BANDITS HOLD UP R. W. HEIM AND ESCAPE IN AUTO WITH $38

State Vocational Head Is Victim of Unmasked Trio; Who Flee In Unlighted Car

Three unmasked bandits held up R. W. Heim, State Director of Vocational Education, in the heart of the town and robbed him of $38 last Tuesday night, making good their escape while Mr. Heim, completely unnerved by the incident, failed to report it to police.

The holdup occurred a short distance from the corner of South College avenue and Delaware avenue a few minutes before midnight. Mr. Heim had been working in Wolf Hall and had left there to walk to his home.

As he neared the corner, a roadster, containing two men on the front seat and one in the rumble seat, approached him, without lights, heading in the direction of Wilmington. As it drew near him, the car slowed down and stopped.

"How do you get to the New Castle ferry?" one of the men on the front seat asked.

Mr. Heim stepped up to the car and put his foot on the running board.

The features of the men were obscured by the darkness. As he started to give the directions, Mr. Heim waved his right arm to indicate a turn, then his left arm to indicate another turn.

Just then, the man in the rumble seat jumped out and pressed a revolver against Dr. Heim's stomach.

"Shell out and shell out d—quiek!" he growled.

Dr. Heim said, boys you got the advantage of me, and promptly reached into his pocket and handed the man his wallet. It contained $38 and some papers. The gunman extracted the wallet on the ground, jumped into the car and the trio drove off.

Dr. Heim then went to his home, where he was staying alone, his wife being away on a trip. In explanation of the fact that he did not inform the police, Dr. Heim stated he was so confused and unnerved that this failed to occur to him.

COUNCIL TO DRAIN PROPERTIES IN VICINITY OF KELL'S AVENUE

Body Acts On Complaint of Residents; Decide to Paint Guide Lines On Streets Yellow Instead of White

A promise to drain property along Kell's avenue in the southern end of town was made by Town Council at its meeting last Tuesday night, after several complaints had been received from persons living in that section.

It was stated that before curbing had been laid on streets in that section, water from the hilly section, of which Red Men's Grove is a part, had drained down across South College avenue into the low section lying southeast of there.

Since the curbing has been laid, it was declared, the water has collected in pools where the water has become stagnate. This condition, property owners have protested, might ultimately tend to lower real estate values in that section unless it is corrected.

The Council also decided to paint the street traffic guide lines with yellow paint hereafter, instead of white. It is believed that yellow is more visible. A large number of communities in Delaware have adopted a similar policy.

The yellow paint is considered especially adaptable for black colored asphalt streets.

KIWANIS TO VISIT DELAWARE UNIVERSITY

The twelfth annual visit of the Wilmington Kiwanis Club to the U. of D. will be made Wednesday night, April 29. Members and their families will celebrate "Ladies' Night" during the visit. A social function will be held at the Women's College as an innovation.

Students of the Women's College will act as waitresses at a banquet to be held in the dining hall. The Women's College gymnasium also will be visited. George Madden's orchestra will furnish music for the dancing.

Arthur G. Wilkinson, business administrator for the University, heads the committee in charge. Those assisting him are Vincent C. Blackwell, Edward W. Cooch, Harry P. Dunbar, Jr., Robert F. Engler and George Householder.

WILLIAM REGISTER SUSTAINS BROKEN LEG AS HORSE BOLTS

William Register, of this town, suffered a broken leg when his horse became frightened while he was working in a meadow on his farm near the Curtis paper mill, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Register jumped from the wagon, thinking to avoid being hurt. He was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, in Wilmington. His condition was reported as good this afternoon.

BLAZE THREATENS HOME OF DR. P. K. MUSSELMAN

Damage of $75 was caused when fire broke out at the home of Dr. P. K. Musselman, on West Main street, last Sunday night.

The blaze was caused by sparks flying from an overheated stove. Members of the Theta Chi and Kappa Alpha fraternities located nearby, started fighting the flames as the alarm was sounded. With their cooperation, the Aetna Fire Company was able to extinguish the blaze in a short time, before it could reach the remainder of the home.

The damage was covered by insurance.

The Aetna Company and the Christiana Company together extinguished a blaze on the property of Edward Cooch yesterday afternoon, when a chicken house caught fire. The firemen fought the blaze for a half hour. A total of $800 damage was caused.

FUTURE FARMERS TO HOLD BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

The R. W. Heim Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will hold its second annual father and son banquet in the home economics room on Friday evening at 7.

Dean C. A. McCue, of the University of Delaware, has been invited to be the principal speaker.

Arbor Day at Delaware Colony, Stockley

The public is cordially invited to attend Arbor Day, Saturday, April 16th, at 1.30 p. m. The exercises begin by a play given by the children.

The planting will continue until completed. Any one wishing to contribute any flower, shrub or tree from their own garden may bring it along with them, or forward it to the superintendent in advance.

Chairman of the day, Miss Blanche Lockwood, Middletown.

DR. HARVEY W. EWING FATALLY STRICKEN AT HIS HOME TUESDAY

Collapses While Working in Garden at Home on Kentway; Funeral to be Held Tomorrow at 2 P. M.

Stricken with a heart attack while working in the garden at his home on Kentway Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Harvey Winfield Ewing, aged 73, a retired minister of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, died before a physician could reach him. Dr. Ewing was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in the conference and, although he retired from active pastoral duties in 1924, he was in constant demand because of his wide reputation as a pulpit orator and Bible student.

He has filled a number of important charges in this conference as well as in the Kentucky, New England and West Virginia Conferences.

Dr. Ewing attended the recent session of the Wilmington Conference at Salisbury and was honored by being assigned to preach the sermon at the annual memorial service for deceased members of the conference last Tuesday night. On Sunday morning he preached at the Presbyterian Church in Salisbury.

Returned Home Monday

He returned from the conference on Monday and was apparently in good health. Tuesday afternoon he went to his garden to clean up the land preparatory to spring planting. About 3 p. m. Steele said he saw Dr. Ewing slump over and topple to the ground. He ran to his aid but the minister was apparently unconscious. Steele ran next door to the office of Dr. A. J. Mavromatis, but that physician was out. Dr. Wallace M. Johnson was telephoned for and arrived at the Ewing home in a few minutes. Dr. Ewing was dead when Dr. Johnson arrived and it is thought that he died instantly.

Robert T. Jones, undertaker, took charge of the body. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Friday, from the late home and interment will be made at Calvert, Md.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Murray Ewing, editor of the Cecil Whig at Elkton, Md.

Dr. Ewing was graduated from Delaware College, University of Delaware, in 1884 and received his doctor's degree from Iowa Wesleyan University in 1903.

Although Dr. Ewing held charges during his long service in the ministry in four conferences, his first and his last active pastorates were at Wilmington churches, Madeley and Union. He was also pastor of Mt. Salem Church, Wilmington, at one time.

Madeley First Charge

His first charge after completing his education was at Madeley in Wilmington, which he served from 1887 to 1889. He was at Crisfield, Md., from 1890 to 1892, and Port Deposit, Md., 1892 to 1896. He then returned to Wilmington as pastor of Mt. Salem Church during 1897 and 1898.

After this, Dr. Ewing was transferred to the Kentucky Conference, but served there only one year, 1899, and was transferred to the New England Conference where he remained in active pastorate work from 1900 to 1913. He next went to the West Virginia Conference and served there from 1914 to 1918. Dr. Ewing then returned to Wilmington as pastor of Union Church and was its pastor from 1919 to 1923. This was his last active pastorate as he was placed on the retired list in 1924.

Dr. Ewing then came to Newark and built a home on Kentway where he has lived ever since. Although on the retired list he continued to have many calls and served several churches during the illness of pastors or to fill vacancies.

He was considered one of the best pulpit orators in the conference. He was a keen student until his death.

MRS. WALTER GEIST ILL WITH PLEURISY-PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Walter Geist, wife of a Newark hardware man, was taken from her home to the Flower Hospital yesterday after an attack of pleurisy had developed into pneumonia.

Mrs. Geist, who has long been an active member of the congregation at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church here, was taken ill during the early part of the week. Her condition was reported at the hospital as unchanged this afternoon.

NORMAN THOMAS WILL SPEAK IN MITCHELL HALL THURS. APRIL 14

Lecture Will Be Given In The Afternoon; Marks First Of Such Occasions Here; Admission Free; To Lecture In Wilmington Same Evening

That Norman Thomas will deliver an address in Mitchell Hall, Thursday, April 14, at 4.30 p. m., is now a certainty since the College Hour Committee has consented to the use of the hall for an afternoon affair.

The Thomas lecture will mark the first occasion of that type to be presented at the University in the afternoon. Mr. Thomas has been secured through special arrangement with the League of Industrial Democracy. He will speak in Wilmington in the evening. The afternoon affair will be held under the combined auspices of the Debate Council and Economics Club.

The topic to be treated by Mr. Thomas is "The College Student and World Peace." Mr. Thomas is one of the most prominent personalities in the United States today. Besides his political interests, Mr. Thomas is a keen student of sociology, economics, and diplomacy. A forceful speaker, Mr. Thomas is in great demand by organizations and colleges all over the country. Mr. Thomas recently spoke at Swarthmore College where he was enthusiastically received by the student body and college authorities.

A former minister and social worker, Mr. Thomas is interested in world peace and world problems. He is best known as the candidate of the Socialist Party for presidency in 1928. He is on the executive board of the League of Industrial Democracy, an organization which has chapters in many colleges.

There will be no admission charge to the lecture, and the Debate Council and Economics Club have invited all students and friends of the University to attend the affair.

Noted Lecturer to Address Student Body

NORMAN THOMAS

Mr. Thomas will speak in Wilmington at 8.00 p. m. on the same day that he is to speak at the University. Mr. Thomas will speak on the subject "Capitalism on Trial" at the Wilmington labor lyceum, 223 Shipley street. There will be no admission charge, and the general public has been invited.

MUMFORD CHILD INJURIES COLLAR-BONE WHILE PLAYING

Carroll W. Mumford, Jr., small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Mumford, suffered a severe injury to his collarbone yesterday when he tripped and fell in the driveway of his home while playing.

It has been necessary to strap him to prevent him from moving. He will be taken to a Wilmington hospital where an X-ray will be made to determine whether the collarbone was broken.

WARREN SINGLES RETURNS FROM BALTIMORE HOSPITAL

Warren Singles, treasurer of the Newark Trust Company, who has been suffering with iritis for several weeks, returned to his home on Monday after being under observation at Wilmer Institute, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

He is reported recovering rapidly and is expected to return to his duties shortly.

With a three-cornered contest having developed in the middle district and with a contest in the western district, candidates for election to Town Council were prepared for a stiff fight when the citizens go to the polls next Tuesday.

The triple contest in the middle district is between William Lovett, incumbent; C. E. Rittenhouse, and George Krapf, the latest to file his name. In the western district, the contest is between William Kennedy and O. W. Widdoes, incumbent. Each candidate in this district claims lower taxation and more efficient government as his platform.

Similar claims are made by Lovett and Rittenhouse in the middle district. In only one district, the eastern, is the candidate, C. C. Hubert, incumbent, unopposed.

Judges for the election were announced today as Frank Walker, of the western district, and Frank Luton, of the eastern district.

The polls will be open between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m. It is provided in the Town Charter that any freeholder, having resided or been a freeholder within the town for three months preceding the election and who has paid his taxes for the year immediately preceding shall be entitled to vote.

It is expected that in the two districts where contests occur, vigorous efforts will be made by the candidates to get their constituents to the polls.

The provisions of the Town Charter governing the conduct of elections and defining the various districts of the town, follow:

DISTRICTS

"The town of Newark shall be divided into three districts, as follows:

Western District

"The Western district of said town shall consist of all that town lying and being west of the center of College Street and Depot Street, extended to the Northern and Southern boundaries respectively of said town. (Continued on Page 4.)

Frost, Lowell Thomas on Del. College Hour

Robert Frost and Lowell Thomas are the two speakers engaged to replace Lew Saret and Dr. William Beebe in College Hour programs after their engagements had been cancelled, due to illness.

The programs will now be held on April 14 and May 21 respectively. Robert Frost is one of the best and most popular of contemporary poets. He will give a talk and recital of his poems.

Lowell Thomas will give one of his famous travel lectures on May 21. Mr. Thomas is internationally known as a newspaperman. His voice is heard nightly by millions on the Literary Digest news program over the NBC radio network.

The College Hour program for the remainder of the season also includes Maurice Hindus, who will appear on May 2. All programs will be held in Mitchell Hall. C. R. Kase, dramatic instructor at the University, is chairman of the College Hour Committee.

CLEAN-UP DAY Wednesday, April 20th

STUDENTS TO HEAR REV. WM. LINDSAY YOUNG

To Speak Before West Nottingham Body, April 17th

Students at West Nottingham Academy, Colorado, Maryland, will hear Rev. William Lindsay Young, director of the Department of University Work, Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, preach at a Sunday chapel service to be held April 17.

The Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, with headquarters at the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa., administers more than $1,313,000 a year in a nation-wide work of Christian nurture and training among 10,000 churches, 52 Presbyterian colleges, 13 theological seminaries, 47 state universities, and through committees on Christian education in 293 presbyteries and 46 synods.

It is affiliated with churches and church schools in every State in the Union; renders aid to needy students; maintains 64 university pastors; offers vocational guidance; develops new ministers, missionaries and religious education directors; cultivates church worship and service; campaigns for Stewardship and for temperance, social and moral welfare; finances Bible professorships; annually publishes millions of copies of Sunday-school lessons and weeklies; prepares age-group materials used in week-day church schools, vacation church schools, Sunday-schools and church organizations; and undergirds the whole church program.

The development of character and leadership is the aim of the 52 Presbyterian colleges with which the Department of Colleges, Theological Seminaries and Training Schools of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education cooperates. This Board shares in establishing and maintaining Bible professorships and departments of religious education, and aids in meeting the expenses of needy colleges.

The Department cooperates with the Personnel Reference Bureau of the Board in an effort to bring colleges and professors into touch with each other, and maintains a traveling auditor to perfect a uniform system of accounting in all of the colleges.

Correction

An article appearing in last week's Post about the Town Library was partially incorrect.

Because of the financial stress of the year it was impossible to raise the usual funds to pay a librarian. It was with deep regret that conditions necessitated Mrs. Anna Moore's leaving, who has given faithful service for the past fifteen years. Various members of the New Century Club are giving their time to carry on the work.

Owing to the falling off of the dollar subscriptions of former years to one-half, it was deemed advisable to make the library free to that all of Newark could benefit. Since the opening of the free library three weeks ago and since the dollar subscription was dropped, the number of borrowers has more than tripled that of any previous year since the library was established. 1464 books have been circulated during this time.

The library has no state funds, as was stated in last week's Post. At the present time there are 12 dollars in the treasury.

The County Free Library is lending books to the Newark Library. This is a service of great benefit to the town, since no money was available to procure new books. The County allows Newark $700 worth of books to be replaced every three months. Also special books, including reference material, will be procured by request through the County Librarian.

The library is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3 to 5, Saturday 6.30 to 8.30 to every citizen of Newark.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION NEWS

Extension for Payment of Dues Granted by National Congress of Parents and Teachers

An extension of time for the payment of State dues to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has been granted by the National Treasurer. This means that any dues received in the Delaware Parent-Teacher Association office, M-207 Delaware Trust Building, Wilmington, by April 9th, will be credited to the total for the current year. Many communities have felt the pinch even to the extent of Parent-Teacher Association dues. The following associations have larger memberships this year than last:

New Castle, White—Brandywine Springs, Joseph Parker, president; Hillside, Miss Carolyn M. Burbage, president; Middletown, Mrs. J. Harold Wiley, president; Oak Grove No. 130, F. Ray Phillips, president; Odessa, Mrs. Lillian Heldmyer, president; Patterson, Mrs. Charles E. Bailey, president; Richardson Park, Mrs. Irma Arnold, president; Stanton, Mrs. H. V. Lynam, president; Yorklyn, Mrs. Thomas H. Harrison, president;

New Castle, Colored—Christiana, Alfred Moody, president; Delaware City, Mrs. Mary Harmon, president;

Kirkwood, Mrs. Lillie M. Lloyd, president; Lee's Chapel, Mary Bleen, president; Marshallton, Alveta Morris, president; Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. Sadie Spearman, president; Kent, White—Harrington, Mrs. William Reed, president.

Kent, Colored—Blanco, Mrs. Irene Watson, president; Dover, Mrs. Albeda Clark, president; Dover Juniors, William Stevenson, president; Milford Juniors, Charles Ingram, president; White Oak, George Guy, president;

Sussex, White—Fishers, Miss Annie Calloway, president; Hollymount, Clarence Johnson, president; Milton, Clarence Johnson, president; Tatman's Mrs. Melvin Hampstead, president; Wainrights, Mrs. J. F. Hughes, president; Sussex, Colored—Concord Juniors, M. Randolph Kiah, president; Lewes Juniors, James Thompson, president; Slaughter Neck, William Hudson, president; Slaughter Neck, William Hudson, president; Warwick No. 203, Mrs. Clara Street, president; Warwick No. 225, Noah Harmon, president.

According to the returns received in the State Parent-Teacher Association office, the following are the largest associations this year:

Richardson Park, Mrs. Irma Arnold, 329; Dover, the Rev. M. S. Andrews, president, 319; Delmar, Arthur W. Ellis, president, 285; Middletown, Mrs. J. Harold Wiley, president, 207; Oak Grove No. 130, F. Ray Phillips, president, 167; Georgetown, Miss Laura Richards, 166; New Castle, Howard L. Wilhelm, president, 151; Stanton, Mrs. H. V. Lynam, president, 122; Bridgeville, Mrs. Elmer Hoch, president, 106; Yorklyn, Mrs. Thomas H. Harrison, president, 106.

Seaford Parent-Teacher Association, the only Delaware Association listed on the Honor Roll of large associations by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers last year, has not yet reported its membership.

Many small schools have memberships representing a large proportion of the homes in their districts. Odessa, Cedar Grove No. 117, White Oak No. 128 and Blanco No. 138, colored, have reported 100 per cent memberships, for example, a member from every home sending children to the school. It is believed that other schools belong on this list.

Reports received from local publicity chairmen during the latter part of March stress a variety of interests: continued study of the School Child's Time at Home, requests for physical examinations and dental care for school children, support of local welfare projects, particularly as they affect children, encouragement of oratorical and declamation contests, cooperation with the State Forester, participation in the closing exercises of adult classes, the planting of Bicentennial trees, subscriptions to the Delaware Citizens Association and the appointment of delegates to the approaching State Conventions which will be held at Dover on April 23rd (colored) and April 30th (white). Details of the conventions will be announced after the meeting of the Executive Committee with President Howard T. Ennis, this week.

At the March meeting of Deakynville Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. Eugene Deakyn, president, the adults bore the brunt of the entertainment, on account of illness among the children.

The Home and That Boy of Yours

By F. H. CHELEV

TRAINING THE INTELLECT NOT SUFFICIENT

MOST boys get a fairly satisfactory intellectual development. They play more or less vigorously, "monkeying" extensively with everything they can contact, until they go to school. Quickly they learn to read, write and get a rapid experience in the arts and sciences. They must stay in school, with all of its faults and standardization and mass production, until they are sixteen. They come to know a great deal about many things, which is as it ought to be.

Yet with it all, they so seldom really learn how to live. They make the honor society and bring home a series of splendid academic grades, but they are not humanly efficient, or forceful and co-operative; they have no creative initiative; their personalities are still undeveloped; they cannot and do not make wise decisions. They are not competent to stand alone as independent beings, and why? Why because these are the emotional qualities of personality which are largely ignored, little understood, forgotten, overlooked or ruthlessly trampled.

Yet boys go on and on, getting into one emotional jam after another, because of their prejudices and antagonisms, their strong likes and dislikes, their irritability and astounding intolerance of each other and the home folks. They cannot make friends and keep them; they cannot get jobs and hold them. They do not experience recognition or gain legitimate placement. They do not find happiness because parents have not yet come to recognize, as they are bound to in the years just ahead, that a trained body and a trained intellect are not sufficient. There is that dominating, almost controlling emotional self which determines so completely how a boy feels about this, that and everything, to take into consideration, with the conscious knowledge that after all, as a boy "feels" about it, so will he act.

His feelings are his dynamo of action. He is vastly more than an intellect and one of these times in this new day which we are all enjoying, public education will take cognizance of this fact and the first aim of education will be manhood, not scholarship; and the first aim of enlightened homes and modern-day trained parents will be the development not only of good physical bodies and keenly disciplined minds, but of that larger, more significant self, the emotional self, the personality.

We seek for our boys rugged bodies with which to withstand the physical convulsions of living; we seek for our boys well trained intellects in order that they may have a competitive chance with hordes of other such trained intellects—why not also seek then for our boys disciplined emotional stability, which results very largely from right home training in the early years? terpreted Hansel and Gretel and the Elf Dance.

At the meeting of Summit Bridge Colored Parent-Teacher Association on March 30th, parents expressed a willingness to try to improve the home conditions of the school children, in order to carry out some of the suggestions made by committees of other Delaware Parent-Teacher Associations.

Representatives of Newark, Mt. Pleasant and Newport Parent-Teacher Associations attended a meeting at Newport on April 1st at which Mrs. Orville R. Wright presented material suggested by Dr. Agnes Snyder, advisory member of the Delaware Parent-Teacher Association program committee. The discussion was general.

Dr. Bethke and associates of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station did considerable work with Soybean Oil Meal in the raising of chicks, their prime object being to find out if Soybean Oil Meal would adequately replace a major portion of the Dried Buttermilk. In the basal ration which they used, twenty-five pounds of Dried Buttermilk was included in the all mash. In the as yet unpublished results which Dr. Bethke secured, figures of which he gave us recently we note that wherein sixty per cent of the Dried Buttermilk was replaced by Soybean Oil Meal, the ration being kept efficient from a mineral fortification standpoint, the chicks made a better showing than where straight buttermilk was used.

It is well to emphasize that when Soybean Oil Meal is used, it should be fortified with certain essential minerals, which are incorporated in the right proportions. Seven mineral elements essential to properly fortify Soybean Oil Meal are: calcium, phosphorus, sodium, chlorine, iron, copper and iodine.

MINERALIZED SOY- BEAN OIL MEAL

By Dr. John M. Evvard
Soybean Oil Meal, rightly manufactured in modern up-to-date mills, provides for poultry feeding, under current price conditions, an outstanding economic source of very superior grain-balancing proteins, some vitamins, minerals and other nutrients. Soybean Oil Meal runs well over 40% protein, sometimes as high as 45%, depending upon the beans from which it is processed. These proteins are efficiently unique in their chemical constitution as compared with other plant source supplements.

Dr. Scott-Robertson, over in the Emerald Isle, found in his research work that Soybean Oil Meal, when adequately fortified with essential minerals and fed along with the basal ration used, largely cereals, gave a higher egg production per bird over nine months' period than when, for instance, Fish Meal was used. When Dr. Scott-Robertson fed cereals only to hens, the yield for the above-mentioned period was 129 eggs per bird; when he added Blood Meal and certain minerals he got only 119 eggs per hen; when Fish Meal was used to build up the protein of his ration, the egg-layers shelled out an average of 158 eggs; and when the same basal ration was supplemented with Soybean Oil Meal, fortified with the minerals he used, the yield jumped to 162 eggs per hen. This is a rather remarkable showing for Soybean Oil Meal when fortified with minerals in the balancing of the cereal ration experimented with.

Dr. Harvey W. Ewing

Newark lost one of its most dearly loved and most valuable citizens in the death, last Tuesday, of Dr. Harvey W. Ewing, retired Methodist Episcopal minister. His record of self-sacrifice and service for others is one that few men are ever privileged to leave behind them.

With an ingratiating personality that won him friends wherever he went, Dr. Ewing was one of the best known and respected men in this community. Although he retired from the Wilmington M. E. Conference in 1924, he never regarded as finished his work in the interests of others.

He was an eloquent speaker and his career as a minister was highly successful, his words carrying deep conviction into the hearts of all who heard him. He strove always to express the fundamentals of Christianity by example as well as precept. And as he passes, we can say that he succeeded to a degree far from common to all men.

CANDIDATES EXPECT STIFF FIGHT IN COUNCIL ELECTION TUESDAY

Middle District

"The middle district shall consist of all that part of said town lying and being between the said eastern boundary of said western district and the center of Choate Street extended to the Northern and Southern boundaries respectively of said town.

Eastern District

"The Eastern district of said town shall consist of all that part of said town lying and being east of the said

Eastern boundary of said middle district.

Two Councilmen from Each District

"There shall be two of said councilmen resident in, and elected from each of said districts, and said councilmen shall be elected by the residents and freeholders of the district in which said councilmen reside respectively, and by none other. No person shall vote for more than two of said councilmen.

Time of Opening and Closing Polls
"The polls for the election to be held the second Tuesday in April . . . between the hours of one P. M. and five P. M. . . . at such time and place as the election officers hereinafter provided for shall appoint and designate at least two weeks before the day of election.

"Whenever for any reason any polling place designated, can not be secured, the election officers or any two of them, shall have the power to choose some convenient place in the town to be used as a polling place.

TOWN ELECTIONS

Who May Vote

"At all town elections every male citizen and every freeholder, male or female, in said town, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, having resided or been a freeholder within said town for three months next previous to the election, and having paid a town tax for the year immediately preceding, which payment shall be evidenced by a receipt, and none others shall be entitled to vote. . . .

Who To Hold Elections

"Thereafter said town elections shall be held by the treasurer of said town, together with assistants who shall be citizens of and voters in said town, appointed by the council at least one month before the annual election. Said treasurer and assistants shall be known as 'election officers,' and shall serve as such for one year from the date of the appointment of said assistants. The treasurer shall receive the ballots and deposit them in a box or boxes to be prepared for that purpose and the assistants shall each keep a complete list of the voters voting. When the election shall be closed, the treasurer, or one of the assistants, shall draw said ballots out of the box or boxes, open and read the same in a loud voice and pass the same over to one of the said assistants for his inspection, while third election officer shall tally the votes. In case there is a tie in the number of votes cast for the respective persons voted for for councilmen, for president of council, the treasurer shall give the casting vote. After the result shall have been ascertained the election officers shall make out certificates and deliver one each to each councilman elect, and also to the president elect, with a notice of the time and place of the next meeting of the town council.

Councilmen To Be Sworn

"Before entering upon the duties of their respective offices the councilmen elect shall be sworn in at said meeting for organization, or any other subsequent meeting, by the alderman or one of the holding-over councilmen or a justice of the peace of said town."

NEW PLYMOUTH $495

AND UP F. O. B. FACTORY — SOLD BY ALL DESOTO · DODGE · CHRYSLER DEALERS

"Two Years ago I'd have said it Couldn't be Done"

WALTER P. CHRYSLER TELLS ABOUT HIS NEW PLYMOUTH

AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY—NO WAITING

I produced the first car that ever carried my name in 1924—only eight years ago. It sold for $1800 and caused a SENSATION.

The New Plymouth that I am introducing this week is exactly the same SIZE. It is just as POWERFUL. It is FASTER. It is ten times as SMART. AND it is priced as low as $495.

Two years ago, if anyone had told me such a thing could happen, I would have said it couldn't be done. It still seems fantastic, but nevertheless it is TRUE.

The depression has caused much hardship, but it has also brought us many benefits. It has made men THINK. And being forced to think, we have found new ways to overcome obstacles.

In creating the New Plymouth we had the problem of incorporating many new and important engineering improvements in a bigger and better automobile for less money.

In prosperous times we never could have done it. But under the pressure of adverse conditions we discovered necessity was the mother of INVENTION and that the seemingly impossible COULD BE DONE.

When you see this car, I ask particularly that you note its larger, roomier body. It is a BIG car, a more beautiful car, with longer wheelbase, with increased power, speed and performance. You will find that the 1932 Plymouth includes every feature that the most modern car can have. Above all it has one advantage found in NO OTHER car in its price class . . . Patented Floating Power.

This is a revolutionary engine mounting that does away with vibration completely. It was created by Chrysler engineers exclusively for Plymouth, DeSoto, Dodge and Chrysler cars.

I think you will be impressed by its extreme ease of handling. With the new Automatic Clutch it is almost effortless to drive. The Hydraulic Brakes make you safer and surer.

But I am really publishing this advertising to get you to go and SEE this car. After all, seeing is believing, and like myself you never would have believed it possible.

The New 1932 Plymouth is now being shown for the first time by 10,000 DeSoto, Dodge and Chrysler dealers all over America.

FRACTURES HIP

Mrs. John Davy suffered a fractured hip when she fell in front of her home on Lovett avenue, Sunday afternoon.

The mishap occurred when Mrs. Davy started to enter her car. Her son-in-law, Mr. Leslie Truitt, was in the driver's seat and had thought to move the car a few feet so that she would be able to step from the curb more easily. The car door, which was open, struck Mrs. Davy and caused her to fall to the street.

She is being treated at the Homeopathic Hospital, in Wilmington.

of diplomacy and the press, one realizes with alarm the lack of clear thought and definite understanding in the minds of the Western opinion regarding the Manchurian affair. The Western powers have lost a diplomatic battle in high proportions and are chiefly bent on covering up their defeat by minimizing the significance of the results. Statesmen are glad to let the situation rest. Editors are unwilling to drive logical conclusions home. The affairs of the Far East are being left free from public analyses by common consent.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Origin of April Fool's Day Explained In Junior High Assembly

On March 30 an April Fool's program was given. Arthur Houston of the ninth grade gave an interesting talk on April the first and why it was called April Fool's Day. Eric Myers, also of the ninth grade, gave two musical selections.

Miss Kirk was in charge of the assembly program.

Mildred Jarmon.

Musical Program Given In Junior High Assembly

The Junior High School assembled in the old cafeteria Monday April 4, to the march of "Zouave." A piano selection was given by William Wilson called "A Perfect Song" with which most of us are familiar as it introduces Amos 'n Andy.

Helen Cronhardt.

Traffic Committee Meeting

The weekly meeting of the traffic committee was called to order by the president, Guy Wharton. The minutes were read and approved. There was no old business so the president called for new. One of the members brought up the matter of switching the lights off and on when coming from assembly. It was decided to lay severe punishment upon anyone caught in the act. The traffic officers are the only ones to do that sort of work. Then the business of assigning places to the traffic officers at dismissal in the afternoon and of starting the lines at the right time so as not to cause congestion of traffic in the halls. There were places assigned to some of the officers and the meeting was adjourned until April 4 because of the Easter Holidays.

Was He Shot or Not?

A duel was fought between John S. Knott and Alexander Shott. Knott was shot and Shott was not. In this case it would have been better to have been Shott than Knott. At first it was thought that Knott was not shot, and Shott avows that he shot not, which proves that the shot Shott shot not or that Knott was shot notwithstanding.

It may be made to appear on trial that the shot Shott shot solved into its original elements, Shott would be shot and Knott would be not. We think, however, that the shot Shott shot not Shott but Knott. Who was shot?

(Taken from an old newspaper clipping.)

William Richardson.

Boats

The first boat was a long which a man straddled, paddling himself down stream, first with his arms and then with the branch of a tree.

The canoe was used by the Indians and then adopted by the Whites. One was made from a long suitable of size, and the other from the bark of trees.

Families that moved west from about 1788 to 1840 travelled overland to some point on the Ohio River and there put all their goods on a flat boat. Then they drifted down the river—perhaps to Ohio or Kentucky. They were very often troubled with the Indians in the night. By day the men would play their fiddles while the pigs squealed, the children shouted and danced.

There were many dangers from logs, bars, rocks, and Indians.

Alice Beeson.

April Fool's Day

The origin of the custom of April fooling cannot be traced with any degree of certainty. In the literature of the eighteenth century there are found many references to it, and yet beyond that it is scarcely possible to go. One suggestion is that the custom of playing tricks on the first day of April was derived from some ancient pagan custom, such as the Holi festival among the Hindus or the Roman Feast of the Fools. One fact we know and are certain of is that it is celebrated in many countries but under different names.

Ann Hamilton.

Springtime

Springtime is on its way
With flowers gay.
The roses are budding,
The blossoms are blooming,
Springtime, Springtime,
The flowers' joytime.

Helen Brown.

March Came In Like a Lion

March came in like a lion,
He would not be still;
Came roaring through the valley,
And raving o'er the hill.

He frightened all the wood folk,
Made Mother Nature pout.
She chided him for acting so—
And meekly he walked out.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

A Spring Nymph

It happens that I know a family of twelve girls. One of them is especially beautiful. Her eyes are blue as sapphire and her skin is very white. She has flaxen hair and rosy cheeks. I believe everyone loves her. She is vivacious, sparkling, gay, and merry.

The world is always bright and sunny for her and even though the sun doesn't shine on her all the time, it does not make her less beautiful.

Opals adorn her fingers, neck, and her beautifully colored gowns; flowers encircle her waist and head and wrists. Oh! she is beautiful! Her father is Time and she, is April.

Mary L. Roberts, '35.

In April, 1897, two boys, Karl and Albert, were born to Hertha von Leibmann in Munich, Germany. The father, Baron Hermann von Leibmann, took little interest in his children at first. Von Leibmann was a very busy man, a man of great importance. He was the Secretary of War under the Kaiser, Wilhelm II, and he held the rank of Major in the Imperial Army of Germany. Sometimes he would work all day and late into the night at his office.

When he did begin to give attention to his two boys, he favored Karl. Albert and Karl were strong, husky lads of eight when they began to think a little about their future. Both boys had blue eyes, blonde hair, and Prussian nose and mouth. The two looked almost exactly alike. Only their mother and father could tell them apart.

The Baron thought much more of Karl than of Albert. He thought that Albert paid too much attention to his mother and not enough to his famous father.

Karl declared that he was going to join "Daddy's army" when he became old enough. Albert did not talk much about the future, but he and his mother dreamed of some day going to America, the land of promise. Hertha had heard much about this land across the sea.

"It is a free country. It is a land of opportunities, where we can live happily," she would say to Albert, as they sat talking together.

One March day in the year 1910, Albert and his mother received their immigration papers and they sailed for America. Albert bid goodbye to Karl with tears in his eyes, but Karl seemed glad that his brother was leaving.

Hertha Liebmann secured a small farm in Pennsylvania, and she and her boy of twenty lived together happily. Often she would start thinking of her husband and of Karl. Then she would banish these thoughts from her mind. She was glad to be an American!

Then one day Albert came home from work to find his mother slumped in her rocking-chair, the daily copy of the New York Times clutched tightly in her old hands. Then he saw across the top of the front page a huge black headline:

"Congress Declares War On Germany!"

So President Wilson had decided to fight!

Two days later Albert Liebmann enlisted in the Air Corps of the United States Army.

When he left for Kelly Field, tears were pouring down his mother's cheeks. It was hard for him to leave her.

At last, after months of training in Curtiss "Jennys," De Havillands, and Sopwiths, he reached France. He was assigned to Squadron Thirteen near German guns raked the fuselage and wings of the fleeing Spad.

The Kraut got the Spad firmly lined up in his ringsight and the German slugs slowly crept up the fuselage toward the open cockpit. Albert tried desperately to escape by a quick climbing turn, but the Pfalz was always on him. The bullets inched their way up the battered fuselage of the doomed Spad, some of them ricocheting from the motor cowling.

It was terrible to die like this! Well he had sent one enemy down, and he was ready to die! He sat rigid in the metal seat, waiting for the final scorching blast of bullets!

Then all of a sudden the leaden hail ceased. Frightened and surprised, he hurled his laboring Spad into a vertical. Looking back over the rim of the cockpit he saw why bullets were no longer sweeping over his ship. The yellow Pfalz was being hotly pursued by Shorty McCarns, the flight leader. Gott in Himmel! He had been saved just in the nick of time! He breathed a prayer of thanks into the churning prop-wash and looked toward the other planes.

He saw the other three Pfalzes and the all-yellow one being chased into Hunland by the other three Spads. The Spads soon gave up the chase and the four of them returned to the home drome, their fuel supply exhausted and ammo drums empty.

That evening the mess-hall rocked with the laughter and songs of the men in Squadron Thirteen. They drank toasts to their new wing leader who had downed a Boche on his trip over the lines. All were merry over the death of Benny Morgan, the fact that the patrol had downed Krauts was a cause for rejoicing.

A few minutes after the mess-hall room, where he found Shorty McCarns, crossed in a copy of "The Mysteries."

"Say Shorty, who was that chap who had downed a Boche on his trip over the lines?"

(Who was the pilot in the machine? What further adventures will Albert Liebmann meet?)

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for April 10

HOW SIN BEGINS

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-5.
COLLUSION TEXT—Watch and pray.
The devil is not willing, but the flesh is.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Garden of Eden.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How Sin Started.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to overcome temptation.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Our Responsibility for Our Sins.

A look out upon the world proves that man is not what he should be. It is not reasonable to suppose that man is now what he was when he came from the hands of the Creator, much less an improvement. The only way of accounting for this is by the story of the fall of man as given in the Bible.

1. Man's Probation (Gen. 2:15-17).
a. The place (v. 15). It was in the beautiful Garden of Eden. Man's environment was suited to his nature.
b. The necessity (v. 16). This grows out of man's constitution. Adam was created with the possibility of character, but not with character. Alternative choice makes character possible. Freedom was what made Adam a real man.

2. The Temptation (3:1-5).
a. He found the woman alone.
b. He lusted after her.
c. He was tempted by her.
d. He was tempted by the serpent.
e. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

3. The Fall (3:6-7).
a. He ate the fruit.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

4. The Consequences (3:8-13).
a. He was driven out of Eden.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

5. The Curse (3:14-19).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

6. The Redemption (3:20-21).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

7. The Promise (3:22-24).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

8. The Fall (3:6-7).
a. He ate the fruit.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

9. The Consequences (3:8-13).
a. He was driven out of Eden.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

10. The Curse (3:14-19).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

11. The Redemption (3:20-21).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

12. The Promise (3:22-24).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

13. The Fall (3:6-7).
a. He ate the fruit.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

14. The Consequences (3:8-13).
a. He was driven out of Eden.
b. He was tempted by the serpent.
c. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

15. The Curse (3:14-19).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

16. The Redemption (3:20-21).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

17. The Promise (3:22-24).
a. He was tempted by the serpent.
b. He was tempted by the forbidden fruit.

18. The Fall (3:6-7).

Fair Exchange

"A'NOTHER bull calf—
Only good for veal!"
Disappointment was apparent in Tom Beach's voice.

Mrs. Beach shook her head. "We'll not kill a calf like that, Tom. He's blue ribbon stock, remember! Couldn't you exchange him for a heifer, somewhere?"

"No," Tom countered. "There's not an Ayrshire herd within a hundred miles with the blood lines I want."

"There's that breeder in Maryland," Mrs. Beach suggested. "Why not telephone him?"

Tom's face brightened visibly. "That's a good idea. I'd like one of his heifers!"

In a minute or two the conversation was in full swing. "I got a good one," Tom exclaimed at its close. "And, believe it or not, our little bull was just what he wanted!"

April Fool

When Marie woke up in the morning she always looked at the calendar to see if it was April Fool's Day. Well at last it was April Fool's Day. She dressed very quickly and went down to get her breakfast. Then Billie woke up. He did not look at the calendar, because he could not read.

After breakfast Billie and Marie went to the store to get two loaves of bread. Billie had a penny but Marie didn't want any penny because she wanted to play her April Fool joke on him. They went home from the store. Marie got the red pepper and when Billie was not looking she put red pepper all over it. When Billie tasted the sucker, did he take it out? He began to cry, "Oh, my tongue. You bad sis!" "April Fool," said Marie.

Jane R. Eissner, Grade 3.

Fourth Grade Play

In our fourth grade geography work we studied about fruit. We learned where each fruit is raised and how it is picked and prepared for market. We wrote a play that tells the story of each fruit. This play was used one Friday afternoon when we entertained the other two sections of the fourth grade at a party.

FRUITLAND

King—Tommy Griffin.
Queen—Mary Jane Wilson.
Prince—Billy Northrop.
Butler—Billy Schuster.

Miss Peach—Miriam Lewis.
Mr. Apple—Charles Hollister.
Miss Orange—Patricia Wilson.
Mr. Banana—Richard Burke.

Mr. Coconut Tree—Angelo Catali.
Mr. Pineapple—Clifton Cleaver.
Mr. Date—Joseph Moore.

Scene I. King and Queen on throne.
Queen—What time is it King? Is it time for Prince Good Health to come home?

King—Yes, it is time for the Prince to return. Hark! I think I hear him now.
(Butler and the Prince enter.)
Prince—O, what a good time I had in Fruitland. Everything is going fine in your kingdom.

Queen—We are very glad to see you back. Tell us about your trip.
Prince—I brought some fruit back from all over your kingdom. I shall bring them in and let them tell their own stories.

Butler—Mr. Apple.
Mr. Apple—I am Mr. Apple. I grow in every state in the United States. Most apples grow in Washington. Apples are picked by hand. They are packed in boxes, barrels and baskets. They are sent all over the world.

Butler—Miss Peach.
Miss Peach—I am Miss Peach. My favorite home is in the little State of Delaware. My blossom is Delaware's favorite flower. I bloom in the sunny month of May, a beautiful pink and white blossom. Then comes the rich and juicy peach, dearly loved by all.

Butler—Miss Orange.
Miss Orange—I am Miss Orange. I am raised in California and Florida. Men do not pick me like apples, peaches and pears, they cut me with scissors. They drop me into a bag very gently so that I will not get bruised. Then they take me to a packing house where I am washed, sorted, and wrapped in paper with the other oranges. Then I am sent to all parts of the world.

Butler—Mr. Banana.
Mr. Banana—I am Mr. Banana. I live in Central America. I grow on large bushes. I am picked green. Each bunch has from seventy-five to a hundred bananas on it. The banana on the tree grows up-side down. Each stalk has a green trunk, one foot thick at the bottom.

Mr. Coconut Tree—I am Mr. Coconut Tree. I grow in California, Florida, Hawaiian and Philippine Islands. Sometimes the monkeys climb up to pick me. The men do too. My leaves are used for fans, and roofs of houses. Soap is made of coconut oil.

Butler—Mr. Pineapple.
Mr. Pineapple—I am Mr. Pineapple. I grow in the Hawaiian Islands. The men have to put on thick clothes when I am picked. I am cut with a long curving knife. When I am shipped I am put in a paper bag so I will not be bruised during shipment.

Butler—Mr. Date.
Mr. Date—I am Mr. Date. I come from the desert. I am picked by hand, packed, sorted, washed and wrapped and sent all over the world.

Miss Johnston's Room.

Cotton

Cotton grows in South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. Cotton is planted in March or the first of April. The young plants are carefully tended during the early summer. The seed begins to ripen about the first of September.

Cotton has to be grown in a warm country. They have to cultivate the ground so the cotton will grow. The pickers put the cotton into bags on their backs. When the bags are full they dump them into baskets. Then they put the cotton into wagons.

After the cotton is put through the gin, it is baled and then sent to the factory and made into clothing and thread.

There are millions of fibers in a few pounds of cotton. In one big bale more perhaps than there are people in the United States. Of these cloth is made.

Most of the cotton factories of the United States are in the New England States.

Louise Steops, Grade 4.

Spring Is Coming

Spring is coming! Spring is coming!
For flowers are beginning to bud;
Winter is going! Winter is going!
And so is the mud.

Billy Schuster, Grade 4.

Assembly Program

Francis Cooch, Announcer
Our assembly program was an outgrowth of a Reading lesson. The boys and girls planned their costumes, one of the pupils coached the play and two of the boys planned the stage setting.

1. Song—"Long, Long Ago."
2. "The Pussy Willow," Marian Futcher.
3. Song—"Winter, Good Bye," Marian Futcher, Cecilia Machulski, Billy Edmonson, Teddy Ingham, Howard Wilson, Cecilia Tierney.

4. Reading—"The Elf and the Door-mouse," Verna Bryson.
5. Song—"Our Robin."
6. Orchestra of Elementary Department.

7. Play—"The Mad Tea Party," Characters: Alice—Mildred Baylis; Door-mouse—Regina Taylor; March Hare—Teddy Ingham; Hatter—Howard Wilson.

The program was then turned over to Miss Johnston.

Purpose of Thrift and Finance Committee
The purpose of the Thrift and Finance Committee is to learn to save, when you are young; to encourage saving of money and spend wisely in order to avoid many hardships which come from not being thrifty. We should be thrifty and learn to save while we are young.

The members of the Committee take charge in their own rooms of the money to be used for school and class affairs.

Each week the room that has the largest number banking gets the Bank Saving Banner.

Doris Grant, President.

April Fool Party

Miss Medill's room entertained Miss Werner's room. Our program was as follows:
Jokes—Ruth Wilson.
Song—Dorothy Fell and Olive Lomax.

Story—Elizabeth Aiken.
Song—Miss Medill's room.
After the program our refreshments were served. We had some April fool candy. Everyone had a good time.

Play

Mrs. Edwin Guthrie is chairman of a committee that is preparing an evening's entertainment for Tuesday, April 26th. There will be a play,

"Mother Pulls the Strings," and plenty of music. Added to the program, refreshments will be served for the regular price of admission.

Plan to be with us on April 26th. Tell all your friends to come to help swell the P.-T. A. treasury.

Consolidation

There was a meeting held in the Milford Cross Roads School last Thursday evening for the purpose of having the matter of the consolidation of Fairview, Hillside, Harmony, Union and Milford Cross Roads districts discussed. Dr. H. V. Holloway, president of the State Board of Public Instruction, was with the group and explained the types of consolidation that may be affected.

There will be an open meeting held in the Red Men's Hall, Corner Ketch, on Thursday evening, April 28th. The question of consolidation will be discussed by the group under the leadership of some of the trustees who heard Dr. Holloway's discussion.

TO HOLD BAKE

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Newark Methodist Church will hold a "Bake" in the vestibule of the church on Saturday, April 9th, beginning at 10 o'clock. Chicken salad, chicken soup, vegetable soup, cakes, pies, potato salad, baked beans, rolls and bread will be for sale. Please bring containers for soup.

Jr. O. U. A. M. TO ATTEND ST. THOMAS CHURCH SUNDAY

The American Flag Council No. 28, Jr. O. U. A. M., met in session last Monday evening with Councilor Devonshire presiding. The close of the first quarter shows very gratifying progress in the council. Last week was a crowded week for visitations. Tuesday, March 29th, a large class received the final degrees at Eureka. March 30th we journeyed to Welcome to lose several close quilts games, but brought the bacon back in baseball, 3 games to 2. Thursday, March 31st, we went to Winona to enjoy a brotherly visit, which we all enjoyed.

Next Sunday morning, April 10th, we go to St. Thomas P. E. Church to hear Dr. Mayer. We will assemble in our Council room 10.30 a. m. to proceed in a body. We should have a large turnout to greet Dr. Mayer, as this is our first privilege to enjoy a message from him to our Council.

Next Monday night we expect a ball team from Wilmington. Come out and support your team.
