Dear Mr. Messersmith,

I am going to Berlin to-morrow, Tuesday, night arriving there about 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and I shall stay until Thursday night - at the Hotel Kaiserhof - then returning to Brussels.

I should very much like to see you, and I shall therefore telephone to your office on my arrival in Berlin so that we may fix an appointment.

I trust you are keeping well and, looking forward to the pleasure of a talk with you.

Yours sincerely,

Almer
