My Daughter, Elizabeth

Dear Neighbor,

Have you had a chance to meet my daughter, Elizabeth? Most people know her as Tizzy, and she's running for State Senate.

Tizzy was raised in Cool Spring with her two sisters, Carey and Holly. I taught my daughters the importance of service and community, a lesson I know they took to heart.

Being a mom is what started Tizzy on the road to running for office. When her daughter, Sophie, started school, Tizzy saw not all students had the same opportunities as others. While some schools have new technology and engaged teachers, others are left behind. Since then, she has been a relentless advocate for children and education.

Tizzy will be a wonderful State Senator. She's committed to fighting for the things that make life better for all families.

On Thursday, September 6, I'm asking you to vote for my daughter, Elizabeth Lockman. I know she'll do us both proud.

Best,

Carol

A group of eleven diverse children and young adults are posed in a grassy field. In the background, a city skyline is visible under a clear sky. The group includes a young man on the far left in a grey t-shirt, a boy next to him in a white t-shirt, a girl in a black tank top with a colorful heart, a boy in a striped polo shirt, a boy in a blue patterned shirt with arms crossed, a boy in a blue t-shirt, a girl in a red and white patterned dress, and a boy on the far right in a white t-shirt with a football graphic. Two young women stand in the back row, smiling. The overall mood is positive and hopeful.

The future isn't for us.

It's for them.

Democrat Elizabeth Lockman:

An investment in our children's future.

Elizabeth, or Tizzy to her friends, knows the strengths and challenges of being a kid in Wilmington—because she's lived them. A graduate of Red Clay Schools and a PTA mom of a high-school student, we can count on Tizzy to make sure all Wilmington kids have an opportunity to shine. Tizzy supports:

- ◆ Fully funded schools so students get a well-rounded education
- ◆ Community policing to protect neighborhoods and families
- ◆ Affordable housing and development that benefits everyone
- ◆ Quality, affordable healthcare, including mental health and addiction services
