Here is the email from Suzanne -- I know I have yet another one from December, but I can't locate it just yet. She will manually fix this as promised. I never thought changing a course number would be such an issue, but it should be over now.

FYI - the "Multicultural Topics in Nursing" should not have MC status anymore -- we were told this must be individual courses, not topics, which pushed me for the renumbered/cross-list submission. Hope that helps.

Thanks
Amy
