guonason, of Iceland; Marianne Sandels, of Sweden; Frederick Schilly, of Germany, and Pierre Wilmes, of Belgium. All are enrolled in the school of arts and science as special students for a one year period.

Other countries represented are Cuba, Greece, Canada, Indonesia, Netherlands, Latvia, China, England, Korea, Poland, Thailand, South Africa, Dominican Republic, and Russia.

In the school of graduate studies, 38 foreign students are enrolled from 21 countries, including Egypt, Chile, Columbia, Hungary, Peru, Japan, Mexico, Venezuela, Ireland, Iran, Viet Nam, Ceylon and Malaya.

Air Pollution Authority Gains Dean As Member

Dr. Donald L. Dean, who joined the faculty of the University of Delaware this fall as chairman of the department of civil engineering and engineering mechanics, has accepted an appointment for an indefinite term as a member of the State of Delaware Air Pollution Authority.

Other Newark members of the board include William R. Chalker and Donald MacCreary. The Air Pollution Authority is intended to develop a comprehensive program for prevention and control of all sources of air pollution in the state, and its members cooperate with other state agencies, and industries in establishing appropriate regulations and controls.

WOLLASTON-BURNHAM WEDDING AT BROOKSIDE

Miss Lora Lee Wollaston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Wollaston, Cooch's Bridge Road, became the bride of Mr. Benjamin Aden Burnham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Burnham, Sr. of 44 Kullen Drive, Brookside on Saturday afternoon, December 31, at 2:30 o'clock in the Kingswood Methodist Church, Brookside with the Rev. Ralph Minder, performing the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace and taffeta with sabrina neckline trimmed with iridescents and seed pearls, featuring a basque bodice and chapel train. An orange blossom crown held her elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white roses.

Miss Judy Ann Wollaston, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Miss Donna Lynn Wollaston, another sister of the bride and Miss Dolores Wollaston, a cousin of Oak Grove, were bridesmaids. They wore matching dresses, shoes and headpieces of American beauty red velvet and carried cascade bouquets of Mammie Carnations and holly.

Mr. Dexter Worden of Brookside was best man. Ushers were Mr. Joseph H. Wollaston, Jr. of Longwood, Pa., and Mr. Jerry Abence of Wilmington Manor.

A reception was held at the home of the bride.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at 23-C O'Daniel Avenue, Elkhardt Apartments, Newark. The bride is a graduate of the Newark High School and is a junior at the University of Delaware. The bridegroom is a graduate of Southside High School, Elmira, N. Y. and is associated with Chrysler Corporation.

January Bride

Mrs. John Zollinger Miller, Jr.

On Saturday afternoon, January 7, at 3:30 o'clock Miss Margaret Louise Borchardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tenneyson Borchardt, Springdale Farm, Newark, became the bride of Lt. John Zollinger Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zollinger Miller, Sr., 110 Kells Avenue with the ceremony being performed in the First Presbyterian Church, Newark by the minister, Rev. Charles Davis.

The bride, selected in marriage by her parents, given a gown of white tulle with a scoop neckline edged in Alencon lace and seed pearls, long sleeves tapered over the hand, and a skirt which embraces a panel front with unpressed pleats on either side and embroidered motifs scattered throughout. The back was caught with a bow bustle and gracefully fell into a chapel train. Her flowers were miniature white caryota orchids and French white carnations.

Miss Joan Albin, Duke University, Durham, N. C., was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Kakava, and Miss Charles Manning, Newark, and Miss Carolyn Murray, Durham, N. C. Miss Beth Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning, Newark was the flower girl. All of the attendants were dressed alike in gowns of moss green satin with matching hats. The flower girl wore white silk organza embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a basket of French white and tangerine carnations. The attendants' bouquets were cascade bouquets of tangerine carnations and eucalyptus.

Mr. Lawrence Biasotto, Newark was best man and the ushers were Lt. Raymond Klapsky, Quantico, Va.; Lt. John Hesford, Groton, Conn.; Lt. Benjamin Evans, Springfield, Va.; Mr. Frederick Borchardt, Dr. Robert Borchardt, and Mr. Thomas Borchardt, all brothers of the bride and from Newark.

FOOD BUYING, TOPIC FOR BROOKSIDE CLUB

The importance of label reading, the faults of "impulse buying," and minimum requirements of the Federal Food and Drug Administration were discussed by Mrs. Joseph Kuenzle and Mrs. Russell Evans in their presentation of "What the Consumer Should Know About Food" to the Brookside Home Demonstration Club last Monday.

Held in the home of the outgoing president, Mrs. James Newman, with Mrs. Norman Kugel, co-hostess, the business meeting featured installation of new officers for 1961.

President is Mrs. Howard Griffith; vice-president, Mrs. Alex Graham; secretary, Mrs. John Tanzi; and treasurer, Mrs. Norman Kugel. Appointed as committee chairmen are: Health, Mrs. Joseph Kuenzle; Safety, Mrs. Charles Bailey; Family Life, Mrs. George Moroz; Citizenship and Civil Defense, Mrs. Robert Hammill; International Relations, Mrs. Russell Evans; Publicity and National Notes, Mrs. Elwood Bittenbender; Program, Mrs. Alex Graham; Community Work, Mrs. Harold Cooke; Annual Reports, Mrs. James Newman; and Recreation, Mrs. Al Berger.

As civil defense chairman, Mrs. Graham announced that due to inclement weather, the tour of civil defense facilities on Kirkwood Highway has been postponed until March.

Club members will be guests of the Newark Home Demonstration Club on Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. in Agricultural Hall, when Grace Elliott, recently returned from Israel on the International Friendship Youth Exchange program, will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. James Moreland will represent the club in the Brookside Contest.

The gourmet group will meet Jan. 17 at the home of Mrs. B. Griffith, who will serve Italian delicacies.

To Wed In June

Miss Barbara A. Thorpe

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Thorpe of Newark announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara A. Thorpe, to Mr. Frederick B. Williamson, Sr., of 212 East Park Place, Newark.

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

The Committee for Merit Awards of Greater Newark—inspired and motivated by Dr. Wallace M. Johnson, humanist, physician, friend, and former mayor of the City of Newark—has selected William H. Cunningham as Citizen of the year 1960.

Bill Cunningham, who retired Dec. 31, 1960, after 32 years as Newark chief of police, is the fourth person to receive this award for outstanding community service. Other recipients have been Miss Alice Leak, retired nurse; the late Mrs. Mary Richards, gentlewoman and philanthropist; and William H. Durham, Newark pressman—humanitarians all, whose aid of those in need has been much more than exemplary.

Printed on parchment, framed, and presented by Dr. Johnson to Chief Cunningham at the banquet in his honor last night, the citation reads:

Greater Newark Delaware
Citizen of the Year 1960
Awarded to
Wm. H. Cunningham

Recognition of the faithful, dedicated public service over a quarter of a century as chief of police of Newark, Delaware; also for the sincere and cordial operation in your own department as well as with the various federal, state, county, and other law enforcement agencies of this and surrounding states; together with the excellent public relations you so ably provided with all those who sought your counsel; for your untiring interest and understanding of the welfare, safety, and other problems of all our citizens, especially the public school children whose unbounded devotion to you is legendary in Newark.

Therefore, because you have exemplified the true, humane, and the comprehending police officer during your tour of duty in Newark, the Committee for Merit Awards of Greater Newark, Delaware, hereby designates you Citizen of the Year 1960.

Boy Scouts Of Troop 56 Brave Icy Wind Off Chesapeake For Weekend Of Camping

Boy Scout Troop 56, sponsored by the Newark First Presbyterian Church, spent the past weekend at Camp Rodney on Chesapeake Bay at the Pioneer site—and "the biting cold wind off the bay ice did not dishearten the boys for this was the troop's fifth annual winter outdoor camping trip." Charles Eastman reports, "They were prepared for it with proper clothing. Every lean-to sheltered four scouts and was open at one end. Mattresses were placed on the floor with sleeping bags and extra blankets," Eastman said.

Food for the five meals was purchased by each patrol and cooked on charcoal stoves. Advancement in first and second class tests was emphasized including measuring, compass, knife and axe.

Patrol hikes were taken; games were played; Senior Patrol Leader Tom Davies led a troop campfire with singing, and skits, and a talk was given by Scoutmaster Kenneth Crouse.

On Sunday morning Catholic scouts attended mass in North East, while a Protestant service was held in Brown Lodge at the camp.

Those participating in the weekend event were Tom Davies, Dick Grayson, Jeff Heath, Tom Barr, George and Wayne Perry, Ken and Chris Shuster, Peter and Steve Amick, Bill McIntosh, Robbie Wilson, Randy Sharp, Roger Pedigo, Glenn Quinn, Eddie Morris, Bill Bailey, Ken Snow, John Bowen, Paul Kraszewski, Steve Scambia, Eddie Newman, David Anderson and Jim Cox.

Adult leaders were Kenneth Crouse, William McLain, Thomas Davies and Charles Eastman. Transportation was provided by the following fathers—John Bowen, Roger Pedigo, Kenneth Snow, Walter Kraszewski, Bruce Sharp, William Barr and James Cox.

Women college graduates interested in the AAUW program may call Mrs. Brown for information about membership.

4-H Winners Check Safe Driving Aid

Winners in the 1960 National 4-H Safety Program look through sample copies of "American Youth" magazine, latest in a series of General Motors projects emphasizing safe driving practices. The new publication is being sent free every other month to newly-licensed teen-age drivers. Showing the 4-Hers the magazine at the 39th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago is Anthony G. De Lorenzo, vice president in charge of the public relations staff of General Motors, which is 4-H safety awards donor for the 16th consecutive year. Each state winner received an all-expense trip to the congress. Each of eight national winners received a $400 college scholarship, plus the trip to Chicago. Left to right are: Kai Schaumann, Newark, Del.; Mr. De Lorenzo; and William Arace, Old Bridge, N. J.

Frick To Address History Of Science Society On Catesby

Dr. George F. Frick, newly-appointed assistant professor of history at the University of Delaware, will be the speaker at a meeting of the History of Science Society next Monday at 8 p.m. in the Morgan-Vallandigham Room of the Student Center on the Newark campus. Frick will speak on "Mark Catesby: The Colonial Audubon." Catesby is the author of the 18th century book "The Natural History of North Carolina."

Dr. Frick is preparing a book for publication on the life of Catesby. Appointed to the Delaware faculty in 1960, Dr. Frick is involved in his teaching duties with work in the cooperative American study program offered by the university and the Henry Francis duPont Winterthur Museum.

A native of Iowa and a graduate of Minnesota's St. Olaf College, he holds a master's degree from the University of California at Berkeley and his doctorate from the University of Illinois.

Shively Appointed As Director Of PR For News-Journal

Recent Resident Of Area Heads New Promotion-PR Department In Wilmington

Omer J. (Dick) Shively, Jr., recent resident of Chestnut Hill Estates, has been named manager of the Wilmington News-Journal Company public relations and promotion department.

Shively, who has been acting manager for several months, will be responsible for initiating and coordinating community programs sponsored by the News-Journal Company and in promoting services the papers offer readers and advertisers.

"In effect the promotion department will act in the capacity of an advertising and public relations agency, but with one client—the News-Journal Company," Advertising Director Harry C. Harrison explained.

Shively started his career with these papers in 1945. Shortly after his discharge from the Army, he joined the Easton, Md., Star-Democrat, and within six months was appointed advertising manager.

He resigned there in 1954 to become vice-president and general manager of the Worcester Democrat, Pocomoke City, Md.

In 1958 he joined the Cecil Whig, Elkton, Md., as advertising director, assisting its publisher in establishing the Delaware Sun. He rejoined the News-Journal Company early in 1959 as a member of the advertising staff.

At the age of 25 he was elected president of the Easton-Talbot County Chamber of Commerce, and four years later was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, Pocomoke City.

He has been a reporter-photographer, feature writer, columnist and editor, and has received several citations and awards.

While on the Eastern Shore he was a correspondent for the Associated Press, United Press and several daily newspapers.

He is married to the former Alice A. Moline of Wilmington, and they have three children: Linda Gayle, 13; Richard Baker, nine; and Steven Scott, four.

Shively is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer J. Shively of Georgetown, Del.

Certificates Presented At Poultry Short Course

Some 150 poultry servicemen attended the last class of this year's Poultry Servicemen's Short Course at Laurel on Nov. 16, and Dr. Sam Gwynn, assistant director of the Agricultural Extension Service at the University of Delaware which sponsors the event, presented certificates.

This was the last of a series of five sessions to bring poultrymen up to date on latest broiler production and management techniques.

The sessions featured representatives of the broiler industry and university poultry scientists from the universities of Delaware and Maryland.

Local LWV Plans 2 Unit Meetings On Economic Aid

Unit meetings for the Newark League of Women Voters will be held Jan. 18 at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Perkins, 403 West Chestnut Hill Road, and on Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Tilly, 28 Center Street.

The question "How much is enough" in reference to economic assistance to underdeveloped countries will be discussed at both meetings.

Mrs. Tilly, foreign policy chairman, and Mrs. Conrad Trumbore, Mrs. Harrison Thomas, and Mrs. William Graves will present material on economic development, including reviews of books by Paul Hoffman and W. W. Rostow.

League of Women Voters groups throughout the United States are beginning this study of the challenge of world development.

CANCER CRUSADE

Peter Van Wyck was today named chairman of the 1961 Cancer Crusade in Delaware. Dr. Van Wyck, director of the Hercules Powder Company Research Center, will lead thousands of volunteers in the April crusade with a goal of $140,000.

Alan Ely Paces Yellowjackets With 24 As Newark Loses Third Conference Test

Alan Ely paced Coach Bill Conrad's Newark Yellowjackets with 24 points—all via the field goal route—as the Newark High School varsity cagers lost a 75-73 thriller to the visitors from De La Warr last Tuesday night.

The loss was the third straight setback for the Yellowjackets who lost at Brandywine, 75-53, last Friday night, and were stopped by Mt. Pleasant, 69-48, in the first of three Blue Hen Conference contests.

Newark registered opening wins over North East High School and a squad of NHS alumni.

De La Warr's victory, sparked by Sherman Dillard's 32-point scoring spree, gave the undefeated Lions sole possession of first place in the conference race.

The game was a thriller from start to stop, with the Yellowjackets holding an 18-15 edge at the end of the first quarter.

De La Warr took command in the second stanza, with a 22-16 show of superiority to lead 37-34 at the half.

The third quarter was all even at 19 points, and Newark rallied for a 20-19 scoring edge in the final period—two points short.

Curtis Tucker, with six field goals and three fouls, was runner-up to Ely in the scoring box with a total 15 points while Walt Jones and Arnie Saunders scored 13 points apiece for the Yellowjackets.

Bill Conrad's cagers have a home stand tomorrow night at 8 o'clock with Dickinson High School, and play away at William Penn next Tuesday in New Castle at 8 p.m.

Last Friday night at Brandywine, the Bulldogs swamped the Yellowjackets under a 26-10 scoring avalanche in the fourth quarter after some much closer going in the earlier periods.

Newark was but one point off the pace in the first quarter; six off at the half; and trailed by eight at the end of the third period.

Alan Ely again led Newark with 22 points, scoring 10 field goals in the total, while Walt Jones was runner-up with 11.

Mayor Frank Durnall finally came up with that long-sought trophy pheasant in some hard hunting near McClellandville last Saturday—a beautifully spangled cockbird with long, unblemished tail plumes—tail feathers that the mayor insured against blench by walking the long way back to the car with the pheasant before the day's hunt had been concluded.

"You wouldn't believe it if I told you how it happened," Frank Durnall declared, and related the story anyway.

"Calhoun shot at it first—missed—and I snatched a long shot at the cockbird as it flew crosswise in front of me. At the shot, the pheasant set its wings and glided for a half-mile—thought we'd lost it, sure."

"But we hurried to the spot where the pheasant came down," Frank Durnall continued, "and there he was, flopping on the ground, but dead."

Mayor Durnall's last pheasant—several long years ago, too—was somewhat marred as a trophy for the present and for posterity with the removal of its trailing tail plume as the result of a charge of shot placed too well aft.

"The worst day we've had all season," the Mayor said, "was the day we lost the pheasant. It was the last day of the Maryland goose and duck hunting season with Bulldog Bill Murray—the last day, as it proved for Mr. Townsend."

"Wasn't worth going back for on Saturday," Bus concluded gloomily.

Up and Down
"Along about noon the geese got up and flew over the river—over the water—and late in the afternoon they flew again—back down the river," Bus Townsend related. And

Unbeaten Colony, Five Points Lead NRA Senior League

Colony Inn and Five Points remain undefeated in Newark Recreation Association Senior Men's Basketball League play.

Colony, led by former University of Delaware Captain Clyde Louth and Phillies Pitcher Dallas Green edged Rising Sun 58-57.

Dick Gee's long set shots had Colony Inn out front at halftime, 31-27. However, Rising Sun's well balanced attack began to tell on the smaller Colony team as they moved into the lead with 2:57 remaining.

A set shot by Louth and some clutch shooting by Buck Thompson pushed Colony into the lead by three points with 30 seconds left when Harry Anderson pumped in the Maryland team's final two points.

Anderson, a major league baseball player with the Cincinnati Reds, led all scorers with 24 points and sparkling rebound work.

In opening game action, the fast and well balanced Five Point squad downed Tidewater, 49-40. Five Points led all the way in gaining their second straight triumph.

Lynch led the winners with 10 points. Money-maker was high for Tidewater with 12. The Oilers' leading scorer, Paul Tebbut was held to seven points for the evening.

In tonight's league action, undefeated Colony Inn and Five Points met at 7 o'clock at Ogletown Junior High. In the second game, Tidewater opposes Rising Sun with both clubs seeking their first win of the young campaign.

Subach, Kubico Pace Boy Cagers As Intermediates

In Senior Boy's Intermediate League action, Newark Hi-Y and the Falcons remained deadlocked for first place with victories over the Olympians and DeMolay.

Newark Hi-Y had to come from behind and then save a last minute rally by the Olympians to post a 41-38 victory.

Frank Subach of Newark led all scorers with 22 points while Mike Kubico had 14 for the losers. Kubico with his deadly jump shot kept the Olympians in the battle all the way.

The Falcons found the going much easier in their match with DeMolay, 83-62. DeMolay couldn't find the range as they lost their second straight game.

The Falcons were paced by Elmer's 18 points. Simmons contributed six for the losers.

The Chester River flyway of these particular geese last Friday is a long, long way from the goose pits in the corn and wheat fields where the hunters watched the waterfowl at long range.

The late Admiral Richard E. Byrd would have felt right at home on the Elk Neck Park bluffs off Carpenter's Point overlooking the North East River last Sunday as a bitter wind howled across the rough ice pack and white-capped black water.

The icebergs—the first in our experience—were observed in the narrow, open channel, but the river for the most part was locked in icy bonds, with skaters and ice fishermen shivering in the wind over the frozen expanse at the upper end of the North East and the boat marinas.

"Not a duck on the water," Gibby Young observed in a first, casual glance over the open Elk River on the other side of Carpenter's Point, and then bringing to play powerful binoculars.

Finally wrestling the binoculars from their absorbed owner, we took a look. And the powerful glasses disclosed hundreds of goldeneyes, canvasbacks, scaup, and mergansers bobbing upon what had appeared to be an uninhabited expanse of cold blue water.

Later, while driving off the point toward home at sunset, a flicker of movement in the dusky brush caught the eye of the former Marine, and the new binoculars brought a pair of browsing whittail does out of near invisibility onto a wide screen for a moving picture in living color.

In a last chance last Saturday, the Post's Happy Harold Wilkins shot his first pheasant of the year, along with a pair of cottontails in some hunting near Talleyville with Brother-in-Law Bill Wright and the Wright beagles.

The hunting party accounted for three pheasants during the day, "and I hope I get an invitation this weekend," said Sonny Wilkins wistfully.

"Some girls break a date just by going out with him," C. M. Doll.

Bowling Star To Appear In Newark

ANN KARRER

One of the nation's best women bowlers, Brunswick star Ann Karrer will offer free bowling instruction next week at the Blue Hen Lanes, Monday through Friday.

Manager Morris Adams has announced that free bowling shoes and free use of the alleys will be offered during the free instruction periods at 10 a.m. and at 1 p.m.

A resident of Philadelphia, Mrs. Karrer is three-time champion of the city's match game tournament and has won titles in both state and other city competition. Ann has a high game 298, and for two seasons held the national high series records of 750 and 735.

Nate Cloud Stars For Delaware In Loss To Bisons; Hens Face Rutgers Saturday

All three University of Delaware winter sports teams take winning records into a busy week.

Coach Irv "Whiz" Wisniewski's Blue Hen courtmen, handed their second straight defeat by Bucknell, 75-69, before a capacity crowd at Carpenter Field House last Saturday, will play at home against Rutgers this Saturday at 8:15 p.m.

Coach Harry Rawstrom's swimmers took a 2-1 record on the road to meet Gettysburg on Wednesday, and face Franklin and Marshall on Saturday. The Hen mermen dropped a 63-52 decision to a powerful Lehigh club at Taylor Pool last Saturday.

The undefeated Delaware wrestlers made their first home appearance of the season Wednesday in a match with Albright. Last Saturday, the Hens upped their record to two wins and a tie with a 26-8 victory at Pennsylvania Military College.

Bucknell staged a brilliant second half rally to defeat the Hen cagers before 2,500 fans on Saturday. The Bisons recovered from an early 16-9 deficit to lead 34-33 at halftime.

Delaware led only once in the second half, 37-36 in the early minutes.

Bucknell caught fire and piled up a 19-point lead, 60-41, the widest point spread, mid-way through the half, and a Blue Hen rally sparked by an all-court press, fell short.

Nate Cloud, stellar sophomore center out of Conrad High was the big cog for the Hens offensively and defensively as he scored 19 points and hauled down 17 rebounds.

Captain Jack Baly, of Union, N. J., and Jack Barry of Dunkirk, N. Y.,

contributed 15 and 14 points.

Senior Tommy Adams of Ocean City, N. J., playing with an injured hand, could not find the range and went scoreless from the floor.

In the preliminary game, the unbeaten Delaware frosh paced by Bill Haggerty of Villanova, Pa. with 19 points, defeated the Bison yearlings, 83-63. Darrell Smith, Pete Cloud and Dave Sysko each added 13.

Pete Georges of Wilmington, set record 15 and 14 points.

Joe Brothers' 18 Paces Jayvee Win Over De La Warr

Joe Brothers scored 18 points with nine field goals to lead Coach John McNellis' Jayvees to a 54-49 victory over De La Warr's junior varsity here last Tuesday night.

Newark's junior jackets lost last Friday night at Brandywine, 43-32. Bob Renn was runner-up in the scoring department for the McNellismen with three field goals and seven successful foul shots for a total 13 points, while Don Keister accounted for 10 more with three field goals and four fouls.

Alan Whiteman was Newark's captain for the game.

The Newark Jayvees play a preliminary game with the Dickinson High School junior varsity visitors tomorrow at 6:45 p.m. at the Newark High School gym, and play away at William Penn next Tuesday night.

Dave Dolgas Rolls Record Single 234 As Junior Bowler

The Newark Recreation Association's Junior Bowling League ended first-half play with Dave Dolgas setting a high single game record 234. Dolgas won the top award in the Christmas tourney.

Diane Bednarek beat her own three-game league record of 411 by posting a 418 in last week's action.

Diane Bednarek's 418 and Joanne Roark's 400 paced the Kool Kapers to a team record high of 2,488. The former record 2,383 was held by the Untouchables.

The Swirgs continue to lead the boys' division with a 28-8 record, and the Rebels moved into second spot.

In girls' play, the Untouchables remain in first with a 21-15 record.

In last week's action the Blue Hen Sharks paced by Linda Handloff's 378 series defeated the Untouchables in three games.

A new Blue Hen diving record to feature the swimming meet. He scored 69.7 points to break his own mark of 69.32 established three weeks ago.

John Maloney won the 50 free-style in 24.4, and Co-Captain Dan Roosevelt won the 440 in 18.6 for the Hens.

Lehigh also won the freshmen swimming meet, 64-30. Jeff Losee in the 220 and Haylor Osborn in the 50 were the only Delaware winners.

Four of Coach Gene Watson's Blue Hen wrestlers remained undefeated Saturday in the resounding victory over PMC. They are Mike Quillin at 147; Tom Stanton at 157; Bill Cornwell at 167, and John Strode, at 177.

Quillin and Strode each registered pins, as did Dave Taylor, 130 pounds, and Tony Jeffcott at 137.

Delaware's frosh wrestlers tied the Cadets, 16-16, in the preliminary. Archie Hahn at 123, and John Seibert, 130, each registered pins, while decisions were scored by Bob Young, 147, and Kim Morton, 177.

March Of Dimes Support Urged By Gov. Buckson

Citing the annual campaign of the National Foundation as "a vigorous program to prevent crippling diseases with major emphasis against birth defects, arthritis and polio," Gov. David P. Buckson this week urged all Delawareans to not only observe January as "New March of Dimes Month" but to "give their services and support" to the month-long fund-raising drive.

Delaware's new March of Dimes campaign, now underway, includes, in addition to a direct mail appeal, such special fund-raising events as a Mothers' March and Mile of Dimes.

Albert N. Carvel, who, on Jan. 17, will succeed Mr. Buckson as the state's chief executive, again is serving as state chairman for this annual campaign.

Martha McBride Funeral Services Conducted Monday

Mrs. Martha Herdman McBride, 84, widow of Louis McBride, died unexpectedly last Friday in the Devine Nursing Home, Elkton, where she had been a guest for the past two years.

Born in Newark, the daughter of the late Samuel B. and Ruth Jane Herdman, Mrs. McBride had spent most of her life in Delaware, but resided in Mountville, Pa., in her later years.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Helen McBride, Steuenville, O.; a son, Frank, Baltimore; two grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. John Hopkins, Newark; and two brothers, Harland C. Herdman, Newark; and Roland D. Herdman, Dover.

Services were held at the R. T. Jones Funeral Home in Newark on Monday at 2 p.m. with interment in Newark Cemetery.

Top State Events Listed In Folder To Boost Touring

As part of an accelerated statewide effort to stimulate tourist travel into Delaware during 1961 the State Development Department is distributing a two-fold, six-panel folder that lists many of the outstanding events for the first State during the first five months of the current year.

While the new edition of Delaware Calendar of Events covers only the period Jan. 1 through May 31, it lists 185 events indicating that Delawareans and visitors to the state may exercise considerable choice in selecting activities.

Information for a second 1961 edition, covering the period June 1 through Dec. 31, 1961, is being compiled by David S. Hugg, All Delaware organizations are invited to submit information concerning events occurring during this period.

Copies of the new edition of the Delaware Calendar of Events and other informational literature may be obtained by writing the Development Department at 45 The Green, Dover.

Single Track B&O Freight Thru Newark To Be Expedited By CTC Signal System

Control of trains on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's main freight line through Newark between Baltimore and Philadelphia is to be taken over by a modern signal system which makes one track do the work of two.

When the Centralized Traffic Control system (called CTC by railroaders) goes into operation, a single dispatcher at Baltimore's Camden Station will regulate two-way train movements along the new 91-mile single track to Darby, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Modern electrical control devices give new single-track railroad 80 per cent or more of the theoretical capacity of double track. In practice, because of "fleeting" (grouping of trains moving in same direction) and other characteristics of timing and frequency of freight trains, the CTC-equipped single track can handle as much traffic, with more precise control, as did the former double track.

The Baltimore-Philadelphia section is an extension of a $2,500,000 project started in 1959.

The first phase of the project was completed between Halthorpe and Point of Rocks, Md., on the historic "Old Main Line" of the B&O, the original stretch of the first common carrier railroad in the United States.

Movement of as much train traffic over a single track as once moved over the double-track line is made possible through the use of "passing sidings." The passing sidings are about two miles long.

Through the manipulation of signals and switches, the dispatcher at Camden Station regulates trains traveling in opposite directions by directing one onto a passing siding until the other passes.

In addition to the new traffic control system, the Baltimore-Philadelphia line is equipped with devices which detect hot boxes and dragging equipment on cars.

The B&O estimates that the new CTC installation will pay for itself in about four years through annual savings of more than $550,000. Salvaged materials, such as tracks and ties which may be used elsewhere on the B&O, have an additional value of $4 million.

The CTC system also made it possible to discontinue the use of nine manually-operated signal control towers over the 145.7-mile line now extending from Point of Rocks to Darby.

Summer Institute Awarded $70,000 To Aid Teachers

Nat'l Science Foundation
Awards U. D. Grant As Aid
For High School Teachers

The National Science Foundation has awarded a grant of $70,000 to the University of Delaware for a 1961 summer institute in mathematics and science for secondary school teachers.

The purpose of the institute sponsored for the second successive year at the university by the foundation, is to offer courses in mathematics and science to high school teachers. Last year 33 teachers participated, but the number is expected to be increased to 60 in 1961.

Dr. John A. Brown, professor of education and mathematics and director of the institute, has announced that courses will be conducted by members of the chemistry, biology, physics and mathematics departments.

The institute will be conducted as an interdepartmental cooperative program.

The institute will parallel the regularly scheduled summer session of the university which opens June 20 and continues through Aug. 11.

Under terms of the grant, participants will receive a stipend of $75 per week and $15 per week for each dependent up to four.

A travel allowance also is included. Students may receive college degree credit, if they are regularly enrolled in the graduate school.

Additional information about the institute may be obtained from Dr. John A. Brown, director.

The deadline for applications is Feb. 15, 1961.

Kase Lists Feb. 6 As Entry Deadline For Play Festival

Deadline for entries in the 19th annual Delaware Play Festival has been set for Feb. 6, and Dr. C. Robert Kase, director of the University of Delaware Dramatic Center, reports that the two-day festival will be held in Mitchell Hall, March 23-24.

Copies of rules and regulations and application forms were sent to all school and community theatres in the state and surrounding area this week, and 16 schools and eight community groups will be accepted in order of entry receipt.

Deadline for submission of play selection is Feb. 20, Dr. Kase said.

The festival is sponsored by the Delaware Dramatic Center and the University Center.

Twenty-two school and community theatres produced plays last year's festival.

Winner of the plaque as the best entry in the theatre division was the University Drama Group.
