Members Excused: Martha Buell, Jay Custer, Thomas Evans, Paul Evenson, Maureen Foley, Joseph Glutting, Mark Radosevich, T. W. Fraser Russell, Wendy Samter, Satoshi Tamioki

- I. Meeting was convened by Senate President Jim Richards at 4:00 PM.
- II. The meeting agenda was adopted unanimously.
- III. The minutes of the meeting of November 5, 2001 were approved unanimously.
- IV. Announcements - Jim Richards
  - A. Due to the limited business of today's meeting, video streaming will be done at the next Faculty Senate meeting (2/11/02) with the URL posted the Friday prior to the meeting. Interactive web conferencing for Faculty Senate meetings is still being discussed, so for the time being its implementation is on-hold.
  - B. The English Language Institute (ELI) is currently not attached to any academic unit. It will be incorporated into CHEP (College of Human Services, Education & Public Policy). This was a unanimous wish by ELI as CHEP was deemed the best fit of any existing UD college.
- V. Announcements for Challenge
  - A. Revision of the major in Theater Production: Revision 1 is to require either THEA 200 or THEA 202 to be taken by student majors; currently both are required. Revision 2 is to require 6 credits of THEA 407 Practicum for Majors instead of 10 credits. There was no challenge.
  - B. Revision of the Communication major: Mass Communications concentration to change from 9 to 6 credits and Interpersonal Communications concentration to change from 12 to 9 credits. There was no challenge.
- VI. The meeting adjourned at 4:06 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Dallas Hoover
Secretary
