City Council Enacts Five New Ordinances On Tuesday Night

Also Registers Criticism of State Highway Dept. For Failure To Help City In Upkeep Of Traffic Arteries

Newark City Council enacted one ordinance regulating parking on the streets of the city Tuesday night at the regular meeting of Council, but took no action on the measure which had been designed to limit parking to one hour on several streets adjacent to the University of Delaware.

Council read for the second and final time a new city ordinance prohibiting parking on the southern side of W. Main Street between the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks and the city water tower opposite the Newark Country Club.

Mayor Johnson announced that negotiations are still being carried out with the students and staff of the university regarding the parking situation on W. Delaware Avenue, Amstel Avenue, Kent Way, and Winslow Road and for that reason advised Council to defer for the time being any action on the ordinance which was due for its final reading Tuesday night.

Mayor Wallace Johnson announced this week that the next meeting of the Newark City Council will be held on Tuesday evening, January 22, in the Council chambers.

In other action, Council passed an ordinance regulating the building of any residential structures in an industrial area; a law classifying those areas brought into the city limits by the adoption of the new charter as R.S. districts; an ordinance regulating the operation of motor buses on and over the streets of Newark; an ordinance creating an election board of three members, and regulating the methods and procedures to be used in all city elections and registrations.

Council went on record as being highly dissatisfied with the lack of cooperation shown by the State Highway Department in maintaining main traffic thoroughfares in the city of Newark. Working on the idea that it (Continued on Page 8)

He is a combat veteran of World War II with five battle stars, along with being a great artist, and brings much needed directness and masculinity to the dance.

It has been a number of years since a Newark audience has had the pleasure of seeing a professional dance program on the Mitchell Hall stage and this performance will go toward making a well rounded program of the arts for the winter season.

University Announces New Advanced Degree In Human Relations Will Be Granted

The University of Delaware has announced that a master of arts degree in human relations will be granted by the university in the future.

The degree program will require 30 semester hours of graduate work, 24 hours in course work and six hours of thesis.

It is explained that since this is an experimental program requiring a high degree of individual responsibility, "students should be expected to have a superior scholastic index upon admission. Personality and character are important."

14-Year-Old Youth Charged With Theft Of Watch, Wallets

Newark Police Recover Two Wallets; Seek Public Help On Other

Newark police department announced this week that it had solved the case of the disappearing wallets.

A 14-year-old youth was apprehended and charged with the stealing of three wallets and a wrist watch from the Training House on the University of Delaware campus. The former inmate of Ferris Industrial School had been working at several places here in Newark and a series of thefts and disappearing articles had followed his trail.

Police were able to recover two of the stolen wallets, but a third, which the youth claims he threw away in the vicinity of the Deer Park Hotel, has not been found. Police have asked that anyone who may have found this article, or who knows anything about a wallet being found, will do the police department a favor by contacting them at police headquarters. This article is needed as evidence in the case.

A man's Bulova wrist watch which was stolen at the same time has not been recovered and the youth claims he lost it somewhere between the university campus and Elkton Road. Anyone knowing anything about this watch should contact the local police.

Newark police were notified of the theft of these articles from the Training House on Sunday morning and by mid-afternoon had taken the suspect into custody. He was identified by persons who had seen him loitering in the vicinity of the crime on Saturday night, and police had little trouble getting a confession from him. About $40 in cash which was estimated to have been in the three wallets, was not recovered.

Everyone in the community is cordially invited to attend the meetings and join in the discussions.

Boy Scouts To Open Dime Drive Saturday

Under the direction of Joseph R. Perkins, who has been appointed general chairman of the March of Dimes campaign in Newark, plans are being completed for Newark's participation in this nationwide fight against infantile paralysis.

On Saturday morning, January 12, Newark Boy Scouts will be out in full force in support of this campaign. They will cover the town in a blitz effort to assure the donation envelopes are delivered to every home in this city.

The following Saturday, January 19, the Boy Scouts will make the rounds of the city homes again, this time to pick up the donation envelopes distributed the previous week.

In addition to the donation boxes which have been placed in various stores throughout the community, dime stores have been mailed to all rural post office box holders in the area and arrangements have been made with the management of the State Theater to have several collections made during movies there.

Edwin Shakespeare, treasurer of the Newark campaign, has urged that every member of the Newark area consider the fine work done with these funds and contribute as often as possible.

George Neighbors Elected President Of Recreation Unit

Dr. Paul Dolan, Retiring Head, Makes Annual Report To Members

George Neighbors was elected president of the Newark Recreation Association at a meeting of the organization held Tuesday evening in the Newark New Century Club.

Other officers elected at that time were: Mrs. Alan Colburn, vice president; Mrs. Ivan Parsons, secretary; and Mrs. A. H. Burnham, Treasurer.

Three new directors were elected to serve terms of three years. They were: George Neighbors, Fred Spasato, and Mrs. Parsons.

In making his annual report to the members, Dr. Paul Dolan, retiring president of the association, pointed out that the board has been following so far as possible the suggestions made by Weaver Pangborn, who was retained to make a survey of the city's recreational needs. This survey was made possible by the Newark Soroptimist Club which underwrote the cost of the survey.

According to Mr. Dolan, the suggestion of a full-time director of recreation was not carried out since the City Council did not consider it a necessary budget expense at this time, although the body did not wholly reject the idea. Mr. Pangborn had reported the need of a full-time director as a necessity.

Mr. Dolan also pointed out that he has advocated that the City of Newark also support with city funds a community park for the use of the community. No action has been taken in this endeavor.

In his financial report to the members, Mr. Dolan announced that the fund drive had realized approximately $2400 this year, and that fees collected at the swimming pool and other activities had increased the association's receipts for the year to over $4000. He also stated that the University of Delaware had refunded the $500 fee which had been charged for the use of the university's swimming pool during the summer.

Newark Tank Plant Shows Progress On First Anniversary

This Week Marks One Year Since Ground Broken By Chrysler

One year ago today ground was broken for the huge Chrysler Delaware Tank Plant here.

In the intervening 12 months a 240 acre farm and wooded area has been converted into a nearly-completed defense plant having slightly more than 1,000,000 sq. ft. of floor space under roof.

In addition to the vast construction achievement there has also been production of medium and heavy tanks.

A pilot model T-43 heavy tank has already been built at the Chrysler plant. It was completed on November 19—ten months after ground was broken—and two months after the first piece of production machinery was installed.

When ground was broken a year ago, the tank plant personnel consisted of only a score or so of employees in a single room in Detroit. Today nearly 700 people, most of them from the local area, are employed. Within the next year employment is expected to increase to 3000 or more.

Biggest of the five principal buildings comprising the Chrysler Tank Plant is the manufacturing building. It provides an area of nearly 900,000 sq. ft. under a single roof.

In that building there have already been installed a substantial portion of the estimated 600 machines, 2000 fixtures, 4000 tools and 3500 gages which will be needed for the volume production of heavy and medium tanks to be built by Chrysler under contract with Army Ordnance.

Already completed and in operation is the boiler plant which houses the equipment for providing all buildings on the site with heat and hot water and also provides compressed air for general industrial uses.

The two-story administration building, with dimensions of 500 ft. by 60 ft., is expected to be ready for occupancy within two months.

The one-mile tank test track has been completed and progress has been made on construction of the tank repair shop and final paint shop.

Schedule Changed For Dental Exams Of Newark Children

Parents Urged To Bring All Children Not In School Jan. 22, 23, 24

Miss Martha Coverdale, Newark school nurse, announced this week a change in the schedule for the free dental examinations for children between the ages of three and 14 living in the area served by Newark water service.

These tests which are necessary as a phase of the water fluoridation program being carried out in the community were previously scheduled for January 14, 15, and 16.

Parents of pre-school aged children are urged to bring their children to the school for examination according to this revised schedule: children with last names beginning with A to G, on January 22; those beginning with H to R, on January 23; and those beginning with S to Z, on January 24. Hours for the examinations on these days will be from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. in the elementary school. The examinations will be given by Miss Margaret Jeffrey, director of oral hygiene for the State Board of Health.

Those children in school will be examined during regular class hours, said Miss Coverdale, unless their parents request otherwise. The keeping of statistics on pre-school age children are especially important in evaluating the fluoridation program and they will be used in judging the success of the program in curbing tooth decay in the children.

American Mink Ranchers Claim National Scandal Hurting Their Business

The statement that something should be done about the scandals in Washington regarding mink coats came from a new source this week when the American mink farmers said the bad publicity was hurting their $100,000,000-a-year industry. Something, they say, should be done.

They said the stories about political figures involved in the scandals buying mink coats—or getting them as gifts—has put an "unjust stigma" on their product.

It has hurt business, they complained, and asked the National Grange and the American Farm Bureau Federation to help offset the false and damaging publicity.

Harold W. Reed of Elkhorn, Wis., representing the Mink Ranchers' Association, wrote that the vast majority of women wearing mink are "highly respectable people of discriminating taste."

Officials of the Newark Special School District announced this week that ground has been purchased for the erection of the new elementary school building in the Capitol Trail area.

The selected site was purchased from F. E. B. McCann and is located just back of the former old school site on Capitol Trail near the junction of Capitol Trail and Red Mill Road, about two miles east of Newark. The plot purchased contains approximately eighteen acres and the price was reported as $21,000. Edwin Shakespear of the real estate division of the Farmers Trust Company acted as agent for the board of education in the negotiations.

Planned to house grades one through six, the new school will serve that area of the Newark school district east of the city bounded by the school districts of Hockessin, Stanton and Christiana.

School officials stated that the preliminary plans for the new elementary school building have been completed and they will be presented to the district Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting on Friday night.

These plans show the proposed building to be a one-story, L-shaped structure of functional design containing at the present twelve classrooms and administrative offices. School officials pointed out that when the occasion demands, the addition of another wing would make it a U-shaped structure containing 24 classrooms.

Also included in the building is space designed to meet the needs of the community for a meeting place for parents and other civic groups. This space is provided for in what officials call a "cafeteria" which is a cafeteria with tables and benches which are easily folded back into the walls of the room to clear the floor when the occasion demands. When it is desirable the tables alone can be folded into the walls leaving the benches to be used by the audience.

If the preliminary plans are approved by the Newark District Board of Education at the meeting on Friday, the new school will be ready for approval to the State Board of Education, and then to the State School Building Program Board, members of which are Gov. Elbert N. Carvel, Max Terry, chairman of the State Board of Education and Harris B. McDowell, Jr., Secretary of State.

Helpful Handbook

Preparations are underway for the 1952-1954 High School Handbook which will be distributed to all students in the fall of 1952. This edition is being sponsored, as in the case of earlier editions, by the Student Council.

Our present handbook, a small red booklet, contains a great deal of valuable information of interest not only to students but to parents and friends as well. The handbook, published every second year, is given to all junior and senior high school students when issued. The year's following its issuance, copies are presented only to new students in our school. Issued primarily to inform our students of grades 7 to 12, the book serves as a reference tool on numerous school activities which are of interest to parents as well, we believe. If your son or daughter has not shown you his or her handbook, ask to see it. In the event that your children may have misplaced his copy, be prepared to ask him for the 1952-1954 edition which will be available next fall.

High School Handbook

The handbook currently in use treats in a readable manner such topics as regulations concerning absences, attendance, use of automobiles at school, clubs, commencement activities, home-room organization, honor rolls, report cards, etc. There is a handy index to these topics and others.

In addition there is a list of the members comprising our high school faculty and a complete daily class schedule for both the junior and senior high school students.

Other pertinent material included at the beginning of the booklet covers cafeteria and lunch time regulations, fire rules and fire patrol activities.

Frequently I have heard parents say that they would like to know more about school regulations. Our "red" handbook has a surprising amount of information on regulations as well as on other school matters. I see as I look under the heading "School Dances and Parties," the following: "All large dances must be over at 11:45 p.m. Class parties and sport dances shall end at 11:00 p.m."

Added to the rather specific information affecting behavior of students there is much information about opportunities in our daily school program. There are more than twenty-five clubs listed, clubs which offer interests for our students outside of the classroom routine.

An important section in the handbook is the part devoted to "Course of Study." Here for the benefit of both students and parents, details on the curricula offered for the five types of diplomas granted by Delaware schools are presented. Credit requirements for classification as a sophomore, junior, and senior are also clearly listed.

The final pages of text are devoted to the printing of the words of several NHS songs and yells. The end pages in the little red handbook show the first, second, and third floor plans of the high school building. With the rapid increase in the entire school enrollment such plans are changing quickly. Already changes have been noted in room arrangements in preparation for the new edition.

Your teen-age son fully intends to explain to you the daily routines, regulations, and special features of his school, I am sure; but he is so very busy and it all seems so simple to him. Much of the information you may wish to know about your son's school is readily available in his handbook. Why not make sure that you see the 1952-1954 Handbook when it is issued next fall? Why not consider it a handy reference tool on the subject of Newark High School?

Faculty sponsors for the handbook are Miss Ann Gallaher, Student Council adviser, Miss Dorothy Markert, Guidance Director, and Mr. Frederick Kutz, Principal.

Delaware Motorists Will Pay Increased Taxes During 1952

Typical Owner Will Pay Record $101.96

Due to recently enacted federal gasoline and automotive tax increases, the typical Delaware vehicle owner will pay a record $101.96 in special motoring taxes this year, Charles W. Lawson, manager of the Delaware Automobile Association, predicted today.

The car and truck owner's special tax bill will hit an all-time high because tax rates are now at their peak, Mr. Lawson explained.

He said "the full impact of the heavier federal taxes will be felt in 1952, when the motorist finds how drastically they add to his driving costs."

Under the new scale of federal automobile excise taxes, which took effect Nov. 1, the gasoline tax is increased to two cents a gallon from the previous 1½ cents. The excise tax on new motor cars is up to 10 per cent from 7 per cent and the former tax of 5 per cent on trucks, buses, truck trailers, automotive parts, and accessories has been boosted to 8 per cent.

"Just the higher federal gasoline tax will mean that Delaware motorists must pay seven cents in state and federal taxes on every gallon of gasoline—they 'buy,' he added. This equals a 36 per cent sales tax on gasoline—the heaviest tax imposed on a non-luxury product in our state."

He pointed out that the federal gasoline and automotive excise taxes are not connected with highway development but are used for the support of general government. These taxes were first levied as temporary measures in 1932 "to help meet a depression emergency," he said.

"Not only have the federal gasoline and automotive taxes been retained all these years, but they have been increased with each following emergency," he declared.

OPS Answers

Q. Do I have to use the finance company recommended by my auto dealer in financing my new car? I prefer doing this elsewhere.

A. OPS ceiling price regulation covering automobile resellers expressly states purchasers cannot be required to finance the purchase through any particular lending agency.

Q. What does OPS mean by the "basic" price of an automobile?

A. The "basic price" is the manufacturer's selling price to the retail dealer, f.o.b. factory, plus the customary established retail markup. The retail seller must use this basic price, as set in special OPS orders covering every model and style of every make, in setting the ceiling price to the buyer. The ceiling price that is paid is the sum of: (1) the basic price; (2) charges for extra, special or optional equipment; (3) charge for transportation cost, if any; (4) charge for actual Federal excise tax; (5) charge for state and local taxes, if any, on sale of car and equipment; (6) charge for preparing and conditioning car which must be no more than 5 percent of the basic price; and (7) charge for other service or item of equipment requested in writing by the purchaser.

"Grace" was milked 620 times while on test.

The sire of this cow, Sherwood Forest Judge, also owned by Fraim & Harris, has 24 sons and daughters in the Performance Register of The American Guernsey Cattle Club.

Delaware Routs Drexel Cagers In Philadelphia Contest, 84-52

Ray Crawford Scores 24 Points To Lead Delaware Club To Second Consecutive League Victory At Philadelphia

The University of Delaware basketball team scored its second Middle Atlantic Conference victory of the season Tuesday night as the Blue Hens swamped Drexel Institute, 84 to 52, before some 3,000 fans at Convention Hall in Philadelphia.

Ray Crawford, Delaware's leading scorer, once more took down game at the start of the contest and threatened during the first half to run away from the opposition. Leading 28 to 7 at the end of the first quarter, Delaware continued to pile up the score to lead at the end of the first half by 39 to 14.

Drexel outscored the Blue Hens in both of the final quarters to cut down the margin of victory at the end. During the third and fourth quarters, Coach Fred Emmerson substituted freely as the entire bench was given an opportunity to perform for the large Philadelphia audience.

Delaware Five Wins Conference Opener Against Swarthmore

Skip Crawford Connects For 31 Points To Lead Hen Attack

Before a capacity crowd at Carpenter Fieldhouse last Saturday night the University of Delaware basketball team won its Middle Atlantic Conference opener by rolling over Swarthmore College, 90-60.

Apparently completely recovered from the humiliation received at the hands of powerful LaSalle College earlier, the Blue Hens jumped into a commanding lead right at the start and continued to pour it on during the entire evening.

Ray (Skip) Crawford hit the cords for ten field goals and eleven fouls for a total of 31 points to pace the Delaware attack. Using his now familiar style of driving through the entire opposing team for seemingly effortless lay-up shots, the sophomore star brought his scoring total for the season to 167 points and his per-game average once more to above 20 points.

Vern Lamkin, 6-foot, 6-inch sophomore from Egg Harbor, N. J., was another big gun in the Blue Hen attack, sinking six action shots and four fouls for a 16 point total. Captain Billy Utt chipped in with eight goals and three fouls for a total of 19 points.

Joe Carroll, Swarthmore captain and scoring leader, garnered seven field goals and five fouls for a total of 19 points to lead the losers.

Delaware went to work with the opening whistle and opened up an immediate lead which they never relinquished. Four minutes of the contest had passed before the losers could register their first point. At the end of the first period, the Hens were in front, 24 to 12, and although Swarthmore picked up some ground in the second quarter, the Blue and Gold led 43 to 26 at the half.

Defensive Stalwart

Dick Goldberg

Stellar defensive play makes Dick Goldberg a valuable asset to the University of Delaware basketball team. Standing only a modest 5-foot, 11-inches, this senior letterman from Dunellen, N. J., is a hustler all the way and can be counted on to come through with some important points when the chips are down. So far this season Goldberg has scored a total of 54 points for a respectable per game average of 6 points.

Krusberg Wins Two Events; Set New Pool Record In Easy Win

Lopin Krusberg won two events, setting a new Taylor pool record in the 220-yard freestyle event when he covered the distance in 2:21.5, to lead the University of Delaware swimming team to its third straight victory of the season last Saturday night as the Hens dunked Franklin and Marshall, 52-32.

Another Delaware merman, Art Mayer, churned to a new pool record in the 150-yard individual medley event when he finished in 1:45 flat.

Franklin and Marshall captured only two events and tied for a third. In the 100-yard freestyle, Highvan of F&M defeated George Ester of Delaware in 5:55 and in the 220-yard breaststroke, Knoll of F&M defeated DiMaio of Delaware in 2:46.2. The first place tie came in the 50-yard freestyle event when Goodley of Delaware and Brothers of F&M finished in a dead heat in 24.8.

Coach Rawstrom's swimmers, with previous wins over West Chester State Teachers' College and LaSalle, will seek their fourth victory of the season.

Yellowjackets Down duPont Cagers For Season's Second Win

Blaney Collects 28 Points As Newark Leads All Way To Win

With Buddy Blaney contributing twelve field goals and four fouls for 28 points to lead the offense and Knotts, Draper, Sparks and Draper playing bang-up ball, the Newark High School basketball team scored an impressive 55 to 48 victory over P. S. duPont High School last week as the Yellowjackets won their second game of the young season.

The victorious Yellowjackets took an 11-8 edge in the first period and boosted their margin to 24-16 at the halfway point. The Dynahs again were on the short end of a 15-13 count in the third period, but came on during the final stanza to outscore Newark 19-16 and threatened to pull the contest out of the fire.

Outscored from the field by Newark, 24-20, P. S. duPont caged eight fouls to seven for the Yellowjackets. The P. S. duPont junior varsity walloped Newark's javvy cagers in the preliminary contest, 73-41.

Newark Quintet Captures Third Win In Beating Claymont, 69-59

Bunny Blaney Records Season Scoring Mark With 35 Points As Newark Hands Indians First Defeat Of Year

Newark High School's rampaging Yellowjackets won their third straight victory of the current season Tuesday night when they handed Claymont High School its first defeat of the year 69-59.

Bunny Blaney once more was the big gun in the Newark attack as he ripped off a total of 35 points, garnered on 16 field goals and three fouls. This latest spurt in scoring by the Newark cager lifted his average above his record per game average of 26.7 hung up last year in capturing the state scoring championship.

Newark A A Quintet Defeats Coatesville In Season Opener

Gene Schaan Leads Scorers - With 19 Points; Cataldi Next With 12

Newark AA opened its basketball season this week with a victory over the strong Coatesville Clippers in a benefit game played at the Elkton Armory, 57 to 42.

Paced by Gene Schaan, who scored 19 points on eight field goals and three fouls, the local quintet came from behind in the late stages of the game to hang up the win. Coatesville led at the halfway mark, 23 to 21.

Buddy Cataldi and Leigh Challenger followed closely for the runner-up spot with 12 and 10 points respectively. All members of the team with the exception of Merkle, Morrow and Garrett are former members of the Newark High School teams.

Due to the fact that the team has been unable to obtain a home court here in Newark all games will have to be played away. Tentative games have been arranged with such teams in the area as: New Castle Air Base, Dover Air Base, Cecilton of the Mason Dixon League, and the National Guard team of Elkton.

Ceiling Is Lowered On Used Car Prices

Additional Cuts Due Every Three Months

Most used car ceiling prices automatically dropped about eight per cent today, but officials said the reduction will not necessarily mean an actual change in selling prices.

The sole exception was 1951 models which dropped only two per cent.

The Office of Price Stabilization ordered the reductions to reflect normal depreciation. Used automobiles generally are selling below ceiling, however, and the cut in most cases will not close the gap between the going price and the legal limit.

Additional two per cent cuts on all models are scheduled for the first day of each new quarter of the year—April 1, July 1 and Oct. 1.

Car owners in the market for a new automobile will not be affected by the ceilings, OPS said. They can bargain for full trade-in allowances up to the price of a new car.

Originally OPS scheduled a six per cent drop for Dec. 20 on all except the 1951 models. This cut later was deferred to make it coincide with the new year's first quarter two per cent cut.

Under the OPS order three geographic regions are set up with separate ceilings reflecting differences in shipping costs. Region "A" will have the lowest prices and region "C" the highest.

The order means that a 1950 model with a ceiling price of $1,800 in December can not be sold now for more than $1,656.16 after the six and two per cent reductions have been figured separately. After April 1, the ceiling on this car would be $1,625.

Meanwhile defense mobilizers struggled with the problem of cutting new automobile production despite warnings of skyrocketing unemployment which would follow such action.

Final decision on cutting back passenger car production in the April-June quarter to 600,000 units has been put off until Jan. 12.

Dr. Carlson Heads New York Institute

Former Delaware President
Starts April 1

Dr. William S. Carlson, former president of the University of Delaware, has been elected president of the State University of New York, the institution's board of trustees announced this week.

Dr. Carlson left the university, where he had served since 1946, in 1950 to accept the presidency of the University of Vermont. He will assume his new duties April 1, according to the announcement by Dr. Oliver C. Carmichael, board chairman.

As second president of the state university of New York, Dr. Carlson will succeed Dr. Alvin C. Eurich, who resigned in September, to become vice president of the Ford Fund for the Advancement of Education.

The state university encompasses 22 schools and colleges and 11 institutes. The schools have 33,000 full-time and 14,000 part-time students.

Dr. Carlson's new post will pay $19,000 a year.

University Women's Club Will Meet On January 16

Mrs. Carl J. Rees will be in charge of the entertainment program at the meeting of the Newark branch, University Women's Club to be held on Wednesday evening, January 16, in the lounge of Old College at 8 p.m.

A one-act play, directed by Mrs. Rees, and a musical presentation under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Crook of the University of Delaware music department will highlight the entertainment.

OPS requires that all goods sold in department and similar stores be price tagged.

Council

is "the wheel that squeaks the loudest that gets the grease." Councilman Diehl and Durnall suggested that all of Newark's civic organizations be enlisted in the campaign to see that Newark receives state aid in maintenance in keeping with its important place as a traffic center.

Councilman Frank Durnall pointed out that there is more state property in Newark than in any other place of comparable size in Delaware. In spite of this "the Newark streets," he said, "and it is high time that the people of the community did something about the matter."

Councilman Diehl brought to the attention of Council the deplorable condition of Main and other streets in Newark that are badly in need of repair. It was decided to refer the matter to the newly created Planning Commission for study and recommended action.

Councilman Diehl announced to Council that the parking meters installed last summer are now entirely paid for and bringing in a revenue of approximately $1000 per month. It was suggested by Mr. Diehl that this money be used to create a pension fund for the workers of the city of Newark. Council agreed to refer the matter to the town committee which was advised to bring in insurance experts to advise the city on the matter.
