Newark Students Wins Laurels At U. of D. Honors Day Event

Former Illinois Sen. Paul H. Douglas, Guest Speaker At Annual Convocation, Cites Disadvantage For Poor In Seeking Public Office; Local Students Win Honors

It has become increasingly difficult for a poor man to run for public office, former Illinois Sen. Paul H. Douglas told a University of Delaware Honors Day convocation audience last Thursday morning.

"There are built-in forces now at work which, if not corrected, will cause our government to be controlled by and for the wealthy rather than by the people, and to become a plutocracy rather than a democracy," Douglas said.

"The immediate hurdle which any citizen for either the House or the Senate must face is the terrific cost of running for office. Elections today cost enormous sums of money and this requirement is one of the most corrupting influences in public life," Douglas declared.

Open Payments
Advocating open payments for campaign costs as a means of protecting candidates from heavy financial losses or questionable practices, Douglas argued "the people ultimately now pay many times over these campaign costs, but they do so after election in covert . . . It would be far better for the people to pay before election and do so openly. This would save money, reduce corruption, and permit able and good men of meagre means to run for office."

Acting President John W. Shirley presented 10 university, two inter-collegiate and 13 college awards; 20 departmental prizes, and four course awards recognizing distinguished academic achievement.

He also cited those elected to 10 national honor societies, all of whom have a 3.0 or better scholastic index, in addition to qualities of leadership and other specific attributes required for membership.

Local Laurels
Newark students honored include Glenn W. Ingram, named to the panel of distinguished seniors and to Phi Kappa Phi; Susan Jane Robinson, who received the American Association of University Women Award for highest scholastic average in the first semester of her senior year; and Liana Dixon, the American Chemical Society Award as the outstanding junior woman major in chemistry.

Richard D. Stearns received a $100 award as an outstanding junior in civil engineering; Barbara Leedom, the National Business Education Association Award as outstanding senior in business education; and Gerald Magdonald, the Rohm and Haas Award of $500 as an outstanding chemical and chemistry student.

Tindall Memorial
Barbara Horan won the Margaret Lynne Tindall Memorial Prize in English Literature; Thomas Y. Davies, Robert Barrie Ulin Award as an outstanding senior in political science; and Robert J. Halstead, the Craven Prize of $75 for superior knowledge of political and constitutional history of the United States.

John V. Parker was elected to membership in Beta Gamma Sigma national honor society for business administration; Bonnie and Ellen Bretz, Penelope Dean, Elizabeth A. Harris, Barbara Leedom, and Betty N. Lewis to Kappa Delta Pi education honor society; and Virginia E. Johnson to Mortar Board senior women's honor society.

Phi Beta Kappa
David H. Dyer and Wayne E. Shurtz were elected to Omicron Delta Epsilon national honor society for economics; and Davis, James H. Hammond, Barbara Harlan, Beverly H. Jones, Susan Robinson, Mary Tingey, and Judith Woodward were elected to Phi Beta Kappa national honor society for liberal arts.

Elected to Phi Kappa Phi for superior scholarship in all fields were Newark students Esther M. Carman, Liana E. Dixon, Marie P. Jay, Beverly Jones, Janet McCord, Lola Mitchell, and Charles Sheldy. Judith Woodward was named to the Psi Chi psychology society; Timothy Suratt to Sigma Xi Sigma national honor society in physics; and John Guala, William E. Houle, Richard Stearns, and David Wimberly to Tau Beta Pi for engineering achievement.

Roberts' Poetry Urges Improved Race Relationship

A collection of poems urging better race relations, "Flowers from the Ghetto," written by Percy Roberts, has just been published by Dorrance & Co., Philadelphia.

Roberts is the laureate of Percival R. Roberts III, poet laureate of Delaware from 1964 to 1966. An established poet in his own right, the senior Roberts has an earlier collection of his poems, "Minor Prelude," published in 1966.

He was editor of the Poetry Press and is an honorary member of Poets Laureate International.

The author explains he has been the owner of a tavern in a predominantly Negro area of Washington for a number of years and has a firsthand knowledge of racial problems.

Seven Win $1,000 Teaching Awards With Honors Day

Ass't Professors At UD Honored For Excellence In Teaching On Campus

Seven University of Delaware faculty members received $1,000 Excellence in Teaching Awards last Thursday morning during the traditional Honors Day convocation on the central campus mall.

Acting President John W. Shirley, who made the presentations, said that this year's awards were given to young faculty members with no more than five years of full-time teaching experience on the basis of outstanding classroom performance, contribution to curricular development and effective advisement to students.

Funds for the awards are provided by the Christian R. and Mary F. Landbank Foundation and the University of Delaware Alumni Association.

Honored for their outstanding performance are assistant professors Dr. John Burpolet, chemistry; Mary E. Barry, medical-surgical nursing; Dr. W. Bruce Finkle, English; Edith G. Gifford, languages and literature; Dr. William B. Moody, education; Dr. Dennis T. Rishall, business administration; and Dr. T. W. Fraser Russell, chemical engineering.

Other faculty members were recognized by election to national honor societies. These include Dr. Charles N. Landel, professor of economics and business administration to Beta Gamma Sigma; Dr. Charles H. Bohner, professor of English, and Elizabeth F. Cronk, associate professor of music, to Kappa Delta Pi; Dr. Harry D. Hutcheson and Dr. Bertram F. Levin, associate professor of economics, to Phi Kappa Phi.

Dr. Wayne E. Craven, Henry F. du Pont associate professor of art history, and Dr. Franklin C. Dalbey, director, marine laboratories.

Dr. Florence L. Geis and Dr. Frederick A. Masterson, assistant professors of psychology, were elected to Psi Chi.

Christiana, Newark High School Plays Slated At Festival

Dramatic entries of 10 high schools were selected at regional festivals on April 27 for inclusion in the high school division of the Delaware Play Festival at the University of Delaware this Thursday and Friday.

Selected at regionals at Central Middle School in Dover were: Christiana High School's "Old Times Clay Pot," Dover High's "Waiting Room," Georgetown's "Alley," Gunning Bedford's "Open Window," and William Penn High's "House of Bernada Alba."

Chosen at regionals at Newark Central Junior High were: Alexis I. du Pont's "Impromptu," Friends "Anastasia," Ursuline Academy's "When the Whirlwind Blows," Mt. Pleasant's "Importance of Being Earnest," and Newark High School's "Spoon River."

Dr. C. Richard Gillespie was critic judge at the Dover festival and Davey Martin-Jones judged the Newark festival.

Three Local Men Enlist With Navy During April

The U.S. Navy Recruiting Station, 6th and King streets, Wilmington, enlisted three men from the Newark area during the month of April. The three sent to San Diego, Calif., for nine weeks of basic training are Joseph William Canace Jr., Harold Lee Moss, and John Christopher Barry.

Radaman Robert C. Thuet Serves On Ticonderoga

Radaman Robert C. Thuet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thuet, Jr., of 30 Carlisle Road, Brookside, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Air Wing-19 aboard the Ticonderoga, launched 363 raids in support of ground troops in South Vietnam.

In spite of bad weather, as many as 75 raids a day were flown against troop concentrations, gun positions, storage areas, supply routes, bunkers, trenches, foxholes and ammunition dumps.

Four From Newark Area Aid People For Peterson

Four Newark area residents are among 46 Delawareans serving as vice-chairmen for the "People for Peterson" organization to support candidacy of Russell W. Peterson for governor of Delaware.

McCarthy, Rockefeller Win Nominations For Presidency In UD Mock Convention

University of Delaware students at mock conventions last Saturday and Sunday, nominated Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Nelson A. Rockefeller for the presidency of the United States.

In Sunday's convention students named Negro comedian Dick Gregory as McCarthy's running mate, for the vice-presidency; and on Saturday, Republicans in the student body nominated Illinois Sen. Charles H. Percy for vice-president.

In their platforms, both parties called for an end of the draft and creation of a volunteer army. The GOP set a two-year time limit on the changes.

In the Democratic presidential vote, McCarthy defeated New York Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Gregory by an overwhelming margin. McCarthy received 1,152 votes, Kennedy 388 and Gregory 46.

In the vice-presidential vote, Gregory defeated Kennedy, Terry and Sen. Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania.

Republicans chose Rockefeller over former Vice President Richard M. Nixon by 556 votes to 463. There originally were three other candidates: Percy, California Gov. Ronald Reagan and Oregon Sen. Mark O. Hatfield. These names were withdrawn before the roll call.

Percy defeated Reagan, perennial candidate Harold Stassen and Russell W. Peterson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Delaware.

Guests at the GOP convention included State House Majority Leader Everett Hale, H-Norfolk, State Rep. William E. Hart, H-Newark, and Congressman Arthur P. Meyer of Newark.

One most curious incident occurred when his name was announced. Temporarily disbelieving the cries he was being named, McCarthy said he was going to accept a recent honors award.

State Sen. Margaret H. Montoya, P-Wilmington, also made an appearance and asked the convention to include in its platform a provision to give 16-year-olds right to vote.

The Republicans had Pennsylvania State Rep. Marvin E. Miller of Lancaster as keynote speaker. Miller called for party unity and said if unity is achieved "it will be victorious to be a Republican" in 1968.

The Democrats had neither chosen a speaker at their convention.

Ronson To Expand Plant At Ogletown In Consolidation

Operation In Connecticut To Close In July Transfer For Facility Near Newark

Ronson Corporation has announced plans to consolidate this summer all domestic electric appliances production in its Ogletown plant, which is being expanded to 200,000 sq. ft. as its 135-acre site near Newark on the John F. Kennedy Memorial Highway.

Louis V. Aronson II, Ronson president, stated that the consolidation program involved transfer of electric toothbrush and shaver operations from the 60,000-sq.-ft. plant which the company leases in Stamford, Conn., to Ronson's Ogletown appliance center.

The decision to consolidate the Stamford-Ogletown operations under one roof, the Ronson president said, was influenced by elimination of duplicate operations, virtually limitless plant expansion opportunities in the Ogletown plant in comparison with the leased, land-locked Stamford plant; the ability to ship Ronson appliances from one Ronson finished goods warehouse and shipping facility in the East rather than from two or three in the past; and the fact that all cordless shavers and toothbrushes made at Stamford use motors manufactured in Ogletown.

In a personal letter to each of the Stamford plant's 165 employees, Aronson told them of the plan to close the plant on July 26, and of his wish that they remain with Ronson by relocating to jobs at either Woodbridge, N.J., or in Delaware.

Pre-School Tests For First Graders Scheduled May 22

All Elementary Schools To Open That Day At 10 For Regular Class Pupils

Pre-school testing for all children who will enter the first grade in the Newark district next fall has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 22, at 8 a.m. in all ten district elementary public schools.

Parents should have prospective first graders at the elementary school at which they were registered by 8:00 a.m.

All elementary schools in the Newark Special School District will open at 10 a.m. Wednesday, May 22, to 10:00 a.m. pre-school testing for all children.

Elementary school bus reductions have been ordered so that the student will arrive at 10 o'clock instead of at the usual time.

Students who walk or are taken to school by parents should plan to arrive at school at 10 a.m. — not before — since there will be no provision for supervision of these early arrivals during the pre-school testing program.

Dr. John N. Auletto, director of the Newark student services office, urges all parents with students entering school in the fall to have their children take part in this testing program.

"This program is a major factor in helping us help children during their first year of school," Auletto added.

NHS Senior Girl Ann Gland Chosen For BPW Award

The Newark Business and Professional Women's Club has selected Ann Gland, an 18-year-old Newark High School senior, for the annual BPW award of $125 as a grant-in-aid for the college education of a senior girl from either of the two high schools in the Newark district.

Miss Gland was selected among candidates writing letters of their plans for education, Fern Reagen of the Newark BPW Club reports.

The award will be presented next Monday at the Newark Business and Professional Women's Club Charter Night banquet at the Horseshoe Casino, with President Bertha Pappas presiding.

Ann expects to attend the University of Delaware, and to teach English or history.

Her major interests are reading, drama, art, and hiking.

BOOKS IN REVIEW By Percy Maddux

"Old Bruin." Commemorative book. C. Perry 1794-1858. By Samuel Elliot Morrison. Little, Brown and Company, Boston. 510 pp. $12.50.

Jenny was married to the western world in the 1850s by an American naval officer, Matthew Calbraith Perry. But this was only the culmination of an eventful career, which is recounted in detail in Samuel Elliot Morrison's book "Old Bruin." As a captain, Perry earned his command so handsomely and quickly that he was named a commodore in 1841. Not until 1862 was the rank of commodore established in the United States Navy, but it was often an honorary title for a captain who was set over others of similar rank. So Oliver Hazard Perry was a commodore, and Matthew Calbraith Perry became a commodore when he was appointed commander of the New York Navy Yard in 1841.

Samuel Elliot Morrison is well known for his historical works, and in this book, which is well provided with illustrations and maps, he gives a graphic account of sailing on board the ship "Somers" and provides a vivid report of Perry's Mexican War activities.

He writes well, but he has fallen into the practice of ignoring established English idiom by referring to ships by name without the article, as though they were people. We are all aware of ancestors who came over on the Mayflower (not on Mayflowers) and of the sinking of the Titanic (not sinking of Titanic).

Hawaii, A Guide to All the Islands, By the Sunset Editorial Staff, Research and Text by Nancy Bannick Lane. Books, Monte Park, Calif. 128 pp. $1.95.

The Hawaiian Islands, which are in a chain of 131, are represented by eight main islands, the four largest, in order of size, being Hawaii (larger than all seven other islands together), Maui, Oahu (which has four-fifths of the island's population), and Kauai, which is 15 miles from the privately owned island Niihau.

The other main islands are Molokai, Lanai, and Kahoolawe, which last is used as a shooting range and is therefore uninhabited.

In 1900 the Hawaiian Islands were annexed to the United States, becoming a territory two years later. In 1959 the bill was passed that made Hawaii the 50th state. It is called the Aloha State; its state song is "Hawaii Pono," its official bird the Hawaiian goose, its unofficial flower the red hibiscus.

Franklin C. Daiber To Address WRA On Delaware Bay

Dr. Franklin C. Daiber, director of the Marine Laboratory, University of Delaware, will address the Water Resources Association of the Delaware River Basin at its 10th annual membership meeting on May 10, at Hotel DuPont, Wilmington, with his topic "The Delaware Estuary and Bay—Its Marine Life."

Daiber, who heads the Marine Laboratory at Lewes, will bring a picture of a boat of water which is rapidly growing in importance economically for its developing recreation use.

Since the Delaware Basin's seven-million population is expected to double in 40 years, there will be a tremendous demand placed upon the bay and estuary for water-based sports such as swimming, boating and fishing, along with increased development and commerce in this part of the East Coast megalopolis.

Daiber will discuss the impact of this growing use on the natural marine life of the bay, and his research projects aimed at evaluating problems and making projections.

The public is invited to the WRA meeting which will begin at 2 p.m. in the DuPont Room. The annual banquet is scheduled for 7:15 that evening.

Chrysler Employee, World War II Vet E. C. Lennon Dies

Elmer C. Lennon, 54, of 24 Marin Drive, South Gate near Newark, died Sunday in the Delaware Division after a long illness.

Mr. Lennon was a native of Delaware City, an Army veteran of World War II, and was employed for 11 years at the Chrysler assembly plant in Newark. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Loyal Order of Moose, American Legion and Local 1183, United Auto Workers.

He is survived by son Elmer M. of Newark, a daughter, Mrs. Patricia S. Abrams of Oak Run, a brother, Robert of Wilmington, half-brother William Christian of Washington, D.C.; three sisters, Mrs. Genevieve Chickadel of Wilmington, Mrs. Frances Hall, Laurel, Md., and Mrs. Lois Goad of Newark; and one grandchild.

Services were held Wednesday morning in Gracehaven Memorial Chapel, with interment in Gracehaven Memorial Park.

Friends called Tuesday night at the William J. Warwick Funeral Home, Newark.

English, of course, is the official language, but Hawaiian is to be heard, a language with an alphabet of only 12 letters—a, e, h, i, k, l, m, n, o, p, u, w.

The Sunset book "Hawaii," sized approximately 8-1/2 by 11 inches, bound in heavy paper cover, with maps and black and white illustrations, is an admirable description of the islands, devoting a chapter to each of the main six, omitting the privately owned one and the uninhabited one. Tours about the islands are suggested, possible activities are outlined, places to stay are listed.

A tremendous amount of help is offered to make a pleasant and profitable trip to the islands, where tourism is becoming a much bigger thing than in the past.

Sunset's "Hawaii" opens the door to these sunny isles of the Pacific.

CAROLYN McDERMOTT MARRIED APRIL 28TH

Miss Carolyn Mary McDermott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory McDermott of North Star, Newark, became the bride of G. William Richards, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richards of Wilmington, on Saturday, April 28, in Limestone Presbyterian Church.

The ceremony performed by the Rev. Willett Smith, was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, and attended by her three sisters, the bride wore an empire gown of pique de sole featuring a jacket of Chantilly lace with bell sleeves. Her veil and train were also of Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of butterfly roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Christine Margaret McDermott, wore a long empire dress in apple green, featuring Mary Alice and Ellen Margaret McDermott wore the identical dress in azure blue and blossom pink.

Richard Wayne Pell of Wilmington was best man, and the ushers were Richard James Stoddard, Wilmington, and Bernard Wood, New York City.

The bride attended Alexis I. du Pont High School, Gettysburg College, and graduated from the University of Delaware where she is a computer programmer.

Mr. Richards attended Mt. Pleasant High School, the Sanford School, and the University of Southern Illinois. He is with Delaware Trust Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards, entertained at dinner following wedding rehearsal on Friday night at the Red Barn.

After a wedding trip south, the couple will live at the Naamans.

Ex-Yellowjacket All-Stater Dick Kelley Leads Ball Carriers In Blue-White Game

Former Yellowjacket All-State Halfback Dick Kelley gained 79 yards in a white uniform last Saturday afternoon at Delaware Stadium, as the leading ball carrier in the annual Blue-White game that concludes spring football practice for Coach Harold Raymond's Fighting Blue Hens, but the Blues won the 35-24 exhibition.

Kelley broke away for a 45-yard dash that was halted just short of the Blue end zone by a fleet-footed defender who had an advantageous angle on the former Newark High School star sprinting along the western sideline.

Ex-Yellowjacket Tackle Conway Mayman starred as a Blue guard.

Former Middletown All-State Quarterback Sonny Merkell scintillated for the Whites, before suffering a shoulder separation in the first period.

The 170-pound Merkell broke up three passes and fared a Blue ball carrier early in the intra-squad scrimmage.

On offense, the first thing he did was throw a 10-yard bullet to end Jim Crabb. He followed that with a 35-yard run to the Blue 34.

On the next call Merkell was caught behind the line and thrown for a three-yard loss and injured.

"It was a separated shoulder," said Raymond. "This is not a dis-

Flight Dickinson Defeats Turnberger's Nine In 3-Run Seventh

Back-to-back four-run innings provided Coach Bob Turnberger's Vikings an 8-7 edge over the Dickinson visitors last Tuesday afternoon at the end of the sixth frame, but Dickinson scored three times in the seventh to win 10-8.

Rightfielder Randy Spinks topped Turnberger's lumbermen with two hits in four trips as Christiansa collected eight safeties off Sloan.

The Vikings dropped a 3-1 decision to the Green Knights at Mt. Pleasant last Friday, although Centerfielder Glen Thompson had a perfect day at the plate with three-for-three, including a run batted in.

Christiansa, 1-3 in the Blue Hen Conference A-Flight, faces the Red Devils at Wilmington High School this Friday, and the Vikings host B-Flight Howard next Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Bob Hannah's Hens To End Campaign Next Wednesday

Coach Bob Hannah's Delaware baseball team dropped its second straight Middle Atlantic Conference game last Monday with a 4-1 decision to visiting Lafayette.

The loss put Delaware's MAC mark at 4-2.

Bob Clements, who went the distance for Lafayette, allowed nine hits but did not permit a Delaware runner beyond second base after the first inning.

The Hens out-hit the Leopards 9-7 but were unable to put together more than two hits per inning.

Dave Klingner raised his batting average into the 500 neighborhood with four singles in four trips, and Centerfielder Dave Cathcart added two hits.

Delaware's nine hits were all singles, and the Hens batters were continually frustrated as line drives and 400-foot shots were converted into outs.

Lafayette did most of its damage in the fourth inning off starter and loser Larry Walker (2-1).

Walker retired the first 11 Leopards to face him, but a walk, single and error allowed the tie run.

Tom McCormick's double — the only extra-base hit of the day — produced another run and Ken Fast's single tallied the third run of the inning.

Hannah's Hens were scheduled at Drexel yesterday; host LaSalle in a Saturday twin bill beginning at 1 p.m., and entertain Bucknell at 3:30 Monday.

Delaware closes the campaign next Wednesday at Glassboro.

Mapp's Vikings Defeat Dickinson 3-2 With Tennis

Coach Isaac Mapp's Viking netmen defeated Dickinson 3-2 last Tuesday, copping a pair of singles matches, and one doubles.

Phil Craig defeated DiLorenzo 6-2, 6-1, and Ted Vernon stopped Howell 6-4, 7-5.

Christiansa's team of Gus Tingos and Teddy Roberts came back to the Dickinson duo of Murray and Schadel 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Steve Plinick lost 6-4, 6-4, to George; and the Viking team of Jim Owen and Mario Rodriguez lost 6-1, 6-4 to Cagle and Jahran.

The Vikings play Friday at Wilmington High and host Howard at 4 p.m. next Tuesday.

Chick Lucanish Paces Hens To Beat F&M Stickmen

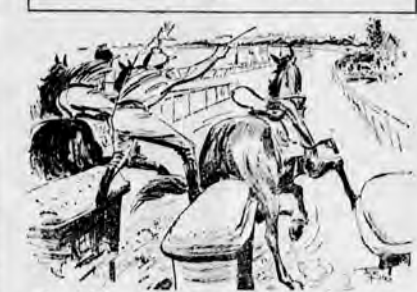

Chick Lucanish scored three goals and Charley Vaughn accounted for two last Saturday to lead Delaware to a 7-1 win over visiting Franklin & Marshall in a Middle Atlantic Conference lacrosse match.

Coach Mickey Heineck's Blue Hens tallied four goals in the second period to take a 5-1 lead.

Delaware Goalsie Jim Wright came up with 12 saves to preserve the victory, the Hens' third in six MAC starts.

Anastadt had provided for her husband, we have little doubt but that the Young Lady's crew is supplementing their dolphin steaks with provender that the Lady of the House supplied and that her husband had to leave aboard when he returned home.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day Gates of Wrath

One of the more colorful but less plausible legends of the turf is that of "Snapper" Garrison, a stock-broking, one-legged on the inner rail to relieve his weight from his mount. Boundless, while a field of 15 milled about for better than an hour and a half and made Starter Charles Pettigill call back no less than 25 false starts in the American Derby of 1893 which Boundless won.

True or false, the story apparently inspired Jockey Denby Birley who found the partitions of the stalls which preceded the present day enclosed starting gate a much more comfortable way to try this tactic. At one time Stamford Park in Ontario one day he eased his feet out of the stirrups and his weight off his mount. Stimulita, by standing on the partitions which were just below stirrup height. It is not recorded whether he smiled with secret satisfaction as he waited for some of the other horses to settle down, but it is certain that he grinned in embarrassment when the starter suddenly yelled "Come on!" and he was left standing as Stimulita broke from under him.

The late Raymond "Sonny" Workman once had an equally embarrassing experience. He started, but it was not his fault. He had elected to warm up his mount and had galloped past the starting point. The starter had failed to count noses as the horses went into the gate and sent the field away without him.

Duncan's Golfers Take Third Place In MAC Tourney

Coach Scotty Duncan's Delaware golf team carded 611 to finish third among 32 schools in the 18th annual Middle Atlantic Conference College Golf Championships at the Williamsport Country Club last Monday.

It was the Blue Hens' second straight third-place finish.

Temple won the tournament with 638 points to edge Bucknell by one stroke.

The Hens Tom Clements placed sixth in the individual standings with 18-hole scores of 76 and 80 for a 156 total. John Riley had 84 and 80 for a 164 total. Jim Powell (80-82) and Jim Powell (83-79) tied at 162.

Temple's Sherman Keeney was medalist with scores of 74 and 72 for a 146 total.

Delaware concludes the season next Monday, away, with Drexel, and St. Joe's.

Sukalo Wins Two; McCarns, Glines, Golt, Thorpe Cop Firsts In Viking Track Loss

Christiana Capt. Pete Sukalo led two-three over the two-mile haul won by the Lions' Temple in 19:40.6. Harrington was second in the pole vault, and Todd tied for third in the long jump won by DeLaWare's Knight at 18.11 1/2.

In losing 85 1/2-36 1/2 to P.S. do Pont last Thursday, the Vikings registered three firsts.

Payne won the low hurdles in 22.3; Glines, the 220 in 24.2; and Jester, the shotput with a toss of 56-9 1/2.

Brandywine beat the Vikings 79-43 at Christiansa on Wednesday last week as DeStefano's striders won four firsts.

Payne took the 120-yard hurdles in 1:04; McCarns won the mile in 4:58; Glines, the 220 in 24.2; and the team of Glines, Neal, Payne, and McCarns won the mile relay in 3:38.4.

DeStefano's Vikings were scheduled to host Wilmington yesterday, and face Dickinson away next Monday at 4 p.m.

Soph Frank Gordy Stars With Hens' First Track Loss

Delaware's undefeated track season went down the Philadelphia drain last Tuesday when the Blue Hens lost 79-76 to St. Joseph's.

The setback snapped a six-meeting winning streak for Coach Jimmy Flynn's Hens, who close their season in the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships Friday and Saturday at Newark.

Delaware took eight of 17 first places, but trailed throughout.

Sophomore Frank Gordy eclipsed two of his own school records set earlier this year.

The Delmar speedster, led the Hens in scoring with 14 1/2 points and won the 220 in 24.8 lowering his previous mark of 24.9, and topped the field in the 440 with a 48.0 clocking, to better his record 48.5.

Gordy also placed second in the triple jump and anchored Delaware's winning mile relay team.

McNelis Netmen Win Over P. S. du Pont 3-2

Newark High School's Yellowjacket tennis team of Coach John McNelis edged P. S. du Pont 3-2 last Tuesday afternoon.

Netters stopped Brandywine 4-6, 4-6, 5-3 in singles play; and Newark's doubles teams of Murphy and Berg, and Emory and Sonnenfeld won 6-1, 7-5 and 6-1.

The Yellowjackets host Conrad this Friday, and play at Mt. Pleasant on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

Madeline Reidinger Wins Athletic Ass'n Election

Madeline R. Reidinger of Newark has been elected Athletic Association representative of the sophomore class at Westhampton College, University of Richmond.

Miss Reidinger is a member of the varsity swimming team and of the synchronized swimming club, and swam in the annual water show.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Reidinger of 7 Amherst Drive, Newark.

CANOE TRIP & HIKE

Carleton Sperati will head a canoe trip on the Brandywine from Chad's Ford to Smith Bridge this Saturday, and George New will lead a hike over the Horseshoe Trail on Sunday, with hikers to assemble at the Wilmington YMCA at 10 a.m.

Capt. Keith Green Paces Yellowjackets In Win Over Colonials, Loss To Bulldogs

Keith Green, one of four captains for Coach Ray Ciesinski's Yellowjackets, won the 100 and 220-yard sprints last Tuesday in 10.2 and 23.0 as Newark lost 68-34 to the Bulldogs at Brandywine last Tuesday afternoon.

Pedro Swann won the 180-yard low hurdles in 21.0. Capt. Keith Walker was first over the high hurdles in a time of 13.8; and Bob Tucker cleared 6-0 to win the high jump.

Capt. Tom Curran and Art Koppel were second and third in the mile won by Brandywine's Laughlin in 4:42. Jim Siemen was second in the 440 taken by Lehigh in 52.1, and Walker was second over the low hurdles.

Curran took second in the 880 won by Brandywine's Laughlin in 2:03.9; Swann was third in the 220; and Green was second with the discus won by Kuttner at 127-3-3-4.

Chris Dunn took third over the high jump; and Siemen, second in the broad jump.
