A play "The Trial of William Penn" was given by members of the Hockessin Friends First Day School last Sunday morning assisted by Allen Hunt of Lansdowne, a member of the Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Mr. Hunt took the title role.

Alfred Morse was the narrator, and others from Hockessin taking part were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leedom, Lewis Palmer, Hastings Carey, Linwood Walters, and Stephen Morse.

The fellowship and publicity committee headed by Mrs. Joseph Han-num edited the bi-monthly news letter last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Buffington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellis Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Phipps, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Palmer were hosts and hostesses for the January supper meeting of the Friends Fellowship.

Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church

The budget of $33,607 was adopted, increasing salaries of the student assistant pastor and the church secretary, and officers for 1961 were elected at the annual meeting of the congregation and corporation last week. The pastor was given a car allowance of $400.

New officers are James A. Alexander, J. Robert Frederick, and Fred D. Riblett, Sr., elders; Mrs. Arthur B. Eastman, Jr., Martha Whitcraft, John H. Glancy, Jr., Mrs. Marion L. Green, H. Elizabeth Hancock, and William H. Martin, deacons; Merritt K. Armor, W. Marvin Shane, and Warner W. Naudain, trustees.

The church received 109 new members last year for a total membership of 732.

Last Sunday, the new elders were installed, deacons ordained; and trustees recognized.

Martha Circle of the Women's Association is meeting today for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Brittingham. Miriam Circle will meet tonight with Mrs. Fred Gibson in Cooper Farms.

Starting next Sunday at 4 p.m. and continuing for 10 weeks, a communicants class will be conducted by the pastor at the church.

A Parent-Teacher Association was organized last week at the new Lora Little Elementary School in the Stanton district with 200 members. Officers are George Creighton, Jr., president; William D. Muto, vice-president; Mrs. Blaine L. Waite and Mrs. Carl M. Brock, recording and corresponding secretaries; J. Richard Swanson, treasurer. Raymond Warner of Lime-stone Acres, served as chairman during the unit's organization.

Medical School Unlikely At U. D. Perkins Predicts

"In view of limited population, probable resident enrollments and costs and other growing responsibilities of the state with respect to the university, prospects for a publicly-supported medical school are not good," Dr. John A. Perkins, president of the University of Delaware observes in his recently published annual report.

As an alternative to the much-discussed medical school proposal, Perkins recommends "a much more modest step in the same direction and one in which fewer dollars might make an even greater contribution to the health sciences."

He calls for $600,000 to renovate and enlarge Wolf Hall into a true life-science building and the addition of specialists in human physiology, cytology and micro-anatomy to teach at the graduate level and conduct research.

Explaining this proposal, Dr. Perkins states, "The shortage of these specialists in sophisticated medical research is quite as severe as the shortage of practicing physicians."

Some of the most phenomenal advances in medical science in the last generation are owing more to these high-level research workers than to any other single group on the life-science team. For these urgent reasons, the University of Delaware should, through private assistance and state support, be enabled to make these advances."

Dr. Perkins considers high costs and limited enrollments factors most detrimental to establishment of a medical school at the University of Delaware.

I have not observed men's honesty to increase with their riches.

"A bargain these days is anything that's only slightly overpriced."

—Franklin P. Jones

DELAWARE TAX SHARE

Delaware taxpayers will be required to pay some $453,040,000 in federal taxes as their share in the cost of the federal spending program of $80.9 billion proposed by President Eisenhower for the federal fiscal year 1961-62, according to an estimate today by the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce. This estimate was based on the state chamber's calculations that Delaware taxpayers bear .56 per cent of all federal taxes.

Robert Miller, principal of this school, introduced members of his teaching staff and discussed plans for the school's administration. Mr. Miller indicated that the school would soon be needing additional classrooms though only opened in September, 1960.

SOPH. SENIOR SCHOLARS

University of Delaware sophomores and seniors compared favorably with college students across the nation in standardized tests of subject matter achievement administered last year, Dr. John A. Perkins reports.

Prize winners in the annual fire essay contest sponsored by the Hockessin Fire Company at the Hockessin and Yorklyn Schools have been announced. Mary Alice McDermott and Barbara Chambers placed first and second at Hockessin. Joseph Bennett took first prize at Yorklyn and Dallas Roberts, second.

Beginning Feb. 1, an eight-week refresher course in fire-fighting will be held at the Hockessin fire hall for all members. Olan Thomas of Newark will be the instructor as-

"Miss Welcome"

Suzanne Vincent

At a recent planning meeting of the Miss Delaware Pageant committee, Suzanne Vincent of Lewes was named Miss Welcome for the 14th Annual Delmarva Chicken Festival.

Earl S. Hawk, director of the Miss Delaware Pageants, reports that Miss Vincent, a nurse at the Beebe Hospital, represented Lewes in the Miss Delmarva XIII Pageant last year, placing third.

As Miss Welcome, she will appear at local contests and other poultry functions throughout the Delmarva Peninsula to officially extend invitations to all to attend the 1961 festival.

Six Teaching Machines Slated For Test In "Programmed Education" At U. of D.

Within the next several months, University of Delaware faculty and students will test new theories of "programmed education" with six teaching machines. At present, four are assigned to the school of arts and science and one each to the schools of engineering and education.

Acknowledged leader in the field of machine teaching is Harvard psychologist B. F. Skinner who presented his theories to University of Delaware's deans and directors at a special meeting some two years ago.

The new device which has proved successful in experimental trials at high school and college levels, is about the size of a portable typewriter.

In the machine are several small windows. One shows a question, another permits space for the student's answer.

After the student has written his response, a flick of a lever reveals the correct answer and, if successful, the student proceeds to the next question. Most machine programs available are designed to stimulate the student to continued achievement through successful responses, each correct answer offering encouragement and leading him at his own pace to the next problem.

Best results in machine teaching thus far have been achieved in basic courses in English, mathematics, foreign languages, logic and spelling. For the professor this means relief from routine instruction in fundamental areas which the student can grasp for himself. For the student, the incentive to master routine material at his own greatest possible speed is the important factor.

Foremost among problems facing educators at all levels is the lack of course material already developed for such machines. Only a few courses have been adapted for the machines and threaded into them. Development of an effective course is far more demanding than the conventional classroom approach to the same material. It must be done or the machines stand idle.

Dr. G. Bruce Dearing, dean of the school of arts and science, has indicated that programs in spelling and grammar as a part of freshman English, already are being developed for Delaware undergraduates under the supervision of Dr. Edward

H. Rosenberry, associate professor of English.

With a critical shortage of teachers facing higher education in the decade ahead, every device that will assist the professor must be utilized. Although teaching machines and their programs are still in the experimental stage, preliminary reports are encouraging.

It has been demonstrated that they enable the classroom teacher to be more productive and efficient by putting aside repetitious and routine responsibilities for more challenging assignments.

Herb-Broiled Chicken

1 broiler-fryer chicken, quartered
1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
Salt and pepper

Juice of 1/4 lemon
2 teaspoons melted butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon each, basil and rosemary

Sprinkle chicken with monosodium glutamate, salt and pepper. Line broiler pan with aluminum foil. Turn temperature control to "broil" and place broiler pan 7 to 8 inches from heat. Place chicken, skin side down, on pan. Combine remaining ingredients; brush half the herb mixture over chicken. Broil 30 minutes. Turn chicken and brush with remaining mixture. Broil 15 to 20 minutes longer. Yield: 4 servings, 275 calories per serving.

Chicken Kayos Calories

An experienced homemaker keeps her family well fed at little cost. But a smart one keeps them healthfully slender too.

The National Broiler Council advises these keepers of the key to health that chicken is lower in calories than most other meats. It is a prime source of high quality protein, and in year-round supply. To budget jugglers it is low in cost, and to all who have known the monotony of dieting, it is deliciously versatile.

Adaptable to family dining or entertaining, broiler-fryer chickens can be simmered, broiled, braised, or baked with equally favorable results. Try this festive dish for Herb-Broiled Chicken. It will serve four people generously and yields only 275 calories per chicken quarter.

THE KEY

TOO MUCH

The federal tax rate on corporations with a taxable income of more than $25,000 a year is 52 per cent. This fact based Senator John Marshall Butler of Maryland to point that the government "derives more revenue from an enterprise than the investors who risk their capital to provide for our people and the goods and services that they need."

The Saturday Evening Post says in an editorial: "The statistics on total unemployment make no distinctions among diverse situations. The sole support of a large family to find work counts no more heavily in the figures than a younger looking for a baby-sitting job. It is even possible for persons to be counted as unemployed when the head of a family loses his job and the housewife and two children in college go looking for work. Among the labor force many on temporary or seasonal work who have been laid off for a time, are changing jobs or don't really want to work."

Industry's policy of arbitrary retirement at 65 is slowly changing, according to an Industrial Relations News study. Of 30 major corporations revealed that 25 per cent have instituted flexible retirement policies, and another 25 per cent make frequent exceptions to the 65-year

It would seem that young people ambitious to become part of the United States would do well to study law—our presidents have been lawyers and President-Elect Kennedy, a graduate of Harvard Law School, will be No. 24.

Local Businessman Suggests "Answer" To Stop Inflation

Manager Leonard Dukart Of Newark Drive-In Holds Line With Quality, Price

Newark businessman Leonard Dukart believes he has found the answer to inflation. What's more, he has tested and approved his theories with the most basic sales item in the United States—meat and potatoes.

Dukart's answer to inflation is simple—"better efficiency and more volume."

At his McDonald's drive-in at Capitol Trail and McKees Lane Len Dukart maintains low pre-war price for hamburgers and French fries by what he terms "efficiency and volume sales methods." Standards of quantity and quality have been maintained despite slow but certain upward price trends in recent years.

"It's also puzzling to some people, who have become so accustomed to inflation that they regard as suspect anything that maintains low prices over the years. But there's nothing mysterious or underhanded about how McDonald's maintains prices and battles inflation."

"We started in business on the assumption that hamburger and French fries are without question the single most popular restaurant order in America today. We sought a way to deliver that order most efficiently at the lowest possible price. And by careful planning, by being a master of doing just one thing only, we have been able to beat inflation," Dukart concludes.

The local operator of McDonald's, which has 225 drive-ins in 31 states and eventually has a goal of 1,000 units throughout the country, believes that inflation is one of the great threats facing America.

"Americans can be free of this threat if we will buckle down and learn to be more efficient, so that we can give each other more of better quality for our money," Len Dukart concludes.

Let a human being throw the engines of his soul into the making of something and the instinct of workmanship will take care of his honesty. —Walter Lippmann

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton

U. of D. Agricultural Extension Service

Do you wonder just what you are going to use to fill the lunch box? The same food for lunch day after day would make anyone's appetite lag. This week you can consider part of your problem solved.

Grocery stores have a good variety of fresh fruits available and both quality and quantity are pleasing. Oranges and tangerines have both improved in flavor and are larger in size. For those who like fresh grapefruit sections included in their lunch box, this fruit is quite reasonable this weekend. Prices range from three for 25c to three bags (5-6 grapefruit per bag) for $1.

Apples are in ample supply, however prices are a bit higher than they were this time last year. Bananas are reasonably priced and particularly so during the week-end.

Tokay grapes from California are available and so are plums.

For something to really perk up a lagging winter appetite try the Spanish plum: now at many fruit counters.

For an old fashioned New England boiled dinner, all of the ingredients are good buys this week-end—cabbage, white potatoes and ham.

Cabbage continues to be plentiful, excellent in quality and low in price.

White potatoes have dropped a few pennies this week and of course pork is in good supply.

Other vegetables that are good to buy this weekend are carrots, celery, radishes, lettuce, tomatoes, onions and a few leafy greens.

Again the salad bowl is filled with good buys, so serve salads often, particularly the fresh raw vegetable type salad.

Pork is a feature item in many stores. Pork loins, pork hams, pork shoulders, bacon and sausage are all on "special sale."

Beef remains fairly plentiful and good buys can be found. Check ground beef, steaks and pot roasts. Veal is about the same in price as it has been.

A few stores are featuring leg of lamb.

Broiler-fryers continue to be in good supply and prices are favorable. Check stewing and roasting chickens as well as Cornish hens.

Speaking of Money...

"How one family saved big money"

Speaking for the Wilmington Savings Fund Society

This is the true story of a man who discovered that he used to save more money back when times were not so good and when he earned less. He decided to do something drastic about it. The solution he came up with was drastic, all right. But it was also novel, and a lot of fun. Besides... it worked.

Bill Donohue's solution to the problem of saving less money though earning more was simply this:

At dinner one night his teen-age daughter needed him... as charmingly as teen-age girls can... about the boat they had been going to buy for two years. Bill grinned right back and said, "You ate, drank and wore that boat before I could save the money for it. If your generation had any idea of the value of a dollar, we'd have had a boat last year."

Janet said, "I suppose you're going to tell us how tough things were back in the depression again, Dad." Bill said, "No ma'am. You wouldn't understand it, and you never could have survived it."

"If you could, we could," she laughed. Bill got serious suddenly. He said, "I'll bet you a boat you can't."

Janet said, "You're one. How do we start?" Well... to shorten the story, the Donohues family staged a mock depression, and they had a lot of fun doing it. Here are some of the steps they took. Some big. Some small.

First, they found out that they were buying duplicate newspapers in the family. They cut back to one... saved 60 cents a week. Second, Mrs. Donohue found that she was running to the store at least once a day, sometimes twice. Not only was she using up extra gasoline, but she was passing up the price advantage to be gained by purchasing larger lots. She began to buy certain groceries by the case, and she consolidated her shopping trips. At the bank they opened a special savings account labeled "boat."

Next, the family was paying delivery charges for dry cleaning and so forth. They now picked up their own supplies.

The project began to pay off so directly that they moved into larger areas of economizing. The two girls learned to make their own rain coats. When they did, Bill Donohue put $64 in the boat fund. Mrs. Donohue usually bought a lot of plants for the garden in the spring. This year she raised her own seedlings from seeds in a box in the basement. Donohue put $25 in the boat fund.

Vacation time, they passed up their annual trip to the lake, took daily excursions to the zoo, the historical sights, the coal unloading docks to watch the boats. They went out to dinner six nights and took in four local little theatre productions. After the best vacation of their lives, Donohue put $280 in the boat fund.

Donohue always got a shoe shine on his way to work. He began shining his own, put 35 cents a day in a milk bottle. At lunch, Donohue always bought the regular three course lunch from the right hand side of the menu. Now he began to order a la carte. That way he put 40 cents a day in the milk bottle, ate less and felt better. Jimmy washed the car every Saturday, and they put $200 a week in the boat fund. Well, the list goes on and on, but they had fun staging this home-made depression. And they bought their boat in 13 months!

At the Savings Fund our business is to help people save regularly. Why not start a savings program with us and make it your Savings Fund, too. Your money will earn interest at the current rate of 3 1/2%, even in a Special Purpose account. You can open an account with as little as one dollar, with full passbook privileges at any office regardless of the one at which you opened your account. You can even sit comfortably at home and bank by mail if you wish. Won't you drop in soon?

Bill Conrad's Yellowjackets Face Dynahs Here Friday Night With 1-4 League Log

With last Friday night's 50-36 win over the visiting Dickinsons followed by a 54-47 loss away at William Penn last Tuesday night, Coach Bill Conrad's Yellowjackets face P. S. duPont's Dynahs in a home stand here tomorrow night at 8 o'clock with a 1-3 record in Blue Hen Conference competition.

Newark's varsity cagers have an overall record of 3-4 with opening wins over North East and a squad of NHS alumni, while P. S. duPont has a 3-1 conference record.

Alan Ely paced Coach Conrad's cagers with 16 points against Dickinson and 19 points in the loss to the Colonials at New Castle, while Arnold Saunders was runner-up in the Newark scoring department on both occasions—15 against the Dickinson squad and 11 against William Penn.

The Yellowjackets outscored Dickinson 12-6 in the opening period; were matched with 11 points in the second quarter; held a 9-8 edge in the third, and outscored their guests 19-11 in the final period.

Ely accounted for six field goals and four foul points in his 16-point total, while Saunders scored with six field shots and three from the free throw line.

At William Penn the Yellowjackets were very much in the ball game all the way, with the score tied at 10 points at halftime.

The Colonials outscored their visitors 14-11 in the third quarter and outpointed Newark 21-17 in the final period for their 54-47 victory. William Penn's second against three losses.

Kim Shoop was high man for the Colonials with eight field goals and six free, good ones for a total of 22 points.

The Yellowjackets play away next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock with Wilmington High School's Red Devil cagers.

POSTED

Billy the Kid Murray again had trouble in unlimbering a six-gun in time, and for the second time in a second successive season, missed taking a beautiful bobcat trophy near his father's hunting lodge in neighboring Pennsylvania. Formerly and less poetically known as Penn's Woods, the Keystone State has plenty of woods remaining in the wilderness area of the Murray lodge—along with deer, turkey, and at least one bay lynx assuming that Quick Draw McGraw Murray encountered the same cat twice.

On the first occasion, a year ago, Bill Murray unholstered the revolver after the bobcat had bounded from the woodland trail into the heavy brush. Plunging into the woods in pursuit, Mr. Murray was fortunate enough to see the cat again, crouched in golden-eyed, statuesque symmetry on top of a big stump. A combination of breathlessness and excitement contributed little to the gunslinger's accuracy, and the bobcat bounded away—happily, with more surprise than irritation—when the pistol bullet crashed into the wooden stump below.

On this most recent occasion, however, the bobcat failed to reappear after offering the Bulldog a first chance draw on the same Pennsylvania path.

WSBA BANQUET

The annual sports banquet conducted last night by the Wilmington Sports Writers and Broadcasters Assn. was as usual, a most enjoyable affair, and we offer our congratulations to the WSBA on the success of their big undertaking.

And the table reserved for the Newark Sportsmen has moved over the years from a dim location j-u-s-t inside the door, close to the speakers' table.

It was a pleasure to talk with Danny Murtagh—and the manager of the world champion Pirates is the same grand guy we talked with two years ago at the WSBA banquet when he was on the hard way up.

Delaware Defeats Ursinus By 91-85 In 5-4 Campaign

Capt. Jack Baly Scores 24 As Irv Wisniewski's Cagers Win MAC Contest

Coach Irv Wisniewski's Blue Hens moved above the 500 mark last Monday night in Collegeville, Pa., beating Ursinus, 91-85.

Led by Capt. Jack Baly, who scored his season's high of 24 points, Delaware enjoyed an early lead, but the fight off a valiant effort by the home team in the closing stages.

Baly pushed his season total to 158 and 17.5 average in nine games. The Blue Hens pulled in front 38-12, midway of the first half, but when Coach Wisniewski rested his starting team, the Bears closed the gap to 51-37 by halftime.

Delaware again increased the margin in the second half, with high scoring Nate Cloud and Tom Adams on personal fouls.

With six minutes to go, Ursinus closed the spread to five points, but the Hens were able to hold the lead.

The triumph was Delaware's fifth in nine games, while Ursinus absorbed its ninth setback in 11 games. Cloud was second to Baly in the scoring with 20 points.

In the preliminary, Delaware's freshmen won their sixth game in eight outings, beating the Ursinus JV's, 81-72.

Pete Cloud sparked the win with 28 points.

The Hens courtmen dropped decisions to St. Joseph's and Rutgers last week and tripped Swarthmore, 79-62, to even their record at 4-4, with one win and all four losses in Middle Atlantic Conference play.

Ray Lynch Leads Five Points Win Over Colony Inn

Undeclared Five Points edged Colony Inn 50-46 last Thursday evening in Newark Recreation Association Men's Senior League basketball play.

Paced by Ray Lynch's 15 points, the well-balanced Pointers led all the way in handling Colony their first loss of the young campaign.

In using a tight man-for-man defense, Five Points held Colony's Clyde Louth to three points while the other half of Colony's ace duo, Dick Gies, was held to 12.

Five Points virtually controlled the backboards as they swept to a 23-20 halftime lead behind Lynch's rebounding and shooting.

Charlie Halfen contributed some fine ball handling and 10 points to the winning cause, and Buck Peterson led the losers with 14 points.

In the second game of the evening, Rising Sun garnered their first win of the season with a 54-42 victory over winless Tidewater.

Harry Anderson, Cincinnati Red outlander, again paced the winners with 20 points while Stabnau scored 16 for the losers.

Rising Sun led all the way, with a 21-12 bulge at the half.

Tonight's action finds Tidewater against Colony Inn at 7 o'clock and Five Points vs. Rising Sun at 8:30 p.m. in the Ogletown Junior High School gym.

Contest, were less impressive than the stripers and blues concerning size for the species.

However, we'll settle any day for the 8-lb. 10-oz. weakfish or winter trout recorded by Tom Carvis of the East End Surf Fishing Club, Riverhead, N. Y., on Oct. 7.

The Delaware Board of Game and Fish Commissioners urges all owners to license their dogs as soon as possible. 1961 dog licenses may be purchased at most sporting goods stores, and at justice of peace offices.

The commission stresses the importance of securely attaching the 1961 red aluminum tag to the dog's collar. It is almost impossible to identify a lost, strayed or stolen dog that is not wearing a current license tag.

A license should be obtained for all dogs over four months of age. In Newark and north of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, a current rabies inoculation is mandatory. Dog owners should consult their immunization certificate for the effective period of the last rabies shot received by their dogs. If this date is before Dec. 31, 1961 your dog will need a rabies vaccination before it will be eligible for licensing in 1961.

Rabies inoculation may be obtained from any veterinarian or at any of the clinics.

The New Castle County Health Unit will schedule rabies clinics during February and March as in previous years.

Bowie To Offer Bonus For Stakes Races With 1961 Meet Slated To Open Jan. 21

Bowie President Donald C. Lillis has worked out a bonus plan for three major stakes events to be contested during the 1961 season opening Jan. 21. A 10 per cent bonus will be awarded to winners of the $100,000 John B. Campbell; $30,000 Governor's Gold Cup and $25,000 Barbara Fritchie, with the proviso that the winning horse is Maryland-bred and owned.

Lillis recommended the bonus idea prior to the Racing Committee's report on Maryland racing in which the body favored a special fund to be used exclusively for Maryland-bred races at the three mile tracks.

The Bowie bonus plan of a 10 per cent award of the winner's net take is an incentive to elevate the Maryland breeding industry and induce better racing.

On the surface, the Bowie bonus plan would appear far-fetched with little opportunity for Maryland owned and bred horses to share in the high stakes racing. However, the plan reveals a high percentage of Maryland-owned and bred horses to take down the winner's share of the three stakes.

In seven previous runnings of the Campbell, Maryland's richest handicaps, three victories were posted by Maryland-breds.

"Bunny" Walter Announces Leaders In Billiards Play

Leaders in the annual Newark Billiards Academy championship tourney have been announced by Charles "Bunny" Walter, with undefeated Neil Beckett, Pete Ballis, Paul Smith and Warren Fournier tied for first place in Class-A competition with two victories each.

Class A contestants with 1-1 records in tourney play are Helmer Johnson, Dan Woods, Bob Lehman, Chun Tweed, Van Johnson, Chris Laskaris, Al Wilson, Nick Sanborn, and Omar Vinson, while Jim White, Walt Martin, and Ren George have lost two each.

Class B handicap leaders with 2-0 records are Lum Thorpe, Bill McCleary, Lou Fisher, Fred Ballanger, Gene Russell, Ron Huff, and Arthur Moore.

Tompkins, Duncan, Gentry Win Honor For Grid Program

The University of Delaware's 1960 football programs were cited for excellence in all phases of production and used as models for demonstration at the National Collegiate Athletic Association conference in Pittsburgh last week.

Delaware's programs were mentioned for excellence in layout and editorial content, the placement of ads and photography work.

Dave Tompkins, university news editor, was editor of the publications; Raymond "Scotty" Duncan was in charge of ad solicitation, and Ellsworth Gentry was the photographer.

Keister, Renn Top McNelis' Jayvees In Two Victories

Newark Junior Varsity Beats Dickinson, Penn Cagers, 40-34, 55-47

Don Keister and Bob Renn paced the Yellowjacket junior varsity cagers of Coach John McNelis to 40-34 and 55-47 victories over the Dickinson and William Penn jayvees in preliminaries to the varsity contests last Friday and Tuesday nights as the Junior Jackets registered three straight wins in a 4-2 season.

The Newark junior varsity will play at home tomorrow night at 6:45 against the P. S. duPont jayvees preceding the varsity game, and meet the Wilmington High junior varsity cagers away next Tuesday night, same time.

In the Dickinson game, Keister scored five field goals and five foul shots for 15 points, with Joe Brothers runner-up in sinking five field shots for 10 points.

Alan Whiteman accounted for three field goals and three from the uncontested line for a total nine.

In whipping William Penn's jayvees, Bob Renn led the Newark scorers with seven field goals for a total of 14 points, while Don Keister was a point off the scoring pace with 13—six field goals and a free one.

Swarthmore Nips Undeclared Skein For Hen Matmen

Coach Gene Watson's University of Delaware varsity wrestling team lost its first match of the season last Tuesday night as the Blue Hens were stopped 20-6 by the visitors from Swarthmore.

The Hen grapplers will wrestle next with mid-year examinations, returning to the gym floor on Feb. 11, at Muhlenberg.

Against Swarthmore, Delaware points were scored by Tony Jeffcott who won a decision in the 137-lb. class, and by unbeaten Co-Capt. Bill Cornwell, who took a decision in the 167-lb. division.

Watson's wrestlers topped Albright, 22-12, at Carpenter Fieldhouse last week on the strength of pins in the heavier classes.

Behind 10-2 at one point, the Hens narrowed the gap and went ahead on a decision by Mike Quillin, 147; pins by co-captains Tom Stanton and Bill Cornwell at 157 and 167; a draw by John Strode at 177, and a pin by Jerry Beaman, heavyweight.

Marcantonio Matmen Score 2nd Shutout In 54-0 Win Over Conrad

Back-to-back shutouts were scored by Coach Andy Marcantonio's Blue Hen Conference wrestling champions of Newark High School as the Yellowjackets whitewashed Conrad's matmen away at Woodcrest last Tuesday afternoon, 54-0.

Last week, Andy Marcantonio's squad set a conference record with a first wrestling shutout victory—over Wilmington High School. And Tuesday's 54-0 whitewash of Conrad's clinchers was the second in a double barrel blast at the record books.

Yellowjacket grapplers who pinned their Conrad opponents for five points each in the Newark scoring total are Dave Muxo, 95-lb. class; Mike McGlinchey, 103; Ed BeLote, 112; Andy Stayton, 120; Frank Scott, 127; Tom Hannagan, 138; Southard Jones, who pinned his opponent in the record time of 49 seconds in the 154-lb. division; Frank BeLote, 154-lb. division; and Gerald Godbey, 160-lb. division.

Three match points for the defeating Conrad's matmen in the 133-lb. division.

Yellowjacket Co-Capt. Stan Shepard took 11 decision points for his team with a 14-5 record. Shepard in the 145-lb. division, and another three for a jacket match total by Charles Priebe in the 154-lb. division.

Coach Marcantonio's Blue Hen junior varsity squad scored three match points for the Blue Hens' 400-yard freestyle relay team, erasing the old school mark by 4.1.

The Hen relay team was composed of Co-Capt. Dan Roosevelt, Newt Watts, Howard Giles, and John Maloney.

At F&M, Roosevelt established a team and pool record in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:25.3, to better his mark of 2:28.8 set last year.

The Hen frosh mermen won their meets at Gettysburg and F&M.

Rawstrom's Hens Set Two Records In Swim Meets

Coach Harry Rawstrom's Blue Hen swimmers—idle this week—defeated Gettysburg, 60-35, but ran into rough seas at Franklin and Marshall, losing 54-41 last week.

William H. Benson Funeral Services Held On Saturday

William H. Benson, 73, of 1621 1/2 Trail, Newark, died last Saturday in Fairview Nursing Home, Newark, after a short illness.

Benson lived in the Newark since 1927. He was an em-ployee of the National Vulcanized Rubber Company for 29 years and a member of the Improved Order of Fries.

He is survived by a son, Raymond Benson, four brothers, John, Robert, and Charles R. of Delaware; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Hargan, Mrs. Mary Hayden, and Mrs. Sarah Jones, all of Newark; one grandchild and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday at the William J. Conrad Funeral Home, 121 West Park Place, Newark.

Burial was in White Clay Cemetery.

Funeral Conducted For WW-II Hero

Funeral services for Elmer L. Gale, Jr., 48, of 33 Carolee Hill, Newark, who died Saturday in Lorain, Baltimore, were held at 10 o'clock Saturday in the same church.

Gale was a decorated veteran of World War II, having served for three years with the U. S. Army in Europe and was commended for his bravery.

He was hospitalized for wounds in England, and then sent to combat duty in northern Germany.

He received three Purple Hearts, Silver Star, and Bronze Star for his action in combat.

He was employed as a salesman by the New York City, and a member of Hiram Lodge 25, A. F. & A. M.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children, Wayne, William, 12, and Donna, 11.

Crop Kings Awarded Banquet

William J. Wilson of Georgetown, Delaware, soybean king, and John L. Cross, Middletown, alfalfa king, were crowned at the annual crop awards banquet at the Grange Hall in Dover Saturday.

Wilson produced seven tons of soybeans on his contest plot, while Cross produced nearly a ton more than last year's winner, George Simpson of Housatonic, who produced 1.5 tons.

The judges rated Wilson's crop for color, leafiness and bushels per acre on his contest plot.

Wilson won the soybean crown, while Cross won the alfalfa crown.

Winners in the soybean contest were Paul McCommons, New Castle County winner, and John F. Wilkerson, Kent County, 45.9 bushels.

Winners in the alfalfa contest were Zettler and Glasgow, New Castle County winners with six tons per acre.

Robert Stafford, Kent County, and Marlene Korschak, New Castle County, were awarded scholarships for choice to 4-H Short Course Camp for winning the seedling contest held Nov. 21.

Scholarships are sponsored by the Delaware Crop Improvement Association which, with the aid of Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, also sponsored a crop show, short course and banquet.

Many of the winners are now in the hands of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

New elders and trustees will be installed this Sunday at the Christiana Presbyterian Church. They are Mrs. I. N. Morrison and William Cross, elders; and Glyn Edwards and Edward Singleton, trustees, all elected last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. B. Kee was ratified as church treasurer, and Ruth Phelps and Jack Hill were elected to a newly-formed long-range planning committee for the church.

Named to the nominating committee for 1961 are Mrs. Jack Hill, Mrs. A. H. Jones, and Millard M. Davis. Mrs. Thomas Baird will serve as clerk of the session. In the absence of John Holsten, president of the board of trustees, Mr. Davis presided.

Annual reports were given by Mrs. John Holsten, president of the United Presbyterian Women; Rhonda M. Speck, Sunday School superintendent; Paul Sims, secretary of the Couples Club; Jack Hill,

Cook Holstein Sets Record Supervised At University

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced completion of an official production record by a registered Holstein cow in this area.

Diamond Hill Chieftain K Girl, owned by H. W. Cook and Sons, Newark, produced 13,209 lbs. milk and 531 lbs. butterfat in 295 days as a four-year-old.

University of Delaware officials supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official herd testing programs of the national Holstein organization.

University of Delaware officials supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official herd testing programs of the national Holstein organization.

William Cross, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Bennett, chairman of sewing and supplies; Mrs. Jack Hill, literature chairman.

Continuing officers whose terms will expire next year include Mrs. John Holsten, president; Mrs. Alfred Cleaver, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Marcone, world service chairman; Mrs. Olan Cleaver, local church service; Rachel Morrison, fellowship; Mrs. Sidney McClain, chairman of spiritual life and stewardship.

Participating in a program of dedication of annual pledges were Mrs. R. B. Kee, Mrs. R. F. Coon, and Mrs. Joseph Marcone.

Mrs. Millard Davis is chairman of the annual rummage sale to be held Feb. 23.

The annual spring supper for the benefit of the church will be served March 25.

At an executive committee meeting of the Christiana-Salem P. A. last Thursday, funds were authorized for the purchase of a television set for the school. A portable set, practical for use in individual classrooms as well as in the auditorium, has been purchased, and it is expected that all children will be able to see the Presidential inauguration ceremony on Friday.

This PTA gift was made possible by community cooperation with the organization's two fund-raising projects of the fall—a bake sale which netted $78.37, and a holiday candy sale which cleared $84.50. Mrs. William Graden, chairman, and members of her ways and means committee wish to thank all who helped with these projects.

Jackie and Karen, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, have recovered from a combined attack of chicken pox and measles.

Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sinclair, was a weekend visitor in Kennett Square.

Need To Improve Teen-Age Driving Cited By Experts

You say you can't see the road for the cars. It figures. There are 65 million of them out there! And by 1970, the experts say there will be 100 million cars on the highways!

With such a traffic situation facing us, safe driving techniques and increased driving skill are becoming more and more important according to Patricia A. Middleton, extension service home management specialist at the University of Delaware.

Teen-age drivers, by virtue of their quick reflexes, accurate coordination, better eyesight and hearing, should be among the nation's safest drivers, but Miss Middleton reports that National Safety Council traffic records show that young drivers are involved in more fatal accidents, proportionately, than older drivers.

A national insurance company reports the rate of accident involvement by young people is almost twice as high as that of the average adult.

The study also showed the severity of teen-age accidents to be considerably greater than those of adults.

Where does the responsibility for proper driver education of teen-agers lie? Is it the responsibility of parents, school, or the young people themselves? Opinions vary. Miss

NO ADS

Aetna President Olan Thomas reports that no ads are being solicited by the New Castle County or Delaware State Volunteers associations, and urges the public to contact any firehouse in the event they are approached for such donations or paid advertisements.

Middleton says, but we must remember that unconsciously and unintentionally, parents pass their own bad driving attitudes and practices on to their children.

A recent study published by the National Commission for Safety Education showed conclusive evidence that high school students completing driver education courses have fewer accidents and traffic violations than those without driver education.

Automobile insurance companies have recognized the effectiveness of driver education by reduced premiums for teen-agers who have completed a driver training course.

It's imperative that we provide the means of developing safe driving attitudes and behavior in new drivers, and Miss Middleton cites driver education as one important method.

TEACHING YOUR BIRD TO OBEY

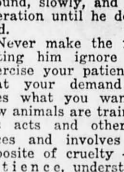

It takes about a week or so to finger tame your budgie (parakeet to you) so that he climbs on your finger when you press it against his stomach and command him "Up". At the end of the first week he should also be familiar with his name. Now he can be brought out of the cage on your hand. If he flies off and settles on the lampshade or on top of a picture-frame don't chase him — just get as close as you can to him. Stand on a chair, if necessary, hold

ARRIVED AT LAST

Open the cage door so that it is completely horizontal, approach your hand with the parakeet on it in such a way that his chest comes to rest atop the door, and tell him to "Get in!" He'll climb on readily enough, because it's the same movement as "Up!". But if he doesn't go right on in, tip him gently under the tail with your finger and repeat the command. Budgies don't like to have their tails touched and he'll jump in quick!

Practice this often, and you'll be surprised at how soon he'll learn. Once he does you'll really be the Boss, and the learning habit having been well instilled, you'll find him very receptive to further instruction. He can even be taught to mail a letter in a toy mail box!

Alfalfa As Forage Crop Topic For W. H. Mitchell

William H. Mitchell, extension agronomist with the University of Delaware, will open the agronomy program the first day of Farm and Home Week at the university on Feb. 7, with the presentation: "You CAN Grow Good Alfalfa."

There are places on nearly every farm where alfalfa can be grown successfully, Mitchell says.

Since alfalfa is one of the highest-quality, highest-yielding and cheapest forages available, Mitchell believes that every farmer who has livestock should be growing it. He'll explain how-to-do-it.
