The Hon. George S. Messersmith,
Assistant Secretary of State,
Department of State,
WASHINGTON D.C.

Dear Friend,

I have had no news of you since last August. What is happening? Are you terribly busy? We are certainly going through a very hectic time over here.

When the Germans act they do not realize what are the reactions of foreign countries and, after their last success, perhaps they do not care. But I do hope their latest mischief will mean the end of this régime. How can self respecting nations come to agreements with such people. I feel sure that many Germans, indeed millions of them, must be thoroughly ashamed at these events.

I shall be writing you again soon.

Cordially yours,

M. Messersmith
