"Wagon Wheel" Set To Open

The Wagon Wheel, a charming remodeled old barn at the end of Peggy Cronin's row of shops on Wagon Wheel Lane, will open tomorrow at 11 a. m. under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muir, formerly of Forest Park.

The Wagon Wheel, an innovation in smart soda-brunch spots, was designed and decorated by Margaret E. Cronin, owner of Peggy Cronin Fashions. Structurally the building is still "an old barn" but the driftwood knotty pine panelling, old hand-hewn beams and concealed window box lighting give it a quaint, yet modern, air of sophistication. The lawn is scattered with gay tables extending down the lane to Main Street.

The "Wagon Wheel" will open for brunch at 11 a. m. and remain open for a late snack around 11 or 12 midnight. Steaks, hamburgers, a large variety of sandwiches and soda-bar specialties will be served indoors or outdoors, with recorded music.

Mayor McBerty Is Charged With Exceeding Authority

Mayor Ford McBerty was charged with over-stepping his authority as President of Council on Monday night, when it was disclosed that the town group's meeting that last week he ordered the minutes of previous Council sessions placed in Council's vault in the Farmer's Trust Company.

The charge was made by Councilman F. A. Wheelless, supported by Councilman John S. Hopkins.

Pointing out that the minutes are public records open to all citizens and that, according to the Town Charter, they are in the sole keeping of the Town Secretary, the two declared Mr. McBerty had acted arbitrarily and without permission of Council.

A motion, ordering return of the documents to the town safe in the Council Offices, was passed.

Mr. McBerty gave no reason for his action other than that he did it in the best interests of the citizens of Newark. He said he is planning to make a microfilm of the documents for convenient reference.

AWARDS AT UNIVERSITY

Recipients of 15 scholarships, worth $400 each, to the University of Delaware's School of Education, was announced this week by Dr. W. Earl Armstrong, dean of the school. All but one of the winners will be graduated this spring from Delaware high schools, and the 15th winner is not a sophomore at the university.

The 15 new scholarships—which are in addition to 18 awarded in the School of Education last year—are intended to help increase the state's supply of teachers and maintain the quality of the state's teaching personnel in both elementary and secondary schools.

Six of the new winners are from Wilmington—three each from P. S. duPont and Wilmington High Schools. These are Donald E. Bardo, Frances P. Johnson, and Alice P. Martin, of the duPont School, and Doris L. Buckalew, Joan Epstein, and Norma P. Jampoleky, of Wilmington High School. New Castle County schools account for four more: William E. Ferry and Helen E. Lilley of Claymont High School, Joan M. Kirkpatrick of A. I. duPont School, and James F. Hart of Henry C. Conrad High School.

Three are from Dover High School: Mary A. Biter, Sue K. Conway, and Betty Ann Plummer. The other winner now in a high school is Clarence Wright, of Delmar.

Thelma Thompson, of Newark, who will be a junior next year in physical education at the university, is the final winner. She is a graduate of Newark High School.

necessary. Mr. Handloff pointed out, in order to conform to the 19th amendment of the Constitution, which bars abridgment of the right to vote on account of sex.

In view of Judge Speakman's interpretation of the wording of the charter, and the present request from Harry Claves, Council decided a full census followed by a direct poll assessment was the only solution.

Council authorized the new Town Assessor, F. A. Wheelless, to hire six assistants, to carry out the extensive work required by the census. The task must be completed within six weeks.

Look who gets squeezed!

Union leaders representing less than one-tenth of railroad employees reject recommendations of President's Emergency board—refuse to negotiate except on their own terms—threaten to paralyze nation by strike!

THE LEADERS of three railroad unions, representing less than one-tenth of all railroad employees, have called a railroad strike that would paralyze the nation.

These leaders refuse to accept a 15% cents an hour wage increase retroactive to November 1, 1947. This increase was recommended by an impartial Emergency Board appointed by President Truman.

This increase of 15% cents already has been accepted by the 19 other railroad unions. But the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and the Switchmen's Union of North America won't accept what more than 90% of all railroad employees have accepted. They have called a strike to get more!

Unions refuse rules discussion
Certain rules changes demanded by these union leaders—which would increase wages still further—were recommended by the Board. But the union leaders want more—they demand that the railroads put into effect ALL the changes they asked for, including those the Board felt should be denied.

On top of this, they insist that certain rules changes proposed by the railroads be withdrawn—in spite of the fact that the Board recommended them! These union leaders have refused to negotiate except upon these arbitrary terms.

Greater wage increase not justified
Engineers and firemen are among the highest paid of all employees in America, as figures in the box show. This strike threat doesn't justify giving a greater increase than other railroad workers received.

Emergency Boards are a means provided by the Railway Labor Act in the public interest to avoid strikes. The President's Board after hearing evidence for 33 days, made recommendations based on all the facts in the case. The railroads have accepted these recommendations.

Who's to blame?

Although they deplored so large an extra cost burden, the railroads accepted the report of the Board because they felt it was in the public interest to uphold the spirit and intent of the Railway Labor Act.

In contrast, this small group of railroad union leaders are attempting to flout the intent and spirit of the Railway Labor Act, and dictate their own terms.

They have dictated a paralyzing railroad strike.

You will be the victim!

How long will the American public stand for the undemocratic, arbitrary, and abusive use of the right to strike and the disregard of the obligation to provide transportation? How long can the American people permit a few dictatorial union leaders to defy the processes provided for peaceful settlement of disputes?

Force seldom produces settlements that are either fair or lasting. Moreover, a point is often reached when personal interests must be held subordinate to the greater public welfare. That is why the railroads have accepted the Emergency Board recommendations. That is also why the leaders of these three unions should reconsider their decision to call a paralyzing strike.

Compare these wages with what you make!

MORE PUBLIC INTEREST IN SCHOOLS OF STATE ASKED

A call for greater participation in school affairs on the part of the lay public in Delaware, to help achieve better financial support, improvement of teaching, extension of services, and a fundamental reorganization of school districts, was sounded recently by Dr. George R. Miller, state superintendent of public instruction. Dr. Miller was one of the principal speakers at the annual State Educational Conference at the University of Delaware on April 24.

Dr. Miller, speaking on "A Look Ahead in Delaware Education," commented that "American education has a long, arduous road to traverse before we can feel satisfied that it is the bulwark of our democratic society."

"Truly," he said, "a revolution is necessary in American education if our boys and girls are to be educated for democratic living."

On the other hand, he added, "from what has been written and said about education in Delaware, particularly in the last few years, one might easily come to the conclusion that nothing good was being accomplished in our state, or had been accomplished. Nothing could be further from the truth. We need not be ashamed of educational accomplishments in our state. Yet, our satisfaction should not blind us to the ever-present necessity of gearing education to the needs of the day in which we are living."

"It is commonly held that a more direct and a heavier financial responsibility for the conduct of schools will provide the stimulus necessary to development of a more active community interest in schools. I am not prepared to compare the advantages of one type of tax over another. Some hold that real estate taxes should be imposed in all communities, while others favor the broadening of the income tax base. There are other taxes which are probably more just, but the fact remains that greater interest on the part of the lay people must be aroused."

"More and more communities are becoming aware of the necessity of raising local monies to supplement that paid by the state. The state's obligation in the overall picture is to provide a foundation program for all types of public schools so that children in one part of the state will be assured of as good an education as children in any other part of the state. This would mean that to establish such equality of educational opportunity, the state's share would certainly never be less than at present. Children must not be penalized by reason of the geographic location of the home of their parents—which brings us to one of the fundamental changes necessary to educational progress—there must be developed a sounder method of the allocation of state money for educational purposes to achieve this equality of opportunity."

"Some of the school districts of this state were laid out years and years ago; in many cases the district lines are entirely obliterated. There is in many cases a veritable patchwork organization which needs modernization before many boys and girls can obtain the kind of education needed in today's world. This redistricting is basic before many other important improvements can be made."

Homemaker Canning Budget Is Advised By Specialist

A "canning budget" is a means of insuring an adequate year-round food supply, advises Miss M. Gertrude Holloway, extension nutrition specialist for the University of Delaware.

By budgeting the fruits and vegetables they preserve for home use, homemakers need not wind up the season with an over supply of some foods on hand while supplies of other foods run out before fresh varieties again become available.

The canning budget should be based upon an estimate of the family's food needs for the year, and the amounts consumed during the year just past, says Miss Holloway. Foods are best if they are used within the year they are canned—and this is even more true of frozen foods.

IN MEMORIAM
A "Mother's Day" tribute in loving memory of my dear mother, Annie M. Higgins.
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true
And a heartache still for you.
I do not need a special day,
To bring you to my mind.
The days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
I often look at your picture on the wall,
And think of your many kind deeds, and wish you were with me still.
Never will you be forgotten by your son,
Clarence.

Fortunately for our perpetually depleted purse, horse racing is one sport for which we have never formed a strong attachment. But any sporting event which has taken place annually without interruption since 1875, which attracts nation-wide attention, and which draws as many as 100,000 spectators, requires some recognition and space in this corner. Need we say that we're speaking of the Kentucky Derby, the 74th running of which was won as expected by Citation with the other Calumet Farm entry, Coaltown, finishing second.

The fact that the Derby at Churchill Downs offers a purse of $100,000 may possibly be the only reason why this race over a distance of 1 1/4 miles attracts the best three-year-olds in the country. Yet the event is so well established and carries so much prestige for the winner and its owner, trainer, and jockey that the entries would probably be there at the appointed time even without the existence of such a substantial pot of gold.

Although this year's race was run true to form and was much less spectacular than many others in Kentucky Derby history, it did have several newsworthy angles. In the first place Citation was to have been ridden by Jockey Al Snider. But Snider has been missing since March 5 of this year when he disappeared at sea while on a fishing trip with two companions. Named to replace him was Eddie Arcaro. The latter, who had already ridden Lawrin (1938), Whirlaway (1941), and Hoop Jr. (1945) to Derby victories, thus became the first jockey to become a four-time Kentucky Derby winner. He has previously been tied with Isaac Murphy, a Negro jockey of the 1890's, and the great Earle Sande.

Now the eyes of all those who follow the horses will be focused on events to take place on the next two Saturdays—the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes. In all racing history only seven horses have been able to win all three of these events for three-year-olds and thus top the triple crown. Now the question awaiting an answer is whether Citation will be able to step into the same class with such great predecessors among three-year-old horses as Sir Barton (1919), Gallant Fox (1930), Omaha (1935), War Admiral (1937), Whirlaway (1941), Count Fleet (1943), and Assault (1946).

The Class D Eastern Shore Baseball League is scheduled to launch the 1948 season tomorrow night (Friday, May 7), with all eight teams seeing action. The Seaford Eagles, last year's play-off winners are slight favorites to repeat, principally by reason of the fact that five mainstays of the 1947 team will again be in the line-up. . . . Although inclement weather caused two postponements, the Wilmington Blue Rocks opened in a most auspicious manner. The Rocks punished the pitching of the Harrisburg Twirlers and wound up on the long end of a 19-1 count. The fans probably liked that, but what they liked even more was Robin Roberts. Appearing on the mound in his first official game in organized baseball, the man who is expected to make Wilmingtonians forget Curt Simmons set down seventeen Senators via the strike-out route and otherwise conducted himself like a veteran. . . .

And speaking of Simmons does not make for pleasant talk these days. Last year's sensation from Egypt (Pa.) has already absorbed three spankings without turning in a single win for the Phils. After a sparkling opening week the Blue Jays failed to maintain the pace and dropped six out of seven contests before Ken Heintzelman pitched them to a shutout victory over Brooklyn in Sunday's nightcap. Nor does the immediate future look any brighter for the Phils as they trek to the West for series with the league-leading Pirates and the Cards, Cubs, and Cincinnati Reds. . . . Here at home Newark High has come up with one of its best nines in many a year. The Yellow Jackets copped six of their first seven encounters and have yet shown no indication of any slackening of the pace. . . . Across town the University of Delaware diamondmen seem just about able to keep their books balanced. Two wins in three starts last week gave them a 6-6 season record. Most promising performance for the Blue Hens was the two-hit pitching of Joe Pennock, converted first sacker, who blanked LaSalle 6-0 and thus forced the Explorers to accept their first defeat in six starts. On Wednesday (May 5) the Hens are hosts to Haverford in a return engagement, having topped the Main Liners 6-1 last Friday, and on Saturday they journey to Lancaster to face F. & M.

Maybe you think you've seen some one-sided baseball scores, but here's one to paste in your record book. Down there in Virginia one day last week Mt. Vernon High School played Roosevelt High. Nineteen hits by Mt. Vernon's batters, combined with nine Roosevelt errors and an unreported number of bases on balls, produced a 34-3 win for the lads who cavort where George Washington lived. . . . Calling all baseball scouts! Down in Thomaston, Ga., there's a 6' 2" right hand high school pitcher named Hugh Frank (The Great) Radcliffe who had fanned 68 batters in 26 consecutive innings.

NEWARK DOWNS ELKTON 8-4, IN SUSKY LEAGUE OPENER HERE SUNDAY

Local Club Overcomes Visitors' First Inning Lead And Breezes To Decisive Triumph; Next Tilt Slated For Sunday At North East

Newark got off to a fast start in the Susquehanna League here Sunday by knocking off highly touted Elkton, 8-4.

The visitors bounced out in front in the opening stanza on a three run outburst, but Newark's sluggers came back in the same inning to go their opponents one better, slipping across four runs and moving into a lead which they never yielded.

After his shaky first inning start, Hoch settled down and retained complete control for the remainder of the contest. Four of the eight hits he allowed Elkton came in the rocky first.

DEL. PARK STAKES SET

Rich Events May Draw Top Mounts

Now the richest stakes renewed at Delaware Park, the Leonard Richards and the Delaware Oaks, have on their rosters for the meeting which will begin May 29 the names of the nation's leading three-year-old thoroughbreds. Each event will gross toward $30,000, and horses prominently mentioned for the Preakness and Belmont Stakes have been kept eligible by their owners for more than a year, as these are early-closing stakes.

Since it has been the policy of President Donald P. Ross and Vice-President and General Manager Bryan Field to annually increase the added money, and since the subscriptions have been multiplying year by year in time these two races will be among the richest in the country.

Both events are at a mile and an eighth, the Oaks being exclusively for fillies while the Leonard Richards has among the eligibles such stars as Citation, winner of the Kentucky Derby, Better Self, My Request, Kilroy, Star Bout, Whirling Fox, Salmagundi, Task, Boyard and Mount Marcy.

Citation has been claimed as a star attraction by most of the tracks of the East and West, and it is entirely possible that he may not start at Delaware Park. On the other hand his owner, Warren Wright, and Trainers B. A. and Jimmy Jones, not only nominated Citation last July, but paid an additional subscription in October, 1947, and a further subscription April 15, 1948, to be sure that the famous son of Bull Lea would be legally able to appear under silks at Delaware Park.

In the past such horses as Your Chance, Swing and Sway, Anticlimax, Dockstader, Flashburn and Brabnon have taken the Leonard Richards which is named in memory of the nationally admired Delaware Racing Commission chairman, who died December 26, 1946.

There are still 63 fillies eligible for the Oaks, among them being Belair Stud's Yashti; Whirl Some from the Calumet Farm; Walter M. Jeffords' entry of Royal Lily and Ragtime Band; C. V. Whitney's Ghost Run and Dusty Legs, the latter having finished second last year in Delaware Park's Polly Drummond Stakes.

In the past the Oaks has been won by such outstanding fillies as Piquet, Tangled, Vagrancy, Plucky Maud, Gallorette, Bonnie Berly and Camargo.

CONTEST IS SCHEDULED

Delaware farmers raising tomatoes this year will compete for membership in a ten-ton tomato club. Such a club of the State's growers will be organized by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with canners and others interested in the tomato industry. Only those who produce ten tons or more of tomatoes to the acre will be eligible for membership.

There will be special awards to growers having the highest yields and all growers who reach the ten ton mark will receive club membership certificates. Robert F. Stevens, horticulturist for the Extension Service, predicts that interest in this club will run high and to average ten tons per acre farmers will have to follow all of the better cultural practices. Throughout the season growers will be provided the latest information on production practices from their county agricultural agents. Present plans for the contest, according to Stevens, provide for two classes of contestants. There will be one class for growers raising three to eight acres and a class for those having more than eight acres.

Stump Cataldi produced the prize play of the game, a diving catch of a drive by Joe Lee. Elkton's first sacker, who was thereby robbed of a sure triple, and possibly, a home run. Also sparking in the infield action were Silk, Runcie and Skripps.

Brooks topped the Newark sluggers with four hits in five times at bat. Skripps, Silk, and Hoch came through with 2 each. Runcie and Whiteman accounted for the remaining two of Newark's 12 safe blows.

Next Sunday, Newark will play at North East, already twice beaten by the locals in exhibition matches.

Newark Girl Softballers Split Two Tilts Past Week

Last Thursday, the Newark girls triumphed over Mt. Pleasant, 16-2, at Newark. Patsy Wilson pitched in place of Elsie Argabright.

Zeiter Owned Jersey Wins National Honors

Masterpiece Mary Fern 1448388, a registered Jersey cow owned by Peter Zeiter, Newark, has completed a production record of 10,141 pounds milk and 569 pounds butterfat, which has qualified her for the Silver Medal award of The American Jersey Cattle Club whose headquarters are in Columbus, Ohio. Mary Fern's record was made on 305 day test at the age of 3 years. All her tests were verified by both the Delaware Agriculture College and The American Jersey Cattle Club.

In compiling this record she produced more than two and one half times as butterfat as the average dairy cow in the United States.

101st Straight Annual Dividend Paid By P. R. R.

The Pennsylvania Railroad paid stockholders a dividend of 50 cents a share recently, marking the 101st consecutive year of cash returns upon company stock.

President M. W. Clement said the P. R. R. "has the longest record for continuous cash returns of any firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and the only one extending over 100 years."

Clement said the 50-cent dividend, amounting to one per cent per share, "was declared partly from earnings of prior years."

Down Brown Vocational For Second Time Friday In Extra Innings; Triumph Is Jackets' 6th Of Campaign; Only 1 Loss

Now careening along toward what promises to be their season in many years, the Jackets will be out for their seventh in eight starts when they invade P. S. duPont tomorrow. Then they meet A. I. duPont on the latter's field.

Relaxation Between The Acts

In between races at Delaware Park, where racing begins May 29, jockeys take it easy on the sunporch in the grove near the paddock. Here the comforts of home are furnished the boys, and the quarters have drawn the praise of outstanding riders. NEW HOME FOR U. OF D. PRESIDENT

Boli House Purchased For Dr. W. Carlson

A new residence has been secured for Dr. William Carlson, president of the University of Delaware, and his family. It was learned here yesterday that the 7-year-old house of George T. Boli on Bent Lane, Nottingham Manor, has been purchased for Dr. Carlson by the executive committee of the university. The transaction was completed Tuesday, and the Boli family will leave today.

For the past several months, the Carlsons have been occupying "The Knoll," on South College Avenue, the traditional home of university presidents here since 1917. The last university president to occupy it before Dr. Carlson was Dr. Walter Hüllihen.

During World War II it saw service as a men's dormitory, women's dormitory and a practice house for the School of Home Economics.

Plans for remodeling "The Knoll," or construction of a new dwelling on the site are now being considered by the committee on grounds and buildings. It will report its recommendations to the executive committee as soon as possible.
