PRICE FIVE CENTS

STATE FARM INCOME FOR '45 SET AT $5 MILLION

Estimate Is Released By University Farm Expert

Delaware's cash farm income for 1945 may reach $5,000,000, it was announced last week by R. O. Bausman of the University of Delaware Department of Agriculture.

The 1944 cash farm income for the state was $7,925,000 and Mr. Bausman said that for the first nine months of this year the cash income was $7,000,000 above last year's figure.

The bulk of the cash farm income in Delaware — or 76 per cent of the state's total — and the bulk of Sussex County's income is from commercial broilers.

However, the farm incomes from Kent and New Castle Counties are well above the average for the United States.

Kent County has a $1,000,000 apple industry, a $1,000,000 truck crop industry, a nearly $2,000,000 chicken and egg industry and a $2,000,000 dairy industry.

New Castle County has the largest dairy industry in the state, amounting to more than $2,000,000 and it has a $1,000,000 chicken and egg industry.

ONE THIRD OF STATE'S VETS HOME

11,000 Of Delaware's Vets Are Discharged

With Delaware's service men and women returning to civilian life at the rate of 1100 a week, a total of 11,000 or one-third of the state's total of 30,000 service people have been discharged, according to an estimate made last week by Col. Albert W. Foreman, director of the Delaware Selective Service Headquarters.

If veterans continue to return at their present rate, it is safe to assume they will, Col. Foreman said, all will be back home by May, with the exception of those retained by the two Armies of Occupation.

It is believed that 90 percent of these veterans now home are already employed. Figures at the Unemployment Compensation Division of the USES indicate that 960 veterans received checks last week, approximately 10 per cent of the state's veterans.

This figure varies from week to week, according to officials of the USES, and no interpretation or prediction can be made on present figures.

ALUMNI DANCE IS SUCCESSFUL

Over 100 Couples In Attendance

The Christmas dance, sponsored by the Newark High School Alumni, and resumed this year after a lapse during the war, was one of the most successful affairs of the series.

Over a hundred couples turned out for the festivities on Christmas night at the high school gymnasium, especially decorated in Christmas mode for the occasion. Patroness of the evening was Mrs. R. T. Jones.

Miss Marjorie Rittenhouse is general committee chairman and the various committee chairmen are as follows: orchestra, Angelo Cataldi; decorations, Mildred Baylis; tickets, Eleanor Egan; publicity, Julia Ingham; refreshments, Martin McAllister; patroness and patronesses, Darlene Morgan-Davis Bell and Libby Crookshanks.

Classes At Newark School Reconvene Wed., Jan. 2

Christmas vacation at the Newark School ends next week, with the beginning of the second term on Wednesday, January 2, school authorities said yesterday.

Classes will convene at the regular hour Wednesday morning.

Eleven More Newark Men Discharged This Week

Eleven Newark men received honorable discharges from the armed forces this week, according to reports received here. Seven were released from the Army Separation Center at Fort Monmouth, N. J. and four from the Naval Separation Center at Bainbridge, Md.

Army men who have become civilians are: Pvt. Richard R. Black, Jr., Pvt. James H. Spence, Sr., Cpl. Chas. W. Roy, T/5 Clarence T. Dempsey, and T/5 Leroy Clayville.

Navy men separated were: Nevin H. Janvier, Slt; Alton Byard Argo, TM 1c; Kenneth Stagg, and Elmer Franklin Jester, MUMM 2c.

PLAN FOR 2800 MEN IN STATE GUARD UNIT

Shift From State To Nat'l Set-up Is Not Completed Yet

Although no allotments of personnel for the new Delaware National Guard have been made, it is planned that the state organization will have an enrollment of nearly 2,800 members, equipped with automatic weapons, harbor defense, property and aviation units, official observers believe. Procedure of shifting from State Guard to the National Guard has not been worked out as yet.

Post war National Guard air units are expected to use a number of airfields now being abandoned by the Army Air Forces. Likelihood of Delaware getting an air unit when its national guard is reorganized has not been settled as yet, according to Col. John B. Grier, liaison officer between the National Guard Bureau at Washington and the State of Delaware.

Officials of the National Guard Bureau of the War Department said the post-war aviation sections of the National Guard will be a "very active component of the nation's air defense."

Present plans contemplate a National Guard air force almost double the size of the pre-war force in number of units and far more than that in planes and men. Currently, the idea is for about 80 squadrons, compared with 44 before the war.

CHRISTMAS CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. Hallman Gives Yule Message

In his Christmas message given at the Sunday morning services at the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. E. Hallman, pastor stressed Christ's coming as the Saviour of the world as the fundamental meaning of Christendom's greatest feast day.

Using as his text the Angel's message to the shepherds near Bethlehem on the first Christmas morning, "Unto You Is Born A Saviour," he pointed out these words contain the essence of the Christmas message.

Additional ceremonies in the observance of the Nativity were held Sunday night at the church when a highly colorful and moving pageant, entitled "Mystery For Christmas" was presented as the annual candlelight service.

Those who assisted in organizing the pageant were: Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, G. Taggart Evans, Miss Ann Chalmers, Miss Sara Steel, Mrs. Walter Newton, Mrs. Donald Dutton, J. H. Lacher, and many others.

Rites For Michael Keeley Held Yesterday Morning

Funeral services for Michael Keeley were held yesterday morning from the R. T. Jones Funeral Home. A requiem mass was said at St. John's R. C. Church at 9:30 a. m. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery.

Mr. Keeley, a retired Pennsylvania Railroad employee, died Saturday at his home. He is survived by six sons, James, John, Paul, George, Edward and Richard Keeley and one daughter, Elizabeth Keeley, all of Newark.

Also surviving are two sisters, Margaret Keeley, of Newark, and Mrs. Harry Break, Wilmington, and a brother, John Keeley, Wilmington.

OVER $1500 IN DAMAGE CAUSED BY R. R. CO. FIRE

Defective Stove Fires Washrooms Of Penna. R. R. Mexican Workers

Damage set approximately at from $1500 to $1800 was caused when flames destroyed the laundry and shower rooms of the settlement for Mexican workers at the Pennsylvania Railroad yards here last Saturday night.

The building was unoccupied at the time, the blaze being caused, it was said, by a defective stove.

The Aetna Hose, Hook & Ladder Company responded quickly, but the fire was already well underway on their arrival and the local fire fighters were unable to prevent the destruction.

The relatively high damage resulted principally from the injuries done the intricate plumbing system with which the place was equipped.

This was the only fire reported in town for the week.

On Friday, Jan. 5, the Aetna Company will hold their annual election of officers. Nominees are unopposed for all offices except that of second assistant fire chief, where the incumbent Clifford Moore will be opposed by John Cunningham, recently discharged overseas veteran.

DIAMOND TELEPHONE COMPANY TO EXPAND

$5,500,000 Expansion Program Is Underway

The Diamond State Telephone Company plans to spend $5,500,000 on a comprehensive post-war expansion program and work already is under way, Philip C. Staples, president of the company, announced today.

Primary and immediate objective of the vast program is to provide telephone service as quickly as possible for the 4,700 persons in Delaware who are on "waiting lists," Mr. Staples said.

The program also provides for improving the quality of the service and introduction of new and amazing developments in communications which have been pioneered by the Bell Telephone Laboratories. The construction program not only includes virtually all cities and towns in Delaware, but rural and farm areas as well.

"There is unprecedented activity throughout Delaware," Mr. Staples said. "Contrary to the expectations of some people, the number of telephone calls made daily since the end of the war has shown a steady increase, establishing new peaks. The demand for new telephone installations has been tremendous. Nearly everybody, it seems, wants telephone service."

"Today the volume of toll and long distance calls is approximately 20 per cent greater than a year ago and stands at the highest point in the history of the industry."

SEALSALE SUCCESSFUL

Xmas Seal Drive To Reach Quota

After return of late contributions amounting to $15,000, the sale of Christmas Seals by the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society will reach its $55,000 quota, according to G. Taggart Evans, executive secretary of the Society in a statement made last week.

A total of $40,000 has already been received, with the additional $15,000 in contributions expected to reach the office after January 1.

Annual sale of the seals makes possible maintenance of Sunnybrook Cottage, preventorium for children who have been living in contact with tuberculosis; ex-ray service industrial groups; nursing service for indigent patients; rehabilitation for those who have suffered from the disease; and a health education program.

ST. THOMAS EPISCOPAL CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Rev. Hanckel Urges Facing The Challenge Of Our Times

Christmas this year, the happiest the world has known for some time, could be celebrated with greater warmth and sincerity not only because an end to the fighting had come, but because of the hope that exists for establishing permanent world peace. This was the theme of the Christmas sermon by the Rev. Wm. H. Hanckel, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church Monday evening.

Despite the cynicism general in the world, the praise "Merry Christmas" was not an illusion, he maintained, but indicated universal spirit of goodwill and yearning for world stability among men.

He urged that men identify the Christ in Christmas and themselves as the means of attaining the ideals they seek.

Although this was a happier Christmas, it was also, he pointed out, the first Christmas of the Atomic Age, and the essence of the problems arising out of this invention is the fact that while the world has achieved great scientific advancement it has remained spiritually immature. He urged men to meet the challenge of the age with the spirit of Love.

The sermon high-lighted the traditional Christmas services at the church. Christmas carols featured the music.

FATHERS OUT OF DRAFT

Eliminated From Selective Service Act

All fathers are eliminated from the Selective Service, according to an announcement last week. Speculation that the move might lead to the induction of 18-year-olds only was quieted by authorities.

The end to the drafting of fathers coincided with a new reduction in Army and Navy point scores. But a high official of Selective Service said veterans are not reenlisting in sufficient numbers to narrow the draft any further.

This means, said the official who asked anonymity, that temporarily at least, single men 18 through 25 must fill replacement needs of the Army and Navy.

As has been the case since the end of the war, however, the great majority of those drafted will be youths becoming 18.

Out of a total of about 35,000 men inducted in November, selective service reported, only an estimated six to nine thousand were over 18. Fewer than 900 of the 35,000 were fathers.

In halting the father draft yesterday, Selective Service also ruled that men with three or more children will not be permitted to enlist.

RATIONING OF TIRES TO END

Restrictions To Be Lifted New Year's Day

Rationing of all tires will end one minute after noon on January 1, said an announcement last week from OPA Administrator Chester Bowles, who warned, however, that price control over tires will be continued and closely checked.

Bowles said holders of tire purchase certificates will have through Dec. 31 to turn in their certificates to dealers and get their passenger or truck tires before rationed sale begins.

After this week Bowles said, no additional certificates will be issued except in emergency cases.

Civilian Production Administrator J. D. Small said in a letter to Bowles that tire production had reached the level considered safe for lifting tire controls.

Yule Holiday Deaths Near Three Hundred

The death toll for the nation's Christmas holiday week-end neared the 300 mark last night with more than one-half of the fatalities due to traffic accidents. Fires accounted for about 50 additional victims, while other violent deaths from miscellaneous causes totaled 76.

Texas led the nation, with 47 fatalities accounting for nearly one-sixth of the country's violent deaths.

The outstanding accident was a hospital fire in Hartford, Conn., Christmas Eve which was caused by a flaming Christmas tree and took a toll of 17 deaths. In the same state, six others died in a dwelling blaze at Meriden. A number of persons died of exposure in several states.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM PRESENTED AT SCHOOL

Parents Are Entertained By Pupil's Yule Festival

A near capacity of parents and friends attended the colorful Christmas program of the Newark School in the high school auditorium last Thursday.

Highlight of the evening was the successful and entertaining presentation of the play "The Birds' Christmas Carol" by grade six C under the direction of Mrs. Koelge.

The musical portion of the program featuring selections by the Mixed Chorus, was exceptionally well-received.

The program opened with the singing of "Adeste Fidelis" by the Junior Chorus following which the same group rendered the "Children's Prayer from Hansel and Gretel" and "Sleep of the Infant Jesus."

Dr. Charles M. Lanier, vice-president of the Newark Parent Teacher's Association, at this point, presented an award of a picture to the fifth grade for obtaining the highest percentage of parent enrollment in the P-TA. Marguerite Tierney accepted the gift for her class.

Selections by the Mixed Chorus followed and included "Jesu Bambino" and two carols "The Bells" and the Russian "Children" and Three Polish Carols.

Solos were "The Birthday of a King" by baritone Robert Boyden and "O, Holy Night" by Doris Carson, soprano. Both were assisted by the Mixed Chorus.

The audience joined in two numbers — "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing" and "Silent Night", and the program concluded with the Double Octet singing "Good Night and Christmas Prayer."

STUDENTS RATIFY U. OF D. PLAN

Senate Will Be Formed

At a special meeting last week in Mitchell Hall, students of the university ratified the constitution of the new student government, re-organized since the university became co-educational.

Dean of Women Gwendolyn S. Crawford attended the meeting in the absence of Dean Fenton Doherty, who was ill.

Although by-laws of the student government are not yet written, the meeting was declared a good start towards furthering plans for the organization. A few minor changes in the constitution were made before a final vote of ratification was taken.

The new constitution provides for a Student Senate, with a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. These positions will be held by two men and two women. Also in the senate will be five representatives — three men and two women — to be selected because of their qualifications.

Chief aim of the student government is to maintain cooperation between students and members of the faculty.

Senate Little Late On Lifting Butter Rationing

The Senate rushing through a mass of legislation before Christmas trying to get away for the holidays, passed a resolution calling for an end of butter rationing.

OPA ended butter rationing Nov. 24.

WEEKLY EVENTS IN 1945 REVIEWED

Record Of Year From Past Issues Of The 'Post'

By far the most important event in 1945 for Newark as for the rest of the world was the long-hoped-for yet sudden and unexpected end of World War II. After the first spontaneous outburst, a mood of thanksgiving and subdued joy marked Newark's observance of this momentous chapter-ending in history.

Whatever may have been the significance of the event on the world scene, Newark's first and deepest reaction was simply "the boys will be coming home soon." And, during the latter months of the year, this promise began to come true as local youths in ever-increasing numbers returned from the wars, and many familiar but long-absent faces appeared on Main Street. By Christmas, the town was beginning to assume its pre-war aspect, and families were returning somewhat normal, reunited for the first time in many years.

It is noted, the town might also regard with no little pride the job it had done during the war years. A brief leafing through issues of the Post for the past 12 months gives ample testimony — in numerous accounts of successful drives, campaigns, contributions, and collections, plus measures taken concerning civilian defense and rationing problems — that the community had performed well its small but by no means insignificant part in history's greatest struggle.

The Honor Roll on Main St. gave indication that in other respects also Newark has not been backward.

Changes in the town outwardly during the past year have been few. New construction was, naturally, at a minimum, the most noteworthy item being the erection of the B & O station. For the rest, the town might be adequately described in the remark frequently made by returning servicemen — a surprise and pleased, "Well, the old place hasn't changed much."

Outstanding events locally in 1945 included the resignation in April of Carlton E. Douglass, who for eleven years had been the capable and respected Superintendent of the Newark Special School District and his subsequent succession by Wilmer E. Shue, who has already established himself as a successful and efficient school administrator.

Following is a chronology of events in 1946 as reported weekly in the Post.

January

4.—Total sales for Newark in the Sixth War Bond Drive reached $138,512.50 exceeding quota by $13,512. Local WAC, Pte. Edith M. Connahan received a special letter of commendation for her successful bond tour of Maryland.

11.—Daniel Stoll elected president of the fire company... Elmer Ellison re-elected chief. 543 arrests reported by police. F. O. Houseman and C. E. Oehlert formally enrolled in the Rotary Club.

18.—Alfred A. Curtis, Newark's oldest resident, succumbed.

February

1.—Ten local women complete course in Home Nursing. Mrs. Jane Sinclair to direct University Dramatic Club in production of "Cradle Song."

8.—Fifty-seven on Newark school honor roll. Lions ask increase in pay for teachers. Sgt. Hill discovers fire at home of George Smith.

15.—H. A. Johnson speaks to Lions. Parsons at Rotary. Red Cross War Fund set at $11,000.

22.—Rev. Longacre speaks at Christian Endeavor banquet of First Presbyterian Church. Earl Wolven and D. O. K. K. staff entertain national officer of the organization.

March

1.—Milton L. Draper toastmaster at Boy Scout Banquet. Junior Chamber of Commerce organized. L. Hendricks named president.

8.—Century Club hears talk by WAC Lt. Healey. Dr. John R. Downes named general chairman for Newark Red Cross drive. Dr. C. J. Rees co-author of book "Nautical Mathematics and Marine Navigation."

15.—First collection by Red Cross totals more than $3000. Newark WAC, 1st Lt. Frances Palmer on show team in Europe.

23.—F. A. Cooch speaks at Rotary meeting. Red Cross drive net $8,000. Two plays presented to Lions. (Please turn to page 8)

From the joy and happiness of the Yule season we gain strength and fortitude to meet the problems of tomorrow. Our hope for you is that the New Year will bring no problems you cannot readily solve, and that all will be smooth sailing.

May your mind be brighter, your heart be lighter, and the road ahead easier! This is our wish for you this New Year of 1946.

Fay Carledge: Personalities And Careers

Gloyd Contracting Service Extended To County Homes And Business Places

During the last 15 years the services of C. A. Gloyd have been in great demand and while the war period intervened and caused a stoppage of much work in the contracting field Mr. Gloyd continued to offer the best and help his customers as well as possible. Altering, repairing and converting homes into apartments are stressed in the daily work of the firm at 6 Lindsey Place, Wilmington. A county-wide service is available and has helped clients of the firm get the best no matter where they lived in the general area.

The lifetime of practical experience in general contracting not only qualified Mr. Gloyd to take the initiative and do a good job during the war period but has given him the background and capabilities to make the post-war years a period of further development of his business.

Householders and business property owners contemplating changes and improvements will find the Gloyd service complete and thorough.

Shtofman Was Newspaperman, Secretary To Mayor Before Opening Liquor Store

One of the most progressive business men of the Wilmington area with a long record of public service behind him is George Shtofman, directing head of the retail liquor store at 422 Delaware Avenue, Wilmington.

Taking charge of the store in January Mr. Shtofman has added some principles of service of his own and plans to further enhance the stock as soon as more items are available in quantity.

There are no complaints about the variety right now, however, for the best beer, wines, liquors and special bottled goods are available, including imported labels that are rather on the unusual side now.

Open daily from 9 to 9 except Sundays when it is closed all day, the Shtofman liquor store is equipped to fulfill the demands for the best that will be made on it in increasing proportions during the years of plenty to come.

From 1925 until May, 1944 Mr. Shtofman was a member of the staff of the Journal-Evening, resigning to take up his duties as secretary to the mayor which he held until December

Stanley's Men's Shop Has Nationally Known Brands Of Quality Haberdashery

The best is always featured in stock at Stanley's Men's Shop, 828 Market Street, Wilmington, where for the last 10 years a service of excellent aspects has been offered.

McGregor Sportswear, Interwoven hose and other names known to readers of national magazines are featured in the ample stock of the store which won a new host of friends this Christmas with its excellent range of service and high quality line.

Men's clothing is in stock, too. Although present shortages are unprecented in the history of the clothing industry, Stanley's keeps a selection of suits available that meets with the approval of all.

William Stanley is the genial directing head of the business and has put forth every effort to assure maximum satisfaction for those who visit his location.

The name of Stanley has come to mean the highest possible quality men's wear to astute customers all over the metropolitan area. The shop is open daily until 5:30 and Friday nights until 9.

Individual Styling Is Major Feature In Francine's Program Of Beauty Work

The reliability of years in the practical application of the best principles of beauty service has won a legion of friends for Francine's Beauty Salon, 306 West 8th Street, Wilmington. Even this desirable characteristic is not the only one attracting patrons to the salon for those who want individual styling of hair find the answer to their problems here.

Other desirable features have been brought together under the guidance of Miss Francine Ferragamo who puts to daily use nine years experience in the profession and five years as directing head of the Eighth Street shop.

By calling Wilmington 4-2321 a client is assured of being served when she arrives for the appointment system is in force and everyone is pleased with it.

Permanents of all types are offered at Francine's while many special departments of hair care and coiffure arranging are offered to make the service aspect one of the most complete in the metropolitan area.

Courtesy is always an inviting contribution to the pleasure of visiting the shop.

Davolos Retail Liquor Store Stock Features Variety Of Better Brands

The best is just what the customers of the A. Davolos liquor store get for the popular location at 700 North Union Street is stocked with a selection of imported and domestic brands that is second to none.

Beer, wines, liquors and special bottled goods are featured in the ample stock which has been providing the last word in quality and satisfaction for customers since Repeal.

Mr. Davolos knows how to please his customers and demonstrates this ability every day by keeping up with the requirements of patrons and space of the changing aspect of his own line of work. He has many contacts in the liquor business and through these, to a large extent, has been able to keep his stock up to par or nearly so even in the period of wartime shortages.

From 9 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night, the Davolos retail liquor store is a headquarters for courtesy and a thorough consideration of every patron who enters the place.

Service with a smile is an actuality here.

Gregory's Soda Grill Inviting Place For A Snack, Candy, Home Remedy Items

Folks have been making Gregory's Soda Grill their principal stopping place for a variety of things in ever-increasing numbers since present management took charge two years ago. The location at 901 West 9th Street has gained the commendation of residents of Wilmington as well as a large transient trade for its stock and service are always up to par.

The luncheonette is a meeting place of the area and offers a wide choice of delicious sandwiches and special dishes. The fountain dispenses Supplee Sealtest ice cream and a choice of many delicacies to please the sweet tooth.

Patent medicines, home and personal needs, newspapers and magazines are among the many items available in the well-stocked Gregory's Soda Grill.

When Spero J. Gregory took over the business when it was 10 years old he put into force some new ideas and methods and the net result has been to advance the grill along more progressive lines to the satisfaction of all.

SHERWOOD IMPORTERS BRING GIFTS FROM SOUTH AMERICA, PERSIA HERE

The color fiesta time in old Mexico, the gaiety of the carnivals of Brazil and the rich beauty of gifts from the distant East are all found in the ample selection at Sherwood Importers, one of the most distinctive shops in the metropolitan area.

The enterprise at the northwest corner of 7th and Van Buren Streets, Wilmington, has found a wide degree of acceptance among residents and visitors during the months since September when it opened offering gifts from Mexico, Brazil, The Bahamas, Haiti, Granda and Persia.

During the 12 years he has been identified with the importing business, Jackson Sherwood has gained a wealth of knowledge of the field and established his shop on the best principles of service augmented by a practical training in all departments of the work.

In addition to the line of merchandise which come strictly under the heading of gifts is pottery with all the beauty and unusual features for which imported items are so well known. Beauty aids for any home are found in the complete stock of the business.

The shop, open daily from 11 to 6, remains alert to its customers needs for an extra three hours every Tuesday and Friday nights.

Ryan Co. Delivers Fuel Oil Over Area; Son Of Founder, Army Vet, Heads Firm

The standards of service in force and uniform quality of its product helped place J. J. Ryan Company on a tier of high esteem among householders and business people in the New Castle County area many years ago. The same standards are in force now with Paul J. Ryan, a veteran of two years Army service, returned from the service and again in charge of the concern.

His father, J. J. Ryan, launched the business on its career and upon his death in February his son became owner.

Atlantic fuel oil is sold by the company with the policies and principles of this great company in force augmented by the equally staid and solid plan of endeavor for which the name of Ryan has stood for 30 years.

From 326 6th Avenue, Wilmington, J. J. Ryan Company covers a vast territory and plans are afoot to render a service of even greater proportions.

Mr. Ryan has kept to the ideals on which the business was built and which have carried it through war and peace, depression and inflation, to its present position of consequence.

Experience Is Factor In Lew's Burner Work

The experience necessary to do the job well and the willingness to provide amply for everyone's needs are outstanding elements in the success that is destined to come to Lew's Oil Burner Service, 1806 Linden Street, Wilmington.

During the last two weeks the business has been active and in this relatively short span of time has won the approval of householders and business people from all over the area. The county district is the range of territory to be covered by Lewis Senn who is putting every scrap of knowledge gained over a quarter of a century to work in his daily endeavor.

Oil burners of all kinds are installed, repaired and serviced to provide maximum comfort for homes depending on this type of heating unit.

Opera Stars Of The Feathered Tribe Are Raised Here By Mrs. W. K. Jeffers

Singers that bring sunshine to a home on the darkest of days are offered by Mrs. W. K. Jeffers who is widely known as a breeder and fancier of canaries.

A call to Wilmington 2-3338 will arrange an appointment for the customer to visit 1106 West 6th Street and make a choice of any bird. Raised in clean sunlit rooms, the Jeffers canaries are healthy, happy birds with the ability to delight every member of a household.

If they had had a singing instructor they couldn't do better for the secret of a fine singer lies in the care it gets as much as in the breeding and background of the bird.

Established five years ago, the Jeffers enterprise has been maintained along the best lines to find favor with every patron. Mrs. Jeffers has been identified with her work for 30 years.

In addition to the birds, Mrs. Jeffers has available a line of attractive cages and features feed for canaries which she prepares personally from her long experience in caring for birds.

Gibbons Radio Ready For Greatest Era In Electronics With Full Repair Aid

The radio repair men of America have much to their credit keeping receiving sets in good condition during the period of history-in-the-making second to none in this nation's experience.

Often faced with a shortage of parts and lack of help, Gibbons Radio has a record of estimable proportions to its credit, but the years ahead will find past attainments outdone as the firm at 1824 North Scott Street, Wilmington, enters the new era of electronics.

The repair service instituted by Walter J. Gibbons has stood the test of time.

for it has been 14 years since the business received its first customer. Home and automobile receiving sets are serviced with expertness and care while Mr. Gibbons also works on toasters, irons and similar appliances to help lighten the housewife's job.

New radios will be in stock at Gibbons when they are available and the finest makes and most advanced models will form a new element of service for the benefit of Gibbons customers.

New Castle County is covered thoroughly by the firm

Vale Millinery Is Ready With Distinctive Styling Pleasing Milady

Unique in its presentability and distinctive to the point of drawing admiration from the most astute wearer, hats available at Vale Millinery are the type that lead the fashion parade every season.

Five years ago the popular shop was opened at 807 Market Street and Wilmington was treated to a well-advanced enterprise that had as its goal providing conservative ideas in hats.

Through the war period it gained new friends until today the business directed by Mrs. Ella Alexander is widely known and appreciated. It is remembered, too, for the manner in which it met the requirements of customers during the recent era of shortages.

During the last four years Mrs. Alexander has been manager of Vale Millinery and has put to work 10 years experience in fitting hats to suit the taste and facial contours of astute clients.

The shop is open daily until 5:30 and Friday nights until 9 o'clock.

Waterproofing Methods Of Strawbridge Bros. Approved As Standard In Region

In an age of specialization the work of Strawbridge Brothers has been outstanding for the firm at 100 Ruth Street, Wilmington, has made waterproofing its major endeavor and through the maintenance service it is able to put forth in the interests of its customers has gained the approval of all.

In Delaware and nearby Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland, the work of Albert T. and Clarence Strawbridge is accepted as standard for it offers an underground protection for homes, schools, institutions and industrial plants that provides maximum protection.

Roofing and spouting work is also a part of the firm's program and the same exceptional measures are employed in getting jobs done in this phase of its activity.

Established 12 years ago, the concern has found its greatest advancement under present ownership with the Messrs. Strawbridge giving full time and attention to the job at hand.

They are always ready to advise and offer suggestions as well as provide estimates on any job, large or small.

Keeping Milady Well-Groomed Is Daily Pleasurable Task At Betty Marie Shop

An attractive salon with the last word in modern trends stressed, Betty Marie Beauty Shoppe, 1602 Delaware Avenue, Wilmington, has combined the elements of professional endeavor with a dependable business aspect to gain the continued esteem and approval of those who want the best.

During the months it has been under the ownership and management of Mrs. Gladys Simmers since October 1 many important strides forward have been made. The net result has been a place of even greater consequence for the shop which was launched on its career 10 years ago.

All work is by appointment. This assures the patrons of getting prompt attention and provides a maximum of satisfaction everyone appreciates.

A call to Wilmington 2-0654 reserves the time the client wishes and provides immediate service for her when the hour of her appointment arrives.

Since 1932 Mr. Simmers has been engaged in her present work and is adept at the various departments of the profession as well as being thoroughly conversant with new trends.

Symbol of strength is the oak, which extends its limbs horizontally in defiance of gravity.

May such strength and sturdiness be yours in 1946 and in the years to come — strength to weather every storm and cross-current that life may bring.

Good luck to you, good friends, and many happy returns of the day!

TEMPUS FUGIT

How time does fly! Here we are at the beginning of another new year. It was but yesterday, it seems, that we sent you our last New Year greetings, and now here we are again wishing you so much more and so much better of everything than you have ever had before.

As time does have wings, we hope that 1946 loses no time in bringing you all these good things we have in mind for you. And many thanks for past favors.

OPA Sets Ceilings On Electrical Appliances

Consumers will be able to buy toasters, waffle irons and other small electrical appliances at about pre-war prices, when they return to the market, OPA announced this week.

OPA set ceiling prices effective tomorrow. Manufacturers are allowed an 8 per cent increase over October, 1941, levels, but this will not be reflected in retail prices.

There will be a 5 per cent increase for goods made in the East and sold in the West to cover transportation costs.

Among items affected are coffee makers, table broilers, hair-driers, vibrators, vaporizers, curling irons, flat irons hot plates and heating pads.
