Newark Public Schools Attain Record Enrollment With 6,495

Local Public Schools Open Sept. 1. With 3,707 Pupils In Elementary Grades; 1,683 Junior High Students; 1,119 In Senior High; Late Enrollments Anticipated

Newark Public Schools opened last Thursday with the enrollment in the history of the school district. A total of 6,495 pupils enrolled in the elementary schools; 1,683 in the junior high schools; 1,119 pupils enrolled in the senior high school; and 86 pupils enrolled in special classes for a total of 6,495 pupils in the district. This represents an increase of 618 students over the September, 1959 enrollment.

The enrollment figure is slightly above the anticipated growth as projected from the 25-year trend in 1952. "How school officials stated yesterday usually find that the enrollment is slightly above the anticipated growth, so we anticipate a total enrollment of over 6,500 for this school year."

Steady Level Up
The enrollment increase at the secondary level with junior high schools attaining a steady building capacity. The need for additional school facilities for the senior high level in the near future is anticipated.

Dr. Shue, superintendent of schools, stated that all teaching staffs have been assigned and that new teachers have been assigned to the state out-of-county of Wilmington, Mr. Shue.

Hurricane Donna Roars Over City Monday Morning

Heavy rains flooded many Newark streets—and basements—last Monday morning, and high winds lashed the city as Hurricane Donna roared over Delaware after cutting a swath of death and destruction from the Caribbean to Florida in her stormy way up the East Coast.

Monday dawned gray and windy with a light rain that increased to near solid sheets of water before the full force of the gale at 10:30 a.m.

Holy Angels parochial school was closed for the day, but Newark public schools remained open—and the University of Delaware freshmen received some wet, windy orientation.

Donna blacked out entire communities in Delaware, snarled traffic, interrupted communications, flooded homes, and did damage estimated in the millions—mostly downstate.

Despite wind up to 110 miles an hour, Donna took no death toll in Delaware.

Frank A. Mullen To Leave Newark For New York "Y"

Local YMCA Chief Wins Big City Neighborhood Branch Executive Post

The Rev. Frank A. Mullen, YMCA executive since March, 1958, has resigned to become executive of the New York City YMCA Neighborhood Youth Branch, effective Sept. 26.

The Neighborhood Youth Branch, with mid-Manhattan headquarters at 422 Ninth Avenue, serves a population of 900,000 people with major centers of work on the East Side, in the Washington Heights-Inwood community, in the Kingsbridge area, and on Park Avenue.

Frank Mullen will coordinate the diversified programs of the centers, and supervise professional workers who administer the various units of operation. In addition, the Rev. Mullen will serve as a resource leader on youth problems and supervise students from Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University in the YMCA Boys' Club work in Brooklyn and Queens.

David McMillan, chairman of the Newark board, extended the best wishes of the Newark community to the retiring executive and his wife. No successor has been announced.

Mullen joined the Wilmington staff in July, 1956 as executive of the southwest branch after receiving his bachelor of divinity degree from Yale University. He was appointed to his present position in Newark two years later.

"Pancho" as he is affectionately called by the youth of Newark, has conducted YMCA tours to New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other historic spots for youth during the past four years.

Last spring, the Newark Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs under his leadership, sent the largest high school delegation of any community YMCA in the United States to the National Hi-Y Congress in Oxford, O., and Newark had representatives at the World Youth Conference at Amsterdam this summer.

An ordained minister in the Christian Church, the Rev. Mullen is president of the Newark Ministerial Association and has served as guest speaker in various churches, at industrial conferences, and at youth rallies in Delaware and Maryland.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Rotary Club and a member of the Wabash College National Alumni Council.

From Indianapolis, Ind., Frank Mullen is married to the former Ruth C. Ackerman, director of the Alice P. Smyth YWCA Center in Newark.

PRR Trains Roll After Settlement Of 12-Day Strike

Pennsylvania Railroad freight and passenger service was resumed Tuesday with settlement of a 12-day strike.

More than 1,000 workers in Delaware returned to their jobs as trains ran on full schedule through Newark.

Workers had to check some 10,000 miles of track through 13 states and the District of Columbia, and test-runs were made to clean the rails of rust.

A spokesman said everything appeared to be in good order, and Hurricane Donna did not cause any major damage to tracks.

Local Auto Plant Closed By Strike With PRR Carrier

The Chrysler auto assembly plant will resume operations Monday, after a 12-day strike.

Manager Louis B. Kazmerowski announced yesterday.

Some 4,350 production workers were idled when the plant shut down last Friday night because of parts shortages with the Pennsylvania Railroad strike.

Kazmerowski said it will take the rest of the week to get necessary materials to resume operation.

Chrysler produces 800 cars a day on a two-shift basis, and requires 90 freight cars of materials daily, Kazmerowski said.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Joseph R. Perkins, president of the League of Women Voters will be the hostess at her home, 408 West Chestnut Hill Road. Coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m. and the meeting will begin at 10 a.m.

The Thursday meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Tilly, vice-president, 28 Center Street.

Municipal Employees Awarded $25 Cost Of Living Pay Raise

Stiltz, Gwaltney, McCann Reappointed For Planning Commission; Reapportionment With Six Municipal Vote Districts To Be Considered At Meeting Next Tuesday

A $25 per month cost of living raise for all municipal employees effective Oct. 1, 1960, as recommended by C. Vernon Steele, chairman of the finance committee, was approved unanimously at the regular meeting of City Council last Tuesday night, and a special meeting between council, the Planning Commission, and the Newark Election Board was scheduled by Mayor Frank M. Durnall for next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock to consider a proposed six-district reapportionment plan for municipal government.

Eugene C. Stiltz, Harold Gwaltney, and Francis E. B. McCann were reappointed as members of the Planning Commission, and Councilwoman Betty McClelland's proposal to exclude from the commission those active in local real estate business, was defeated.

Reapportionment

James A. Moore, defeated candidate for mayor last April, spoke from the audience urging council to "break with precedent and come to grips" with the problem of reapportionment of municipal voting districts. In the ensuing discussion, Councilman Samuel L. Diehl, Jr., objected to the six-district proposal, offering a counter proposal for a split of the western district according to population.

Councilman George Wilson said that he would support either plan, but urged increased compensation for councilmen to attract top quality council candidates.

Mrs. McClelland objected to the proposal to schedule another meeting for action on reapportionment pending further information and council study, and Mrs. Jerry A. Nelson, who assisted with the League of Women Voters' preparation of the redistricting plan, pointed out that "the information is before you, council has not studied it."

Concerning a proposed vote on splitting the western district, Solicitor John Sinclair expressed the opinion that "it's a breach of faith with people who prepared the plan, not to have a meeting with them." A previously scheduled meeting was cancelled for the same reason.

But the vote was taken anyway, and the motion to split the western district was defeated.

"I'll call the meeting anyhow, regardless of whether you want to attend or not," the mayor said. And the meeting for reapportionment was scheduled for next Tuesday.

Police Investigation

Police Patrolman William Briery presented council with a report on the recent murder case, stating that "everything possible is being done" with the cooperation of two state police assigned to the investigation. Briery reported that he had "checked a total of 136 hours last week on the case."

Councilman Wilson announced that a total of $333.56 had been collected by residents of the New London Avenue area and deposited in a Mayor's Reward Fund for payment of information resulting in the arrest of the person or persons guilty of the murder of Gertrude E. Perkins.

Wilson said that "we as council people, have been derelict in our duty for never having made an inventory of police needs. We are not giving the men a chance to do the job we are paying them for," he said, citing lack of a police camera at the scene of the murder on Sept. 1.

Council approved Wilson's proposal for the police committee to present recommendations of equipment needed for increased police efficiency, and for the city manager to immediately purchase satisfactory photographic equipment for use by the police and public works departments.

Police Committee Report

As chairman of the police committee, Diehl reported a "prime need" received that night from Patrolman Anthony Moretti; the ordering of standard police examination sheets; three outstanding applicants for the police chief position; and plans to partition the front office in the police station for improved efficiency.

Concerning police equipment inventory, he said "we have a toximeter, radar, files and two broken-down police cars."

Diehl's motion to require criminal registration for Newark newcomers was approved.

The low bid of $100,520 from Caltallo Bros. for city-wide sidewalk construction was referred to the finance committee for analysis; and the mayor ordered city installation of curbing at the 179-181 Elton Road properties as "the only places on the east side of Elton Road from Delaware Avenue to the shopping center without curbing."

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton

U. of D. Agricultural Extension Service

In this land of plenty, many of us start the day hungry, yet we do nothing about it. We skip or skimp the first meal of the day. If you are a "skimper," it's sure to show up in school, learning is slower and grades are lower; workers accomplish less during their first hours on the job, and continue to perform less efficiently until they eat.

Breakfast "skimpers" rarely ever make up the nutrients they miss, thus diets tend to be low in calcium and vitamin C and often in iron and thiamine.

Plan and serve a good breakfast. Then, do take time to enjoy it. Since September is "Better Breakfast Month" here is a breakfast formula to help guide you or to act as a check sheet.

Fruit is an excellent food to begin any day. It's easy to supply since it's plentiful and available at low prices.

Check the following for good buys: Honeydews, Casabas, Persian melons and cantaloupes. Oranges Protein is a "must" in all meals. This means eggs, meat, cheese or cereal. Right now eggs, particularly the medium size, are reasonable.

For meat, why not hamburger, or perhaps steak, pork chops, sausage and of course, bacon. All of these are more reasonable this weekend.

Bread is the third ingredient for a better breakfast. So often bread for breakfast means toast from the toaster. With all the new convenience foods, it's possible to serve your family muffins, rolls, corn bread, spoon bread and many others. When you shop this weekend take time to check these new convenience foods.

Milk is the last food in this breakfast formula, yet one of the most essential. This food is often omitted by the adults. You NEVER outgrow your need for milk.

cauliflower, good lettuce, heads 29 cents; carrots, two for 19 cents. Lettuce, tomato, peppers, corn, and green beans are

CONSTITUTION DAY

September 17th • 1787 • 1960

We, the people...

These three words introduce the greatest document in the history of our country - the Constitution of the United States of America. ¶ They were not idle words in 1787, nor are they idle words now. Simply, clearly, they strike the keynote of the Great Idea that gave birth to our Government on this day, 173 years ago. They define, right at the start, the source from which that Government springs. They recognize the authority of the people, the right of a free people to perpetuate their freedom through self-rule. ¶ When our Constitution was drafted, "We, the people" expressed a new concept that differed drastically from the "I, Caesar" principle of Old World governments. This is worth remembering today - because influences constantly are at work in an effort to alter this concept... to deprive the people of their authority and their liberty, and to build an all-powerful government. ¶ For the sake of our individual freedoms... the freedom to worship as we please, the right to work in a job of our choice, the freedom of speech, the freedom to govern ourselves - "we, the people" must be vigilant in the preservation of our Constitution.

YOUR TAX FUTURE? ? ?

In the long light of history, 47 years is only an instant. But, from the taxpayer's point of view the last 47 years have been a long expensive instant.

Back in 1913, reports the Tax Foundation, all federal collections amounted to a mere $662 million—now they are estimated at $76.3 billion. The states haven't lagged. In the same period, their collections have soared from $301 million to $17.4 billion. And local collections are no small either. The 1913 figure was slightly over $1.3 billion—in 1959 it was about $16.8 billion.

So much for the past. Let's help plan the future 47 years of expensive extravagance.

Skilled in service... and in safety

This telephone lineman is one of The Diamond State Telephone Company men and women who devote their careers to bringing you good telephone service.

Like all telephone people, he has been trained to live and work safely. And he uses his safety knowledge for his community's benefit.

He is, for example, a member of the 100,000 Mile Club . . . men who have driven company vehicles regularly for 10 years or more without an accident.

He is also a qualified Red Cross first aid instructor, teaching in his spare time.

But safety is only one of his community activities. He works with local charity drives. He is active in PTA and in his home town youth projects.

In short, he is typical of your neighbors in the telephone company. They have chosen careers in a field essential to everyone's welfare. It is natural, then, that they should feel a special sense of community responsibility.

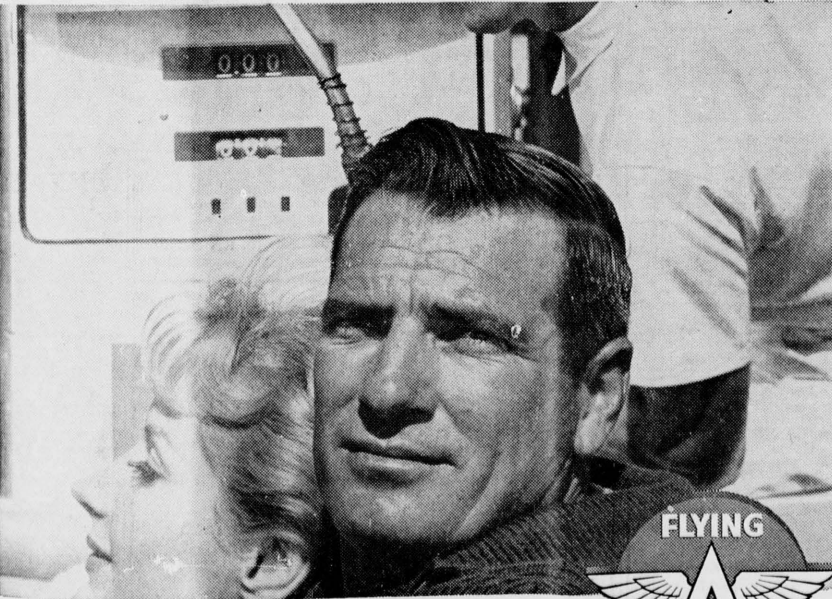

If your club or group would like us to present an interesting and worthwhile safety demonstration, call your local telephone Business Office.

Bob Hoffman Faces Nine-Game Schedule With 12 Lettermen For Sept. 24 Opener

The Newark Yellowjackets of Coach Bob Hoffman, once-beaten runners-up to the Blue Hen Conference champions of Mt. Pleasant last year, will launch a nine-game schedule at home on Saturday, Sept. 24, at 2 p.m., with the Redskins of Conrad High School.

Hoffman is heartened by the return of 12 lettermen from last season's stellar squad—and 10 of these veterans are included in the Newark coach's tentative starting lineup.

The lettermen are End Ronnie Pyle; Tackle Don Frank; Guards Art Carney and Bill Maul; Center Bob Rann; Quarterbacks Guy Cagle and Lloyd Wells; Halfbacks Charley Word, Pearlle Hubbard, Bob Bell, and Norman Neide; and Fullback Frank Subach.

The Yellowjacket forward wall averages a formidable 210-lbs. from end to end with Pyle the lightest man up front at 175; Frank, 200; Carney and Rann, 195; Maul, 200; Colbert, 195; Godbey, a 6-3 towering tackle at 225; and Money at 205.

And backfield beef is not lacking with five speedsters in Cagle at 160; Word and Subach, 175; Wells, 170; and Hubbard, 165.

Ninety-seven athletes reported to Hoffman for first practice on Aug. 25, beginning twice-a-day drills on Aug. 29. The squad has shrunk to 36, and Mr. Hoffman has been a busy young man, indeed, with his job as head coach of the Gold All-Stars and the big game at Delaware Stadium two days after the Yellowjackets reported for inspection—and the arrival of a new baby last week.

But the Gold All-Stars held the previously all-victorious Northern Blues to a tie, and the Yellowjackets and the Hoffmans are doing fine, too, thanks.

Following the Conrad opener, Newark plays at home with P. S. du Pont on Oct. 1; away at Mt. Pleasant on Oct. 8; and after an open date, engages William Penn here at home on Oct. 22, and plays Brandywine away on Oct. 29—all Saturday games with a 2 o'clock starting time.

The Yellowjackets play a night game on Nov. 5, at 8 o'clock at Wilmington High, and then face two games away on successive Saturdays at 2 p.m. with DeLaWarr and the new Dickinson High School eleven.

Hoffman's gridders conclude the campaign with a Thanksgiving Day game at home at 10:30 a.m. with Elkton.

Albacore Andy "Bonito" Biasotto knows his A's, B's, and seas, too. He not only knows how to catch fish, but knows the fish he catches.

The big tuna-like fish taken offshore in the Atlantic from Lewes and the Indian River Inlet in late summer and on through the fall are loosely classified by their captors as albacore, tuna, and bonito, but Mr. Biasotto pursued his ichthyology a bit further.

Borrowing neighbor Harry Cleaves' illustrated treatise on game fish by Francesca LaMotte, Andy checked his "albacore" out, fit it for fin, and called the Post yesterday with the report that his fish and the big fish of the day last Saturday was a "false albacore."

Trolling out of Lewes last week aboard the "Young Un" with Capt. Gibby Young on the flying bridge, Andy pretty well monopolized things in the fish catching department as with Bill Murray, Bruce Sharp and Bob Squier, we observed the Biasotto action with increasingly jaundiced eyes.

"Some sport!" Mr. Biasotto observed after his third consecutive fish and fifth straight strike. "I find it pretty disgusting, myself." Bulldog Murray growled.

We'll never know just what it was, but it probably was one of Andy Biasotto's false albacore—a poor, hybrid name for a great fighting fish with no falsety in its sinew.

Some halfway from Cape Henlopen southeast to P-Buoy, the ocean was alive with millions of surface-finning menhaden, but our trolling failed to produce a strike in this apparent bluefish cafeteria.

The first fish was the line-buster as we approached the Indian River sports fishing fleet in the vicinity of P-Buoy with the watery horizon on all quarters.

Man Overboard — Almost Andy took over from there, and after a bad start in which he lost the first bonito because of a kink in his metal line—and we almost lost Biasotto in his frenzied effort to follow the departing fish—he began hauling bonito aboard.

Murray, Bruce, and Commodore Squier each managed to catch a couple of bonito, but the veteran with the scorched thumbs failed to hook a fish, and the action was never sustained enough to tempt the captain down from the flying bridge.

And then Andy Biasotto hooked his false albacore which roared like a wounded lion. Or perhaps it was Andy who made all the noise and made the well known welkin ring while dragging, trolling sportsmen in the area awakened with visible starts.

The fish had the fight going his way for the first few rounds with Andy on the short end of the decision by any point system. But weight began to tell over the long haul and the fish, outweighed by some 160-lbs., was eventually pumped up to the stern of the boat for gaffing.

But this John Paul Jones of the tuna family had not yet begun to fight. To the distress of Mr. Biasotto

Leading Halfbacks Beinner, Schroeck Injured In Drills

Dave Beinner and Ken Schroeck—leading halfbacks for the Fightin' Blue Hens—are sidelined by serious injuries.

Beinner suffered a dislocated shoulder, similar to the one that benched him for the final game last year, in recent practice and will be out of action for an indefinite period.

Schroek, troubled with a rib cartilage, should return to practice sooner than Davey.

In reinjuring the shoulder separated in the game with Bowling Green a year ago, Beinner will have to go cautiously throughout the season to avoid recurrence.

Roy Rylander, the team trainer, hopes Beinner will be ready to play in the Sept. 24 opener at Lehigh, but said the halfback will have to wear a harness all season. This will hamper his defensive work, a forte last year.

Offensively, the fleet senior from Irvington, N. J., has been counted upon to offset to a large extent the loss of the Hens' "Three Rushniks"—Jack Turner, John Bowman and Tony Saravitch, who ran through the Hens' opponents last season.

Schroek, from Orley Beach, N.J., should rejoin the lineup this week, but it will take him some time to regain lost ground.

Coon Hound Field Trial Scheduled For Sept. 25

A field trial for coon hounds will be conducted Sunday, Sept. 25, at the Paige-Vannoy farm at Kemblesville with a $200 guaranteed final.

Entry deadline is 11 a.m. the day of the event, and Eastern Field Trial rules will prevail.

Follow the signs from Route 896 at Kemblesville, and from Route 273 at Appleton, Md., three miles from Newark.

and the mate with the gaff, the albacore—false albacore, that is—staged a furious, darting, surface-slashing battle beside the boat while we puddled the water with the gaff in futile effort to secure the fish.

Even false albacore tire, however, and during a brief lull in the battle—while the fish was getting its second wind and Andy Biasotto had exhausted his, the gaff was slipped beneath the great gill cover of the silver-blue torpedo and it was all over.

Bruce Sharp caught the final bonito—an average pound and a half streamlined spear of green, blue, satin silver, and Bob Squier caught a snapper blue on the way in, just off the Fort Miles beach.

Two members of the crew made the dance back in Newark last Saturday night, but contributed little to the life of the party.

George Anderson, Guest Win Al Dollins Tourney

George Anderson and guest Ed Ramsey of the Wilmington Country Club combined to win the Al Dollins Member-Guest Golf Tournament at the Newark Country Club last Sunday with a 36-hole score of 128.

Class A winners were Bill "Tiger" LeFashon and Willard Dickerson of Rock Manor with 131.

In Class B, Bill Hart and Harry McFadden of Kennett Square were winners with 128.

Overall low gross team winners were Ed Richielli, and Ike Turner of Wilmington Country Club, with 133.

Gridiron, attempting to duplicate his 1959 victory in the feature could do no better than second, although he conceded the winner 23 pounds in weights. Lord Mike returned $640.

Mystical Gem, owned by George T. Weymouth, rallied to finish third, a head behind Gridiron.

The second half of a two-day Fair Hill hunt meeting will be held Saturday afternoon on the estate of William du Pont, Jr., at Fair Hill, Md., near Newark.

A crowd of 5,000 turned out Saturday for the six-race pari-mutuel opening card and wagered $41,646.

Lord Mike was ridden by Tommy Walsh.

Blue Hen Bowling Alley With 32 Lanes To Open Monday For 24-Hour Operation

Delaware's first bowling lane featuring 1960 Brunswick Gold Crown equipment will open Monday at 9 a.m. in the Newark Shopping Center.

The new Blue Hen Lanes will be managed locally by Herb Grund, formerly of Baltimore.

Ground was broken for the new building last April by Frederic G. Krapf and Son, Wilmington contractors. The new recreational facility was designed by J. Edgar Moxley & Son, architects, who signed the original center plan.

Visitors to the Blue Hen Bowling Center Monday will be welcomed by 32 automatic lanes with space, 32 automatic lanes with air-conditioned, year-round, fee shop; children's nursery, with accommodations for bowlers, spectators, Tel-E-Score, and automatic pin-setters.

The lanes are sound-proofed, air-conditioned for maximum enjoyment, and will be open hours a day, seven days a week. Those interested in leasing may call Mr. Grund at the Bowling Center.
