Dear Dannie:

This is just a very brief word ~~that I am writing at home~~ during the weekend. The guarantee bill for the long-term loan should be passed by the deputies on Tuesday, the 6th, and I had a word from the head of the Financiera this morning to the effect that it should pass the Senate on the 7th or 8th. For your very strictly confidential confidential information for the present I can tell you that our definitive tariffs were signed by the Undersecretary of Economy yesterday. (This is very confidential still and for you only.) This means that they can be published and will be published in the official gazette just as soon as the guarantee bill for the long-term loan passes the Senate next week. It is very interesting that instead of letting the fifteen days pass in the Ministry of Economy the Undersecretary actually signed the approval of the tariffs. I am really greatly encouraged by developments here.

I am hoping that Binder can handle the Summerscales matter and it looks from the latest telegrams from him that we may be able to get Summerscales' cooperation instead of his being an annoyance.

I am sending you herewith the last letter I got from Rudi Hecht which you may wish to read, and you can destroy it as I do not wish to have it back.

I am sorry to hear that Hettie has not been feeling so well and I do hope that we will have better news of her. It is a great concern to us, as I know it is to you. I am sure that you all miss May and the baby very much. Jimmy and June are well.

We remember your visit so pleasantly and hope that we may see you again before long.

Marion joins me in affectionate regard and all good wishes to you and Hettie and Edna and Yvonne.

Cordially and faithfully yours,

D. N. Heineman, Esquire,
