Enforcement of Zoning Laws Opposed For Nursery School

Council Approves First Readings Of Amended Ordinance Permitting Nursery Schools In RS Zoned Areas; Sewer Extension For Lumbrook Approved For Bid Submissions

"Nothing on the Council agenda is of more importance than immediate relief for parents whose livelihood is imperiled by the enforced closing of the nursery school in which the young children of these working parents are enrolled," an interested observer told the Newark City Council on Tuesday night, and an amended ordinance, permitting operation of nursery schools in currently restricted, top residential zones was prepared and approved at its initial reading.

A group of parents appeared before Council and presented a petition signed by 75 persons, requesting amendment of the ordinance governing nursery school locations.

This petition was the result of the complaints registered at a recent meeting of the Board of Adjustments, by individuals objecting to the operation of a nursery school in a restricted area. Faced with legal action by the objectors unless the zoning laws were amended, the City accordingly notified the school that operations must be discontinued within the RS zone.

Recess Revision In view of the need for immediate action on this problem, a recess was declared and the City Solicitor prepared an ordinance which, if approved at the final reading on Jan. 5, will permit the establishment of nursery schools in any residential district in Newark.

Extension of the city sewer line to include the Lumbrook area was approved and City Engineer Francis Neide will prepare two sets of drawings for alternate contract bids to be advertised.

One contract will include construction of a sewer at an optimum depth to exclude cellar drainage from 12 homes in a particularly low area, while the alternate construction will include such drainage.

Councilman John E. Downes proposed action for providing sewage facilities for residents of the Elliott Heights area, but it was agreed after some discussion, that gas and telephone lines already installed on each side of the narrow roadway, and in view of the expense of tearing up the road paving to permit laying the sewer line, provision of these facilities must be postponed.

Sewer Tie-Ins A request by property owners in the South Ord. 12 area, for a sewer tie-in to the city sewer line, was referred to the Sewer Committee for study.

Representatives of the area explained that in addition to city taxes for sewer facilities not provided until recently, they had been subject to extra expense for cesspool provisions, and that accordingly, they believed some equitable adjustment was in order.

City Secretary Charles Long reported on his visits with Milford and Dover authorities concerning their methods for water billings, and in the future, Newark city water bills will include full quarterly allowances for the period in which new tie-ins are made.

The City Engineer will check water meters in the George Reed Village area that are reported to be registering excessive usage.

Negotiations have been resumed to purchase a well-drilling site for city water at the corner of West Park Place and South College Avenue. Suitable water-bearing strata occurs in this area, whereas silt in the strata adjacent to the present well was cited as an objection to the purchase of such property as previously recommended.

Objection was made to congested parking on West Park Place, but Councilman Carl Rankin explained that this congestion was occasioned by a fraternity open house party last Saturday night only, and that the fraternity members regularly observed parking regulations.

Stop signs for College Park, and additional electric lights for poorly illuminated areas will be ordered by the City Engineer.

No Favors To University In Snow Fence Quantity The State Highway Department has received suggestions made by the amount of snow fencing in evidence on the property of the University of Delaware at Newark.

The question has been raised as to whether or not special snow fence consideration was being given to the university area.

Replying to these inquiries, Horace B. McKay, superintendent of grounds and buildings at the University of Delaware, has stated that the snow fence in question is the property of the university.

Calling by Number Is Important...
More Than Ever During the Holidays!

At this time of year more people than ever visit faraway family and friends by telephone. And even though we've made many special arrangements to handle the extra volume, some calls may not go through as quickly as you—and we—would like.

You can be sure your operator will do her level best to handle all your calls promptly. However, you can help her give you faster, better service during the Holiday Season by following this simple suggestion:

Whenever possible, give the operator the number of the telephone you want to reach. That way, she won't have to detour your call through information, and it will go through much faster.

"Mankind, My Business"

Annually at the anniversary of Jesus' birth, millions read Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol." Millions of others will listen on the air to Lionel Barrymore as he perennially interprets miserly Scrooge, both villain and hero of the tale.

It is well to read the immortal little story about mean, grasping, penny-pinching Scrooge whose sharp mind is continually dreaming dreams and seeing visions. To him appears the ghost of his former partner, Jacob Marley. In life Jacob Marley had been as hard as nails and as stingy and paltry as old Scrooge himself.

Now from the world of shadows, Marley's ghost does his utmost to save parsimonious Scrooge from the disaster which had inevitably overtaken him. As the ghost wrings his hands and deprecates the shortcomings and omissions of the life he had lived on earth, Scrooge manages to inject these words, faltering and with quavering voice: "But you were always a good man of business, Jacob."

The rejoinder from the ghost of Jacob Marley supplies an effective commentary on the great avocation before us at Christmastide:

"Business," cried the ghost, wringing his hands again. "Mankind was my business. The common welfare was my business; charity, mercy, forbearance, benevolence, were all my business. The dealings of my trade were but a drop of water in the comprehensive ocean of my business!"

And so it was!
And so it may be!

Letters To The Editor

309 Delaware Circle
Newark, Delaware
12-9-53

Dear Sir:

The people of Newark should read the Solicitor's opinion regarding the legality of the enactment of a law raising their water rates. The fact that this ordinance increased your rates, both regular and excess should be enough to arouse your interest. However, if you are one who feels that the rates should be higher, then you certainly should be aroused by the procedure that was followed to pass the ordinance.

If the opinion is left unchallenged, it could mean that future laws could be rushed through in a similar manner. This is something that should have your serious consideration, especially when dollars and cents are involved. Maybe you haven't felt the pinch, as yet, but will disagree on this too. However, there are many people feeling the added burden. Your turn might be next.

You ask if the procedure used to pass this ordinance concerns you in any way? The answer is yes. You may, like those suffering from higher water rates, be forced to take money you have set aside for other living or business operating costs to pay for the expansion program. It is a pitiful thing to witness a mother taking money from the food budget in order to buy water to wash the bodies and clothes of her children. You may disagree with me on this, but the mother doesn't.

How was this law passed? It was advertised that on a specific date the public was invited to attend a public hearing to hear the new water rates discussed. On that specific date three (3) members of council appeared for the meeting. Mayor Johnson, Mr. Rankin and myself. According to law, three members cannot conduct business. There must be at least four present. No one was in the audience. Due to a lack of councilmen present there was no meeting called to order and Mayor Johnson moved the date of the public hearing up to the following night. He said he "recessed" the meeting. (WHAT MEETING?) There was not a quorum (majority) of members present to call a meeting to order nor a quorum present to vote to adjourn. The general public was not notified of this new date. That's how your ordinance was passed, at the meeting that the public did not know about.

I think the following questions are logical ones: (1) How can you call a meeting to order if there isn't a quorum (majority) present? (2) How can you adjourn a meeting if it was never called to order due to a lack of a quorum?

(3) Why did the Solicitor meticulously put (19) references into the opinion that dealt with a different subject matter? They all covered the power to adjourn. The power to legally adjourn was never questioned.

(4) Was there ever a meeting to adjourn? That's the real question. If not, how can you adjourn to another date?

(5) Can you have a public hearing if the public did not know of the new meeting date? The Solicitor anyone who went to the public hearing on November 4, 1953, (November 5th) Let us make a closer examination of his words. In his search for conclusive evidence and for the Solicitor's guidance, there wasn't a single member of the public present except three members of council. I bring this out because the Solicitor himself was not present. Notice too the word "presumably". To presume is to regard as probably true. A presumption is probable but it is not conclusive evidence. Observe also that the so-called public announcement of adjournment was made at exactly ten minutes past 8 p.m. In other words, anyone who went to the council chambers after 8:10 P.M. found the building dark and the doors closed. Yet, it is presumed that the public was on notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting. The power vested in the majority of council, not a minority, to adjourn is a discretionary one. Any manifestation of an abuse of that power is subject to review.

The opinion cites Section 15 of the City Charter as an authority for Council's action on the night of November 5. It follows: "A majority of the members elected to the Council shall constitute a quorum to do business but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance." If you will read this section thoroughly you will find that by its very words that it is a disciplinary procedure or an extraordinary measure. It has to do with recalcitrant members who are not attending council meetings. This was not the case on November 4 and 5. Furthermore, you will see that Section 15 says that we must prescribe this action by ordinance. We do not have an ordinance covering the provisions of Section 15.

As a parting thought, November 4, 1952, the night of the public hearing, was General Election day. It is illegal to hold any public states except 14 and Delaware is not one of the exceptions.

WILLIAM M. COVERDALE
City Councilman

Dear Sir:

It is with true concern that we ask our Newark parents to consider the implication of the ruling of the Newark Board of Adjustment that small, private schools are not permitted by ordinance in a section of the city zoned "RS".

For generations "dame schools" of one sort or another have been housed in residence for the benefit of the young. Today such activities are directed at caring for our preschool children, and are known as kindergartens or nursery schools.

After tradition has sanctioned such practice for generations within the residences of women interested in caring for children in this manner, why has our Board of Adjustment, in interpreting our zoning ordinance, overlooked this important, and ruled that such schools are no longer allowed in an "RS" neighborhood? We have no public school kindergartens and, except as small schools housed in residences provide this service to the community, our children will not have this valuable experience.

It is our opinion that such schools quite properly belong in the classification of an activity traditionally carried on within a residence, and should be encouraged in "RS" neighborhoods, rather than relegated to more congested or commercial and industrial areas.

We ask our City Board of Adjustment to reconsider their decision, and ask the Town Council to clarify the zoning ordinance to include kindergartens and nursery schools as a permitted home occupation. Although the ordinance defining what is permitted in "RS" neighborhoods does not mention kindergartens or nursery schools, surely precedent indicates that this is one of the activities traditionally carried on within a residence, and should be encouraged in "RS" neighborhoods, rather than outlawed.

A Merry Christmas to all! Once again the cheery greeting warms our hearts. On all sides we see the gay decorations, the bright lights, attractive gift displays. The music of familiar carols rings in our ears.

Avoid the hustle and bustle of parties and good times for ourselves, let us stop and remember those birthday we are celebrating. Only when we share with those less fortunate than ourselves have we discovered the true meaning of Christmas.

Through music we are able to express our deepest emotions. How true this is at Christmas-time. On Wednesday of this week the High School Chorus joined with the A-Cappella Choir of the University of Delaware in the annual Christmas program in Mitchell Hall.

Three young people from this area are taking part in this important event—Grace Miller, Roseville Park, and Martin Johnston, Milford Cross Roads, in the high school A-Cappella group, and Richard Gifford, Harwood Road, in the university A-Cappella choir.

"Peace on earth!" How remote that ideal seems on the national and international level. In the field of nature, however, we frequently enjoy glimpses of peaceful scenes.

Last week this correspondent looked out of the window and saw a beautiful pheasant, and Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Chalmers and Mrs. Warren Lamborn, all of Possum Park Road, report that they often see deer grazing close to the woods, sometimes venturing close to the barns.

The Rev. James H. Bishop, Kirkwood Highway, was guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Oak Grove Farmer's Club and the Oak Grove Home Demonstration Club last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell.

The Aetna Hose Hook and Ladder Company of Newark was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Goff, Polly Drummond Road, last Wednesday, to aid in extinguishing an oil-burner fire.

The Roseville Park Branch Library is located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond, Laurel Ave. It is open to the public on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon.

The Roseville Park Civic Association is planning to decorate the large evergreen at the entrance to the Park with colored lights, as has been done for the past two years. Residents of the area are invited to attend the ceremony of turning on the lights, early Sunday evening, Dec. 20. There will be music and carol singing.

The Civil Association announces that the annual Christmas Party for some 100 children living in the area will be held at White Clay Creek Church on Tuesday, Dec. 29.

Santa Claus will be present to distribute gifts to the children 15 years of age and younger, and there will be music and carol singing, plus refreshments. Mrs. Charles Raymond is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles Knies.

White Clay Fellowship: president, Alice Hammell; vice-president, Eleanor Trivitt; secretary, Ruth Murray; treasurer, Elizabeth Brown. Improvement Society: president, Romayne McCormick; vice-president, Mrs. Atwood Johnston; secretary, Ellen Gallagher; treasurer, Mrs. Nathaniel Richards.

The theme of the program, prepared by Mrs. Howard Bradley and Miss Eleanor Murray, was "Keeping Christ in Christmas".

Mrs. Merritt Lynch sang "O Holy Night" accompanied by Mrs. Kinsey Whitman. A duet, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung by Miss Jane Hammell and Carl Buttermere, accompanied by Miss Romayne McCormick, and a piano duet, "Holiday Time" was played by Mrs. Kinsey Whitman and Mrs. Merritt Lynch.

"Walking in a Winter Wonderland" and "Jolly Old Saint Nick" were sung by a quartet of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Benson, Miss Jane Hammell and Willard Johnston, and a piano duet, "Christmas Overture" was played by Mrs. Kinsey Whitman and Mrs. Merritt Lynch. Readings were given by Miss Hazel Johnston and Mrs. Howard Bradley, with a symbolic lighting of candles. The program was concluded with an exchange of gifts.

At the December meeting of the Evening Circle last Thursday the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Atwood Johnston; vice-president, Mrs. Harvel Bell; secretary, Mrs. Andrew Lindell; treasurer, Mrs. James Bishop.

Members of the Circle presented Mrs. Nathaniel Richards with a beautiful copy of "The Head of Christ" by Soltman, in appreciation of her many years of service in various offices. Mrs. Richards has just concluded ten years of service as treasurer.

Christmas Services: White Clay Creek Church will observe the birthday of Christ with three special services on Sunday, Dec. 20.

Church School Christmas program at 10 a.m. in the church auditorium. This program is presented by the children's division of the school.

Christmas Sunday service, at 11 a.m. with a message by the pastor on "The Gift of Another Way". The sacrament of Baptism will be administered and the Youth Choir under the direction of Mrs. Paul Underhill will sing "Our Blessed Master Jesus Christ".

Christmas Eve service at 7:30 p.m. with singing, "Star of the East". Christmas pageant at 7:30 p.m. "They Saw His Star." Both services will participate in this beautiful interpretation of the Christmas story.

White Clay Creek Church to Present Christmas Pageant

Public Invited To Attend
Presbyterian Pageantry
Sunday Evening At 7:30

The public is cordially invited to a Christmas dramatic service of worship, at 7:30 p.m. at White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church, on Kirkwood Highway, Sunday, Dec. 20.

A pageant, "They Saw His Star" will be presented by a large cast, under the general direction of Mrs. James H. Bishop. Both the Adult and the Youth Choirs will participate, with Miss Romayne McCormick, church organist.

A beautiful background setting depicting the Bethlehem scene will be erected under the supervision of Harold Stanley. Serving on the general committee are Mrs. Richard Poulney, Mrs. Matt Williamson, Mrs. Thomas Davis, Mrs. Harold Stanley, Mrs. Frank Buckingham II, and Mrs. Frank Butterworth.

The action of the various pageant groups will be interpreted by Rev. James H. Bishop, leader, and Miss Hazel Johnston, reader. Mary and Joseph will be represented by Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hale, John Trivitt, Matt Williamson and Raymond Lindell will take part as the Wise Men.

Various peoples will be represented, with Joyce Weaver, Gene Pope, Eddie Springer, Tommy Davis, Lane Anderson, and Bobby Davis as Navajo Indians.

Mrs. Harold Stanley, George Stanley, Joyce Pope, Jack Long, Paul Williamson, and Floyd Weaver, will depict Southern Mountainers. Mrs. Maria Buckingham, Ray Lynn, Robert Williamson, Carol Finger and Richard Finger, will portray Mexico.

Mrs. Frank Butterworth, Mrs. Michael Timko, Stephen Timko, Rodney Butterworth, Bonny Goff and Janet Lee Goff, will represent Iran.

The cradle used in the manger scene is an original colonial cradle, loaned by Mrs. David Eastburn.

Renewals of 2-Year Drivers Licenses To Affect 107,000

Motor Vehicle Department Lists Procedure To Follow; License Fee Upped To $4

Holders of two-year driver's and chauffeur's licenses are reminded by the State Motor Vehicle Department that when they renew these licenses the fee will be $4.

A law passed by the General Assembly, effective last July 1, increased the fee from $2.50 to $4. At the same time the fee for permanent driver's or chauffeur's licenses was raised from $5 to $10.

Holders of the two-year licenses are reminded that these licenses expire on the birthday of the holder and the Motor Vehicle Department will accept an application for renewal of the license within 60 days before the date of expiration.

Application blanks for renewal can be obtained at any branch office of the Motor Vehicle Department—Eighth Street and Bancroft Parkway, Wilmington; South State Street, Dover, and near the Pennsylvania Railroad Station, at Georgetown.

The blanks are also available by mail at the department's main office at Dover, but only if the applicant encloses a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Applications for permanent licenses must be made in person at any county branch office.

Under existing regulations there is no extension in the use of the two-year licenses beyond midnight of the birthday of the holder. Any applications received for renewal after the birthday will be treated as an application from a new operator.

Since the present system of two-year licenses only became effective two years ago, the licenses will start expiring next month for the first time. For that reason the motor vehicle department wants to remind the 107,000 holders of these licenses.

World Affairs Meetings To Be Resumed In January

The World Affairs group, which just finished ten sessions on various countries, will continue their meetings after the first of the year. The group has decided that they will meet twice a month with the next meeting to be January 13 on the topic "United Nations". This group is planning a trip to the United Nations headquarters on either the third or fourth Saturday in January.

At each session a movie is shown and then a discussion follows concerning the film and other pertinent information. All adults who are interested in this group are urged to contact the YMCA office.

HISTORICAL REVIEWS OF THE NEWARK AREA
by Ethel M. Hill

From time to time, Mrs. Hill's articles concerning Newark's interesting historical background will appear in the pages of the Post. Your comments and questions will be appreciated by the writer.

Looking at an old map published just after the Civil War, I find the houses just toward the East Main Street among the very interesting ones.

The house on East Main Street owned by Mr. S. J. Wright, occupied by his son Earnest and later by his son Brinton, is the one to which Mrs. Hill's article always took her fourth grade classes to see the bricks which were placed endwise while George Washington's army was going through to Cooch's Bridge in 1777.

University Advises On Christmas Tree Selection, Buying

"How can I tell what to look for in selecting a Christmas tree?" It will help you, says Robert J. Stevens, extension horticulturist at the University of Delaware.

Balsam fir, Douglas-fir, white and red spruce are among the most popular Christmas trees. Balsam fir is usually fragrant, and has short, flat, dark green needles that are rounded at the tips and attached to the twigs at opposite sides in a feathery arrangement. Balsams keep their needles quite well.

The Douglas-fir has short, flat, soft, pointed dark green needles that are attached all the way around the twig. Spruce needles are incurved, sharp-tipped and four-sided. And stay on the tree very well.

Be sure to choose a fresh tree with green needles. To keep it in shape for the holidays, Stevens recommends that you saw off the butt end at least one inch above the original cut and stand the tree in a container of water. Refill the container daily. Another good method of preserving your tree is to keep it in a tub of wet soil or sand.

Mildred Ludwig, Correspondent

Some 35 members of the Audenreid community club held a family yuletide turkey supper last week at the 4-H clubhouse in Glasgow with Santa the most popular guest.

It seems to your correspondent that such a trend of whole families getting together with their neighbors speaks more of the American tradition than the present rampant over-commercialization of this holy season or frivolous, noisy celebrations.

Mrs. Augusta Ware will be hostess for a social gathering of the Paul's Lutheran adult Bible class on Monday evening, Dec. 21.

Mrs. Barbara Anderson was hostess for the Newark Mother's Club Christmas party last night in her charming red-painted Chestnut Hill home. Mrs. Cyrus Day spoke on "How to Appreciate Children's Art," and members enjoyed samples of their youngsters art work. A hilarious evening was had with the exchange of white elephant gifts.

Rev. Benjamin Crane will officiate at the Pilgrim Gospel Tabernacle Children's program Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at 7:30.

Mrs. Rumer kept a little notion about this house and when she moved out Mr. Wright decided to remodel it. My father was building for him and in tearing down the store to build a porch, among the foundation stones of the store they found a square stone with the crest of Penn on one side and the coat of arms of Calvert on the opposite side.

Mason-Dixon Marker
Recognizing this to be one of the Mason-Dixon boundary markers Mr. Wright sent it to the Historical Society in Wilmington where it may be seen now. It is supposed that it was unloaded at Christina Bridge and lost off the wagon in hauling to the boundary line.

The innermost surveyors working on the Mason Dixon line had their headquarters at St. Patrick's Hotel which stood between where the home of Daniel Thompson and the Deer Park now are. It is said the workmen kept a trained bear there for their amusement. They were a jolly crowd, very fond of elder.

The Robinson house stood next to this Wright house. It was occupied by Miss Margaret, Miss Rachel and a brother. None of them married and when their house was moved back and the brick part torn down, workmen found an old will signed by Wm. Penn and a new paper printed at Georgetown, Va., in which was the news that George Washington had the day before passed away.

It is not known just who built the Pilling house, 1837 and later built to it until it was the lovely home, later rented by a fraternity.

Pilling Prominent
Mr. Pilling was a man who knew the making of woolen material. He occupied almost every local office in the government of Newark and in 1860 was a member of the legislature. Again in 1880, backed by the trustees and friends of Delaware College, he was instrumental in securing legislation which meant much to the College.

He helped to obtain charters for the Pennsylvania, Delaware, and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroads, and was a director of the First National Bank of Newark, in the building which is now the Colonial Apartments. His interest in Newark meant much to its development.

Mary McKee, a former classmate told me that when her grandfather, Mr. James Roberts, moved here with his family from England they were entertained by the Pillings until they were established in their own home.

Old English
At supper that night, her mother who was a tiny little girl, leaned over and asked quietly "May I have another piece of the flesh?" Mrs. Pilling said "Say that out loud, I have not heard it since coming from England. Everyone in this country calls it meat. You may have all you want," she said handing "the flesh" to Mary Jane's plate.

Mr. McKee who had been a drummer boy at 13 years of age in the Civil War had a handkerchief which many men will remember on Main Street.

Extension Service Apple Sprays Prove Successful

Red Delicious apples "got the works" this past season in various spray programs tested by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

According to Dr. Louis A. Stearna, extension entomologist, all eight of the optional spray programs recommended to growers in 1953 proved satisfactory against diseases, insects and mites, with one exception—the fungicide Zineb failed to control scab. The comparative tests were made on Red Delicious apples in the Richardson-Kelly orchard at Rising Sun.

The only trouble with a sure thing is the uncertainty.
—Courier, Waterloo, Ia.

For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
—(Job 19, 25.)

Why should we of today be so fearful, so faint of heart, when such a faith has survived down the centuries to save and sustain us? Faith in our cause, our nation, our victory over godless Communism, must begin with unswerving faith in God and His omnipotence.

Nutritionist Lists Christmas Cooking Tips For Holidays

The aroma of baking cookies or cooking chocolate is as much a part of Christmas as the holly and mistletoe. If you haven't yet made a supply of these treats, there's still time to prepare some for holiday entertaining.

Miss Gertrude Holloway, extension nutrition specialist at the University of Delaware, suggests that you check your recipes first, then list all the supplies needed, so that one trip to the market will do.

Most cookies can be stored or frozen in airtight containers. Candies such as fondant and nougats will keep in airtight boxes. Other holiday foods to freeze or store in the refrigerator are steamed plum or carrot pudding (keep this covered) and salted nuts. Cranberry sauce or jelly keeps well in your refrigerator.

It's best to try out first in your family any new recipes you plan to use for Christmas entertaining. Usually the family is a willing taste-test panel, and they'll tell you if anything needs changing.

Three leaflets to help you with your entertaining are available from the Mailing Room, Agricultural Hall, Newark. They are: Holiday Cookies, Tips on Candy Making, and Holiday Refreshments.

Cub Scout Pack 56 Plans Christmas Party Meeting

Newark Cub Scout Pack 56 will hold a combination pack meeting and Christmas party tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Sunday School auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church, with Santa on hand to distribute gifts.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

—(Galatians 6: 7.)

A man's sins, so seemingly unimportant and so quickly forgotten by him in his youth, nevertheless lie in his soul, which is his conscience, the longest day of his life. It is tragic that youth does not realize this, for how changed for the better could young lives become!

GOVERNOR'S HIGHWAY SAFETY COMMITTEE

Billboards like the one shown here have been erected at strategic locations to warn Delaware motorists of the safety drive. Bill signs and billboard space were donated by Hessler's, Inc. Shown inspecting the new sign are J. James Ashton, Delaware Safety Council; Walter J. Farrell of Hessler's, Inc.; and Walter B. McKendrick Jr., chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee.
