Vienna, February 14, 1936.

Dear Dunn:

I wrote to Mr. Phillips quite briefly today, and I am sure you will see this letter. I have brought to his special attention my despatches No. 692 and 696 in this letter, and I am inclined to think that you will find them quite interesting. I shall not burden you with further details now, but am sending you herewith some articles from the London TIMES sent in by their Vienna correspondent, which are very good. I am also enclosing an editorial from the London TIMES of February 10. I am appending a picture of Starhemberg taken during the Paris visit, as it happens to be a particularly good one.

With all good wishes,

Cordially yours,

James Clement Dunn, Esquire,
