Guest of Honor

In his thirty-three years of diplomatic service to our country, The Honorable George S. Messersmith has been United States Ambassador to Cuba, Mexico and Argentina and has served as Assistant Secretary of State. He has taken posts in various countries when relations with the United States were strained. In every case he has succeeded in eliminating causes of friction and has developed good will and mutual understanding. The Americas Foundation invites you to join in its tribute to a faithful public servant.
