Describe the rationale for the proposed program change(s):

(Explain your reasons for creating, revising, or deleting the curriculum or program.)

This certificate program has been developed in response to requests from potential students and is designed to meet the needs of four audiences.

- Individual interested in considering a master's in historic preservation but want to test the field first. The completed Certificate Program can be applied to Master's degree in Urban Affairs and Public Policy and Master's of Historic Preservation.
- Those new to preservation who wish to gain an overview of the field and some specific skills in survey and documentation. This can include staff and board members of preservation advocacy groups, cultural resource management firms, and architects.
- Those practicing preservationists for whom a certificate program will update and upgrade their knowledge of current state of the field and best practices in documentation.
- Students in other UD masters or PhD programs (particularly in History, Art History, Winterthur Program in Material Culture) who would like to add these skills to their professional portfolio.

Program Requirements:

(Show the new or revised curriculum as it should appear in the Course Catalog. If this is a revision, be sure to indicate the changes being made to the current curriculum and include a side-by-side comparison of the credit distribution before and after the proposed change.)

The Certificate Program consists of 12 credit hours. Nine credits are required:

- | | |
|----------|---|
| UAPP 629 | Theory and Practice of Historic Preservation Planning (3 credits) |
| UAPP 630 | Methods in Historic Preservation (3 credits) |
