Mr. Moffat:

I am appending herewith personal notes from Geist dated March 23 commenting on the political situation, another of March 24 commenting on the situation of our correspondents in Berlin and another of March 24 with regard to a member of the Austrian Legation in Berlin.

I am also sending herewith a note which I have received dated March 10, 1938 from Davies in Moscow.

I will be glad to have you return these to me at your convenience.
