BLUE STAMP FOOD LIST

Blue stamp foods available during November to participants in the Food Stamp Plan were announced here today by Clifford W. Shedd, local representative of the Agricultural Marketing Administration. November foods, the same as those listed for October, include fresh fruits and vegetables, whole wheat and enriched flour and other protective foods.

According to Mr. Shedd, participation in the Food Stamp Plan by persons who receive public aid increases the food purchasing power of some 8,000,000 consumers, who are thus enabled to improve their limited diets and help raise the national health level.

In addition to enabling needy persons to obtain a more healthful diet, the stabilizing effects of the Food Stamp Plan on farmers' markets helps American farmers maintain their increased production of wartime food.

The complete Blue Stamp list issued by the Agricultural Marketing Administration for the month of November in all Food Stamp Program areas is as follows: fresh apples, all fresh vegetables including Irish and sweet potatoes, shell eggs, corn meal, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, and whole wheat (graham) flour.

CRAFTWORK EXHIBITION AT WOMEN'S COLLEGE

Colorful Latin American Display Includes Over 75 Articles

Of timely interest is the exhibition of craftwork from Latin America now on view at the Women's College, University of Delaware. Opened last Sunday, the exhibit will be continued until November 21.

Over seventy-five objects are included in the collection which consists of various decorative as well as utilitarian articles such as matching earrings and rings, pins, and bracelets of silver from Peru and Mexico. In this group is a strand of featherweight silver beads, with earrings to match, which resemble pearls in their lustre. Dolls from Guatemala form an intriguing part of the collection, depicting various types of natives: vendors of beans, baskets, and other wares, dressed in gay colors. Among these are figures of native women quite imposing, which together with the figures of men, have their features worked in colored bits of silk in expressive fashion.

One of the outstanding pieces in the exhibition is a lacquered tray by Alicia Velasquez, a coming young artist whose work undoubtedly will find its way into the hands of many private collectors. The art of the Mexican is well known in this field, and is also shown in a lacquered floral tray of larger design. Tin candle holders, a tin tray, etched and treated to prevent rust, a small centerpiece of tin, consisting of two candleholders combined with a small bowl for flowers, and a pair of sconces in this light weight metal, are utilitarian objects of simple but attractive designs.

Guatemala's weavings are well known and the textiles shown include two luncheon sets with interesting borders in characteristic designs. One of the outstanding weavings is a coat, which can be had in various sizes and colors, of blue and white washable material which makes a smart sports garment. Also in this category is the dark blue cotton San Juan jacket with woven Guatemalan design in red, which may also be used as a blouse, beautifully made from a Vogue pattern, and up to the minute in style.

Colorful in the extreme are the tiny vases made of the Tagua nut by the Ecuador Indians. As a matter of interest, it may be mentioned that most of the buttons used in our daily life are made from the Tagua nut, which is commonly called "vegetable ivory." From Chile there is a child's poncho of brown with stripes, and two interesting pieces of small black pottery, a pitcher and a child's mug. From Peru there is a coco bug in which the native men carry coco, from which cocaine is made, in the same fashion in which a tobacco pouch is used in this country. Also distinctive are the Peruvian bowls of majolica. An interesting carved and decorated gourd also from Peru is rich in color and useful as a container. From Argentina is a silver bowl of Bolivian metal in repoussé design. Other objects include baskets from Puerto Rico, decorated hangings from Guatemala and Mexico and an alpaca and sheep's wool "Manta" or shawl, from Peru.

The collection is circulated by Blanche A. Byerley of Wilton, Connecticut.

Rationing But Not By the OPA

The OPA will not ration your coal this winter, but you will be rationing yourself on heat if you put anything but the highest quality coal in your bin.

The anthracite operator who supplies us with coal could probably produce a lot more than he does if he were willing to sacrifice quality for speed in production. We patronize him because he will not budge an inch from his high quality.

New Fiber Container To Replace Metal Cans

A Pomona chemist, Albert A. Robbins, has developed an all-fibre container for lubricating oils to replace metal cans.

Raymond S. MacMillan, president of the MacMillan Petroleum Corp., told this week his company, which has employed Robbins as consulting chemist, will save 10,000,000 pounds of metal a year. General adoption by the entire industry will make 270,000,000 pounds of metal available for war use, he added.

As we steadily climb the grade to new performance peaks in transportation, recognition is due the constructive help given by our passengers, shippers, the Office of Defense Transportation, the Interstate Commerce Commission, Association of American Railroads and other organizations.

And B & O's employees and management join them in shooting for just one goal...an all out effort to win the war.

FOOD CHAIN CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING

A&P Marks 83rd Establishment Of Company In 1859

Efficient distribution of the nation's food supply is essential in order that our armed forces, our Allies and the home front will obtain the maximum benefits of American farmers' record 1942 production. L. A. Mullen, Vice President of the Phila. unit of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company declared recently.

Announcing the local celebration of the company's 83rd anniversary, Mr. Mullen said that the men who handle the nation's food must see that not a pound of this important weapon of war is wasted. "This is in line with the policy traditional with A & P ever since George Huntington Hartford founded the company back in 1859," Mullen added. "Our policy of shortening the distance between farm and family dinner table by eliminating unnecessary marketing steps helps conserve food by cutting out the many needless handlings which result in much waste and spoilage of food." Mr. Mullen pointed out that this straight-line marketing system also shortens the transportation time and thus releases vital railway and truck equipment for movement of other war materials. "Today more than ever before," he said, "speed is the vital factor in winning a war and fast, efficient methods of food distribution are as important to war production on the home front as the most modern weapons of blitz warfare are to our men on the battlefronts." Mr. Mullen gave an anniversary salute to the more than 10,000 A & P employees now serving in the armed forces of the United States and Canada and pledged that "those of us still at home will continue to do all we can to back them up."

CHURCH SCHOOL HALLOWE'EEN PARTY

From the standpoint of the children of the Church School of St. Thomas' Episcopal parish the Halloween Party, sponsored by the Mary-Martha Society last Friday evening, was a huge success.

The Parish House had been attractively decorated by Mrs. Earl Weggenmann and her committee. Black and gold streamers waved gaily from the ceiling, pumpkin-faces grinned enchantingly from the window-sills, and lighted candles cast a soft radiance over the entire scene.

To this alluring setting came about twenty-five of the children of the church and their guests. Ghosts, goblins, and witches vied with one another in bobbing for apples and playing games under the supervision of the Misses Edna Sampson, Clara Hall, and Eugenia Wright. Prizes were awarded to the children wearing the prettiest or the most unusual costumes. Refreshments consisting of sweet cider, cakes, and candies were served at a late hour; and, as guests, large and small, took their departure, they proclaimed the party a delightful affair and expressed the hope that this year's fun could be repeated at a future Halloween celebration.

YELLOW JACKETS' ATTACK BEING REVAMPED FOR TILT WITH P. S. DUPONT FRIDAY

Scrimmage Called Off This Week By Coach Bill Gillespie While Practice Drills Are Concentrated On Reorganizing New Offensive

When they take the field against P. S. duPont High tomorrow afternoon, the Yellow Jackets of Newark High will boast an entirely new offensive strategy.

U.S. CIVIL SERVICE SEEKS FILM SPECIALISTS

Newest opportunities in Federal service are for photographers and motion picture technicians, the United States Civil Service announces. Positions paying $1,440 to $3,800 will be filled throughout the United States, its territories and possessions. Free-lance and amateurs will have a chance to qualify.

In the photographic field, the Federal government desires to recruit women photographers wherever possible. However, both men and women may apply. Specific needs are for persons skilled in wet plate, process, and microfilm photography.

In the motion picture field, camera-men, film and sound technicians, and projectionists will be recruited by the Commission for Federal agencies turning out films to record war action and to instruct soldiers and civilians in new jobs. Men skilled in everything from technicolor to animation are needed.

Qualifications required for Photographers and Motion Picture Technicians are: for the $1,440, $1,620, and $1,800 positions, 6 months, 1 year, and 2 years respectively of appropriate experience. For the higher bracket positions, experience equivalent in difficulty and responsibility to that of the position open must be shown.

Free-lance experience is qualifying for all positions; amateur experience is acceptable for the $1,440 and $1,620 jobs. Appropriate technical training in approved courses may be substituted for 6 months of the required experience. No written tests are required.

The Commission continues to recruit Junior Graduate Nurses, $1,620 a year, and Junior Medical Officers, $2,000 a year. Liberalized requirements encourage nurses who completed the required training as long ago as January, 1920 to apply. Amended requirements for the Junior Medical Rotating Internships at St. Elizabeths Hospital, Washington, D. C., specify that men graduating from a Class A medical school since December 31, 1935 may apply. Applicants for Junior Medical Officer Psychiatric Division, St. Elizabeths Hospital, may apply if graduated since December 31, 1932.

For all positions there is no maximum age limit. Applications for these positions should be filed with the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., and will be accepted until the needs of the service have been met.

Full information as to requirements and application forms may be obtained from Ralph B. Kee, Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the post office or customhouse in this city, or from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at first- and second-class post offices.

Applications are not desired from war workers unless higher skills would be utilized in a change of position. War Manpower Restrictions on Federal appointment of persons engaged in certain critical occupations in specified areas are given in Form 3989, posted in first- and second-class post offices.

Their attack completely overhauled by Coach "Bill" Gillespie in special drills this week. Newark hopes to pull a surprise against the city lads, rated the most powerful high school team in the state.

The game will be the eighth in the series dating back to 1935. duPont being the only team consistently to dominate the Jackets in any rivalry, taking five of the seven.

Hoping to reorganize the team, which put up but a mediocre showing in the 7-7 with A. I. duPont last Friday, Coach Gillespie called off scrimmage after Tuesday this week and concentrated drills on a new attack.

Last week, Newark found A. I. duPont a much tougher club than anticipated, and were forced to come from behind to gain the tie.

Rated as having more than an even chance of whipping A. I., the Jackets failed to click, except for a single scoring thrust in the third period.

A Jacket fumble in the first period led to A. I.'s first score. Taking over on Newark's 48, they moved steadily downfield on a succession of line plays, a pass, Brooks to Ferguson aided considerably in bringing them to the Jackets' three yard-line, where Ferguson plunged through for a six-point, Brooks place-kicking the conversion.

Newark trailed for the remainder of the half, as both teams played more or less on even terms.

A second-half comeback, however, found Newark dominating the play. Gaining possession on duPont's 45 yard-line, Houston sliced off 5 yards by plunging, while Pollari was shaken loose on a clever reverse, going some 39 yards and being downed inches short of the goal.

The all important extra point was accounted for by Pollari who slipped across on an end-run.

The Jackets had to stave off another A. I. threat before the end, stopping them on the 15-yard line.

Approximately 1200 students from the main building of the Newark school and the Delaware Avenue school gathered on the High School athletic field last Friday morning to say their good-bye to Police Chief William Cunningham, who departs for Fort Dix today.

Of the two schools had been held. Featuring the special program honoring Chief Cunningham was the presentation of an engraved Hamilton watch, with a few brief words of appreciation by Mrs. George Hyde.

Following the presentation, the school band immediately struck up "We're In The Army Now," while the children joined in the singing.

Cub Scouts Given Surprise Hallowe'en Party

Cub Scout Pack 55 had a surprise Hallowe'en party given them at their regular Pack Meeting last Friday night in the old Academy Building. The first monthly Pack Meeting of the season started Cub activities for the winter months. After a short regular meeting, parents gave the Cubs an old fashioned Hallowe'en party which was enjoyed by themselves as much as by the boys. Judging by the attendance and enthusiasm shown, the co-operation from boys and their parents will beat all previous records.

NEW TRAIN AND BUS SERVICE FOR NEWARK

P.R.R. Southbound Stops Here Now At 8:42 P.M.-10 P.M. Bus Added

A transportation committee of the Lions Club of Newark has been negotiating with the railroads serving Newark and with the Delaware Coach Company in an attempt to improve service and to make certain that Newark's interest was given consideration.

The Penna. R. R. Co. has arranged to stop at Newark the train leaving New York at 8:00 P.M.; Philadelphia at 7:50 P.M.; Wilmington at 8:29 P.M., and arriving at Newark at 8:42 P.M. Heretofore it was impossible to arrive in Newark on a Southbound train after 5:40 P.M. An effort was made to secure the stopping of other trains, particularly a later one about midnight, but without success.

The Delaware Coach Company has added a trip leaving Wilmington at 10:10 P.M. daily. Contrary to previous reports, all trips from Wilmington leave from Front and French streets so that passengers arriving in Wilmington by train may continue to make connections on the P.R.R. station. Certain rush hour trips from Newark, however, do not go to Front & French Streets. They go only to 4th and French Sts. and out West 4th St. to Orange, and then turn north on the regular route, and are at 6:05; 7:05; 8:05 A.M. and 4:05; 5:05; 6:05; 7:05 P.M. They alternate during the rush hours between Newark and Wilmington and Cedars. On these seven trips a Newark passenger can transfer at 11th and Market Sts. or 4th and Market Streets to reach the Penna. Station.

Members of this committee are J. D. Counahan, Chairman, Joseph M. McVey, John K. Speicher, Paul Lovett and Chas. M. Cooper.

BLUE HENS TO APPEAR ON FRAZER FIELD SATURDAY FOR FIRST TIME THIS YEAR

Will Clash In Annual Tilt With Swarthmore Before Homecoming Crowds; Suffer Near Catastrophe At Hands of PMC Last Saturday

Still mopping its collective brow after the near catastrophe last Saturday when it was all but toppled from the pinnacle of one of the country's longest unbeaten streaks by a determined PMC eleven, the University of Delaware football team will be taking no chances when they face Swarthmore before the Homecoming Day crowd on Frazer Field Saturday afternoon.

NATIONAL 4-H CLUBS CELEBRATE

Achievement Week Marked Nov. 7 to 14

National 4-H Club Achievement Week will be celebrated the week of November 7 to 14. During this week the Nation's 1,500,000 rural boys and girls who are members of this great youth organization will mark the culmination of the work which they have accomplished this year. The record of 4-H club members in 1942 is one of which they can be proud.

"Delaware club members," reports C. E. McCauley, county 4-H club agent supervisor, "have been more industrious in their gardens, and in helping with the family's farm duties. They have mobilized, in a spirit of doing their share in our main job of eliminating the Axis."

Club members part in the war effort has been shown, states McCauley, in the harvest shows which local clubs in the State have staged to exhibit the results of their efforts.

FIRE HOUSES TO ASSIST IN FUEL RATIONING

Personnel To Aid Public To Fill Out Fuel Blanks

James L. Luke, Jr., State OPA Director, announces that arrangements have been completed with urban and rural fire companies throughout the State of Delaware to supply the services of their fire houses and personnel for the purpose of providing assistance to the general public in filling out the various application forms in use in the fuel rationing program. The only community which is an exception to this plan is Dover.

This service to the public will begin on Wednesday, November 4 and will continue for approximately ten days. The fire houses of the State, outside of the city of Wilmington, will announce, through their local press, just what hours they will be open to serve the public.

It is the purpose of this plan to provide assistance for all of those applying for fuel oil rations who feel that they need advice, or who would like to have their application forms checked for correctness of detail by some responsible person before these forms are mailed in to the local War Price & Rationing Boards.

Many users of fuel oil have probably received their application blanks from their dealers by this time. Those who have not yet received the forms will get them in the mails during the next few days. Officials caution all those who occupy private dwellings, on the matter of filling in their application blanks correctly.

The forms are not as complicated as they might well appear at first sight. If those who are filling out the applications will be particularly careful to take the time to read the questions completely, they will find that it will not be difficult to answer them. In most cases the answers required are simply "yes" or "no". Therefore, the public is urged to read all questions thoroughly before they attempt to give any answers.

Their first appearance on the Newark field this year the Hens hope to see themselves proud before the big homecoming crowd. The Hens' record of old grads many of whom will be getting their first glimpse of the famed combine. Almost jolted off victory road last week, Delaware managed to stage an upset to emerge with a 19-10 triumph over the cadets in the final minutes of play, bringing them within 100 yards of the first unbeaten season in the school's history.

While Swarthmore's current record is not impressive, the Hens believe anything can happen after last Saturday. Rated heavy favorites over PMC, bewildered Hens found themselves completely outplayed the first half winding up at intermission behind 14-0. Forced into one of the most inspired rallies of their careers, Delaware staged back the final half to score three touchdowns, the decision not coming until the dying minutes when Delaware bulldozed over the winning tally from a 5-yard stripe.

The statistics are lopsided in favor of the Hens, cadets getting only 10 yards by rushing while losing 40 yards by rushing of 211. The Cadets' main threat was in the air where they passed 99 yards on nine completed passes, accounted for a six-point.

A Delaware fumble soon after the opening whistle gave the upset-prized Cadets their first chance. Taking over on the Hens 48, they moved downfield, climaxing their drive with a series for the first score.

Late in the second period, Coach Bill Nuthren, whose fine kick, throttled the Hens frequently, took one out on the Delaware three, where Joe Coady's attempt to kick out of the end only to the 15-yard stripe. A pass and a line play netted PMC another score, to lead 14-0.

The second half found the Hens super-charged for a comeback, tallying their first touchdown shortly after the kick-off on a pass from Paul Hart to Walt Paul, which climaxed a long drive. The Hens second score also came in the third period on a 56-yd. pass sparked by the ball lunging of Hart, Paul, and Wood. Paul Hart took it over. Newcomb's failure to convert, however, left Delaware still trailing 14-13.

Penalties balked Delaware final scoring threats until they won possession on the 37, where an undeniable running attack carried to the one, from which freshman Walt Malys went over the quarter sneak.

SHO'MEN TO PLAY TWO CAGE GAMES WITH U. OF D.

MOUNTAINS OF SCRAP WILL SAVE THOUSANDS OF LIVES!

Stockpiles like this are needed all over the country so that our Government can plan our armament program—and our mills and plants can deliver the fighting tools!

Get in on the drive that starts today. Get the unused metal out of your cellar, your attic, your garage, your place of business. Without this scrap the Nation's steel mills must shut down, for all new steel is 50% scrap, and the mills have not enough for even 30 days more.

And one more thing. Help to stop the story — spread by innocents and ill-wishers alike — that there is lots of scrap already on hand. They point to junk yards, auto graveyards, and salvage depots that have not been cleaned out, as proof that there is no shortage. Kill this talk before it kills our boys!

In spite of the terrible lack of scrap, here is why you may still find full junk yards and scrap depots — and why they must be kept that way!

1. All scrap must be sorted, stripped, and broken up by scrap dealers before it can be used. Their yards are full because they are busy — preparing your scrap for the mills as fast as they possibly can!
2. Auto graveyards strip autos, keep the usable parts and junk the rest — turning out 450,000 tons of scrap in a typical month. Each must scrap within 60 days as many cars as he buys — that is the law!
3. Scrap collections sometimes have to stay around because the dealers can't handle them all immediately. Even if they could, the mills could not store it all. The local salvage depot is a stockpile — where your scrap is available for instant use as soon as it's needed. And it will be needed!

Remember if these places become empty, the mills shut down — and we lose the war!

So get out your scrap and help your neighbors with theirs. It's the greatest single contribution you can make right now to win the war!

LIBRARIANS, INSPECTORS NEEDED BY GOVERNMENT

Federal Service Seeks Civilians With Training In Specialized Fields

Everyday the war creates in the Federal service new demands for civilians with specialized knowledge. Most recent example, the U. S. Civil Service announces, is an unprecedented need for civilian librarians in army camps, naval stations, and recruiting centers all over the country. Positions paying from $1,200 to $1,620 are available, and persons with from 6 to 18 semester hours of library training in approved library schools, or from 6 to 18 months of paid library experience, or from 3 to 12 months of recognized library apprenticeship are urged to apply and take the written test.

The Commission announces also an intensified need in the U. S. Maritime Commission for additional kinds of inspectors. Before new ships can leave the ways, everything from marine paint to bed linen, from wooden galley pots to binoculars must be inspected. Latest call is for experts in paints, textiles, and general equipment to make inspections both in factories and at points of delivery. Salaries for these specific inspectors start at $2,600 a year.

Qualifications required of inspectors of paints, and inspectors of textiles are: 5 years of appropriate paid experience in the manufacture or inspection of paints or textiles, or 1 year of appropriate paid experience and 3 to 4 years of appropriate college study or trade school training (college chemistry for paints, college or trade school textile technology for textiles). Inspectors of general equipment should have had 4 years of appropriate experience inspecting the types of articles specified in the announcement, or 4 years of broad mechanical or skilled production experience in these fields, or a combination of the two kinds of experience.

For none of these positions is there a maximum age limit. Applications should be filed with the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., and will be accepted until the needs of the service have been met.

Full information as to requirements and application forms may be obtained from Ralph B. Kee, Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the post office or customhouse in this city, or from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at first- and second-class post offices.

Applications are not desired from war workers unless higher skills would be utilized in a change of position. War Manpower Restrictions on Federal appointment of persons engaged in certain critical occupations in specified areas are given in Form 3889, posted in first- and second-class post offices.

GAS BOOKS MUST BE RETURNED

Holders of B and C supplemental ration books must return their old book covers with or without any unused coupons within five days after the expiration date shown on the covers thereof, said State Director James L. Luke, Jr., this week. These books should be brought to the War Price and Rationing Board office in person in order to guard against any possible loss in the mails. This is a regulation with which all persons holding such supplemental ration books must comply.

Applicants are required to bring their notification post card and the automobile registration card with them when they call at the designated place to pick up their renewal ration. It will not be necessary for workers to lose time by calling for their renewals. All persons who are gainfully employed may designate some other person to call for their ration, provided the one so designated is supplied with the original post card and the car owner registration card.

It is unlawful to use the coupons in any supplemental ration book after the date of the expiration of that ration. It is not permissible to use the coupons from a renewal ration until the date on the cover of the book on which the ration becomes valid. In other words there are a great number of B and C books expiring on October 21 and new rationing books will be issued starting October 19 for use on and after October 22. Gasoline station managers and attendants are being asked to report to the local War Price and Rationing Board anyone who uses coupons from supplemental books which have expired, and also the premature use of the new ration books. The penalty for violation of the above is $10,000 fine or 10 years' imprisonment or both.

The majority of car drivers holding B and C rations, it is reported, are not responding promptly in forwarding their applications for renewal of these supplemental rations. The necessary materials have been in the applicants' hands for several days.

LIONS HEAR DR. HULLIHEN

Speaks On Blood Donation

Dr. Walter Hullihen addressed members of the Newark Lions Club Tuesday evening stressing the importance of their cooperation in the Blood Donation Day being held here by the Red Cross Branch on November 10.

Registrations should be made in advance, Dr. Hullihen said, in order that appointments may be made for donors. The Philadelphia Mobile Unit will be in charge. Registrations are being taken daily at the Elliott building.

President L. T. Staats conducted the regular business session of the meeting which was held in the Country Club. George M. Haney reported that plans for the observance of the club's 14th Charter Night, November 17, were progressing nicely.

J. D. Counahan is program chairman for the club meeting to be held next Tuesday evening.

HOMEMAKERS WORK MADE EASIER BY PLANNING

Home Management Expert Advises On Lightening Working Routine

Realizing the extra responsibility being put on the homemakers' shoulders these days and the great stress under which they are working, Miss Louise R. Whitcomb, home management specialist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, suggests that every homemaker reorganize her time in order not to impair her health. This is important, Miss Whitcomb feels, for an exhausted homemaker is not able to give the best either physically or mentally to her family or her country.

Every loyal homemaker in America is now asking "What can I do for my country?" She is eager to mobilize home, family, tools, jobs and time to help win victory and peace for her country. She realizes that this war effort means extra work for her. She must help raise and conserve more food; take better care of equipment; guard the health of her family; maintain family morale. All these and many other duties she must do and unfortunately with less help than usual. Feeling that it is important to protect health and use precious time to the best advantage, Miss Whitcomb gives the following suggestions to these loyal women.

Keep a pencil and pad handy to jot down the jobs to be done for the day or week. A written list saves many a step. Do not try to do everything but those things that mean the most to your family. Ask yourself whether each task is absolutely necessary. In planning your day, share with your family. They can save you time and energy by assisting with many household tasks. This training develops resourcefulness, personality and character. It also promotes family interest in the home and learning to work with other people. The right tools in good condition can also make many jobs easier. Many times housework becomes a drudgery because of a lack of proper tools and equipment. Attention to the arrangement of tools and the placing of equipment will also save many steps. Working surfaces should be of the proper height so as to avoid unnecessary fatigue. Tables that are too low can be raised by placing blocks under the legs so that you can stand naturally. Correctly fitted garments of simple design, washable material and of sturdy construction will make your work easier. When working wear correctly fitted shoes with low broad heels.

RATIONING BROADCASTS

The State Federation of Women's Clubs has voted to pay the necessary expenses of a Latin American student at the Women's College, University of Delaware. It was announced that the Newark Club had voted to give $50.00 to this scholarship and that the amount had already been raised by the formation of a Spanish class. This class is sponsored by the Committee on International Relations of which Mrs. William Johns, Jr., is chairman and is being taught by Mrs. R. W. Linton.

Miss Barbara Ritz of the Women's College, gave three vocal selections. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Marcella Skinner.

A movie, "Our Free American Way" was presented by Mrs. Robert Lewis, chairman of the Education Department. This was followed by a short play entitled "Day's Work For America", under the direction of Mrs. F. A. Weihe. Those taking part in the play were Mrs. William Johns, Jr., Mrs. A. D. Cobb, and Mrs. Paul D. Lovett. The theme of both the play and the movie aimed to promote War Bonds and Stamps.

It was announced that the speaker for the next meeting would be Miss Lee La-Ching, a young Chinese girl.

leave from the University and associated the Board of Economic Warfare in Washington.

Alumni in uniform will probably be numerous, for many within a radius of 500 miles of Newark are planning to use over-due leaves and furloughs to return for the Homecoming according to letters received in the alumni office.

First event on the program is the football game on Frazer Field between Delaware's powerful Blue Hens and the Little Quakers of Swarthmore, with the kick-off scheduled for 2:15 P. M.

At the conclusion of the game, a reception being given for alumni and their guests by Dr. and Mrs. Hullihen in honor of General Reybold will be held at The Knoll, the president's residence.

The banquet, followed by informal fraternity gatherings, will conclude the day's activities.

Dr. Kadow expects to travel to all parts of Brazil and up and down the Amazon. The emergency caused by the wartime restrictions on shipping has created a critical situation in some large centers of the country and the population in these centers faces malnutrition. A tremendous task of converting Brazilian agriculture to this new wartime program, is the assignment given Dr. Kadow and his American experts cooperating with the Brazilian experts assigned to the program.

Dr. Kadow came to the University of Delaware in February, 1938 as associate professor of plant pathology. The following year he was appointed state plant pathologist by the State Board of Agriculture. In 1940, Dr. Kadow was made head of the Department of Horticulture at the University of Delaware.
