They are both used as pipelines, agitators, tanks for chemicals and other equipment in the chemical industry. While both Havg and Saran are chemical resistant, Havg is used for hot solutions and the plastic Saran is used for contact with cold chemicals as it will not stand the heat that the other plastic will.

These are the first children in the family, and they have been named Joseph Francis Michael and William Elmer Michael. Mrs. Blanche Miller of Downingtown, Pa., is spending this week here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Boulden.

A Birthday Celebration for little Jimmy Pauls, three years old, was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Leasure of Stanton. Little friends who attended the party included Jimmy Pauls, Connie Colt, Medford Temple, Donald Boulden, John and Billy Peach, Betty Joiner, Jimmie Wilson and Gary Mahan. An Easter Egg Hunt and other games were enjoyed by the children. Decorations were appropriate for the Easter Season.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear Son and Grandson, Herman A. Messick, who passed away April 19, 1928.

There is no death.
Those gone before
Have just stepped through
The open door.
Our Son is ours
Beloved by us all
And waits for us

"I'll Look It Up!"

Over the wire to a busy "Information" operator came a request for the telephone number of a certain person. But the operator could find no name in her records like the one requested, so she asked the subscriber to spell it.

"Just a minute," came the answer, "while I look it up in the telephone book!"

Almost half of all the calls made to "Information" are for numbers which are listed in the directory. These unnecessary calls waste the time of 6,000 Bell System operators all over the country, and they tie up telephone facilities which are urgently needed to handle essential war-time calls.

Please use your directory first—before you call "Information." Telephone service should not be wasted in war-time. The Diamond State Telephone Company.

Morrie Adams and Paul Whiteman cleaned the city slickers in Wilmington on Sunday at the second bowling marathon held at the City Alleys. (Iron Man) Adams rolled fifteen games straight with an average of 199 and after the fourth game was on top for the balance of the contest.

It was stated that the team of Woodring and Herbener were in second place for the first half of the contest when Herbener after bowling a 213 game had a bad let down. Jack Barrett and Paul Jaquette who made such a good showing in the first marathon contest finished Sunday's contest in tenth position.

Adams and Whiteman had better save their hard won money because it is reported that Paul Whiteman went to Camden on Monday for his final examination and we are told that Morrie Adams has been put in 1-A. It won't be long now Morrie. Soon Uncle Sam will have you in an Army Camp showing the boys how to roll cannon balls down the hill at Hitler.

In the Wednesday Night League at the Legion Alleys an unusual situation has developed. With the Continental Diamond team leading by one point, the National Fibre team, the Newark Cleaners team and the Continental Plant team are in a three-way tie for second place and only two more weeks to play. McSpadden had better be careful and not roll any more 134 pin games, if he wants his team to win out.

The National Fibre team is well out in front in the Monday Night League and should have no trouble winning. The same holds good of the Knights of Pythias in the Tuesday Night League and Wa Wa Tribe of Red Men in the Friday Night League.

The Newark Firemen made a record run Sunday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cooch when the chimney caught fire. Possibly the firemen remembered that Mrs. Cooch generally sends a basket of apples to the fire house each year.

Seaman Second Class Clyde Baylis who was a former airplane spotter at the Chestnut Hill observation post home on leave from Bainbridge Naval Training Station said he liked the service fine but the mud at Bainbridge was the limit. Outside each one of the barracks they keep two buckets of water to soak their feet in after playing around in the mud which is ankle deep in dry weather.

It is reported that the smiling face of Ralph Kee who has been at the local post office selling stamps and sorting mail (reading all the postal cards) will leave on Monday to join Uncle Sam's fast growing Navy. Well, the Navy may be better off, but we will all miss Ralph. Also, Skipper will miss his master.

I received a letter this week from one of our soldiers in North Africa and he said that I should pan those union people who went on strikes and tied up defense industries. This soldier wanted to know how those same union men would feel if the members of the armed forces went on a strike and said that they would not fight for the safety and security of those unionists who were always wanting more money, shorter hours, or had some nutty grievance.

The OPA boys in Washington are having a hard time to get the buying public in the right spot. (We have been on the spot). One day we read that it takes so many points for a certain article and the next time we read the paper, we see that the public is not spending their precious coupons and the point value has been reduced. I think it is time that they made up their minds or else dropped the experiment all together. No fooling, I need a No. 17 coupon and could also use a 100 gallon fuel oil stamp. When I went to get a new pair of shoes recently I found that my daughter had used my stamp. It won't be long before I am on my feet, or as some would say, get my feet on the ground. The soles are getting thin.

Last but not least—Welcome back, Chief Bill. All the school children will be more than pleased when they see Chief of Police William (Bill) Cunningham back on the corner at Delaware Avenue and Academy Street. The rest of the boys on the force have tried their DARNDEST but no one has been able to take the place of "BILL", with the kids, at least.

Phillies Plan Morning Games

The Philadelphia Phillies announced this week the scheduling of a morning baseball game on June 15 as an experiment in bringing baseball to round-the-clock war workers.

The Phillies also will play a twilight game on June 17, with a regular night game on the sixteenth, all with the Boston Braves. The morning game will start at ten o'clock, and the twilight contest at 7.

Hens To Run At Penn Relays Saturday

The University of Delaware team drew sixth position for the Mason-Dixon Conference one-mile relay to be run on the Penn Relays program on Saturday.

The Loyola College team drew the pole position. Johns Hopkins will be No. 2; American University No. 3; Bridgewater No. 4; Gallaudet No. 5; Catholic University, the defending champions, No. 7, and Washington College, No. 8.

LLOYD'S BEAGLE 15 INCH CLASS WINNER; BALTIMORE DOG WINS 13 INCH CLASS

Game Warden Makes Speech Following Trials—Asks All Dogs To Be Properly Tagged And Identified In Case Of Loss; Explains Game Laws

White Clay Spicy, owned by William H. Lloyd of Newark took top honors in the 15 inch class on Sunday at the benefit field trials staged by the Eastern Beagle Club over their course on the estate of S. Hallock duPont at Milford Cross Roads.

Cunningham's Captain, owned by David Cunningham of Baltimore, Md., was first place hound in the 13 inch class.

The trials on Sunday were known as "Dogs For Defense" trials with the proceeds being donated to help train dogs in service for the armed forces of our country.

Fifty-four hounds were entered in the trials and following the running William Wiedeman, game warden for this section of the country, spoke to the sportsmen gathered at the club house and after explaining some of the game and fish commission rules, stated that all hounds must be kenneled until September in order to protect young game and he urged all dog owners to have their animals properly licensed and said that if all dogs had their license or an identification plate on its collar it would be much easier to recover lost, strayed or stolen dogs.

The trials on Sunday were run under ideal weather conditions with game plentiful. Judges for the trials were: George Bowen, Lamberton, N. J.; Frank Lamm, Reading, Pa.; Harry Pregmeyer, Lamberton, N. J.; and Frank Wapinsky, Reading, Pa.

George Bowen, one of the judges celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday on Sunday and was given a cash birthday present by the members of the club. Raymond V. Buckingham, secretary of the club stated that since last September, more than 700 hounds had been run over the club course at regular trials and despite transportation difficulties, every regularly scheduled trial had been run with the sportsmen coming to the trials in farm wagons when the gasoline situation was at its worse.

Dinner was served in the club house at noon under the direction of Mrs. R. V. Buckingham assisted by Mrs. Ann Stewart.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION

Emergency Tax Forms Explained

Confusion over the use of the various returns required by the State Tax Department in connection with war emergency tax persists, it was announced this week by the department which offered the following guide:

Form WE-1, covering amounts withheld by employers from compensation for services during the first quarter, ending March 31, must be filed on or before midnight, April 30. Form WE-2, which is a receipt given to employees showing the amount of tax withheld from their pay should not be sent to the department until the end of the taxable year unless a business closes its doors before the end of the year.

The green form, for use in filing returns in income received from sources other than salary or wages, should not be returned by persons whose entire income is made up of salary or wages on which a withholding has been made by an employer. The final date for the filing of all 1942 returns is midnight, April 30.

PIMLICO ATTRACTS LOCAL RACE FANS

Count Fleet Named An Added Starter In $50,000 Preakness, May 8

War, higher income taxes, hell or high water can't keep a devotee of the sport of kings from indulging his fancy, or backing his choice.

With racing at Delaware Park definitely out for the 1943 season, many local followers of the bang-tails are trekking to the 'Old Hilltop' course at Pimlico where the twenty-day Spring meet is in full progress.

Likely the only track in this section of the country to operate this Spring, with the possible exception of Garden State, Pimlico is staging seven races daily with post time for the first race at 12 o'clock noon.

Many of the country's best horses are quartered at or near the Baltimore track and extensive preparations for the 32nd running of The Preakness are being made. Count Fleet, odds-on Derby favorite despite a minor injury sustained in the Wood Memorial Saturday, has been shipped to Louisville for the Derby and has also been made an $1,500 supplementary entry in the Preakness, to be run on May 8.

The Pimlico Spring Maiden Steeplechase, $2,500 added, tops today's card and is the first of nine stake events listed on the Pimlico schedule which closes with the Preakness, $50,000 added. A schedule of the remaining stake events follows:

April 24—The Baltimore Spring Handicap, $2,500 added.
April 27—The Gittings Handicap, $2,500 added.
May 1—The Dixie Handicap, $20,000 added.
May 3—The Jervis Spencer Steeplechase Handicap, $2,500 added.
May 4—The Survivor, $2,500 added.
May 5—The Pimlico Oaks, $10,000 added.
May 7—The Pimlico Nursery, $2,500 added.
May 8—The Preakness, $50,000 added.
