

School Tax Increase Approved By Voters In Newark District

Referendum Conducted Last Thursday At 12 Local Polls
With 4,707 Ballots Cast In 2,971-1,732 Approval Vote;
Proposal Opposed At Christiana-Salem, Eden Schools

With a total of 4,707 ballots cast last Thursday, residents of the Newark special school district approved a 35-cents per $100 property assessment tax increase by a vote of 2,971-1,732, with four ballots declared invalid. The referendum provided a 35-cent tax increase, but the Newark Board of Education plans a 30-cent increase over the present 60.5 cents within three years. An additional 22-cents is to be levied next July 1, six cents more the following July, and two cents to be added July 1, 1968.

The school board requested the tax increase to maintain educational standards with increasing enrollment in the district.

With voters casting their ballots at 12 school buildings in the district, the largest turnout was at the Central School polls where the tax increase was approved 402-205 with a total 607 votes.

The second heaviest vote was at the West Park Place School with a total 581 ballots in a 374-206 vote. One ballot was declared invalid.

Opposition

The referendum was opposed at two sites by a 35-105 vote by the Christiana-Salem School, and by a 76-80 ballot at Eden.

At Brookside, approval for the tax increase was registered in a 326-175 vote; by 78-60 at Christiana Junior and senior high; 419-138 at the new Downes School; 226-103 with one invalid vote at the Gallagher building; 238-109 at McVey; 324-222 at Medill; and 321-200 at the Ogletown-Jennie Smith polling place.

At the Newark High School polls, the referendum was approved by a 1,261-2,446 vote cast on Saturday, June 6, 1964, when a proposed similar increase in the current 58-cent tax rate was defeated 1,869-1,577.

State Crop Award Banquet Scheduled Tuesday At Dover

To increase soybean yields, producers will have to know and use soybean research results. Crop scientists have found several methods that may help improve soybean yield.

Featured speaker at the Delaware State Crop Awards Banquet next Tuesday in Dover has played an important part in this soybean research. He is Dr. Robert Howell, leader of soybean investigation for the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Beltsville, Md., who will discuss "Breaking the Soybean Production Barrier."

Howell is familiar with soybean research underway in the USDA, and coordinates such research at state agricultural experiment stations throughout the United States. He has been working with soybean research since 1952 and has been in charge of soybean investigations since 1964.

As soybean plant physiologist at the U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory in Urbana, Ill., he did work on soybean sensitivity to and use of phosphorus.

The state crop show and awards banquet will be held at Capital Grounds Hall, sponsored by the Delaware Crop Improvement Association.

Awards will be presented at the banquet to the state's top soybean producers of highest soybean yields in each county; outstanding seed producers in 1965; and the exhibitor of the best hay sample.

The show includes classes for hybrid corn, small grain seed, field and artificially cured hay, grass and corn silage. There will also be a 4-H judging contest.

The crop show opens at 3 p.m.—the 4-H judging contests at 7 p.m.—and the awards banquet at 7 p.m.

CHS Honor Society Students Volunteer Tutorial Services

The National Honor Society of Christiana High School has been granted approval to offer a tutorial service for pupils needing assistance in their studies.

All members of the society have offered their free time to help with subjects in which they are most adept.

"Most of the students have just one or two free periods a week at most," said Mrs. Frances McNeal, group advisor, "but they are willing to sacrifice this time to give assistance."

650 New Garments Contributed To 44th Annual Clothing Drive Of Newark Guild

Officers and directors of the Newark branch of the Needlework Guild announced the successful conclusion of their 44th annual clothing drive. Members and friends contributed more than 650 new garments, as well as money for the shoe fund.

Contributions of clothing and household linens were displayed at the annual in-gathering on Oct. 23, and this exhibit included handmade dresses and mittens marked with special tags so that recipients will know that they have been handmade for them by their Newark neighbors.

After the in-gathering, all clothing and household linens are distributed to the needy of this community. Requests for this material should be directed to Mrs. John Sinclair or Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey.

The Newark branch once again expresses its gratitude to members, patrons and other friends who so faithfully, year after year, show concern for their less fortunate neighbors. Although the annual clothing drive is held in October, work of the guild is year-round and members are encouraged to knit and sew for the guild at any time.

This humanitarian work at the local level is especially recommended to youth groups such as "Y" clubs, Girl Scouts, church clubs and school groups.

A class of seventh grade girls at Holy Angels School, studying community social problems, made 40 infant blankets and presented them to the guild. In this way these very young citizens learned, first hand, something about community problems, the responsibilities of citizenship, and the meaning of charity.

The Newark branch of the Needlework Guild of America hopes that other youth groups in search of a worthy service project will also participate in this work.

Individual Delaware Farm Income Rises As "Dollars in Pocket" Drop 3 Per Cent

By Jerry Webb, Asst. Editor
University of Delaware Extension Division

Delaware farmers received more income per farm in 1964 than in any previous year. For their efforts they received fewer "dollars in the pocket" than in any year since 1959. At the same time the state's farm income declined three per cent.

According to figures just released by the department of agricultural economics at the University of Delaware, total sales per farm averaged slightly over $25,000—an increase of over $200. But the amount farmers had left after their bills were paid, was just over $5,000, a decline of almost $600 from 1963.

These facts were revealed in a report prepared by Dr. William Crosswhite, agricultural economist at the university. He used U. S. Dept. of Agriculture figures in summarizing the state's crop and livestock production in 1964. Comparisons also were made with the six previous years.

Several important changes in Delaware's farm output are pointed out in the report. Farmers produced more broilers, corn and hogs, and less soybeans, beef cattle and milk. This shifting in production caused a $3.5 million decline in the state's agricultural income.

But how can agricultural income go down while income per farm is increasing? And why did farmers wind up with smaller pay checks in 1964?

Fewer farms and bad weather were the reasons, according to the report. As the land is redivided each year among fewer farmers, gross sales increase—even at a time when total farm income is down. That's what happened in 1964, according to Crosswhite. And the prolonged dry weather cut soybean yields one-third and reduced corn output almost five per cent. The net effect was a $5-1/2 million dip in crop sales.

Rahn, Heuberger, Stevens To Assist At Annual Meeting

Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist, will be co-chairman of the lima bean and pea commodity group meetings.

Dr. J. W. Heuberger, chairman of the plant pathology department, will present a paper on controlling pepper leaf spot.

The meeting is open to all interested food processors.

NHS Sophs Tested In NEDT Program For Learning Skill

Some 170 Newark High School 10th grade students took the three-hour National Educational Development Tests on Nov. 2, according to Mrs. Jeanette T. Wernitz and Russell Williams, counselors.

Mrs. Wernitz explained that "The NEDT battery is a series of tests in English, social studies, mathematics, natural sciences, and word usage, designed to measure each student's ability to apply basic learning skills rather than ability to memorize particular facts or specific subject matter."

"They have been used in the Newark school district since 1963 as a help to students, parents, and teachers in identifying strengths and weaknesses in each student's educational development, and in making a realistic appraisal of educational and vocational objectives."

"One of the most interesting aspects of this program," Mrs. Wernitz continued, "is that students who do exceptionally well on the test battery are singled out for formal recognition. Each student who scores in the top 10 per cent nationally is awarded a special certificate of merit signifying his high achievement. These certificates serve to stimulate a respect for academic excellence among the student body."

Sophomore students were notified through their homerooms of the test about three weeks before the test date.

To assist parents in understanding the value of such a test and in particular, to explain their children's test scores, Mrs. Wernitz and Wil-

Saturday Bride

Mrs. Ickan Say

The wedding of Miss Carol Lynn Harris and Mr. Ickan Say took place last Saturday evening in the First Unitarian Church in Fairfax with the Rev. Robert M. Doos, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Harris of Penn Manor Farm near Newark.

Mr. Say is the son of Mrs. Sarah Say and the late Mr. Say of Istanbul, Turkey.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore a beau de soie gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and long, chanted lace sleeves and a short lace over jacket. Her round neckline featured a bow at the back to which a lace panel fell into a chapel length train covering her bouffant skirt.

Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of crystals and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums and orchids with garlands of miniature ivy.

Her two sisters were her attendants—Miss Margaret Elaine Harris as maid of honor and Miss Charlotte Harris as bridesmaid. Their gowns designed and made by the maid of honor were floor length models of jade green satin and lace fashioned with round necklines, fitted bodices and short lace sleeves. They wore matching bows as headresses, and carried baskets of garnet rosebuds, golden bronze and pale yellow pom-poms with yellow ribbon streamers.

Susan Graham of Bolivar, Pa., a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore white eyelid organza over pale yellow silk. Her basket of flowers was the same as the bride's attendants' William Harris, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore an aqua lace and crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias.

Mr. Wayne D. Wilson of North Star, was best man. Ushers were

Mr. Harold Bute of Newark, Mr. H. Ronald Mann of Brookside, and Mr. Ray S. Christian of Newport.

The wedding music was played by Merwin Hutton, organist and Mr. Paul Nelson of Newark, was soloist.

A reception followed in the social hall of the church. After a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the couple will reside at Windy Hills, Newark.

The bride graduated from the University of Delaware and is a teacher at Gilpin Manor Elementary School, Elkton, Md.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Robert College in Istanbul and received his master's degree from the University of Delaware. He is associated with the E. H. Richardson Associates, Inc., of Newark.

A THOUGHT FOR THANKSGIVING

A DAY OF THANKS

Thanksgiving is as old as the need to worship. Many nations set aside days to invoke Divine thanks for the bountiful blessings of the harvest.

In Japan it is the "New Tasting Festival," in Sardinia colorful clads natives meet at the "Festival of the Saviour," while throughout Europe the plaintive voice of the violins and the rhythm of the tambourines mark the week-long Gypsy festival with dancing in the streets. In India's Punjab state natives dance the Bhangra at harvest time, while the Swiss flock to the capital city of Berne with their wares.

However, it was Colonial America, and the Plymouth Bay Colony where white and red men shared the harvest, exchanged gifts, and gave thanks to the Supreme Being—which imprinted this holiday in the minds and hearts of all Americans.

Today is a far cry from this historic event—and the munificence of worldly goods bestowed on this nation gives us cause to take time out from the inter-city football clash, to pause and reflect on the true meaning of Thanksgiving day.

Let us pause, and recall the parable of the good Samaritan. He found the time to stop, bind up the wounds of a man set-upon by thieves, and paid for the man's shelter at the inn.

We too, can be good Samaritans by continuing to share this nation's bounty with the undernourished, underprivileged people of the world.

Leslie T. Hearn, Jr. Appointed To Post For Scout District

The appointment of Leslie E. Hearn, Jr., to the post of Assistant District Commissioner for the Capital Trail Boy Scout District has been announced by District Commissioner William Crosswhite.

Hearn will be responsible for commissioner service to Cub, Scout, and Explorer units north of Kirkwood Highway from Newark to Price's Corner to Hockessin.

There are 22 units in the area with additional ones being organized. Beginning Scouting as a boy in Delmar, Hearn served as Cubmaster of Pack 160; as a neighborhood commissioner, and as Cub Roundtable commissioner. He holds the Arrowhead Honor Award and a National Training Instructor certificate.

He is a supervisor with the Continental Can Company of Wilmington, and a graduate of Brown Technical High School.

This is the Official Test Form for use by television viewers when the "National Citizenship Test" audience-involvement program is broadcast over CBS-TV Tuesday evening, November 23rd from 10 to 11 p.m. EST. Originally scheduled for Tuesday, November 9, the showing was short-circuited by the great Northeast blackout and in fact was the only national TV show postponed that night. Due to the tremendous interest in the program, it has been rescheduled.

The program, similar to the recent National Driver's Test, centers on rights, obligations and responsibilities of citizenship, as well as attitudes toward today's specific constitutional issues.

Board of Advisers for the "National Citizenship Test" includes Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, U.S. Senate Minority Leader Everett Dirksen, Professors Paul A. Freund and Henry F. Graff of Harvard and Columbia Universities respectively.

Use of this Official Test Form will enable home viewers to mark their own answers and see how their knowledge compares with the national average and the participating groups. The latter will include Congressmen and their wives, Democratic and Republican party leaders and a specially-selected group of St. Louis high school students.

SPECIAL WASHINGTON REPORT

Better Law Enforcement

By Senator PHILIP HART (D-Mich.)
Senator Hart was a sponsor of the Law Enforcement Assistance Act of 1965

For some people, the image of the law enforcement officer is the reflection of a flashing red light in their rear-view mirror. To others, the image may take the form of a policeman's signature on an overtime parking ticket—or a blur of arm signals in the middle of a busy intersection.

Philip A. Hart

THE PROBLEM

But for all of us, there is the growing realization that the role of the law enforcement officer can no longer be described in such simple terms. And in the face of a growing crime rate with its attendant complexities—a crime rate that has doubled since 1940 and is costing us tens of billions of dollars annually—it is a performance of duty that becomes more impossible, in the light of undermanned, underpaid and overworked police forces in spite of their outstanding efforts.

There is an acknowledgement among professional law officers of the need for skills and training beyond traditional subjects of police academies. There is a need for training in human relations, police-community relations and in facts about non-violent demonstrations as well as mass disorder.

In 1962, after consulting with the experts in the field of law enforcement from all over the country, I introduced in the Senate the first law enforcement assistance act to provide for Federal aid to police departments.

THE LEGISLATION

The Law Enforcement Assistance Act of 1965 signed into law is not an attempt by the Federal government to supplant the administration of the separate states over their individual law enforcement agencies. As the President stated in his message to Congress, "the principal enforcement responsibility still rests on state and local governments."

What it will do is empower the Attorney General—over a three-year period—to make grants to local agencies and non-profit organizations for the training of state and local law enforcement personnel and those employed in crime prevention programs. Fighting crime effectively under modern conditions and maintaining law and order requires professional police who are expertly trained in a variety of skills.

The bill also provides for Federal support for the development of improved methods of enforcing criminal laws and administering justice.

The Federal Government now provides financial assistance for research and training in other professions—science, mathematics, foreign languages, medicine, nursing. Trained, professional law enforcement personnel are fully as essential to the preservation of our national health and strength—and are no less deserving of increased Federal support.

The New Castle County Citizenship package the cookies which were turned over to the Salvation Army who will see that they are distributed to our men when they arrive.

At the last meeting of the County 4-H Links new officers were elected. Ray Johnson of Newark was elected as president; Gilbert Collins from Middletown, vice-president; Nancy Schafer of Bear, secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Martha Lomax from Corner Ketch, historian.

City Council

Council approved life insurance coverage in the municipal pension program at an additional cost of $2,000 annually, to include city employees under 30 years of age with one-year employment status—with some 60 per cent of the municipal staff reported currently ineligible for such insurance. Solicitor England is to prepare a governing ordinance for next Monday's council meeting.

Requested approval of Section IV with 19 lots in the Arbour Park subdivision was tabled pending Superior Court decision on the Arbour Park suit for deannexation.

Doehert cited $4,070 in expenses to be incurred by the City of Newark with provision of utilities for the new section, and protested approval of the plat until settlement of the lawsuit.

Deannexation Suit
He presented an opinion registered on July 27, 1964 by Kenneth W. Lewis, former city solicitor, in which Lewis advised against any city action on sidewalk construction in Arbour Park "pending action by the court."

England confirmed his predecessor's opinion with "make no commitments until the case is resolved."

Neide pointed out that the $4,070 required in city expenditures with approval of the 19-lot section, would be recovered through assessment and

Next Year's Roses Dependent on Care With Winterizing

For beautiful roses next year, prepare them now for winter, says Robert Stevens, extension horticulturist at the University of Delaware.

Cut roses back enough to keep the winter wind whipping the canes. Whipping will loosen the roots in the soil and cause injury to the rose. If necessary, cut them back so they are about three feet high, Stevens recommends.

Also cut out and dispose of any canes that are infested with borers or cankers. The final pruning can be done in late winter or early spring.

Heap soil around the roses before the winter weather begins. Pile soil eight to ten inches high around the base of the plant. Use soil from another part of the garden, since digging near the plants may damage the roots.

Be sure that roses have sufficient water before the ground freezes, Stevens advises. They need a good, thorough soaking now to carry them through the winter in good condition. Unless adequate rainfall comes within the next week or two, the home gardener will have to supply water.

Roses in an exposed location may need protection from winter winds. A screen of burlap or a snow fence approximately 4-ft. high will give adequate protection.

the sale of utilities, but the matter was tabled by unanimous vote of council.

Folsom stressed the need for "a comprehensive park and recreational program plan, with a method of financing," and City Secretary Charles D. Long is to arrange a meeting between the Newark Planning Commission, council, the parks and recreational advisory committee, municipal staff, and the Greater Newark Recreation Association, to arrange such a plan for a full-time recreational program.

The resignation of A. M. Musgrove, Jr., as supervising engineer in the Public Works Department effective Nov. 30, was accepted, along with Musgrove's offer to serve as a consulting electrical engineer.

Musgrove has been employed in his present capacity with the city for three years, and resigned "because of insufficient technical personnel, I find myself getting so involved with the many details of our work, it becomes impossible to properly do the important phases."

Council approved the city manager's proposal, pending clearance of competitive offers, to contract for storage of abandoned vehicles outside the city limits pending their disposal at public sale.

City acquisition of property owned by L. J. Krichma for an Apple Road right-of-way, was approved with the trade of a $79 city sidewalk assessment for the Krichma property valued at $44.70.

It was pointed out that "the only reason for the sidewalk assessment is that we need the parcel of land." Krichma said that a pine tree on the city-acquired property was valued at $200, and said "if you cut the pine tree down, the Krichmas should be compensated." And council agreed that the tree should remain.

Councilman Thompson urged that a study be conducted to remedy the traffic problem at North Chapel Street and Cleveland Avenue during peak periods—and the meeting was adjourned.

Delmarva Poultry Industry Fund Drive Leaders

Two Delmarva bank officials, well-known in agricultural circles, have accepted top posts in the Delmarva Poultry Industry fund drive to begin in February.

General chairman for the second year in a row is Emily Womach of Laurel, Del. Mrs. Womach is assistant vice-president and secretary of Sussex Trust Co., and a past president of the National Association of Bank Women.

Vice-chairman for the 1966 fund drive is Gerald Trull, Jr., of Salisbury, Md. Trull is agricultural representative for the Maryland National Bank, and with Mrs. Womach, is director of the peninsula poultry association.

Purpose of the annual drive is to raise operating funds with which the Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., carries on industry-improvement projects and production-promotion activities such as the National Chicken Cooking Contest.

The 1965 fund drive committee under Mrs. Womach's chairmanship, set a goal of $175,000, and actually raised $181,416.10 earlier this year.

Social Security Changes

By Myron Milbourn, Manager
Wilmington Social Security Office

By far the most important part of recent social security amendments was establishment of health insurance for those 65 and older. Actually there are two separate insurance programs—one a hospital insurance plan, and the other a supplementary medical insurance plan covering physicians' services and certain other medical items and health services not covered by the hospital insurance plan.

First, let us consider the hospital insurance plan. This will be financed by a new contribution separate from the regular Social Security contribution for old-age, survivors, and disability insurance. This new contribution, to be paid on the first day of January, 1966, will be 25 percent for 1966, 50 percent for 1967-72, and 55 percent for 1973-75.

The same contribution rate will be paid by employees, employers, and self-employed people. The contributions will go into a new fund which will be kept separate from two existing trust funds for old-age and survivors and disability insurance.

Now, the hospital insurance plan will be for almost everyone now 65 or older. This provision will affect women who reach 65 after 1971, or men who reach 65 after 1973. At that time the same work requirements will have to be met for hospital insurance as for Social Security retirement benefits. The money to pay the benefits for those not eligible for monthly benefits will come from general federal government revenues.

Men and women who reach 65 after 1967 can get these hospital insurance benefits if they have three quarters of coverage (regardless of when they were earned) for each year after 1965 and before they reach age 65. This provision will not affect women who reach 65 after 1971, or men who reach 65 after 1973. At that time the same work requirements will have to be met for hospital insurance as for Social Security retirement benefits.

Hospital insurance cards will be issued to everyone eligible for hospital insurance benefits. Those now receiving Social Security benefits will receive their cards by mail.

This hospital insurance plan will cover most of the cost up to 90 days of in-patient care in a hospital. The patient also will pay a co-insurance amount of $10 a day after the 60th day of hospitalization.

A spell of illness begins the day a person enters a hospital or skilled nursing home, and ends after he has not been a patient in any hospital or skilled nursing home for 60 consecutive days.

Benefits under the hospital insurance plan will be effective next July 1, except for extended care benefits which will not go into effect.

Delaware Grad In Entomology, Tom Evans Returns To Study After Success Afield

Six months after graduation from the University of Delaware, Tom Evans was in complete charge of work crews, crop-spraying airplanes, and $100,000 worth of chemicals. Employed for two years as a field entomologist for a frozen food processing plant in Wisconsin, Evans is now a graduate assistant in the department of entomology at the university.

He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Evans, 114 Blue Rock Road, Wilmington.

With total responsibility for the pest control on 10,000 acres of vegetables, Evans and men under his direction, worked seven days a week, all during the growing season to control weeds, insects and plant diseases on peas, lima beans and sweet corn.

As a professional entomologist, Evans was particularly interested in identifying and controlling insects that damage produce. His training and previous experience at the university were invaluable in deciding on control methods. "I had to know what was causing the trouble, and what would correct it—quickly," he said.

Last August, Evans returned to the University of Delaware to work for an advanced degree. His research directed by Frank Boys, agricultural chemicals specialist, deals with effects of various insecticides on soil types, and the biology of various rootworms which damage melons, Irish and sweet potatoes.

Evans' experience as a field entomologist is typical of opportunities open to entomologists in industry, according to Dr. Dale Bray, chairman of the department of entomology at the university. He says the role of entomologists has become increasingly important in the struggle to control insects and thus help increase the production of foods and fibers.

Yellowjacket Co-Capt. Dick Fulton Tops State Scoring With 136 As Newark Wins

Halfback Dick Fulton ran for three touchdowns and kicked two extra points last Saturday as Coach Bob Hoffman's championship-bound Yellowjackets walloped Dickinson 26-0 at Newark.

Fulton, co-captain for the Yellowjackets in his senior year, has a total 136 points for the season to lead the state race for the scoring championship. He is but four extra points shy of Laurel Ronnie Waller's career record 50.

Waller won the Wilmington Sportsman and Broadcaster Association Award as Delaware's Outstanding Athlete as an All-State halfback at Laurel High School, and

The Diamond State upland game season opens this Friday, with a daily limit of four rabbits, eight quail, and two cock pheasants, and sportsmen are urged by the Delaware Game and Fish Commission to respect rights of landowners. Always request permission to hunt on another's land—posted or otherwise.

And just in case you're inclined to resent the posted signs—and most hunters searching for elbow room and a place to shoot, are irritated by this limitation to an outdoorsman's traditional freedom—imagine yourself in the position of the rural resident.

The hunting season opens—an army of runners with dogs takes to the fields and woods—and the country dweller loses a lot of desired privacy at once. Few rural residents relish shouting at trespassers, and all welcome the opportunity to invite or politely refuse a request to run on their property.

Asel Anderson shot a beautiful nine-point buck whitetail near his home in Warwick, Md., during the Maryland deer season—a stellar stag that is having its head and rack mounted, while the Andersons are feasting on venison.

"I saw him from a distance the first day—and not him the next," the sporting Swede said with satisfaction unshared by his listener.

We missed two deer—a great antlered stag and a big doe—in some hard hunting with Mr. Anderson some years ago on his farm beside the Port Penn marshlands in Delaware. And Asel Anderson hasn't let us forget it, either.

Francis Neide and Dick Ware, on a recent trip from Newark in wind and rain, found calm and sunshine instead upon arriving at the goose pits near Church Hill beside the Chester River on Maryland's Eastern Shore—and fired just one shot to collect a lone goose.

Newark Notes

by GIBBY YOUNG

WOW! 50-7! Dave Nelson's Fighting Blue Hens never looked better—and seldom so good—as last Saturday in a final 1965 home stand at Delaware Stadium where Capt. Paul Mueller and his mates blasted big Boston University 50-7.

A Delaware team that has been hot and cold throughout the current campaign, rose to the heights after suffering successive setbacks at Temple and Buffalo, and thoroughly walloped what was considered their strongest foe of the year, Bruce Carlyle's 83-yard return of a Boston kick for a touchdown—Stu Green's great running—Tom Van Grofski's passing and field generalship are just a few of the highlights we have room to mention. Congratulations, Hens!

again as an NFL star with the Los Angeles Rams.

Quarterback Lou Stengari put Newark out in front last Saturday by racing 30-yards for a second quarter touchdown against Dickinson after a scoreless first period.

And Fulton gave the Yellowjackets a 13-0 lead at the half by driving seven yards for a TD and kicking the extra point.

In the third quarter, Fulton broke away for a spectacular scoring sprint of 80-yards, and kicked the conversion.

And in the final frame it was Fulton again, with a five-yard dash into the Dickinson end zone for Newark's final six points.

Playing for the Yellowjackets last Saturday were Stengari as the full-time quarterback; Fulton, Dick Kelly, Dave Word, and Jim McDonough, halfbacks; Don Walp, Bob Vance, and Tyrone Wood, fullbacks.

Bob Hubbard, center; Conway Hayman, Orville Wright, and George Toulson were the ends; Pat Walker, Bill Murphy, and Gary McCormick, the tackles; and Rowan Perkins, Bob Jones, and Tom McDonald, the guards.

Coach Bob Ewing and Kenny Woodward were the Yellowjacket centers.

Newark has a scrimmage session scheduled for this Saturday, and Hoffman's 7-1 Yellowjackets—tied with Wilmington High for the Blue Hen Conference championship—close the season next Thursday morning against winless Christiana on the Newark field with a 10:30 kick-off.

Roselle Wins Talent Award As Soph At Appalachian

Robert C. Roselle of Newark has received a special talent award of $50 per quarter, as a musician at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson E. Roselle, Jr., 809 Kenyon Lane, Newark, Bob is a sophomore at Appalachian State.

A Newark High School graduate in the Class of 1964, he was starting center for Coach Bob Hoffman's 1963 Blue Hen Conference football champion Yellowjackets.

Local Girls Play Hockey For Musingum College

Nancy Lowthian and Ann Seltzer—sophomores from Newark—were members of the girls hockey team at Musingum College, New Concord, Ohio, that recently completed a 4-3 season.

Miss Lowthian resides at 100 Venus Drive, North Star, and Miss Seltzer at 7 North Kingston Road, Brookside.

A barley field was gray with hundreds of geese on the ground beside the pit as they arrived—and the Canadian honkers promptly took off to settle safely down on the river and out of range for the afternoon.

The one goose that obtained "with a shot at a grounded bird, wounded by hunter or hunters unknown. And this was an act of mercy in providing meat-on-the-table with no attendant sport.

With Doc Calder and Bus Townsend last Sunday in some ducks, blind finishing beside the river, R. T. Ware was happily surprised at the great numbers of ducks in the area. Blackheads or scap predominated, with thousands of these broadbill or bluebill on the water in great rafts, and swimming overhead in smoking skeins, but there were marsh ducks—mallards and blacks—in the coves and over the cornfields.

And with the Maryland duck season opening Saturday, there should be action aplenty for the Newark sportsmen behind Church Hill.

Big John Sadowski, who puts in as many weekends as he can with a trailer at the Indian River Inlet, caught 19 strippers last weekend in casting off the rockpiles. And all 19 were over 15-pounds in silver-striped symmetry.

Fishing from the jetties in the Atlantic Ocean at the Indian River Inlet is tough at any time, and late in the fall, it's cold, too. But 19 rock better than a yard long! That's fabulous fishing.

Van Grofski Tops Don Miller Record For Pass Yardage

Delaware's passing combination of Quarterback Tom Van Grofski and End Mike Purzycki is closing in on several more Blue Hen records.

Van Grofski, a rifle-armed senior from Bloomfield, N. J., established Delaware season records for passing yardage and total offense in the Hens' surprising 50-7 win over Boston University last week.

The slim signal-caller has now completed 76 of 147 passes for 1,046 yards and 10 touchdowns in eight games. He has gained 90 yards rushing for 1,136 yards total offense.

Van's 1,046 yards passing breaks the record of 1,022 yards set by Don Miller in 1954. Van Grofski set the old total offense record at 1,034 yards last year.

Besides adding to his passing yardage and total offense records in the Hens' final against Bucknell, Van Grofski is within striking distance of two other Delaware standards.

He needs two touchdown passes against the Bisons to tie Miller's season record of 12 which the former Little All-American set in 1951 and tied in 1953. Van Grofski needs nine completions to tie his own 1964 season record of 85.

Purzycki, a junior from Newark, N. J., is nearing two reception records set by Wes Frith last year.

The Hens' split end has pulled down 31 passes for 354 yards and three touchdowns. He needs five more receptions to tie Frith's season record of 36 and three catches to tie Frith's career mark of 54.

Sophomore Halfback Brian Wright continues to lead the Blue Hens in rushing, but Junior Stu Green has moved into second place on the basis of his 157-yard performance against Boston University.

Wright has gained 533 yards in 110 carries, while Green has picked up 274 yards in 48 rushing attempts.

Sophomore Fullback John Spanier is third with 66 carries for 255 yards.

Wright is second to Purzycki in receiving with 17 catches for 223 yards and two touchdowns. Paul Mueller has picked up 277 yards on 14 receptions.

Mueller is the team's leading scorer with five touchdowns, and Spanier has scored four times for 24 points.

Van Grofski continues as one of the top punters in the conference with an average of 38.9 yards on 31 kicks.

Delaware (5-3) is averaging 354 yards per game, while its opponents have gained an average 263.5 yards per contest.

Crusaders In Tie For Capitol Trail Jr. Football Lead

The Crusaders stopped the Green Raiders 13-6 in the senior division play to gain a first place 5-1 tie with idle Stanton in the Capitol Trail Junior Football League last Sunday.

Gregg Spear and Paul Watson scored Crusader touchdowns on 60 and 40-yard pass plays, and Steve Ferguson ran for an extra point.

Max Matthes passed to Billy Stewart for a 20-yard touchdown to score for the Raiders.

Rickey Matthews ran for a pair of six-yard touchdowns; passed to Mark Hackett for another; and scored a pair of extra points in leading the senior 5-2 VFW to a 27-19 win over 1-6 Central.

Ronnie Jackson ran two-yards for the fourth VFW touchdown, and Richard Arimoto ran for an extra point.

Gary Hayman led Central by scoring two touchdowns on 30 and 70-yard pass plays, and John Frame caught a pass for a 40-yard score.

Gary Connell ran for an extra point.

In the junior division, the Vets took a 6-1 first place lead over 5-1 Stanton with an open date, by beating Central 13-0.

Scott Coolidge and Jim Ford ran for 30 and 18-yard TD's and Robert Wegman collected an extra point.

The 3-3 Crusaders defeated the 2-4 Raiders 9-7 with a safety.

Mike Riley ran for a 10-yard TD and extra point for the winners, and Jack Jadaich scored the Green Raider touchdown, with Brian Fischer getting the extra point.

The Green Raiders play Stanton this Sunday at 1:30 p.m. on the Kells Avenue field, and the Crusaders face the Vets at Stanton.

Soccer Star Subs As Hens' Kicker Against Boston U.

"I hope our offense will be strong enough to outscore them 2-1," Asst. Athletic Director Scotty Duncan said of this coming Saturday's Delaware game at Bucknell, in addressing the noon luncheon meeting of the Newark Touchdown Club last Monday in the Horseless Carriage.

Nelson's Hens Face Bucknell In Finale To Determine Bisons' MAC Title Chance

Dave Nelson's Delaware defense will face a stern test this Saturday when the Blue Hens travel to Lewisburg, Pa., to meet Bucknell in the Blue Hen season finale—a game that will help determine the Middle Atlantic Conference champion.

A Bucknell win over Delaware would earn the MAC crown for the Bisons, but a Blue Hen victory would give the championship to the winner of Saturday's Temple-Hofstra game.

Bucknell is 4-1 in conference play, while Temple and Hofstra sport 3-1 league logs.

The 4-3 Bisons have a strong running attack featuring Bob Coons and Bruce Smith, but the key to their offense is the passing of Quarterback Bill Lerro to Ends Tom Mitchell and Ron Kinsey.

Mitchell, a Little All-American last year and the best receiver in Bucknell history, has been hampered by injuries this year but is expected to be at full strength for the Blue Hens.

A 6-3 and 225-pounder, Mitchell has caught 45 passes for 718 yards and four touchdowns this season. Kinsey, a fine receiver who has been overshadowed by Mitchell's brilliance, has caught 25 passes for 334 yards and one touchdown.

Bison Quarterback Lerro has been hot and cold this year, but his statistics for seven games are impressive. He has completed 70 of 134 passes for 1,027 yards and three touchdowns.

Junior Bob Marks has been impressive as a replacement for Lerro and as the Bisons' top defensive back. He has completed 23 of 32 passes for 231 yards and six touchdowns and is an accomplished runner.

"Either quarterback passing to Mitchell and Kinsey is always a threat," Delaware Assistant End Coach Mickey Heinecken said, "but they are a well-rounded team that plays good solid football."

The Bisons like to establish their running game and they have the runners to do it. Senior Bob Coons is the leading rusher with 109 carries for 422 yards, while sophomore tailback Bruce Smith has picked up 362 yards in 33 attempts.

The Bisons' line play has been strong in recent games and stopped Lehigh with minus six yards rushing in their last game.

"They are a tough, aggressive football team," Heinecken said, "and they should be doubly tough since they are playing for the conference championship."

Capt. Paul Mueller Praised By Nelson For Hens' Hitting

Ask Coach Dave Nelson the difference between this year's Delaware football team (5-3) and last year's losing squad and he doesn't hesitate a minute in answering.

"We have been beaten, but we haven't been out-hit," Nelson noted. "Paul's leadership has been instrumental in getting us ready to play. He is one of the best captains we ever had."

Mueller, a 6-0 and 194-pound end from State College, Pa., was elected captain just a week before the season started this year.

"What Paul has done may set a precedent," Nelson said. "We will probably wait until the fall practice to elect a captain every year."

A halfback at State College High School and in his first three years at Delaware, Mueller made the transition to the line during spring drills and has become one of the top offensive ends in the Middle Atlantic Conference.

"He has always been an excellent blocker," Nelson said, "and he has developed into a very fine receiver. He is a top-flight offensive end."

Mueller has pulled down 14 passes for 277 yards and five touchdowns, and leads the Hens in scoring with 30 points.

"Paul was probably our best blocker as a halfback last season," End Coach Irv Wisniewski said, "and he has continued his fine blocking as an end. He is a very good tight end."

In addition to his leadership and football abilities, Mueller is active in student activities as a member of Sigma Nu fraternity; Alpha Zeta honorary agriculture fraternity; and as captain of military honorary Seaboard and Blade.

He lists hunting and fishing as his favorite hobbies.

This is the second time a halfback-turned-end has captained the Hens in Nelson's 15 years at Delaware. Paul Mueller, then of Egg Harbor, N. J., and now of Wilmington, was the captain of the 1952 Blue Hens.

Inside Posts Head Georgetown Races In Pay-Off Horses

Take a tip from those veteran horse fanciers who follow the Georgetown Races, where the action at the closing meet of the '65 Delaware-Maryland trot circuit is brisk. "Don't overlook those inside number two post horses."

The new half-mile racing strip at Georgetown, branded as one of the fastest new tracks to come into operation, is proving to be a bonanza for those horses favored with the luck of the draw for post positions.

Except in the handicaps, all post positions are drawn out of the pill box, drawing time at Georgetown finds the racing office jammed, as trainers and drivers crowd around the judges to see what lady luck is to give them this time.

Hoffman's Jackets Face Horney's Vikings In Thanksgiving Day Grid Season Finale

The 7-1 Yellowjackets of Coach Bob Hoffman, and the 0-8 Vikings of Coach Bill Horney wind up the football season next Thursday after a 10:30 a.m. kick-off in Newark Stadium, with the third Thanksgiving Day meeting of the two local high schools.

Newark shares a two-way tie with Wilmington High School for first place and the Blue Hen Conference championship after Brandywine's 20-13 upset of William Penn last week.

The William Penn Colonials handed the Yellowjackets their one setback, and Newark is responsible for Wilmington's lone loss, Brandywine, defending champions in the conference, had a 2-5 record going into the Colonial clash.

Wilmington faces a tough one in the finale with 4-4 P. S. du Pont. The P. S. Dynars defeated Delaware Warr 25-0 last Saturday, while Wilmington edged Conrad 13-6.

Mt. Pleasant—3-5 for the season—beat visiting Christiana 24-0 last Saturday.

Playing for Bill Horney's Vikings at Mt. Pleasant were Dave Claus and Roger Barnes, quarterbacks; Co-Capt. Barnes also at halfback, along with Bob Hall, Jeff Heath, Joe Thomas and Mike Horney; and Gerry Perry and Heath playing fullback.

The Christiansians ends were Doug Hunt, Greg Kracher, Mike Gray, Jim Spinks, Drennan, and Bill Rust; Co-Capt. Harold Boyer, Chuck Garber, Gary Lloyd, and Drew Tull were the tackles; and George Arbeiter, John Bonner, and Al Peoples, the guards.

Ed Ridgeway, Rich Olin, and Dick Rhodes were the Christiana centers; and Fred Walters was a linebacker.
