AMERICAN EMBASSY

Habana, August 12, 1941.

Dear Friend:

I have your note of August 4,
with which you were good enough to send me a copy of a recent memorandum on the Spanish situation and for which I thank you.

With all good wishes,

Cordially yours,
