DEMOCRATS WIN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Boyce wins for Congress by landslide majority. Democrats win Sheriff in New Castle County and sweep into office in Sussex County. Unofficial reports point to Bayard's election over duPont by small margin. State offices go to Republicans.

Returns are surprise to victors and complete confusion to those who lost. Vote so close that only official figures will tell the story.

According to the Evening Journal, first news edition, Bayard is elected by a small majority. The Journal says:

While unofficial returns for yesterday's election indicate the election of Thomas F. Bayard, Democrat, by a majority of 563, as United States Senator, for the long term beginning March 4th, next, to succeed Senator T. Coleman duPont, it will take the official canvass in all three counties to determine the result.

The Republican State Committee today announced its intention to demand an official recount in many districts, based on the rejection of ballots that had been voted in districts other than those for which they had been officially prepared. In some districts, Republican workers report, such ballots were rejected, while in others such ballots were counted. State Chairman A. R. Benson said: "We do not concede the election of Mr. Bayard."

Thomas S. Fouracre, of Middletown, is elected State Treasurer, on the face of unofficial returns, by 467 majority over Roland F. Quillen, Democrat.

Joseph Morris Harrington, of Felton, Republican, is elected State Auditor over Mrs. Mabel F. Derby, Democrat, of near Felton, by 4689 majority. Mrs. Derby's name was put by Democrats all through the State, accounting for the big majority rolled up against her.

Dr. Charles M. Hollis, of Seaford, is elected Insurance Commissioner on the face of the unofficial figures by 37 majority over Norman Collison, Democrat.

The Republican county ticket in New Castle County, with one exception, was elected by majorities ranging from 1149 to 3978.

The lone exception was the election of John Walls, Democrat, for sheriff, over Samuel A. McDaniel, Republican. On the face of unofficial figures Walls has a majority of 4180.

The Democrats elected their county tickets in Kent and Sussex Counties. The New Castle County Levy Court will be Republican, the Republicans having elected Hamilton Stewart, in Wilmington and Delaware S. Wright, in the Fourth district, and Democrats having elected Thomas W. Truitt in the Sixth district and James A. Hart in the Seventh district. There are two hold-over Republicans and one hold-over Democrat.

The Democrats elected Messrs. Sheldrake and Boyer to the Levy Court in Kent County and the Republicans elected George C. Hering by a majority of 6.

The next Legislature will be controlled in both branches by the Democrats. The Democrats elected seven and the Republicans four State Senators yesterday and the Democrats also elected 23 and the Republicans elected 12 Representatives. The next Senate will be composed of ten Democrats and seven Republicans, each party having three hold-over Senators.

Red Cross Roll Call—November 11

OUR RED CROSS

The American Red Cross serves this country in many ways. It helps our ex-Service men, gives generous aid in times of disaster and suffering, and trains a host of Public Health nurses. Its duties never end.

It is YOUR Red Cross. Will YOU do your part to make it always ready for Service?

The Roll Call will be taken in Newark from Armistice Day until Thanksgiving.

BIG PARADE IN TOWN ON ARMISTICE DAY

All Urged to Turn Out or Help in Some Way. Two Bands in Line

VETERANS TO MARCH

Newark is to have an Armistice Day celebration after all. Up until the beginning of this week little enthusiasm could be raised and it looked very discouraging. However, through the persistent efforts of J. C. Hastings and several other business men, backed by the Chamber of Commerce, the show will be put on. Mr. Hastings has communicated with several organizations of the town and finds them all in favor of a short parade in the morning.

The Continental Fibre Company will be out in a body, accompanied by their band. This announcement was joyously received and did more than anything else to insure the parade. Chief among the marchers will be the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. The ex-soldiers were very glad to be able to help the cause along. The school children will be out in force, led by Superintendent Owens. Then will come the many fraternal organizations who have enthusiastically given their support. The Red Men's Band will provide the music for this division.

The parade is scheduled to start promptly at 10 o'clock from its assembly point on Delaware Avenue at Wolf Hall. All marchers are urged to be at this point between 9:30 and 10 a. m. on next Saturday. The parade will move down Delaware Avenue to Academy Street, thence to Main Street, to Elkton Road, to Delaware Avenue and back to Wolf Hall. The business houses of the town as well as the residences will be decorated in the National colors.

The ceremony on the green before Wolf Hall will be short and impressive. Music by the bands and plenty of community singing will be followed by an appropriate address by a prominent speaker, yet to be named.

The whole ceremony should be over shortly after eleven.

Let everyone get behind this admirable effort and get in the parade. If that is out of the question, be at the speaking and do what you can to push the Armistice Day Celebration and make it a success.

G. M. FISHER, STATE TREASURER DIES SUDDENLY

Prominent Fruit Grower and Active in Politics. End Came While Resting at Home

FUNERAL ON FRIDAY

George M. Fisher, a prominent Kent County citizen and Treasurer of the State of Delaware, succumbed to an acute attack of heart trouble yesterday while resting at his home in Wyoming. His death came as a shock to his family and to State officials. He was 77 years old.

While Mr. Fisher has not been in good health for some time he did complain especially of feeling ill this morning. He got up at his usual time and after attending to the heater at his home he went to the post office for his mail. On his return he lay down on the couch. A short time later, when a member of the family went to arouse him, he was dead. He is survived by his wife and two sons, William Fisher, of Wyoming, and George M. Fisher, an attorney, of Dover.

The deceased had been a fruit broker in Wyoming for many years. He was just closing his second term as State Treasurer, which would have expired the first of the year. He had been active in Republican politics in Kent County for many years. Death came to the State officials this morning before he had an opportunity to vote. It is said to have been his intention to rest for a short time on the couch and then go to the polls.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the Lodge of Odd Fellows for years and was a past grand master of the order in this State.

The Governor will appoint as successor for the unexpired term, the victor of today's election for the office of State Treasurer.

Funeral services will be held from his late home Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Odd Fellows' cemetery, Camden, Del.

MANY GUESTS AT CENTURY CLUB LUNCHEON

NEXT MEETING NOV. 14

The First Annual Club Luncheon held by the local New Century Club last Wednesday proved beyond a doubt to be the most successful affair of that kind held here in many years. In addition to the membership of the club, guests were present from all over the State. To the ladies who worked so hard for the success of the luncheon goes a great deal of credit, among them Mrs. E. B. Wright and her committee and Mrs. R. W. Heim and the Hospitality Committee. Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, president of the Club, deserves special mention for the graceful manner in which she presided at the afternoon meeting and for her guidance and counsel throughout the affair. Team No. 7 is to be thanked for the dozen candlesticks and flower baskets which were used in the decorative scheme.

The next meeting of the Club will take place on Tuesday afternoon, November 14th, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will be as follows: Music from Edward McDowell, Mrs. W. E. Holton; Music from Ethelbert Nevin, Mrs. George E. Dutton and Miss Mary Houston. Miss Houston will sing several selections.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLANS BIG DINNER

Preliminary Arrangements Made at Interesting Meeting Monday Night

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS

The Newark Chamber of Commerce met in the Fire House Monday evening last, and although a great percentage of the members were conspicuous by their absence, the meeting nevertheless managed to make some definite progress along several lines. Chief among the subjects brought before the body was the advisability of holding another banquet in the near future. President Griffin spoke of the success of the last one and laid the meeting open to helpful suggestions. After some discussion, Mr. Hastings moved that such an affair be held on the 23rd of this month in the Commons of the University of Delaware.

The details of the dinner are now being worked out. The Committee appointed comprised the following men: J. C. Hastings, George Medill, R. W. Heim, W. A. Wilkinson, J. Earl Dougherty and T. R. Dantz. It was also decided to invite as guests of the Chamber the mayors of the principle towns throughout the State. A prominent speaker will be engaged and there will be plenty of music and singing to liven the party and give some of the town's reticent tenors and basses a chance to shine. Tickets will soon be on sale with the tax probably at $1.25 per plate.

About Those Sidewalks

Later in the meeting the well-worn topic of better sidewalks was brought before the meeting by Mr. Medill and Mr. Hastings. Particularly strong comments were thrown in the general direction of Depot Road, and it was the consensus of opinion that the present path along the side reminds one of a mountain goat's highway in the Canadian Rockies, except that this one is level. The majority of the populace of the town still walk in the roadway, always in imminent danger from passing cars. This street could be made the most beautiful in all the State. The University of Delaware, through Mr. A. G. Wilkinson will be approached in a few days about the probability of completing the sidewalk along their property. With that step forward, the rest of the property holders, it is believed, would readily come through with their share of the expense of continuing the walk to the station.

Thoroughly exhausted and spent for words, the Chamber decided to "call it a day" at a late hour. Concerted action was impossible with the handful present, but it was confidently stated by many of the members that a big dinner might do the trick. Let's go.

DR. HULLIHEN UNDERGOES OPERATION

Now Resting Easily in Johns Hopkins Hospital. Would Not Leave Library Drive

Dr. Walter Hullihen, President of the University of Delaware, underwent an operation for the removal of gall stones on Sunday last in the Hospital of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, Md. Dr. Hullihen left Newark Saturday and hopes to be his active self again in three weeks or less. Mrs. Hullihen left Sunday for the hospital to be near him when the operation was performed. Unwillingness to leave the Library Campaign, in which he was always an outstanding figure, and other pressing business delayed his preparations for the ordeal which he had planned for early in the Fall. Immediately after the drive closed, his physician urged him to prepare for the operation as soon as possible. The operation was a great success and the patient is resting as well as can be expected.

THOSE WHO WILL CALL THE ROLL

The Newark Committee which will canvass the town in the interests of the annual Red Cross Drive has been appointed with Mrs. C. B. Evans as chairman. The balance of the committee is as follows:

Miss Jane Maxwell, Mrs. Reese Griffin, Miss Eleanor E. Todd, Miss Alice Kerr, Miss Audrey Miller, Mrs. H. L. Bonham, Miss Catherine Steel, Miss Lela Waters, Miss Anderson, Mrs. E. B. Wright, Mrs. Anna Willis Steel, Miss Edna Campbell, Miss Hannah Marney, Mrs. J. O. G. Duffy, Mrs. Harry Davis.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE CELEBRATE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING

Attractive Ceremonies by Undergraduates Followed by Exercises in Wolf Hall. Sophomores Plant Tree. Seniors Invested with Caps and Gowns

BRYN MAWR PROFESSOR DELIVERS ADDRESS

The Campus of the Women's College presented a pretty sight despite the drab weather on Saturday afternoon. The annual ceremonies relative to Founders' Day made a full but pleasant day for faculty, students and visitors alike. Early in the afternoon the Sophomore class planted their tree before Sussex Hall. Following this, the spade was presented by Miss Grace Reed to the Freshman class as a reminder to keep alive the custom. Then the Freshman looked pretty while they received the Class Colors from Miss Mildred Wolfenden, President of the Junior class. The members of each class were dressed alike and presented a mighty pretty spectacle to the group of relatives and friends grouped on the campus.

At 2.30 the scene was shifted to Wolf Hall. Here addresses were made by Miss Mary N. Handy, President of the Student Self-Government Association of the College and Mrs. William Roy Smith, Professor of Economics at Bryn Mawr College. Mrs. Smith made a particularly effective speech to the girls upon the general subject of careers for women and the responsibility of choosing one. The two great divisions of Life to which everyone must fit in are those of Creation and Organization. The speaker then gave several instances to show how girls may find a career, but at no time did she urge any one vocation, preferring it to come through natural channels. Her address was greatly appreciated and many of her practical and homely illustrations were filled with dry humor.

After the conclave in Wolf Hall, a reception was held in Residence Hall for the guests and friends of the college. Tea was served from four to six.

Mrs. Rebecca Shellender celebrated the anniversary of her ninetieth birthday in royal fashion on Sunday, November 5th, at the home of her son-in-law, Thomas Riley, Newark. MASQUERADE BALL A GREAT SUCCESS

Armory Scene of Last Big Halloween Party on Saturday Night. Many Attractive Costumes

Miss Towson Wins Silver Cup

The old Armory on Delaware Avenue was the scene last Saturday evening of the big Halloween Masked Ball to which the younger people of this and nearby towns have had their eyes fastened for a long time, and it was a tremendous success in every way.

Perhaps 300 people danced to the excellent music dispensed by the Serenaders, a local orchestra which is fast gaining prominence in this section. The dance itself, by the way, was given by the enterprising musicians and reflects great credit upon them. The spacious hall was beautifully decorated, black and orange being the principal colors woven into the display. The orchestra was placed in the center of the floor and was banked in with attractive ferns, flowers and other decorations.

Many of the costumes were most original and attractive. The silver loving cup, given by the Serenaders for the most beautiful costume was won by Miss Alma Towson. The prize for the most original get-up went to Tom Armstrong, which carried with it $5.00 in cash. The most comical costume on the floor, with a 5-pound box of candy as the prize, was worn by Bud Stewart, of Providence, Md.

ACCURACY in ACCOUNTING

Within the memory of persons still living the word "accounting" brought up a picture of a man on a high stool writing with a quill pen and using sand instead of blotting paper.

But the telephone belongs to a newer era, and telephone accounting is as modern and as accurate as is humanly possible.

The men and women who do the accounting work are careful and take every precaution to avoid mistakes.

For they know that errors sometimes cause misunderstandings.

When mistakes do occur—and they are bound to occur once in a while—every effort is made to adjust them.

To adjust them courteously.

For in the accounting, as in every branch of the telephone organization, the Bell people work with the idea constantly before them that courtesy pays.

ELKTON COUPLE IN MIDNIGHT MARRIAGE

On Sunday evening of this week at the still and spooky hour of midnight two of Elkton's prominent young people were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. Daniel Lockertie, at his home here, and the next day news of the exciting event caused gobs of discussion. For the younger people the romantic tang to the affair seemed uppermost in their minds, while the older folks decided that they should have been in on it and that it was a darned shame that they had to go and get married when everybody was asleep.

All of which means that Miss Elizabeth Scott and Mr. Edgar Newton, of the Newton Mitchell Ice Cream Co., are the happy couple. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Wilmington and other points on their honeymoon by motor.

Over Elkton Way

An interesting comment on the influence of the Press could be written on the recent Bond Issue for School Improvement in Cecil County. With two of the leading Elkton papers opposing it, the public schools and democracy won out by the intelligence and confidence of a popular vote. The majority was 106. Thus do many and strange things happen.

The doors of the Second National Bank of Elkton opened Monday last after a long and most unsatisfactory vacation. To see the crowd around one would think a modern bargain sale was going on or that the officials had opened up a keg of their very best barb wire cider. Sad to relate, neither was the case. It was only a group of beautifully trimmed depositors waiting to get what they could while the getting was ripe. It constituted the first dividend paid by Receiver Perkins and amounted to 10 per cent. Mr. Perkins and his staff were almost buried with the work of paying off the eager depositors. Then he stated for the benefit of all that only a few months more and another dividend would be ready at probably 20 per cent. We are reminded in this case of the old man who walked across the path of a trolley car, was hurled through the air into a horse trough and almost drowned beside having both legs broken. When he was able to talk in the hospital, the first words he uttered were, "Well, folks, it might have been worse."

Not long ago we heard a remark dropped in passing to the effect that Elkton was a one-horse town of purest ray serene. Furthermore it was stated that the Maryland metropolis had an acute ailment called backwardness. That's funny. They had the biggest parade seen in this section for many years last week, are arranging detailed plans for an Armistice Day Ceremony, and are in line to receive into their midst a well-known book publishing firm as one of their industries. Outside of these items, they are opening up the real estate barrel and enlarging the town. All this without a Board of Trade, too. In comparison to some of its well-known and esteemed neighboring towns, we believe Elkton isn't so terribly far behind.

Mrs. Evelyn S. France, wife of Senator Joseph L. France, is the defendant in a suit instituted by Clara V. Turner, a former teacher in Tome Institute. The suit calls for $1300 for alleged failure on the part of Mrs. France to make payments on a life income for services rendered. This mix-up added, added to the depressing news of the Senator's defeat for reelection, would seem to make the France home anything but a harbor of joy this week.

ELKTON PLANS IMPRESSIVE ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM

Memorial At Court House to be Scene of Ceremony. Former Chaplain to Speak

Elkton will not forget the debt she owes to her brave sons who fell while in the service of their country in the Great War. On next Saturday evening, the whole town is expected to turn out to pay homage to their memories of these men at an impressive ceremony at the Memorial before the Court House. No elaborate parade or noisy celebration will mark this event. It is to be a plain and simple gathering of the home folks to do honor to their sons who held high the torch of liberty.

The ceremony will start promptly at seven in the evening and will continue for one hour. Before that time it is requested that all wreaths and flowers will have been placed at the foot of the Memorial statue, and the committee in charge makes this request. The speaking will take place from the Howard House porch.

It is expected that not only the citizens of Elkton, but residents from all over Cecil County will be present to witness the services. As the years wear on, the coming of Armistice Day awakes in every breast a more intense desire to pay respect to those who gave their all. It is most fitting that this homage shall be paid by the people who knew these men and loved them so well.

The program for the ceremony follows:

Music—Elkton Band
Invocation—Rev. Sidney Dixon
Singing—M. E. Church Choir
Taps for Our Heroes
Music—Elkton Band
Address—Rev. Father McLaughlin, Former Chaplain 115th Inf.

Benediction—Rev. John E. McElmoyle

Women's College Notes

Mrs. A. D. Warner has presented to the Library F. Hopkinson Smith's "Venice of Today." This is a four volume edition, beautifully bound in red morocco with exquisite gold tooling. The books are very large and contain a description as well as signed sketches and paintings of Venice. It is a joy to examine a book of such artistic make-up. The inside covers are lined with watered silk. The best paper is used. The colored scenes are very fine, but do not over-shadow the black and white effects on oil skin paper.

The students in the art courses at the Women's College have been especially appreciative of this gift. It is hoped that the Memorial Library will offer facilities for displaying such treasures as these volumes. Hopkinson Smith's paintings are certainly worthy of careful study.

Dean Robinson and the resident faculty at the Women's College entertained at dinner, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Mitchell, Saturday evening. Their guests were: Dean and Mrs. Smith, Dean and Mrs. McCue, Dr. Sypherd, Mrs. A. D. Warner, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Curtis, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Johnson, Dr. Harter and Miss Harter.

Estelle Kite will go to Baltimore, November 11th, to meet with the Executive Council of the Student Volunteer Union of Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia. Plans will be made at this meeting for the Student Volunteer Conference of the Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia Union, which is to be held at the University of Delaware, February 16 to 18, 1923. Miss Kite is secretary for the Union. Other members of the Executive Council are from Johns Hopkins University, Goucher College and Johns Hopkins Nurses' Training School. Leaders of student volunteer bands of all the colleges and normal schools in Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia will meet with the Executive Council.

Governor Issues Proclamation

Observation of Armistice Day as petitioned by the American Legion is urged in a proclamation issued yesterday by Governor Denney. The proclamation follows:

"Armistice Day, 1922, commemorates the successful ending of the world's greatest war. I therefore, earnestly request the people of our State, on Saturday, November 11, 1922, to recall the sacrifices made by those who died and those who suffered in the late World War.

"Let this day be generally observed throughout the State by appropriate exercises and let us join with the American Legion in making this day worthy to be remembered."

WM. D. DENNEY,
Governor of Delaware.

DAYS POLITICAL NEWS KEEPS WIRES HOT

"Hold her New't, she's a rearin'" is about the best description that can be given of the political centers in Delaware as we go to press. Claims and contradictions were still in vogue late this afternoon. Early this morning it appeared that duPont was elected by a small margin and Layton defeated by an overwhelming vote. At noon, reports from Sussex had duPont defeated. At 3 o'clock a round of inquiries from various sources of information leaves the head of the ticket still undecided. Whichever way it goes, the majority will be slight. Party leaders and managers are so confused that any reasonable comment seems impossible.

NEWSPAPER MEN HOSTS TO DAVID SNELLENBURG

Prominent Wilmington Merchant Honored by Governor, Senators, and Mayor in Testimonial

WILMINGTON BOOSTER FOR 27 YEARS

To David Snellenburg goes the distinction of being royally entertained by every newspaper man in Wilmington and immediate vicinity, of having placed in his hands a splendid framed testimonial to his unselfish and hard work for Wilmington's progress signed by the Governor of the State, United States Senators Ball and duPont and Mayor Harvey. In addition to these honors he heard a word from each of the men who are the backbone of the Wilmington press—a word of comradely praise and congratulation from his cronies and fellow workers. What it meant to Mr. Snellenburg could be seen in his reply to the assembled diners. His heart was full and his voice almost broke as he realized what futile attempt it was to make a speech of acceptance.

The Club Room of the Hotel duPont was the scene, on Monday evening, October 30th, of the sumptuous dinner, carefully served under the personal direction of Mr. Harry Harkins, who was also a guest. During the meal impromptu visits to the assembled newspaper men and their guests were made by Hon. T. Coleman duPont, Dr. Walter Hüllihen, and Everett C. Johnson, who were attending the final Library Drive dinner the same evening. Dr. Hüllihen, in a brief speech, thanked most heartily the newspaper men of Wilmington for their whole-souled aid in the great campaign.

"What's this I hear about calling VICTORY NOTES?"

We explained to this customer that half of the Victory Notes have been called December 15, 1922.

"How can I tell whether mine are in the called half?"

We explained that the called Notes bear one of the following letters: A-B-C-D-E-F. He examined the Victory Notes in his Safe Deposit Box and found that two of them were called.

"Do I send these to Washington?" he asked.

We informed him that we would collect the proceeds for him free of charge and credit them to his savings account. He was glad to make this arrangement.

TEACHERS PLANNING TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

The business of organization of Local Units, preparatory to the Convention at Dover on November 9th and 10th, is proceeding rapidly. Returns are coming in daily from Units which have organized 100 per cent. The Association has had the unusual record of doubling its membership each year of its existence. It started in 1919 with a membership of 192; 1920 saw this number increase to 427; 1921 brought the number up to 854, or approximately 184 per cent of the teaching force of the State. Since doubling is no longer possible, the slogan this year is "100 per cent membership."

An amendment to the Constitution, passed by the Executive Board, is to be presented to the Representative Assembly for ratification, by which the name will be changed to Delaware State Education Association and active membership enlarged to include all interested in education. The Constitution provides for the formation of units within the Association based upon interest or geographic location. This provision of the Constitution together with the proposed amendment makes possible the union of all educational interests in the State in one working organization.

The school authorities, realizing the importance of this meeting, have given teachers wishing to attend permission to close schools on the days of the meeting.

A SIGNAL HONOR

The Trustees and Congregation of the Methodist Episcopal Church have extended an invitation to the Rev. Frank Herson to continue as pastor for the coming year. This will make his sixth consecutive year in Newark, the longest term served by any minister in the local church. This news is the most effective way in which the people of his congregation could show their respect and admiration for the man and his work.

JOSEPH THE BENEDICT

Word was received in Newark Saturday last of the marriage, on September 4, 1920, of Miss Odella Camblin, of Elkton, to Mr. Joseph S. Wilson, of Newark, Del. The announcement was made at a party given at the home of the bride in Elkton Friday night.

Although some of his intimate friends were of the opinion that Joseph was enmeshed in the toils of matrimony, the news came as a complete surprise to many of the young couple's friends. To keep the event a secret for more than two years is no mean feat to say the least. Congratulations are strictly in order now, and they both have the sincere good wishes of their host of friends. Mr. Wilson will no doubt continue as a member of the faculty and athletic director of Newark High School.

MISS SNYDER ADDRESSES PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Splendid Meeting Held Last Thursday Night. Demonstration Given

GROUP SYSTEM URGED

One of the best meetings in recent months was held last Thursday night in the High School by the local Parent-Teacher Association. When the meeting was called to order shortly after eight, the room was full and many stood up in the rear and in the hallway.

The principal speaker was Miss Agnes Snyder, Director of Practice Teaching at the Women's College. Miss Snyder spoke on the November topic of the State Program—"The School and What It Should Do for the Child." Her address was well prepared and splendidly given. Most of the points she brought out were directed at local conditions and the possible remedies for them.

The nucleus of her talk was built around the so-called Group System, which is becoming so popular in the public schools. By means of a standard list of tests, the school children are examined as to their ability along various lines of work. Those who are on a par in proportion to their ages are then placed in a group, and given work which does neither tax their natural ability nor makes the going too easy. The grouping in the Newark Schools, according to Miss Snyder, is quite irregular and many children are hampered by being placed in grades in which they do not rightfully belong. The use of these tests was urged by the speaker. Eventually, age will have little effect upon the grading of children, for those of the same ability will be always grouped together.

Miss Snyder then spoke of the great opportunity which modern teaching methods give to the boy or girl of the creative turn of mind. Many children leave school each year because they are not keeping up with the class work and become tired and disgusted. If there were something for these kids to do in the way of making useful things, drawing, painting or sewing, they would then have an outlet for the creative ability which may be hidden in them. This, said Miss Snyder, is becoming a most popular and commendable part of later day teaching. Along this line, some brushes were exhibited by pupils of the local schools which amply illustrated the speaker's point. In closing, Miss Snyder said, "We have very efficient teachers in the Newark schools at present and the parents should realize that they are expending untiring and earnest efforts to make the school a place where children want to be. The continual removal and transfer of teachers each year is directly against the policy of an efficient and useful school."

Before Miss Snyder's address, Miss Cooper gave a demonstration, using school children as her subjects. A class in reading was held with Miss Cooper doing the teaching and as the expression with which the children read and by the evident interest they had in their characters. All these little things help make school a dandy character appeared in the story, one of the children would assume that character and try to impersonate by voice and action his idea of the interpretation. The other children did likewise. The audience was amazed at the place to spend the long winter days.

Mrs. C. O. Houghton, during the business meeting, preceding the speaking, appointed a Nominating Committee and also a committee to send cards soliciting members and the payment of back dues.

The members of these committees are:

Nominating Committee—Miss Etta Wilson, Miss Mary Hoffecker, Mrs. George Medill.

Committee on Membership and Dues—Mrs. G. A. Stewart, Mrs. H. K. Preston, Mr. C. C. Hubert.

HARRY JACKSON

LEAVES COLLEGE
Harry R. Jackson, of Dover, Del., for the last year and a half a star athlete at the University, left last week to accept a position with a tire and rubber firm in New York City. He will travel through the New England States.

Jackson while in Delaware was an all-round athlete. His particular ability lay in football and baseball. In both these sports he was a mainstay of the team. Never exceedingly brilliant, nor temperamental, he was always in the game and played it for all he was worth. He made a host of friends, both in the town of Newark as well as the University. The well wishes of all who knew Harry go with him in his new work. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

TO EXHIBIT GARMENTS

The annual business meeting of the Newark Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held Thursday afternoon, November 16th, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Evans.

Important business will be carried at this time. At 3 o'clock there will be an exhibition of garments that have been collected. Tea will be served and all members are urged to attend the work the Guild is doing.

Through the game in Dover, Fri-times football was witnessed by large crowd. M. Hopkins thrilled spectators by dodging and twisting through a broken field for 50 yards and a touchdown. Close behind him came Art Mayer, the little end, who snatched a long pass by a leaping catch and con-

yards being covered on the play.

A DAY OF UPSETS

Every once in a while when folks get to swinging along day after day, with everything happening as predicted, with the weather meekly following the commands of the forecaster and things like that, it's something akin to relief when your neighbor calls over the fence and deposits a juicy morsel of sensational news into your hungry ears, or the fire engine goes charging past, or your husband comes home with the mumps. All these things, you know, go to make up the surprises of Life. Too many of them drive people to nervous prostration. Too few of them do exactly the same thing. And there you have it.

Looking at it from a sporting standpoint, it is the element of surprise that keeps the American people interested. If, we will say, 50,000 people see a team from a good big college crush a team from a good little college, 49,567 of the spectators will wish they had stayed home and gone to the movies, because they knew darned well it would be a walkover. But on the other mitten, if the little team rises in all its mighty wrath and smites the big team quite soundly and with great abandon and drives its way through to a win, the same 49,567 will rush back to their several homes and enlighten the family circle with first hand information and expert criticism straight from the front, and moreover they will continue the same procedure in office and factory for weeks to come. It is the thrill of watching the under dog, the outsider, the selling plater, come through to glorious victory which keeps American sports alive and flaming.

Saturday was just such a day. In the football world, two distinct and complete reversals of the well known dope took place on Eastern gridirons when mighty Nebraska fell before Syracuse and the "Crimson Tide" from sunny Alabama conquered Penn. It was all fixed that Nebraska would walk over the prostrate forms of the Orange warriors to many touchdowns. The powerful Cornhuskers with their hulking 200 pound line and their smashing tearing, merciless backfield came out of the West with more menace in their bearing than a Kansas cyclone. Syracuse, however, would not be beaten.
Their team played marvelous football and fought the western maulers to a standstill. Not content with that, they went out there in the second half and won the old game. And there was nothing fluky about the victory, either.

Old Penn, after its notable victory over the Navy, started in to toy with the team from Alabama. Before the first quarter was five minutes old they knew they were playing with fire. The sons of Dixie gritted their teeth, and drove the Red and Blue up and down the field in a furious and consistent attack which could not be denied. Of course, it must be said that Penn underrated the Southerners, but let that in no way detract from Alabama's victory. They played better football all the way. And 9-7 does not tell the story of their superiority.

These two games stood out on Saturday's card as living examples of the futility of doping out football. Anything may happen in four quarters.
If it doesn't happen this year it will next. And after all, isn't it just these upsets which provide the thrills which we all love in athletics?

The one man to whom the tide of battle means little or nothing is the Hot Dog Man. The only thing he roots for is fair weather and customers.

ISN'T IT TRUE?

The two things in life most sought after, the two greatest temporal blessings, are health and money. Man, as a rule, covets money and wastes health. He guards money too carefully and conserves health too little. When we consider the thousand doors that lead to death, it is indeed marvelous how long a man lasts. When we dwell on the truth that money has wings, it is remarkable that so many folks are able to keep so much of it caged.

Being able to drive 200 yards on the golf links, to tramp over the brown earth and make the course in a reasonable number of strokes, is worth more to a man than to sit in a wheel-chair and cut coupons from Liberty bonds.
But you will never, never believe this until you get into a wheel-chair.

We once heard a rich man who was dying of cancer say, "I would gladly change places with the street sweeper or the garbage man if I could only be rid of this thing that is sapping my life away." Poor fellow, he had worked hard all his life and made his fortune, but when the time came to enjoy it, he suffered and died.

There is a lot of cold-nosed truth in the saying: "Health's more than money." Most active-minded, intelligent men do not fully appreciate this fact, and go on wasting their health, grubbing for money.

Being able to run a hundred yards in twelve seconds, being able to swim, shoot, play shortstop, being able to box a little and to whistle a lot, having a strong physique, is rather to be chosen than the largest safety deposit box ever welded. Suffer pain, and all the comforts that cash can buy would be exchanged for the guarantee of good health.

Although the rules of this column strictly forbid hasty predictions, we are willing to wager a couple of family heirlooms and a bottle of ginger ale thrown in that we can pick the winner of the Army and Navy game. It's the bird who tries to sell you a seat under the grandstand for thirty dollars.
We nominate the Speculator to win under wraps.

Final Quarter

McDonald Scores Lone Tally

Delaware travelled to Hoboken Saturday last and trounced the Stevens eleven in a game full of good old-fashioned straight football. Score, 7-0. The figures do not actually show the comparative strength between the two teams, for the Blue and Gold were for the most part superior to the Engineers in all departments. The score was kept down due to the lack of drive in the last quarter. By that time, the Newark gladiators were weary and spent and, although still presenting an almost impenetrable defense, they could not develop the needed power to carry on their offensive play. No less than four times during the last half were they inside Stevens' 10-yard line, only to be held without score. In the waning minutes of the game, Delaware rushed the ball to the one-yard line. There the Stevens defense took on a desperate brace, and the invaders were held for downs.

The main Delaware drive started late in the first quarter from midfield and straight down the field they marched on line bucks, delayed bucks and thrusts off-tackle. Just before the whistle blew ending the quarter, Williams stepped briskly around end
and was pulled down on the Stevens 35-yard line. From then on Delaware
Donald finally carrying it over on an off-tackle shift. This play, by the way, was effective all through the game and much yardage was gained by its use.

Stevens started off like the proverbial burning bard, and on end runs and line plunges by McCaffery and O'Callaghan drove through to Delaware's 10-yard line, but were there held for downs. From then on, they were mostly on the defensive. No appreciable gains were made through Delaware's forward line.

Two of the most loyal rooters on the Delaware sidelines were James Elliott and William Howard, who hiked their way all the way from Newark to Hoboken, picking up rides from passing motorists on the way.
Howard immediately became a self-elected cheer leader for the small band of ardent Delaware rooters who witnessed the game. The lineup:

GROOMING FOR ELKTON

In the first real test of the season,
Newark battled Middletown to a scoreless tie on the latter's field Saturday afternoon. Although handicapped by lack of practice and coaching, and many of the players not having played together before, Newark put up a very creditable showing against their more seasoned opponents. The struggle was waged back and forth across the field, but neither team carried the necessary punch to put the ball over. Several times was Middletown in a position to score but the local's line held and disaster was prevented. In the first quarter, an attempted field goal by McWhorter from Newark's 25-yard line was short by inches. Hoeffcker and Cornog were the outstanding stars for Newark, but the green line must come in for its full measure of praise for the fight they put up all through the game.

Newark is in earnest in its attempt to put a real football team on the field, and there is no reason why it should not be a winning one. There are plenty of good gridiron exponents running around loose, just aching for the feel of the old pigskin again.
Without whole-hearted co-operation and hard work, there is no chance.
When Newark puts a team out on the field, it should be the best aggregation possible. Sometime not so far in the future it is the hope of local enthusiasts to engage Elkton in mortal battle. Already the topic is being discussed all over town. And to trample rough shod over the Marylanders would fill us all with pure un-diluted joy. Can it be done?

For One Week, Starting Thursday, Nov. 9th

The HOME DRUG CO., Inc., will hold their Annual One Cent Sale. In this sale we offer to the people of Newark and vicinity an opportunity to purchase Drugs, Sundries, Stationery, and other merchandise at Great Savings.

This is not an experiment—we held a One Cent Sale last year and it was such a success that we ran out of merchandise in two days' time. This year we have a larger assortment and greater values.

On numerous articles we are running a regular One Cent Sale. The plan of this sale is to sell articles at the Standard Price and then for One Cent additional another article is added—in other words, 25c articles are sold at Two for 26c.
