Squire Lovett Dies After Long Illness

Magistrate Here for 15 Years. Was Ardent Sportsman and Booster

Funeral Held Today

After a long and brave fight for his life, covering the better part of a year, Magistrate Leonard W. Lovett, 71 years, died Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at his home on Orchard Ridge, death being due to aneurism. For the past week his condition had been extremely critical, and no hope was held out for his recovery. Several months ago, one of his sons, William J. and Delia Lovett, submitted to a blood transfusion at the Homeopathic Hospital, in a final effort to restore the sick man's strength. The sick man, however, was not improved. Later, however, a relapse was suffered, from which he never recovered.

Magistrate Lovett was widely and affectionately known throughout the State as "Squire." He was one of Newark's most prominent citizens. He was greatly interested in Church and Civic work and was a strong booster for the city at all times. Those who knew him so well will miss his friendship and sincere interest in all things pertaining to the betterment of the community.

He deceased was a magistrate for 15 years, first being appointed by Governor Pennewill, then reappointed by Governor Miller, Governor Townsend and Governor Denney. He is survived by a wife and five children: William J., Forrest W., John R., Delaware and Mrs. Benjamine Eubanks, all of Newark. Eight grandchildren also survive him.

Mr. Lovett was born in Lancaster, Pa., but had been a resident of Newark for about 30 years. Before becoming magistrate he was engaged in the furniture business, the business being taken over by his son, John R. Lovett, when his father was appointed a magistrate.

He deceased always took an interest in civic work and was a member of the Methodist Church at Newark. At one time lived at New London, where he was a member of the Board of Education and superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School.

He was always an active Republican, but the only office he ever held was that of magistrate.

Mr. Lovett was also a noted baseball player in his early day, being the pitcher for the Reading Athletics, about 50 years ago, was one of the strongest semi-professional baseball teams in this section of the country. He was also a great lover of outdoor sporting events, being interested in fishing and gunning. Funeral services were held this afternoon at two o'clock, from his late residence on Orchard Ridge and was attended. Interment was made in the Head of Christiana Cemetery.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS OF CONGRESS HAVE THE FOLLOWING LEGISLATION ON THEIR PROGRAM FOR THE SPECIAL SESSIONS BEGINNING TOMORROW AND THE SHORT SESSION TO BE HELD MARCH 4TH:

The Ship Subsidy Bill. Appropriation bills for Government department. A rural credits bill for loans to farmers.

Amendment of the Each-Cumulative Transportation Act. Various groups in the Senate and House will endeavor to obtain consideration of the following:

A soldiers' bonus bill. Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals.

The Bureau bill providing relief for disabled officers of the World War.

A bill limiting campaign expenditures of candidates for public office.

Modification of the powers of Federal Reserve Banks.

Appointment of Attorney-General Daugherty.

NEW SIDEWALK COMING ALONG NICELY

Contractor Lovett Started Laying Asphalt Today

The sidewalk along the east side of Depot road from the Infirmary to a point below the Women's College is being paved accompanied by many signs of thanks from the users thereof. The work is being done by the County under the personal direction of Contractor Lovett.

The plans call for a mixture of asphalt and stone chips to be laid over the present surface. On top will be sprinkled a light layer of crushed stone carefully sieved. Then the application will be rolled and packed into place. Mr. Lovett this morning said the work should be finished in the course of two or three days. The main delay has been caused by difficulties in getting the supplies.

To those who believe concrete should have been used, it is pointed out that the foundation of the walk is not right for a concrete surface, being apt to sink in spots, thus splitting the hard upper surface.

DELAWARE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS MEET TOMORROW

Prominent Speakers to Address Members on Delaware Topics

The third annual meeting of the Delaware League of Women Voters will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the Wilmington New Century Club. One of the main features of the meeting will be to discuss at the business meeting the various measures coming up for the endorsement of the League before being presented to the Legislature.

Following the business meeting, addresses will be delivered to the assemblage by Charles R. Miller, Esq., on "State Board of Charities," and by Miss Katherine Ludington of New York, on "Our Opportunity for Constructive Work."

Many Newark women interested in the League are expected to be present and hear their speakers.

FIRE AT SELBYVILLE

Much consternation and excitement ran rampant around the town yesterday, when the first news of the fire in Selbyville reached us. As usual, the first informants were certain that the whole lower end of Sussex County was in flames. Gradually, as the more accurate accounts came in, the size of the blaze was greatly reduced. The old M. E. Church, now used as a school was totally destroyed and several adjoining buildings injured by water and smoke.

BIG RUMMAGE SALE TO START TOMORROW

The ladies of Teams No. 1 and 7 of the Newark New Century Club have decided to hold a big Rummage and Second-Hand Sale in the vacant store room next door to Brown's Drug Store, on Main Street. The sale will commence tomorrow, the 23rd, and will continue through Friday and Saturday.

A large variety of useful articles for every home will be on sale. These sales usually bring out large crowds. The money thus raised will go into the fund for a new clubhouse.

UNION SERVICES

On next Wednesday evening the annual Thanksgiving Union Service, participated in by all the churches in the town, will be held in the First Presbyterian Church. This affair is always productive of a large audience. Rev. Frank Herson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church will occupy the pulpit.

CONCERNING MOTORISTS

A communication from the office of Secretary of State Benson, in Dover, was received this morning and gives some advice to owners of automobiles. It says in part:

The Automobile Department is now ready to issue licenses for the year 1923 to persons desiring the same. Numbers carried in 1922 if applications are made on or before November 30th. After that, licenses will be issued consecutively, and the numbers held in 1922 not issued.

The Department would appreciate that automobilists secure their registrations early.

Over 100 Business Men Expected At Chamber of Commerce Dinner

"Boost Newark" Will Be Slogan Tomorrow Night at Annual Affair. Mayor Harvey Among the Guests. Hon. E. T. Franks Principal Syeaker

TICKETS ARE GOING QUICKLY

According to the latest information over one hundred business men of Newark and their guests will partake of the splendid dinner to be given by the Chamber of Commerce in Old College tomorrow night beginning at 6.15.

The business men of Newark have given their support to the affair and both by their presence there tomorrow night and their evident interest in the Chamber, the dinner may be already predicted as a great success.

The address of the evening will be delivered by Hon. Edward T. Franks, a member of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in Washington, D. C. Mr. Franks is scheduled to talk upon "The Great National Movement." He is an orator of national reputation and beside his sound logic and argument he is possessed with a very keen sense of humor with which he liberally sprinkles his addresses. Other speakers who will make short remarks are Mayor Leroy Harvey and Mr. H. G. Budd, secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce. In response to the invitation of the local Chamber several Mayors of other towns throughout the State have signified their intention of being present at the dinner.

Music throughout the evening will be furnished by the Continental Band who will be the guests of the Chamber.

Along with the instrumental music, plans are being made by Dr. Heim and others to keep the crowd singing and song sheets will be distributed among the diners to give all the undiscovered opera singers a chance to shine. No doubt there will be impromptu compositions rendered by some of the more original members present.

Mr. George W. Griffith, President of the Chamber of Commerce will preside during the after-dinner program, and will introduce the toastmaster who in all probability will be Mr. George Medill.

Mr. A. G. Wilkinson, a member of the Chamber, has given the dinner his personal attention and a very palatable menu will be placed before the diners. Miss Huntley and Miss Skeewis of the Commons will attend to the serving of the meal by the University waiters.

The Dinner Committee who arranged and perfected the plans for the affair have worked hard and earnestly for its success and there is every reason to believe that their efforts will not have been in vain. It will be a big night among the business men and all are promised the best kind of a time.

Those who are on the committee are as follows: James C. Hastings, Chairman; J. Earl Dougherty, R. W. Heim, W. A. Wilkinson and George Medill.

$312,204 Needed by University for Next Two Years

State and College Officials Discuss Appropriations at Dover Monday

Governor Denney on Monday last conferred with officials of the University of Delaware relative to the amount the university will ask in the State budget for the next two years which will be finally passed on by the Legislature next winter. Those at the conference representing the University were, former Governor Charles R. Miller, chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Trustees; A. G. Wilkinson, business administrator; Dean E. Laurence Smith and Dean Charles A. McCue.

As a result of the conference it was decided to ask for the same appropriation for the next two years as appropriated by the last General Assembly for the years 1921-22 and 1922-23, $136,500 each year for both Delaware College and the Women's College. While this amount the past two years was separated, $83,500 for Delaware College and $53,000 for the Women's College each year it has been deemed advisable from an economical standpoint to consolidate the two thus saving additional clerks and accountants to take care of the separate accounts.

Drought Causes Loss To Delaware Farmers

Thousands of dollars worth of farm products throughout the State will be a total loss, on account of the prolonged drought which has prevailed for several months. While there have been a few rainfalls there hasn't been enough to avert the danger that threatens late crops.

Streams are low and wells are drying up in many places. Unless conditions change, more serious damage is feared. The Weather Bureau holds out no hope for any rain in the immediate future, and the greatest fear is that freezing weather will set in before there is a good rainfall.

In some sections, it is reported, the late corn is a total loss, wheat is not growing, and in many places the ground is baked hard and fall plowing almost impossible.

SUFFERS SLIGHT CONCUSSION IN FALL FROM PONY

Young Cowboy of Depot Road Bites the Dust but Will be in Good Shape Soon

GRAZED BY PASSING CAR

Daniel K., better known as "Danny," the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Medill of Depot road, narrowly escaped fatal injuries in the vicinity of the Red Men's Home late Friday afternoon. With another companion riding behind him on his splendid pony, the youngster was crossing the street when a passing car brushed exceedingly close to the animal, causing it to bolt and throw both boys. Danny remained still on the ground and when picked up by passers by and taken to his home, it was found that the lad was suffering from a slight concussion of the brain. His companion was unhurt.

The unfortunate boy was rendered unconscious by the fall and spent a very restless night. He is quickly coming around now however, and in a few days will no doubt again be seen on his charger storming the heights of the Women's College Campus.

CARD PARTY BENEFIT FOR CENTURY CLUB

More Than Fifty Tables

At a meeting last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. George Carter on Depot road, the two teams appointed to arrange for the forthcoming card party to be given for the benefit of the Newark New Century Club met and discussed their plans.

The affair, perhaps the biggest of its kind ever to be held in Newark, will take place in the Clubhouse on the evening of December 7 next. The leaders of the two teams are: "A" team, Mrs. Emma Wilson and Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson; "B" team, Mrs. Walter Carlisle and Mrs. L. K. Bowen.

Those present at the meeting last Friday were: Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, Miss Winifred J. Robinson, Mrs. Levi K. Bowen, Miss Anna Meade, Miss Lindsay, Miss Brandt, Mrs. William H. Evans, Mrs. Emma Wilson, Mrs. R. E. Saleski, Miss Florence Cooke and Mrs. Carter.

CLEARING DANGEROUS SPOT

Town authorities have caused the removal recently of a row of fine old maples in front of Beale property, on Main Street, below the Newark Center Station. While the trees are splendid specimens and their shade will be missed next summer, they were ordered down as dangerous obstructions along the much used street.

When the concrete was laid and curbs placed in preparation for the new road, these trees were left several feet out from the curb. As a result, several machines have made their acquaintance within the past few months. Last week a Philadelphia car was badly smashed up while turning out for another machine by striking one of the trees. Fearing that a fatal accident may occur at any time, the authorities ordered the trees down, and down they came this week.

HOME ECONOMICS AND AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS ENTERTAINED

Professor and Mrs. R. W. Heim entertained the Senior Agricultural and Home Economics students of the University of Delaware, who are preparing to teach Agriculture and Home Economics, on Friday evening, at their home on Delaware Avenue. After a very pleasant evening, dainty refreshments were served. Among the guests were: Misses Hannah Deakney, Ruth King, Emily Ledenham, Francis McCoy, Helen Shorb, Mabel Smith, Evelyn Spruance, of the Senior class, who are taking the Teacher Training courses under Miss Laura V. Clark; Marian Hatfield, teacher of Home Economics in the Newark High School, who completed the work a year ago; Messrs. H. W. Cook, James W. Hahn, Frank Else, J. M. Lynch, Walter M. Gilbert, E. H. Pierce, of the Senior class taking the Teacher Training courses under Professor R. W. Heim; and F. Allyn Cooch, Jr., teacher of Agriculture in the duPont School, and Jos. Wilson, teacher of Agriculture in the Newark High School, who completed the work a year ago; Miss Laura V. Clark, Professor and Mrs. Carl Rankin and Miss Freda Ritz.

FIRE BACK OF RED MEN'S HOME

The fire bell sounded about 5.35, due to a fire in the old quarry back of Red Men's Home.

BARNUM WAS RIGHT

Secaucus, N. J., Nov. 21.—When a trolley car at the Public Service Corporation passed through here on its way from Passaic to Hoboken today, a tow-headed six-footer swung aboard and casually informed the conductor: "You can turn over the fare to me. I just bought this car."

After a short but decisive argument the passenger arose from the mud beside the track and sought the police. He said he was Olaf Jensen, a recent arrival from Sweden. He carried his savings with him, he said, so he was able to pay cash when a prosperous looking stranger, who sat beside him on the same car, offered to sell it to him for $100.

"The Microbe of Love" Ready for Opening Friday

A Musical Show with Local Players Starring. Seats Going Fast

Over Sixty in Cast

When the curtain rolls up at the Newark Opera House shortly after eight next Friday night, a large audience of Newark people will settle back in their seats and see a home talent show produced on a modern scale, when the "Microbe of Love" is presented under the auspices of the Newark New Century Club.

The above named piece, a three act musical comedy with a host of pretty songs, scores of witty and catchy lines and some dancing far above the ordinary, is now being rehearsed diligently under the watchful eye of Miss Miriam Kempton, director for the firm in Atlanta under whose supervision the show is given at various towns in the East and South. Miss Kempton, beside directing all the songs, dances and dialogues, plays the leading feminine role, as Madame Hymen Cupid.

To throw any light on the theme of the play would be taking an unfair advantage. It is sufficient to say that it will be the most elaborate and complete show of its kind to be presented in Newark in several years. Over sixty men and women, boys and girls, all well known Newark people, are taking parts. It is expected that a few unfortunate folks in the audience may enjoy some very wise cracks thrown in their general direction.

The rehearsals are coming along nicely. When it is taken into consideration that the whole thing will have been organized, cast rehearsed and put on in the short space of ten days, it is clearly seen that the members taking part are working overtime in their efforts to make it a great success.

All proceeds will be turned into the fund for new equipment of the Newark High School. Seats may be reserved at either the Home Drug Co. or Brown's Drug Store.

Those in the cast are:

Spinsters—Mrs. J. P. Cann, Miss Anne Ritz, Mrs. R. B. Harris, Miss Eleanor Duffy, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Dora Law, Mrs. Alice Durant, Miss Agnes Medill, Mrs. Ephraim Brant, Miss Charlotte Hobbs, and Miss Marjorie Rose.

Dr. Hulihan to Leave Hospital Soon

Dr. Walter Hulihan, President of the University of Delaware, who was operated on at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, two weeks ago, is recovering so rapidly that it is understood he will probably be able to leave the hospital the latter part of this week. After leaving the hospital Dr. Hulihan will probably go to Atlantic City for a time to fully recuperate before resuming his duties as president of the university. Dean E. Laurence Smith is acting president in his absence.

"WETS" AND THE FUTURE

From now on we shall hear of all sorts of schemes for revision of the "dry" laws. Seemingly, the terms of the Volstead act are distasteful to a great many of the people who make and unmake parties and administrations with their votes. The "wets" in and out of office will make the utmost of the arguments which the elections in New Jersey and elsewhere provided for them, and even now, while the bugles are blowing for a rally of the beer-and-light-winners in Congress, not one spokesman for the anti-"drys" seems to have realized that what the Democrats are suggesting is the revival of the most pernicious and destructive of all agencies associated with the liquor trade. That is the saloon licensed to sell not only intoxicants, but their poisonous imitations to the multitude. If a practical way has been found to restore wines and beer without restoring the saloon and all its influence for social and political destruction we have not heard of it.

Prohibition ought now to be considered in other than the emotional light. It may be worth while to remember that the movement against liquor began as a movement not against wine or beer or even whiskey in themselves, but against the widespread and appalling abuses of the trade centering in the average saloon. There were good reasons for that movement and they are still valid, and they cannot be explained away by any arguments drawn from examples provided by the free liquor trade of any other country, since the saloon was a peculiarly American device and a menace that in its ultimate form would not have been tolerated outside the United States.

We shall hear speeches in the new Congress about the harmlessness of moderate drinking in France, where the people are supposed to thrive on thin mixtures of weak wine and water. Little will be said about the great quantities of brandy consumed in France. That will not greatly matter. Nor will it matter what the British are doing and thinking in their efforts to escape the bad effects of universal drinking.

The problem of intoxicants and of "dry" and "wet" laws as it exists in this country is peculiar. Here it is the saloon, rather than light wine or beer, that is and always has been abominable and dangerous.

Light wines and beer do not seem appalling in prospect. What the "wets" ought to tell us is whether with light wines and beer or their imitations they propose to restore the saloon to its old evil place in the United States.—Evening Ledger Editorial.

Down on The Farm*ANNUAL FARM BUREAU MEETING
AT MIDDLETOWN ON DECEMBER 5

Tuesday, December 5, at Middletown, is the date and probably the place of the annual meeting of the New Castle County Farm Bureau, according to a motion carried at the meeting of the Executive Committee held at Wilmington last Saturday. President Frank F. Yearsley, of Marshallton, presided. Practically the full membership of the committee was present. Mr. J. D. Reynolds, of Middletown, and Mr. H. C. Milliken, of Coche, were appointed a committee responsible for the meeting. County Club Agent Agnes P. Medill will be asked to arrange with one of her girls' baking clubs to provide the lunch. At the annual meeting held last year at Newport the local girls' baking club served the lunch. Those present were profuse in the commendation of Mrs. Nellie F. Snyder, of Newport, local leader, and Miss Agnes P. Medill on the ability showed by the girls.

Mr. Howard W. Selby, Director of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange of Springfield, Mass., will be the main speaker on the program. The Delaware Farm Bureau Exchange is a unit of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, and Mr. Selby is much pleased with the progress being made in Delaware in the co-operative purchase of farm supplies.

President Frank F. Yearsley was appointed a delegate to attend the annual meeting of the American Federation of Farm Bureaus held at Chicago in December.

The President appointed the following committees in charge of the district corn shows, with instructions that they meet at an early date: Northern show—W. W. Buckingham, of Newark; Wilson Pierson, of Hockessin; Fred Trimble, of Hockessin, and Paul Mitchell, of Hockessin. Southern show—John D. Reynolds, of Middletown; P. E. Pleasanton, of McDonough; G. C. Burge, of Middletown; George Rheims, of Townsend, and E. P. Vogle, of Middletown.

A Man of His Word

"Sorry to mention it, old man," said Brown, "but it's six months since you borrowed that $5 of me and you promised faithfully to return it in six weeks."

"I know it," returned Johnson, taking a memorandum from his pocket. "That bill was series F, No. 672, 945, issue of 1910. I made a note of it, then spent the money. Since then I've been trying to recover it, but haven't succeeded."

"But," said Brown, "any other $5 bill would do as well."

"No," responded Johnson, shaking his head. "I'm a man of my word. I said I'd return that bill to you, Brown, old friend, and I meant it. Just as soon as I come across No. 672,945, series F, issue of 1910, I'll see that you get it, for I'm not the man to go back on my promise, no sir."—Boston Transcript.

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Over $2,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work
Lessens.

Washington.—Expenditures totaling $9,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,735,975 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,475,847.89, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enrollment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large financial operations of the 3,300 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call

First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men, of whom 27,487 were receiving treatment from the Government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of service that the Government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,080,692.90 during the current year, or about $300,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstruction following the World War by the Chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the Surgeon General's office, will not reach its peak before 1926.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find the individual ex-service man, help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation and aid to which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy nor will to service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom were under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program

This year—after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—brings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $3,404,000, but of this amount $1,834,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the Russian famine relief work of the American Relief Administration program. The child health service in Europe continues, moreover, and $654,000 is appropriated for this work undertaken in 1920. Other items in the stringently diminished foreign program include $200,000 to support the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurses' training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $900,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies

For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $750,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $500,000 to be available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $305,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,300 Chapters and their branches $1,293,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and education institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $100,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate, of course, is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.

With a sentimental leaning toward the days of his own youth, a certain business man sent his son to the college where he himself had been educated.

On arriving at the place of much knowledge the young man began to make a few inquiries. "I should like to see my father's record," said he to the head of the college. "He was here in 1890."

"I shall be very pleased to show you the record," was the reply. "But have you any special reason for consulting it?"

"Well," replied the youth frankly, "when I left home dad told me not to disgrace his record, and I only want to see how far I can go."—New Haven Register.

Over Elkton Way

Our friend, the Airplane Man, drove in again Sunday for a brief visit, and it is generally conceded that he made his expenses within a few hours. The day was ideal for flying, and as soon as the buzz of his motor was heard over town, scores of enthusiasts hustled over to Evans' field for a ride. There is no thrill quite like a ride in a plane. To explain the sensations and feelings is almost out of the question. Elktonians are strong for flying as has been noticed by the number who went aloft on other visits by commercial airmen.

Somewhere in the neighborhood of 96 marriage licenses were granted to determined young couples last week. Despite the many walls heard from every side about high cost of living, taxes, rents, low wages and all the myriad mental ills of mankind, there seems to be still a lot of optimism at large. The couples are blessed, criticized, warned, wept over and everything, but they still keep coming. Incidentally, between a couple of thousands and hunting licenses and a proportionate number of marriage licenses, the office of County Clerk Lewis resembles a department store on a busy day the past few weeks. The only thing missing was the floor-walker.

The Elkton football team has disbanded for the season, according to reliable information received early in the week. The outfit played a high class brand of ball and tried their best to put the sport on a paying basis, but the crowds became smaller each Saturday, and as the future held nothing in view but debt, the management decided to give up the ship. Many loyal rooters stuck to the team throughout the current season, even following it away to other towns, but the real backing of the town was lacking, and general interest could not be aroused. It is possible that it may be re-organized for one post season game, probably with Newark. If this battle don't bring out the crowd, nothing short of an earthquake will turn the trick.

INJURED BY FALL

Samuel Frazier, living near Newark, was painfully injured one day last week when he fell several feet from the top of a fodder stack on the farm of Miss Sarah Campbell near Iron Hill Station. Mr. Frazier lost his balance while piling fodder and struck his head on a piece of timber lying at the foot of the stack. At first his injuries were considered very serious, and he was rendered unconscious for over an hour. After a thorough examination, however, it was found that no bones were broken. He is now resting easily at his home.

REV. McELMOYLE ELECTED PASTOR BY HIS FLOCK

Congregation of Elkton Church Defies Presbytery

MAY MEAN MORE WAR

The congregation of the Elkton Presbyterian Church held a meeting last Sunday and elected Rev. John McElmoyle pastor of the church. The salary announced is placed at $2000 per annum. In this action, the Church placed itself on record as defying the power of the New Castle Presbytery as recorded in its order of a month ago.

It is the sincere hope of the congregation that the election of Mr. McElmoyle will be agreeably received by the authorities and that the long standing quarrel will be definitely settled.

On the other hand, it seems that this action has only served to stir up added feeling between Presbytery and Church, for the simple reason that the order of the Presbytery dissolving relations with the Elkton church has been upheld by the General Assembly, the Church's highest authority.

A special meeting is looked for in the course of a few days, to consider the latest development in the stormy discussion.

Much Activity Along C. and D. Canal

A big crowd of onlookers gathered about the locks of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal at Chesapeake City Sunday to watch the entrance of several big dredges into the supply pond along side the locks. These dredges were moved into the pond through a cut between it and Back Creek, which links the Canal with Chesapeake Bay. Later the cut will be bulkheaded.

The canal was opened for traffic on Sunday after being closed for two days while the dredges were moved into their new positions. It is expected that another shutdown of the waterway will take place this week.

When the bulkhead is completed it is planned to make another cut from the pond into the canal itself east of Chesapeake City locks, through which the dredges will pass directly into the canal itself. They then can be moved into positions for dredging west of the Summit Bridge, or along the Deep Cut.

Appreciation

Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Sheldon wish to avail themselves of this opportunity to thank through the columns of the Post their many friends who were so kind and helpful during the recent fire at their home. Particularly they wish to thank the members of the Aetna Hose Co. for their prompt response to the call, and other fire companies for their prompt and efficient service.

and 40 Years Experience

Leaves falling, cold snappy mornings, crisps of ice—all call attention to the season of Butchering on the Farm. We are thinking of sausage and winter supplies.

Enterprize is a big word everywhere. On the Farm at this season we think of Sausage Grinders, Stuffers, Lard Presses and Scrapple Pans—and the best is found with the Enterprize Trade Mark.

I have the usual line that my experience has shown me to be the best on the market.

40 Years of Hardware

Next week, I shall have rounded out 40 years in the Hardware business in this community. I know the trade—both buying and selling. Never in all that time have I seen the quality and values that I have to offer in cutlery of all kinds. It is a treat to see my customers examine them. I can guarantee this line to the limit.

1918 WAR SAVINGS
STAMPS DUE ON JANUARY 1

War Savings Stamps, series of 1918, become due and payable on January 1, 1923. The people who bought these stamps will receive their full face value upon redemption, and will find that the money they saved five years ago has earned every year about 4 per cent compound interest. In order to afford the holders of War Savings Stamps an opportunity to continue their investment in a safe Government security, the Treasury Department is offering an exchange of War Savings Stamps for Treasury Savings Certificates. These Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1000, maturity value, and sold for $20.50, $82 and $820 respectively. The holders of War Savings Stamps can get the Certificates at these prices upon application through their own banks or their post offices. Exchanges will be made as of January 1, 1923, upon applications presented between November 15, 1922, and January 15, 1923. Immediate payment will be made in cash of any difference due the holder of War Savings Stamps. He takes the largest possible amount of Treasury Savings Certificates on the exchange.

If a holder has $25 in War Savings Stamps, he may exchange them for a $25 Certificate and get $4.50 in cash. His original investment in that instance grows to $29.50. If he has $100 in War Savings Stamps, he can get a $100 Treasury Savings Certificate and $18 in cash, in which instance the original investment grows to $118; if he has $1000 in War Savings Stamps he can get a $1000 Treasury Certificate and $16 in cash, in which instance the original investment grows to $1216.

A growing inclination of the people to save, and their desire to find a safe re-investment for their money, leads Treasury officials to believe that a large part of the $600,000,000 in War Savings Stamps soon to become due will be exchanged into Treasury Savings Certificates.

Humane

The village constable was exceedingly kind; but even the kindest man becomes stern sometimes, and one day it came to pass that he had to lock up three tramps.

An hour or two afterward the local J. P. met him hurrying down the main street and said:

"Where are you hurrying, constable?"

"Oh," explained the kind-hearted one, "those three tramps I've locked up want to play whist, so I've come out to look for a fourth."—London Answers.

First Inklings on New Spring Styles Leak Out. Skirt and Jacket to Replace 3-Piece Costume

In the new models being prepared for the advance spring season, the skirt and jacket suit, thus far, stands out as the prominent feature, replacing the three-piece costume, says a special from the Paris office of the Dry Goods Economist.

The next feature of importance to signal is three-quarter length box coats, cut straight or circular. Other than this, few radical changes either in silhouette or styles are noted.

The average length of all tailored skirts at Lavin's and elsewhere is from six to seven inches off the ground.

Appliques of wool velours on silk crepe are conspicuous at this house.

Coat dresses are prominently featured as are skirt and jacket suits. Practically no three-piece costumes are shown; although all suits are featured with slip-over-the-head, hip length blouses in crepe de Chine or in satin.

Soutaching is extensively employed as a trimming on both dresses and tailored garments.

Bernard's lines are long and straight with very slim hips, and with a circular treatment of the dress or suit skirt through the lower half across the sides and front. Backs of all skirts and coats remain flat.

This silhouette promises to be the one generally adopted in Paris for the spring, namely, long straight line from the shoulder to the knee with fullness through the lower section.

Two-piece suits are the marked feature in tailored costumes of Bernard.

The tailored dresses all are in coat styles, and in many of them the bloused effect is giving place to bolero effects. This replacing of the blouse by the bolero is among the important features to be noted in the development of spring styles, and the bolero effects on tailored dresses will doubtless be a marked note this spring; but there are no indications that the bolero as a separate garment will be launched.

"Oh, he's just lazy!" said the man.

"Lazy!" said Mr. Green. "But laziness surely wouldn't make him cry like that!"

THE SPORTING TICKER

A Column Devoted to Clean Athletics and Sportsmanship, written by one who loves the Game.

WOMEN IN ATHLETICS

The past few years have seen great changes in regards to the status of the gentler sex in the athletic world. Be it said with all fairness that her presence as a soccer player, sprinter, broad jumper, billiard player or second baseman provokes much the same comment as would naturally be directed at Barnum and Bailey's universal entertainment were it to come to town. We have seen women play soccer, baseball and run on the track, and we went to see them along with several hundred others just because it was a novelty—a sensation or whatever you want to call it. A woman can't play baseball correctly and never will. It simply doesn't come natural to her. The same is the case with running or jumping. True she may develop plenty of speed in short sprints, but her natural development cannot withstand the punishment of sustained exertion. The same goes for soccer and many other so-called strenuous sports.

But the woman is slowly but surely getting into the swing of things athletic. No more does she sit at home and sew and read and cook day in and day out. She swims, golfs, rides, plays hockey, tennis and basketball and, on the average, does them all well. Here are a few sports in which she is given the chance to excel. Her opportunities here are unlimited. And the very fact that the women of America are taking to athletics is a sure sign of a healthy, progressive, vital nation. More power to them.

In speaking of athletically inclined women, we must not forget those who withstand the rigors of Bridge—our greatest local indoor sport. More tricks to them.

THE UNSEEN HERO

When we were kids, the only position we would think of playing on the angels was quarterback or halfback. Here we would play or there wouldn't be any team. Why? The answer is simple enough. At these positions we were always in view; our actions were always watched; our chances to get into the limelight were unlimited. We carried the ball kicked off, threw forward passes with splendid intentions but mighty poor direction, and when not doing anything in particular sponged our faces ceremoniously with one eye on the sidelines to see who was looking. Possibly a little overdrawn, but essentially, this was the spirit of the kid in football. Memories of their beloved Dick Merriwell, who scored more touchdowns for dear old Yale than any other hero, living or dead, inspired them and the greatest ambition of all was to run 70 yards for a touchdown some day.

But, strange as it may seem, a football team is not entirely made up of Merriwells and Johnny Poes. It is made up of eleven huskies, each of whom has a part and an important one in each play. When one man fails in his duty, the effect is felt immediately. There is no stalling in this game. If you can't play your position, there's no use in trying to bluff your way through. But to our story.

Crouching down there in the forward line, sore from repeated battering, weak and dizzy from innumerable kicks in the head, the Guard snuggles against his center, drives his cleats into the soft earth and waits. Presently the two lines meet and he sees through a maze of bodies the plunging back coming into his "hole." He lowers his head and charges, blindly, instinctively. Comes a sickening thud, the shock of many bodies passing over him—the whistle blows. As the pile untangles, the ball lies a few yards behind him, its progress stopped by the secondary defense. Grimly, silently, the guard drops into his position and waits. Two, three, four men hit him at a time, he goes down, but with him this time goes all the interference. Again he drops on his knees and waits for the charge. Over and over again, always ripping and tearing his way into the oncoming attack. Many things happen in the center of a line which the referee never sees. All these and more he takes without a murmur; still he plays the game and sees it through. No cheers and songs for him. No feminine hearts flutter at the mention of his name. He is just the guard, the defender of the first line, the original shock absorber, the man who takes a beating and smiles, who fights until his whole body is one big bruise. Next time you see a game, watch him in action. He does not stand out in the turmoil; in fact, there are minutes when you can't even see him. But he is in there all the time, giving his best for his team. And when you stop to think it over, isn't that the thing that makes up a winning outfit—eleven men—and all giving their best.

Within the space of a week or two, the Post will take great pleasure in introducing to its readers, one of our greatest local authorities on all things sporty. His name is Oscar. Oscar will contribute each week a newsy letter to this department. After much persuasion, we have finally received his reluctant consent to lend his expert opinions to this page. into those seconds. Four Washington forward passes skimmed through the air any of which would have been good for a score. All were batted down by desperate Delaware backs and the day was saved. Cavanaugh, Keenan, the mammoth guard, and Carroll were the bright stars for the Chestertown warriors. Cavanaugh used splendid judgment throughout the fracas and always inspired by his example. Captain Jack Williams and Elliott, though badly bumped several times during the game bore the brunt of the offense for the Blue and Gold. Steel, Weggenman and Jackson played hard and impressed. MacDonald entered the game late but his kicking helped in the last quarter. Among the linemen, the work of Goffigon, Donaldson and Magaw featured throughout the game. The lineup:

Delaware	Washington
Magaw	L.E. Reiger
McKelvie	L.T. Duffy
Akin	L.G. Monaghan
Donaldson	C. Kelley
Cole	R.G. Keenan
Goffigon	R.T. Fiore

FORT DUPONT BEATS CAMP VAIL TEAM 13-7

Over 4000 People See Game at Delaware City, Sunday. Fort Backfield Stars

Before the largest crowd to witness a Sunday football in Delaware City for many years, the Fort DuPont football team downed Camp Vail in a Service series between teams in the Second Corps Area by the score of 13-7. Both teams played splendid football and showed signs of many days of good hard practice. Although outweighed by the visitors, DuPont displayed a better knowledge of the fine points of the game, and this, coupled with the aggressive offense presented by their backfield more than made up for the lack of poundage.

The first score came in the second quarter. Madore, Henry and Otto carried the ball on a march from mid-field on straight line bucks and short end runs. With the ball on the ten-yard line, Otto hit center for the necessary distance. Henry failed to make the extra point. Again in the fourth quarter, by a series of brilliant thrusts through the visiting line, often for long gains, the pigskin was carried far down into Camp Vail's territory, this time Madore making the touchdown on a wide end run.

Camp Vail's only score came as the result of a sensational forward pass, Mack to Portney, which gained sixty-five yards and placed the visitors within easy scoring distance. They were not to be denied this time, and on the next play, Kelly crossed the line for the score. Mack kicked goal. The allround work of Captain Mack

NEWARK HIGH CONTINUES ITS WINNING STREAK

Dover High Falls Victim to 26-0 Defeat. Visitor's Defense Crumbles

BIG CROWD AT GAME

Dover High proved a most worthy opponent for Newark's fast flying gridiron warriors last Friday afternoon in three of the four periods, but in the last session of twelve minutes they were routed and tasted the bitter cup of defeat, 26-0.

The remarkable fight put up by the Down-State boys in the first half was a source of great surprise to Newark rooters. Keeping in mind the 52-0 setback handed Dover earlier in the season, they were all set for another walkaway. But Dover absolutely refused to be the party of the second part and they played a desperate fighting game. The only score in this half came when C. Hopkins broke away on an end run and aided by clever interference in taking out the secondary defense, he crossed the line after a thirty-yard sprint. This break raised Newark's morale considerably, and they went right after the Capital City team tooth and nail.

As the game went on both teams evidently felt the result of lack of practice. Newark's plays in particular were ragged in spots, while Dover seemed content to stay on the defensive.

In the final quarter, Newark for the first time opened up her forward pass attack and scored twice. Two other attempts failed because of the inability of the receiving ends to cling to the oval. The other touchdown was scored on a dive off-tackle by M. Hopkins.

In the first half Dover was on even terms with her opponents in the matter of first downs, but gradually weakened as the game went on. The battle was clean and hard fought and provided ample entertainment for the large crowd of fans. Few penalties were inflicted.

The all round playing of Maloney, Dover's little right end, was one of the bright spots in the fracas. This boy will bear watching. Hayes, Teat and Hammond also distinguished themselves. For Newark, the whole backfield played a stellar variety of ball, at all times, however, showing plainly their lack of practice. The two weeks layoff in the middle of the season seemed to dull their attack and slow the whole team up.

The locals now hold a clear title to the championship of the upper part of the State and it looks from a distance that Laurel will have to be beaten for the big banner. The lineup:

Newark	Dover
Crompton	L.E. Brenner
Armstrong	L.T. Massey
Brown	L.G. Wright
Grant	C. Gafford
Strahorn	R.G. Hoch
Manns	R.T. Hammond
Mayer	R.E. Maloney
Townsend	Q.B. Hilyard
Hubert	L.H.B. W. Maloney
M. Hopkins	R.H.B. Teat
C. Hopkins	F.B. Hayes

Touchdowns—R. Hopkins, C. Hopkins, Crompton and Mayer. Drop kicked goals from touchdowns—Armstrong 2. Referee—Dantz, of Delaware. Umpire—Perree. Head linesman—Hopkins. Time of quarters—10 and 12 minutes.

featured the game. The visitor's clever generalship and his individual efforts kept his team in the running all the time. For the Fort boys, Madore, Otto and Henry bore the offensive burden and bore it well. The line, though outweighed, fought hard and consistently and showed the fact that they were in shape for a grueling contest. The lineup:

Fort duPont	Camp Vail
Nowak	left tackle
Rowan	left guard
Condon (Capt.)	center
Timko	right guard
Achromovitz	right tackle
Matthews	right end
Otto	quarterback
Henry	right halfback
Nichens	fullback

NEWARK DROPS HARD GAME TO NINTH WARD TEAM, 3-0. POOR DECISIONS HURT LOCAL HOPES

Wilmington Team Lucky to Win is Consensus of Opinion. Local Gridders Show Great Improvement. In Offensive Play

TWICE COME WITHIN SCORING DISTANCE

The local gridiron gladiators hooked up with the fast Ninth Ward team of Wilmington on the High School field last Saturday but the cards seemed stacked against them and they came out on the short end of a 3-0 score. It was a heart-breaking game to lose because of the fact that Newark clearly outplayed the visitors at many stages of the game. Both teams relied upon their aerial attacks for yardage.

In the second quarter, Ninth Ward thrilled the crowd by a steady march down the field on line plunges and sweeping end runs by Stevens and Collins. At the twenty yard line Newark stopped them cold. Salters was called back from the line and made good his attempt at a field goal. From then on the game resulted in a battle between a team desperate for a score and a team determined to hold that slender margin of victory. The first half ended with Newark in possession of the oval on the visitors' five yard line and rearing to take it across when the whistle blew for the half.

Then later in the game Newark threatened the Ninth Ward goal on three separate and distinct occasions but failed to push it across.

Several comments were heard during the game relative to the poor work of the officials. Newark was not even represented in this department, all the work being given to Ninth Ward adherents. Many penalties were missed as a result.

Hoffecker and Keeley played bangup football all the way. The addition of the latter player will greatly strengthen the local outfit for the remaining games. The team work and fight displayed by the entire team was noticeable to everyone, and it looks as if Newark will have a real team of high calibre in a week or two. The lineup:

Newark	Ninth Ward
C. Cornog	L.E. H. Salters
Smith	L.T. Cianfarino
Robinson	L.G. Roach
Cunningham	C. Eckrich
Crow	R.G. Harriett
J. Cornog	R.E. R. Salters
Reed	R.T. Nadolny
Rhodes	Q.B. McBride
Watkins	L.H.B. Collins
Keeley	R.H.B. Lardeer
Hoffecker	F.B. Stevens

Substitutions—Newark: W. Cunningham for Robinson, Heiseman for Crow, Claringbold for J. Cornog; Ninth Ward: Conner for McBride, Ferne for Eckrich, McBride for Conner, Eckrich for Ferne. Time of quarters, two 10 and two 12 minutes. Referee—B. Jencki. Umpire—Watkins, Newark. Head linesman—Lux. Field goal—H. Salters.

OVER 500 FIGHT FANS SEE ELKTON BOUTS

Battling Barnes Returned Winner in Wind-up. Traub Beats Chaney

McGUINNESS DISAPPOINTS

POST DECISIONS AT ELKTON, FRIDAY NIGHT

FIRST BOUT, 6 ROUNDS
Pete Devine won from Soldier Johnson.

SECOND BOUT, 6 ROUNDS
Flinkey Kauffman outpointed Bobby Fletcher.

THIRD BOUT, 6 ROUNDS
Johnny Traub beat Young Chaney.

SEMI-WINDUP, 6 ROUNDS
Billy Carney won easily from Bucky McGuiness.

WIND-UP, 8 ROUNDS
Battling Barnes won from Eddie McLaughlin.

The first of a series of boxing shows to be held during the coming season was staged in the Elkton Armory last Friday night before over 500 spectators and proved to be a great success especially to the promoters. The big hall was crowded before the first bout came on and from the great interest displayed, Bill McGowan should have no fears for future displays of the gentle art.

The wind-up presented one Battling Barnes of Wilmington who squared off with Eddie McLaughlin of Philadelphia. The McLaughlin person stayed on the defensive most of the eight rounds, although the possessor of a mean right hand, which he hooked to the face occasionally but never followed up. Too much holding marred an otherwise fast and earnest battle. Barnes was given the popular decision at the end of the milling.

Two Wilmington mittmen faced each other in the semi-windup, which by the way, was the tamest bout of the evening. The principals were announced as Billy Carney and Bucky McGuiness. Much was expected of the latter and he had a host of rooters pulling for him. Shortly after the opening gong, the fracas developed into a tiresome lead-and-clinch entertainment which seemed to please the fans like flies in the milk. Carney was the aggressor all the way and won by a couple of city blocks. Frankly, the showing of McGuiness was a keen disappointment to the fans. A well-built boy with plenty of hitting strength concealed in his shoulders and nimble on his feet, he went into a defensive shell and refused the urgent demands of Referee "Pop" O'Brien to "get in there and fight." Whether he was afraid of the Carney right or had a date following the fuss is not known. Anyhow, there was no danger in the milling for him. Carney tried hard all the way, but did not risk breking his hands on the maze of elbows and shoulders presented to him. He won easily.

The best bout of the evening was the third preliminary between Johnny Traub of Chester and Young Chaney of Philadelphia. Both boys slugged their way through the six sessions to their hearts content. Early in the bout, the left hooks of Chaney had the Chester entry in trouble. Traub, however, changed his attack in the third and stayed inside the Chaney leads, meanwhile delivering sufficient punishment to the Philadelphia's mid-section to slow him up quite a bit. As the bout went on, these ripping body blows from clinches had their effect and Chaney was a mighty tired young man at the final bell. Traub showed that he can take a world of punishment and deliver no small amount himself. The popular decision seemed greatly in favor of Traub.

The other bouts were close and plenty of action was displayed. The opener brought together Soldier Johnson and Pete Devine, both scaling slightly above the lightweight limit. Devine punched his way to an easy victory after the first round, which was all Johnson. The second act saw Flinkey Kauffman outpoint Bobby Fletcher in a fast six-rounder. Both boys looked fit and no heavy punishment was meted out, both depending on their speed and science to avoid playing the role of gentle receiver.

Referee Frank "Pop" O'Brien, well known Philadelphia referee, deserves a great deal of credit for the way in which he handled the boys in the ring. The old-timer hasn't missed many champs in his string of years in the officiating game, and his work Friday night was all that could be desired.

the other two counties, Newark and Dover.

Neither have lost a game this season and at the start of the season played a 12 to 12 tie game in Laurel. Both teams have developed considerably since then and a fine game is expected. The game will be played under the rules of the Delaware Interscholastic Athletic Association which has selected as referee J. E. Gallagher, of Wilmington; Joe Rothrock, coach of the Milford High School team and former Delaware College star, will umpire, and Robert Livingston, athletic director of the Milton High School, will be head linesman. Dr. Charles A. Cannon and Major Tanner will be time-keepers.

Both teams are said to be in good shape although Georgetown has lost the services of its quarterback, Karl Hurley, who dislocated a knee in a game Friday. Coach Howard Cooke has not given out the lineup of the Georgetown team.

Sportsmen from all over lower Delaware will be in Georgetown today to see the game, and it is rumored that a party from Newark and Dover will come down to get a line on the two teams, one of which will be their opponent.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

On next Sunday morning a special service will take place in the First Presbyterian Church, at which time the church will be re-dedicated. Rev. George Herman Fickes, at present Professor of Religious Education at Lafayette College, will deliver the sermon.

The church was closed during the major part of last summer and underwent extensive repairs both inside and out. Beside being renovated and painted, the entire interior was re-decorated. The wall decorations hold a particular appeal and is very beautifully done. The lighting system is now of the most modern indirect type, designed by the National X-ray Co. of Chicago and installed by T. R. Jacobs. Also a new heating plant was installed. Not in many years has the old church looked so fresh and bright. The audience next Sunday will, no doubt, be a large one.
