

32
Budeaux, December 11

Dear Mr. Messersmith:

Your old friends came quickly to you according to this morning's Herald
even though you don't need them. The letter from C.W. Whittemore (I don't know him) was particularly gracious.

Well, good luck as always and a strong
right arm,

Faithfully yours,
Jack Eckhardt.

George T. Messersmith, Esq., American Consul General,
Berlin