Newark State Trooper Escapes Death from Surprise Gun Shot

One Man Of Battling Pair Fires Shot From Crude Home-Made Pistol At State Policeman Norval R. Robinson As State Trooper Stops Fight, Makes Arrest, Unhurt

Delaware State Trooper Norval Robinson of Newark narrowly escaped death or serious injury last Saturday night when a shot from a home-made .22 caliber pistol was fired at him while the state policeman was breaking up a fight at Kruse School on the Newport Gap Pike. Things are rough enough for a cop with the necessity for taking precautions against gunfire from a bona fide weapon, but when a bullet is discharged from what appears to be a crude chunk of metal, the situation can be tough.

Two Shot Alarm
Robinson had been sent to the scene of disturbance in response to a call received from residents of the area, who reported they had heard two shots fired in the yard of Samuel Bailey, 32, of Newport Gap Pike. Bailey was in a fight with Harry H. H. of the 200 block Clyde St. Belvidere.

The trooper said he quickly subdued Bailey and then grappled with H. who he said was carrying a hammer from a musket. Robinson said he lost little time in subduing Evans after the shot fired.

Robinson was taken to Wilmington General Hospital for treatment and later. He was arraigned before Judge William West of Elsie on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, assault and battery, carrying a concealed deadly weapon and being drunk on the highway.

A police said an increasing number of home-made weapons have been found recently in the hands of persons taken into custody. They West has a previous police record of assault charges.

Legislative Bill To Be Discussed At Public Meeting

Rep. Henry Wolf Obtains Speaker J. M. Rosbrow To Discuss Proposed S. B. 13

James M. Rosbrow of the State Employment Compensation Commission will discuss proposed legislation at a public meeting held at Dover in S. B. 13, a bill to create a state personnel department, in a program arranged by Rep. Henry Wolf to begin next Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in the Main school administration building.

Interested persons have been extended special invitations to attend, including Ed. Massey, National Labor Union; Richard Loftis, public school counselor; Miss Mae MacLary, Republican Club; John List, American Club; Samuel Handloff, Fire B. P. Doord, West Park Place; W. D. L. Gore, Medill PTA; Nellus Morgan, New London PTA; Nolan Jester, Local Continental Diamond; and Ed. Massey, Aetna Hose.

Members of the local league planning to attend the conference are: Mrs. Jerry A. Nelson, local chairman; Mrs. Samuel Handloff, project; Mrs. Samuel Handloff, and Mrs. E. P. Hanson.

Mrs. Nelson, phone Newark 8-7656, has the following pamphlets available including "The Bill of Rights" and "Our Individual Freedom."

"Where Constitutional Liberty Came From," "Freedom of Speech and Press," "Constitutional Liberty and Sedition Activity," "The Constitution and Congressional Investigating Committees," and "The Constitution and Loyalty Programs."

Lumbrook Sewer Complete Contractor To Fix Streets

City Engineer J. Francis Neide announced yesterday that city installation of sewer lines in the Lumbrook area, connecting Lumbrook with the county sewer, are complete, and that 500-ft. of sewer interceptors line from the city main, under Capitol Trail, to the new Porter Motor Co. building, have been installed.

Julian Jones, Wilmington contractor, has been employed by the City of Newark for spot street repairs and for replacement of sidewalks on North Chapel Street, East Main, and Cleveland Avenue, that were torn up with work on the city water mains.

Delivery of new electric metering equipment purchased to provide a complete and constant check on electric load characteristics is expected within the week.

Mayor To Speak At First Noonday Lenten Services

Newark Methodist Church To Have 5 Local Leaders Speak Thursdays In Lent

Dr. Wallace M. Johnson, mayor of Newark, will be the speaker next Thursday, at 12:15 p.m. in the Newark Methodist Church, at the first of five noonday services being conducted on the Thursdays during Lent from 12:15 to 12:45 p.m.

These services are to provide working people the opportunity of worshipping in downtown Newark during the lunch hour.

The theme of the services will be "My God and I." Each of the five speakers, all citizens of Newark, will speak briefly on this theme. The schedule for other speakers is as follows: March 10—Dr. John A. Perkins, president of the University of Delaware; March 17—William E. Shue, superintendent of the Newark special school district; March 24—William C. White, treasurer of Curtis Paper Company; March 31—John F. Link, of the Continental Diamond Fibre Company.

In commenting on the services Dr. John J. Bunting, Jr., minister of the church said: "Because of the excellent response to the noonday Lenten services in Wilmington, it appears that such a series during Lent in downtown Newark should meet with a good response. At least this is an effort on our part to help in the enrichment of the Lenten season in our community."

Police Protection In Brookside Area Sought By Letters

Letter-Writing Campaign Promoted To Gain County Police Aid Through Bill

A letter-writing campaign is being promoted in Brookside in an effort to obtain passage of a bill that would give the development county police protection.

Mrs. H. B. Jernee, chairman of the legislative committee of the Brookside Community, Inc., has urged residents interested in obtaining such protection to write to Rep. W. Walter Johnson (D-Glasgow) or State Senator John Butler (D-Middletown), who represent Pendercast Hundred in the two houses of the Delaware General Assembly.

County police are assigned to several hundred in northern New Castle county, but none are assigned to Pendercast, in which most of Brookside is located. The law provides that four county police could be assigned to this hundred if the General Assembly approved.

Mrs. Jernee cited recent reports that a prowler had broken in one house and had been seen around midnight in Section M.

If police were assigned to Pendercast, their beat would extend from the Newark city line south to several miles past Glasgow, but the most populous part of the area is Brookside with about 900 homes occupied and with families starting to move into a new 200-house section to be known as M-2.

Monthly Meeting Of West Park PTA Planned Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of the West Park Place PTA will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria, and will be featured by a concert presented by the school orchestra under the direction of Ernest R. Wilder, director of music education, a concert postponed because of the weather at the February meeting.

Dr. Muriel Crosby, director of elementary education for the Wilmington public schools, will speak on "Trends in Elementary Education" and the nominating committee will present a panel of officers proposed for the coming year.

PTA members will be requested to vote for or against support of the various school bills presented to the State Legislature, as the opinions of the PTA groups are expected to influence the passage of such legislation.

The bills intended to improve Delaware's position in obtaining new teachers are considered particularly important to progress in the Newark special school district.

Newark Winter Refugee Writes Home Of Florida's Pirate Lore

In a St. Petersburg, Fla., trailer camp named appropriately, Pirates Cove, Newark's Linwood A. Conner writes of the Spanish Main and pirate lore he has acquired as a refugee from the Newark winter.

"One hundred years ago, Jose Gonsalves, the only second generation pirate, and his Spanish navy, mutinied and sailed his captive ship across Tampa Bay up the Hillsborough River and sacked the town of Tampa. He with his Mystic Krewe, looted the place, courted the ladies and in such a charming manner that each anniversary of these events is attended by half a million people.

Perkins Urges State Legislature To Provide Faculty Salary Raise

The University of Delaware has been fortunate in retaining its key personnel despite attractive offers from industry and other educational institutions, Dr. John A. Perkins, president, told a meeting of the Delaware Section, American Chemical Society, during a meeting at the university on Saturday.

Since 1950 the turnover for teaching faculty of all ranks, including those who have retired, has averaged less than 5 per cent, he said.

"For the most part," Dr. Perkins stated, "the salaries and opportunities were far better than we could match."

"In the past five years we have lost only two full professors and five associate professors for reasons other than retirement. Four of these people received better positions at other universities," Dr. Perkins said.

"Already this year we have lost a dean of engineering, a promising young entomologist, and one of our marine biologists. In their new positions, they are receiving from 20 to 50 per cent more pay. People of this calibre are difficult to replace and unless the State Legislature recognizes our problem and assists us by granting the money we have requested for small salary increases, I am afraid that other good people may be lost to our faculty. In the scarce technical personnel market of today it invariably costs more to hire a new man than the one lost," he said.

The university's requests to the Legislature included $91,725 for salary increases, which amounts to only about 5 per cent pay raises for employees.

"Many assistant professors are being lured away from teaching by industry," Dr. Perkins stated, "and most of these losses are among teachers of scientific and engineering subjects."

"This is an ominous situation threatening the future of all universities," Dr. Perkins asserted.

"In one sense," the president concluded, "it is gratifying to know that industry and other institutions think so highly of our faculty that they are trying to lure them from us. I would, of course, be concerned, too, if no one were interested in our people."

"The alarm was at the farmhouse of Herbert Wood on Chestnut Hill Road, near the Maryland line. Altogether, 40 volunteers responded to the two alarms, under the direction of John C. Cunningham.

The volunteers were not altogether idle during the 11 fireless days. On Wednesday the 75-foot ladder wagon sped to Bent Lane to rescue a cat that had been stranded in a tree for several hours. Seven men turned out for that operation at 3:45 p.m.

Recent cold weather has prompted the company to buy furlined coats with hoods for the drivers of its open-cab vehicles. Each coat will be kept in the vehicle it serves, ready for a qualified driver to grab it.

The drivers do not wear regular firemen's coats and helmets because they stay with their vehicles during a fire, manning the pumps when necessary.

Teacher Shortage Pamphlets Issued Throughout State

University of Delaware Releases 10,000 Copies Of Penrose's Pamphlet

Continuing its varied efforts to alert Delawareans to the related problems of teacher shortage and enrollment increases, the University of Delaware is distributing 10,000 copies of a two-color, illustrated pamphlet, "Solving the Teacher Shortage Problem," to school officials, parents, alumni, and students throughout the state.

The author, William O. Penrose, dean of the school of education, tells of the problems in Delaware, relates them to the national crisis, describes the efforts of the University of Delaware and other agencies in the state, and most importantly, offers suggestions to school officials, parents, and every Delawarean can contribute to this vital educational effort.

Dr. Penrose writes: "You can help out in your own school district. You can join the Parent-Teacher Association, and the Council for Delaware Education, Inc., or offer your services to your local school administrator. You can write to the National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools, 2 West Forty-fifth Street, New York 36, and ask for suggestions to improve the state in your own district. You can write to the University of Delaware for similar assistance."

"The job of getting enough good teachers is a big one, but it can and must be done. Our children have only one chance at school, and we want them to have the best. More than educational welfare is involved. Our country cannot afford to have poorly educated citizens, if we are to maintain our present standard of living, provide for our national security, and continue the role of world leadership that has become our heritage."

A. S. Priestley Re-elected 'Y' Management Chairman

Albert S. Priestley was re-elected chairman of the Newark YMCA committee of management at a meeting this week. Wilbert L. Gore was elected vice-chairman; Mrs. Richard Loftman, recording secretary; Mrs. Melville Kershaw, assistant recording secretary; and H. Lewis Miller, re-elected treasurer.

Gilmore Ott, chairman of the program committee, reported that three Y-Ed courses have been started—bridge, oil painting and tap dancing—and that swimming lessons for boys are being held each week. Anyone interested in enrolling may call the "Y" office, 8-6761.

Bd. Of Education Approves Addition Of 4 Classrooms

Four Teachers Appointed, West Park Place Addition Approved At Board Meeting

The Newark Board of Education has approved the cost of adding four classrooms to the West Park Place Elementary School, an alternate in the bidding on the present 15-classroom structure which was occupied last Sept. 13. The contractor was Ernest DiSabatino & Sons, Inc.

The board took action in the hope that it can still obtain the original contract price on the alternate and have the extra rooms ready by September.

Also under study is the possibility of adding four rooms to the 16-classroom school now under construction at Marrows Road and Brookside Boulevard in Brookside.

In other actions at its postponed meeting last Thursday afternoon, the board agreed to give the city of Newark the land it needs for the right-of-way of the Delaware Avenue extension at no charge provided the extension is ready when the new high school opens alongside it next September. About one acre is involved.

The board accepted the resignation of Vernon Maier as a high school commercial teacher effective at the end of the school year. Four teachers were appointed, one for this year and the others for the 1955-56 year.

Mrs. Helen Schoyen was named to teach an additional room of the fourth grade at Medill School effective Feb. 1.

Miss Elinor J. Short, now teaching in Georgetown, was appointed as a commercial teacher for next year and Clifford J. Brown and Miss Ruth J. Ungers were appointed as elementary teachers.

Mr. Brown is now teaching at the Governor Bacon Health Center and Miss Ungers will be a graduate of Cortland State Teachers College in New York.

Faculty To Offer Three Act Comedy For Annual Play

Joseph McVey, Jr. Cast In Lead Role, With Play Scheduled For March 25

"Mr. Pim Passes By," a three-act comedy taking place in a busy day in England, will be presented March 25 and 26 in the high school auditorium by the faculty of Newark special school district.

The title role of Mr. Pim will be played by Joseph McVey, Jr. Others in the cast will be: Miss Ann Wooten, Eugene Smith, Richard Musselwhite, Miss Jo Masors, Mrs. Alice Logan, and Miss Genvor Thureson.

Robert Mayer, eighth-grade English and history teacher, will direct the play. Mr. Mayer participated actively in the Litancard Players, a theatrical group at Millersville State Teachers College. Since he has been at Newark, Mr. Mayer has directed two television shows. This is the first time he has ever directed a faculty play.

Heading the list of committees is Miss Jo Masors. George Nickle is in charge of all business; Neil Osbourne, set; Janet Groh, property; Robert Farny, lighting; Mrs. Grace Gibb, music; and Mrs. Logan, prompter.

West Park Place 6th Grade Learns To Speak In German

Max S. Kirch, assistant professor of modern languages at the University of Delaware, has been speaking German with Mrs. Barnhart's sixth grade class at the West Park Place School.

This program has been conducted for the past four months with Dr. Kirch meeting the pupils three times a week. The method used is purely conversational—no English is employed—and all explanations are made in German, with the aid of abundant gestures and pictures. The pupils now have a vocabulary in excess of 200 words.

Mrs. Barnhart commented that "The teaching of languages becomes increasingly important as the world grows smaller, the result of tremendous advances in methods of communication and transportation."

Dr. Kirch has participated in a similar plan in the Philadelphia Schools and is quite enthusiastic about the results already obtained in Newark.

Council, City Manager Weigh Need For Added City Income

Faced With Deficit At End Of Fiscal Year, Council Considers Additional Sources Of Revenue At Caucus; Tentative Maintenance Budget Presented For Review

The necessity for providing additional income for the successful operation of the City of Newark was emphasized at a caucus of council and Newark's new city manager last Tuesday night. Mr. Over, who has been well occupied since arriving in Newark last week to begin work on his new assignment, presented a proposed maintenance budget for the City of Newark; a revised, proposed form for the presentation of monthly receipts and expenditures; and a plan revising the order of business conducted at regular council meetings.

A substantial increase in estimated maintenance expenditures for the new fiscal year beginning March 1 is forecast because of the expansion of facilities and services necessary to meet the needs of the growing community, and because of the increased cost of supplies and materials. Faced with an operating deficit of nearly $200,000 at the close of the present fiscal year, City Manager Over and members of council discussed additional sources of city revenue.

Estimated expenditures were derived from salaries established by council, estimates of fixed charges, and preliminary studies of work projects.

Costs and Revenue
The caucus emphasized the necessity, careful consideration of costs and revenue to obtain a favorable financial balance, and with the increased cost of city operations contingent with the growth of the community, it was agreed that additional income must be obtained if the city is to remain solvent.

Council received copies of the city manager's proposals for preliminary study.

The proposed new order of business for the regular council meetings provides for the hearing of visitors' petitions, complaints and suggestions immediately following the reading of the minutes at the beginning of the meeting. Public hearings would be followed by reports of council committees—committee reports that should be minimized with the advent of the city manager who may settle many of the committee problems in line of duty.

"There is only one justification for my being here," Mr. Over said, earlier, "and that is to insure the sound, economic operation of the City of Newark. With the current deficit, if costs were to remain at the present level, additional revenue must be obtained and costs are rising with community expansion."

One Day Program For Home Gardens Scheduled March 1

Public Invited To Attend Annual U.D. Short Course To Be Offered At Ag Hall

The annual Home Gardener's Short Course will be held March 1 in Agricultural Hall at the University of Delaware. This year's concentrated one day and evening program features speakers from the university and other experts in the field.

The morning session which starts at 10 a.m. will deal largely with the selection and care of trees and shrubs for the home grounds. Topics for the morning session include "Care of Hurricane Damaged Trees" by E. G. Rex, New Jersey State Department of Agriculture; Robert Taylor of Styer's Nurseries, Concorville, Pa., will speak on the topic "Choosing Shrubs for Various Effects"; C. W. Dunham of the University of Delaware will discuss "How to Prune Shrubs."

The afternoon session will concern house plants. George Jack, Winterthur Farms, Del., will give "Simple Rules for Success with House Plants." Starting Plants indoors from Seeds and Cuttings is the topic to be discussed by Fred Annand, Farm Manager of Renapack Corporation. Mrs. G. E. DeCoursey of Paoli, Pa., will talk on "Care of Begonias and Other Favorite House Plants." Plenty of time will be allowed in all sessions for a question and answer period.

The evening session starting at 8 p.m. will be for those interested in starting a home ground development plan. R. F. Stevens, C. E. Phillips and C. W. Dunham, all of the university, will be speakers at this session.

Everyone is welcome to attend any or all sessions. Further information on the program may be secured from the Agricultural Short Course Office, Box 150, University of Delaware.

at lower cost group rates

As an active Farm Bureau member, this is your once-a-year opportunity to obtain Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage at low group rates. With this hospital-surgical-medical coverage you protect and improve your family's health and the cost is budgeted in easy quarterly installments. Blue Cross-Blue Shield is Delaware's favorite health insurance plan . . . community-sponsored and non-profit. Along with two-thirds of all the citizens of Delaware, 375 of your members and their families are enrolled in Blue Cross-Blue Shield. There is a reason for this overwhelming acceptance. Blue Cross-Blue Shield gives you the most for your money. Of all funds received 90% are used to pay members' hospital and surgical bills. No other health insurance plan even approaches such a record of low operating costs and high benefit return to members. So during this special ten-day period, welcome the member of your board of directors* and the Blue Cross representative when they come to your home. Enroll your family in Blue Cross-Blue Shield . . . it is the finest health protection you money can buy!

Brookside To Hold Pushmobile Rally Tomorrow Night

Newark Boys, Parents, Sponsors Invited For Initial Derby Program

The first of a series of Pushmobile Derby pep rallies, to be held in various sections of the state to build interest in the annual classic, will be held in the Brookside Community Building tomorrow night.

The 1955 Pushmobile Derby will be run over the permanent derby track near Milford Cross Roads on Aug. 20.

Members of the Delaware Association of Police Pushmobile Derby Committee will attend the Brookside pep meeting sponsored by the Brookside Activity Council. Derby information, rules, and application blanks will be available at the meeting. A knock-down derby car will be on display. The committee will show movies of the 1954 derby.

The local committee will be carrying with it, according to John J. Clarke, a boast from Wilmington boys that, although the track may be outside the city, the derby championship is going to remain in Wilmington.

All boys of the Newark area are invited to attend the Brookside rally with parents and potential sponsors.

"We are gratified with the progress we are making toward our building," the Rev. Milton H. Keene, minister of the new suburban congregation, stated after the meeting.

Christiana Calling

Sylvia P. Jones, Correspondent

As the climax of its special Valentine project, Brownie Troop 151 of the Briggs Building of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 151 N. 10th St., will have a party for the patients of the hospital under the direction of Mrs. Howard Schulz, had clever corsages of pipe cleaners and filled bags of candy.

Representatives from headquarters of the troop will be present for an official inspection by the hospital staff. The troop's regular meeting next Monday evening, the boys' weekend to Camp Rodney, which was postponed because of the snowstorm two weeks ago, is now planned for some time in May.

A covered dish luncheon at the church after morning service on Feb. 27 will initiate a week of fund-raising for the new Methodist parsonage.

At the regular meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 151 N. 10th St., set as the date for the spring ham and oyster supper. The turkey supper at Salem Methodist Church, scheduled for Feb. 12 and postponed because of the storm, will be served at 5 p.m. on March 19.

Day of Prayer
Dr. Ernest Freeman Hall, minister of the Christiana Presbyterian Church, extended an invitation for the women of the church to join in the World Day of Prayer services in the Newark Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 2 p.m. World Day of Prayer is observed annually by Christians the world over on the first Friday in Lent. Each year the national World Day of Prayer Committee of the United Church Women, sponsor of the observance, invites women from a chosen country to write the service. This year's service was written by Jorgelina Lozada of Argentina, and should prove both interesting and inspirational.

Dr. Hall also cited a worthwhile television Lenten feature, weekly Bible studies led by Princeton University theological professors. These are seen on WFIL-TV's "University of the Air" on Fridays, 11:15 to 11:35 a.m.

Saturday, May 14, is the date set for the spring platter supper to be served by the women of the Christiana Presbyterian Church in the fire house. Mrs. Olan Cleaver will be chairman.

All card-players are invited to attend the card party to be sponsored tonight in the Christiana fire house by the Ladies Auxiliary. Twenty-eight dollars was realized on last week's card party.

Residents of Christiana are expected to take an active part in the annual Red Cross Drive to begin on March 6. Mrs. Howard Greene is vice-chairman of Delaware Red Cross Branch Area I and Mrs. E. V. Widgren is a special committee member from Christiana.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carl, who became parents of a new daughter on Feb. 15 in the Wilmington General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cleaves, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Clayville, and Mrs. Jenny Cheney left last Thursday for a two week stay in Florida. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney, Mrs. Chaney being the former Miss Dorothy Clayville.

Mrs. Myrtle Taylor had a luncheon guests last Thursday her sister, Mrs. Violet Long, and Mrs. Laura Mae Vincent.

Mrs. Elsie Reed and son Donald were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pamela Baker of Summit Bridge on Sunday.

The many who were ill last week included Mrs. L. N. Savage, Mrs. C. S. Kleinbach, Lillian Cleaver, Jacqueline Jones, and Wallace Cleaver.

PERSONALS
The many who were ill last week included Mrs. L. N. Savage, Mrs. C. S. Kleinbach, Lillian Cleaver, Jacqueline Jones, and Wallace Cleaver.

Engagement
Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Annis Louise Cleaver, daughter of Orville Cleaver and the late Mrs. Grace L. Cleaver of Oglethorpe, and Klemens John Gabor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gabor, also of Oglethorpe.

Miss Cleaver, a graduate of Newark High School, is employed by the Continental-Diamond Fibre Co. here. Mr. Gabor attended Newark High School and is engaged in farming with his father. The wedding will take place August 13 in St. John's R.C. Church, Newark.

The by-laws committee of the Pencader Democratic Club met last week at the home of Edward Cooch to work on club constitution changes to be presented at the March 23 meeting.

Seventy persons, members and their families of the Town and Country Club enjoyed a covered dish supper at the Glasgow Grange Hall last week.

The Pencader 4-H Club window display theme for the coming contest is "Working Toward Better Homes and Communities." Maurice Field showed motion pictures of the college campus at last week's meeting and a leader training meeting on "Bread Demonstration" was attended by members in Middletown last Tuesday.

The Saturday morning sewing class at the home of leader Mrs. McPhee had nine seamstresses participating.

Mrs. H. W. Price of South College Extension will be hostess for the Greenway Home Demonstration Club on March 8.

The turkey supper planned by the ladies of Salem M. E. Church has been postponed until March 19.

Mrs. Eva Scott is a patient in the Flower Hospital.

Bible Presbyterian Mission Services Planned This Week

Visiting Missionaries To Feature Local Church Program Through Sunday

The third annual missionary conference is being conducted this week by the Bible Presbyterian Church, with home missions pastors from three states, and foreign missionaries from four countries as speakers.

Meetings are being held in the church auditorium each evening, Thursday through Saturday, and at both Sunday worship services. Special music will be provided by the three choirs of the church.

The Rev. Frank Smick of Baltimore, and Dr. William H. Chisholm of Korea will speak this evening, and women of the church and from several nearby churches will observe the World Day of Prayer on Friday afternoon with missionaries leading the program.

The Rev. Eugene Potoka of Seaside Heights, N.J., and Miss Louise Lee of India will speak at the Friday evening service, while the Saturday night service will feature the Rev. Dale Umbreit of Cranston Heights and Miss Margaret Harden of Brazil. The Bible Presbyterian Youth Fellowship, an organization of young people from the churches of the Philadelphia area, will attend this service in a body.

The Rev. Richard Strom of India will speak Sunday morning, after the Sunday School hour in which the missionaries will teach the lesson in each class.

Miss Stevie Fassig of 346 South College Avenue was hostess to the Green Meadows 4-H Club last Friday evening. A newcomer to town invited the club to meet at her home upon hearing that a place was needed for the meeting. Slides of Korea, loaned by Major and Mrs. R. O. Mancker of Brookside, were shown in a program on International Relations. The club is planning a window display entitled "Roadside Beautification."

Mrs. Philip of Old Post Road, is home from the hospital following a lengthy illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carl of Oglethorpe have a new daughter, Katharine Alfreda, born Feb. 15 and weighing 7 lbs., 6 1/2 oz. The Carls have two other sons and two daughters.

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways — they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three."

$2319.88
puts it in your driveway!

CHANCES are, you'll be way over if you guess at the local delivered price of a 1955 Buick. Most people are.

And that's easy to understand when you look at a Buick. It's big, broad, roomy—powered for thrilling action. In prestige alone, it would seem to carry a high price tag.

But when you check into things, you discover this surprising fact: Buick is in the nation's top three when it comes to sales volume—and when it comes to low prices that make such huge popularity possible.

The price we show here is one proof of that. And an even bigger one is the soaring success of the 1955 Buick—hottest car in all Buick sales history.

So why miss out on Buick style and power and room and ride when you can have it all if you can afford any new car?

Why do yourself out of the fun and pride and deep satisfaction of bossing a big and brawny beauty like the one pictured here, when the dollars you pay for this Buick buy you so much more sheer automobile?

And why pay extra for things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in the glove compartment—when such things, and more, are yours in every new Buick as standard equipment at no extra cost?

Drop in for a visit this week and start checking things.

We believe that when you look into this great car—when you see what you get for the low price you pay—and when you discover what happens when you nudge that gas pedal—you'll say it's gospel that Buick's the thrill and the buy of the year, hands down.

A MATTER OF RIGHTS

The framers of our Constitution may or may not have foreseen that ambitious leaders of labor would one day seek to force all men to belong to unions as a condition of getting and holding a job.

But today that situation exists and, in order to protect the freedom of the individual, 17 states have passed laws to implement and give force to what is implicit in our Constitution—that the right to work shall be guaranteed to all men.

Under our federal-state concept of government, the Constitution gave the states not only the authority but the obligation to safeguard the right of every citizen to seek his best economic interests. The states cannot safeguard this right except by guaranteeing the right to work.

NEWARK IN REVIEW

More Spirit!

A lack of spirit, and indifference to training by students turning out for football at the University of Delaware was declared to be one of the principal reasons for the Hens' glaring failure on the gridiron during the past season, according to a short but stirring talk given at the Alumni Association annual banquet, by Coach George "Gus" Ziegler.

"Delaware is playing only the smaller colleges with some degree of athletic standing," Ziegler stated. "Unless conditions improve, Delaware will either have to play prep schools or drop football altogether."

Annual Firemen's Banquet
Dr. George W. Rhodes, president of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company, introduced Ira S. Brinser, superintendent of local schools, as toastmaster at the annual firemen's banquet held in the New Century Club last Thursday night.

Some 200 members of their wives and guests attended the affair, with Col. E. R. Rank, Coatesville, Pa., delivering the principal address.

New Sound Equipment
With the installation of additional sound equipment during the week the State Theatre is now equipped to present the latest talking, moving pictures.

The new equipment takes the sound from the film rather than from records, and insures synchronization of sound and film.

Foreign Honor
For his interest and work with the University of Delaware Foreign Study Plan, Arthur G. Wilkinson, U. of D. business administrator was decorated by the French Government.

The French Consul in Philadelphia notified Mr. Wilkinson that he has been awarded the d'Officier d'Academie for his promotion of foreign study, with student groups traveling from the U.S. to France.

Sports
The University of Delaware eagles lost to Mount St. Mary's by a 27-15 score last Saturday night. Trailing 9-7 at the half, the Hens led briefly in the early stages of the third period as the result of their foul shooting. Delaware Captain Barton paced his team with two field goals and a pair of free shots for the 6-point high total.

The Delaware line-up: Roman Hill, and Kaufman, forwards; Taylor, center; Barton, Orth, Lecarpentier, guards.

Newark High School's boy and girl varsity basketball teams won a pair from Claymont on Friday night as the local boys took a 33-24 decision from the Indians, and the Newark girls won, 27-22.

Whiteman, with 11 points; and McDowell and Pie with eight apiece, featured the Newark boys' attack, while Fulton with 19, and Malcom, with eight, accounted for the girls' scoring.

Social
Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Richards are in Florida for a two week trip.

William Krawath of Delaware was the guest of Newark friends last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Egnor of Cherry Hill, Md., were weekend guests of Mrs. Foote.

Miss Rebecca Ross entertained her card club at dessert bridge in the Blue Hen Tea Room on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis entertained at dinner on Tuesday in observance of their eighth wedding anniversary.

Miscellaneous
At the movies it was Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor in "Sunrise Up," and George Bancroft in "The Mighty."

The Industrial Trust Co. was offering 4 1/2% on Christmas Club accounts and Manure & Prettman were selling shirts at two dollars.

White Clay Church To Offer Variety Benefit Program
A variety program will be given at White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church next Wednesday, at 8 p.m. sponsored by the Young Adult Class of the church school, under the direction of a committee with Hazel Johnston, chairman, Louise Hale, Margaret Meredith, Grover Hale, president, will extend greetings; Miss Romayne McCormick and Miss Jane Hammel will play a piano duet; and Tommy Davis will present some "black magic."

A novelty number, "Possum Park Piddlers," will be featured by Mrs. Ernest Reed, Mrs. Lewis Springer, Mrs. Fred Ferguson, Mrs. Willard Johnston, Miss Margaret Lamborn, Mrs. Thomas Davis, Mrs. Frank Butterworth and Mrs. Raymond Benson, and Mrs. Howard Bradley and Miss Alice Tammell will do a dialogue skit.

Vocal selections will be offered by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peach, John and William Peach.

A comedy, "Womanless Wedding," will be presented with a cast of Rev. James Bishop, Frank Butterworth, Herbert Stone, John Trivits, Lewis Springer, John Murray, Ralph Lindell, Raymond Benson, Willard Johnston, Grover Hale, Nathaniel Richards and Mrs. Morris Meredith.

TURKEY SUPPER

The Salem Methodist Church social turkey supper, originally postponed from Feb. 12, will be held Saturday, March 19. The first table will be served at 5 p.m. in the church hall.

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
Consumer Information Specialist

Seafood
Adequate supplies of fresh, frozen and canned seafoods are on hand for the Lenten season which is just beginning. A wide variety of economical fish and shellfish makes seafood buying easy this year.

Low priced fresh fish include mackerel, smelts, shad, pollock, and scrod haddock. At moderate prices are fresh rock fish, fresh oysters and clams.

Record high stocks of frozen fishery products are on hand. Frozen haddock, 70% more abundant than last year, will remain the lowest priced frozen fish. Other frozen fish, listed in order of increasing price, are: cod, perch, halibut, steaks, flounder, and salmon steaks. (In anticipation of increased demand, shrimp and scallop prices have been stronger during the past two weeks.)

Frozen fish sticks are featured in some stores at lower prices. Larger packs of canned tuna sardines, end sockeye salmon will keep those prices low during Lent. Look for price specials on these canned products and on cod and oyster stew.

Meat and Poultry
Thrifty beef cuts this week are pot roasts, chuck roasts, stew meat, short ribs, tongue and hamburger. Ham shanks, smoked picnic, end cut chops, loin roasts, hocks, and shoulder are all economical pork cuts. Stew meat and shoulder cuts are the best values in veal. In addition, frankfurters and liver will offer many menu variations at low prices.

Attractively priced poultry includes Beltsville turkeys, hen and roaster.

Dry Groceries
There is a big saving where you buy small size dried prunes instead of the large size. Macaroni, raisins, canned chick, canned snap beans and sweet corn are all plentiful and at low prices.

Two Noted Mathematicians To Assist In Conference
Two prominent mathematicians from neighboring state teachers colleges have been secured for the Annual Education and Reading Conference at the University of Delaware, March 4 and 5.

Dr. Harold E. Moser, director of test services at Towson State Teachers College, and Dr. Lee E. Boyer, chairman of the mathematics department of Millersville State Teachers College, will participate in the conference theme, "Getting Meaning in Reading and Arithmetic."

Junior, Senior Boys Visit Power Plant At Edgemoor
A group of high school junior and senior boys visited the Edgemoor power plant of the Delaware Power and Light Company yesterday. Miss Dorothy Markert, guidance counselor, accompanied them.

William Hiddleston, Burt Chase, John Hildreth, Ronald Hayman, Fritz Wolf, Peter Purness, Raymond Klapsinsky, James Jackson, John Miller, Norwood Bonney, Edward Chase, Ronald Lindell, William Nichols, Wright Poffenberger, Guy Moses, Robert Gore, John Howell, Leith Tait, Perry and Edwin Sparks, and Robert Downes took the trip in a bus provided by the power company.

Newark DHIA Supervisor Wins Second State Prize
Winners of national dairy products awards for Delaware Dairy Herd Improvement Association supervisors and members were announced this week and John Hartman, Georgetown, supervisor for the Sussex County DHIA circuit was selected as second prize winner of the year, and Donald Pusch, Dover, supervisor for the Kent County circuit won third prize.

These supervisors will receive bronze plaques and cash awards from the National Dairy Products Corporation of New York City, with awards to be made at county DHIA annual banquets.

In a certain restaurant, where wise guys ask a pretty waitress for her telephone number, she whispers a certain number enticingly. When they dial the number, a voice answers, sweetly: "Post Control Service."

Capitol Trail News

Marjorie M. Bishop, Correspondent
1501 Capitol Trail

Mrs. Dora Snyder and Mrs. Martha S. Houchin of Ogletown had Miss Muriel Houchin, Mr. and Mrs. George Schleicher, John and Keith Pine of Laurel Springs, N.J., and C. W. Dickerson of Perryville, Md., as Sunday guests.

Carol Lee Noonan and Dale MacNeal, of Carney's Point, N.J. visited their grandmother, Mrs. Miller Darrell, on Capitol Trail over the weekend.

The Rev. and Mrs. James H. Bishop, Capitol Trail, attended the funeral of Mrs. George Thomas in Dover last Thursday.

Mrs. Peter Furness of Pekin Park Drive, entertained a number of friends at luncheon last Wednesday.

"Connie" Cochran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cochran, Capitol Trail, has been ill at home this week.

School buses on their way to the Medill School last Thursday found the entrance to the lane blocked by a car and a truck which had collided at that point. The old adage about "more haste, less speed" certainly applies during rush hour traffic.

Medill School
Mrs. Hedger's first grade bade a sorry good-bye to Linda Ann Young who is moving to a farm near Middletown, Del.

Mrs. Sickman's second grade reports that their Valentine shop was a great success. They are planning to use part of their money to buy books for the Medill School library.

Mrs. Arnold's second grade presented a patriotic assembly program yesterday and Mrs. Clayton's third grade is making a movie of things learned about Mexico. They have also made maps, serapes, rebosas, flags and a Mexican mural. In art they made Mexican pottery. They have just learned to carry 100's in addition.

Miss Ritchie's third grade is finishing Mexican note-books. The covers were finger-painted with colored starch and then shellacked. Mrs. Miller's third grade pupils have been watching the moth which emerged from a cocoon in their terrarium. It has laid many little white eggs under the leaves of several plants.

Mrs. Grey's fourth grade thinks that "turn about is fair play," so Miss Johnston's girls won the basketball game played this week. They have been learning many things about the Roman Empire, as they work on relief maps, write reports and paint scenes of the Empire.

Mrs. Schoyen's fourth grade is making relief maps of the Roman Empire, and Mrs. Able's fifth grade musicians are planning a concert to be given this Friday. Joyce Stencipher, Donald Morris, Janet Smith, Danna Koly, Emily Dismuke, Gloria Ann Negley, David Wisor, Billy Warren, and Barbara Edmonds will play.

Mrs. Koelg's pupils are making reports and jig-saw puzzles of the southeastern states and Mrs. Smith's fifth grade is making note-books and collecting material on Delaware for display. In the Valentine hat contest, Nancy Wells and Bob Parker were selected as the girl and boy with the most original hats.

Mr. Sharkey's sixth grade picked Nancy Barney as their Valentine Queen and Bobby Bell, Valentine King.

Miss Masor's sixth grade chose Dale Reynolds, Queen and Raymond Brown, Valentine King. Jack Cronin, Archie Peel and Margaret Martini, bacteriologists of Room 131, conducted a very scientific experiment by growing various bacteria.

Mrs. Hubener's sixth grade has been studying communications and with a telegraph set, send messages in Morse code. Carl Schaumann has an insect display case.

Mrs. Grosoup's sixth grade is making posters, telling about industries, cities and landmarks, the government and history of France.

White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church
The occupants of the Manse are glad to have the muddy condition of the lane corrected with the top dressing of crushed stone.

Elmer Gallaher, chairman of the board of trustees, reports that repairs to the church roof are complete.

Evening Circle
The date for the Christmas Bazaar has been selected—Nov. 3, with Mrs. W. Southard Jones, general chairman. The bazaar will be sponsored to raise money for the church building fund.

The following committee was appointed to plan for the annual birthday dinner of the American Legion on March 17: Alice Furness, Amy Springer, Alice Deck, Helen Brown, Marjorie Bishop.

In harmony with the program on India led by Betty Anderson, hostess Verna Davis served refreshments typical of India.

Westminster Fellowship
The time for the Sunday evening meeting has been changed from 6:30 to 4:30 in order that the meeting may be concluded before dark.

Last week under the leadership of Mrs. Bishop, the group experimented with dramatizing Bible stories. Next week members are invited to bring original dramatizations or stories which might be dramatized. Edith Anderson will be hostess for the social hour.

On Saturday, March 5, a one-day United Christian Education Institute will be held at the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to help the Presbyterian churches of this area find better ways of fulfilling their Christian mission.

Representing White Clay Church at the Institute will be Pastor James H. Bishop; Chairman of Christian Education, Frank Dutton; Church School Superintendent, Willard Johnston; Romaine McCormick; Alice Hammell, Ellen Gallaher, Mrs. Willard Johnston, Mrs. David Anderson Jr., Mrs. Thomas Davis, and Harold Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hale, Herbert Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peach, Mrs. Peter Furness, Mrs. Lewis Springer, and Mrs. James Bishop.

Each person is asked to bring lunch. The host church will serve tea and coffee.

AD. CAPITOL TRAIL, NOOS.....
The annual World Day of Prayer service will be held tomorrow in the Newark Presbyterian Church, at 2 p.m. Mrs. David Anderson, Jr. will represent the church on the program. Special prayer partners for the day are the women of British Guiana and Honduras.

Elders, Trustees Selected Sunday At St. Andrew's

Six elders and a seven-man board of trustees were elected last Sunday morning by the congregation of St. Andrew's United Presbyterian Church in Brookside.

Elders elected are William Barr, Sheldon Frey, Martin Lewis, George Payne, Edward Powell, and Lloyd Weatherly.

The first board of trustees will consist of John Dunn, Charles Elsenhart, James Fuge, Edward Knight, Alvin Lutz, C. Ivey Smith, and James Stone.

Guest speaker at Sunday morning's service was the Rev. Dr. Hugh Kelsey, treasurer of the denomination's board of foreign missions. The congregational meeting was conducted by the Rev. Edward C. Fish, pastor.

Women of all the Protestant churches of the Newark area are urged to attend.

The March meeting of the White Clay Fellowship will be held at church next Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. Please note the change in time.

The program will be in charge of John Trivits; Margaret Johnston will lead devotions; and Alice Ham-mell, Raymond Benson and Eleanor Murray comprise the hospitality committee.

During Lent the pastoral messages will center around the theme, "The Hands of Jesus." The message for the 11 a.m. service next Sunday will be "Are We in Focus?"

Those wishing to unite with the church at Easter-time are invited to contact the pastor.
