The Boyfriend Opens March 9

Cankerbury Wins Cup; Parker Changes 'Tales' To Contemporary Set

Thompson Hall topped eight other women's dorms to take first place in the twelfth Annual Women's Playbill Tuesday night in Mitchell Hall.

Thompson's rendition of "Cankerbury Tales" was a humorous music-studded takeoff on the old Chaucer tales, with many modern variations in dialogue. The play, written by Chickie Kinder, AS1, and Connie Parker, AS1, an directed by Miss Parker, featured solos by several of the different Chaucer characters as well as ensemble numbers.

Both Kent and Cannon Halls were included in the top three places for the fourth straight year. Kent was second with "Campus Party Line," a musical version of campus telephone conversations following a new pinning. Third place went to Cannon for its "Waterloo," a musical story of the plight of a town deprived of water. Edith Kelley, ED2, directed Kent's production. Judy Jones, AS2, and Mary Ann Boukalis, AS1, were co-directors and writers for Cannon.

Mrs. Etheleen Smith, assistant director of residence, presented the gold loving cup to Thompson following the announcement of the winners by Dora Sherer, ED1, co-ordinating director of this year's Playbill. Miss Parker accepted the award for Thompson, climaxing the intense competition which had taken place Monday and Tuesday nights.

"AND OF COURSE OUR REGARDS TO MR. C." — Thompson Hall makes their way to Canterbury and also to first place in the Playbill competition.

EUROPE BOUND — The cast of Boy Friend are probably smiling as they think of their European summer tour. The cast will present the play on campus on March 9, 10, 11 in Mitchell.

E-52 Players 3rd Production Of The Season Play is a Lampoon Of Flapper Period

By MIKE LEWIS

The E-52 University Players will open their third major production of the season, "The Boyfriend", Thursday, March 9 at 8:15 p. m. in Mitchell Hall.

"The Boyfriend" is a lampoon of the entertainment patterns of the madcap decade that featured Babe Ruth, speakeasies, flat-chested flappers and men in plus-fours. It parodies the songs that delighted the era—thin, mechanical jazz, silly, but elaborate lyrics that rhyme "necessity" with "confess it he," and amusingly banal love songs. It also travesties the kind of plot and dialogue styles of the musical comedy of that period.

ROMANTIC PLOT

The plot of "The Boyfriend" is, of course, a Cinderella version, about a wistful, lonely rich girl who falls in love with a handsome messenger boy, whose poorness dooms their romance. Just as her heart is about to break over this situation, the heroine learns that her messenger boy is actually the son of a prominent British peer.

Miss Jo Anne Neal, Soprano To Sing For Coffee Concert

Jo Anne Neal

Miss Jo Anne Neal, a promising young soprano, will be the featured "Coffee Concert" performer on Sunday, Mar. 5 at 8:15 p. m. in Sussex residence hall.

"Coffee Concerts" are sponsored by the Women's Executive Council and the Men's Residence Hall Association. There is no admissions charge and students, faculty, and the public are cordially invited.

Jo Anne Neal's brilliant, powerful voice and innate apt-ness for musical communication are supplemented by a background of training which began in her home state of Texas. Soon after she received her Bachelor of Music degree from North Texas State College in Denton, she accepted a scholarship to study with Dr. Ernst Knoch in New York City. She has also studied with Kurt Adler, Leo Taubman and Maude Tweedy.

Buddheva Bose Talks Of Oriental Influence On English Literature

Professor Buddheva Bose, Hindu teacher, critic and poet, will be at the university today as guest of the department of English and the visiting scholar program.

Mr. Bose will meet with student classes today and will be guest at a luncheon in the S. C. He gave a public lecture on "Robindranath Tagore" last evening. Robindranath Tagore has been hailed as "India's Shakespeare" by Dr. Calhoun Winton, assistant professor of the English department.

Bose is a leading Bengali man of letters — a successor to, friend of and authority on Tagore, Nobel Prize-winning poet, dramatist and mystic. Tagore was born a century ago in Calcutta.

Author of over 100 titles in Bengali, Rose's works include poetry, criticism, fiction, belles-letters and children's books. Among his Bengali works are two books and numerous uncollected papers on the life and works of Tagore. He also edited a Bengali translation of Dr. Zhivago.

Professor Bose is head of the department of comparative literature at Jadavpur University in Calcutta, and presently visiting professor at New York University.

Student Tour United Nations; Sign Up Now

A trip to the United Nations will be held on Mar. 27 in conjunction with the series of lectures on the organization and role of the United Nations. These lectures are being given by Dr. William J. Bruce, a member of the U. N. Staff.

Students who desire to go on the trip, including those who are not enrolled in the course, should sign a roster in the department of political science, Room 208, East Hall by Mar. 20. Cost of the trip will include the round trip fare by chartered bus and the cost for lunch.

The topic of the lecture on Mar. 6 by Dr. Bruce will be "Promoting Better Standards of Life in a Larger Freedom" at 7:30 in 100 East Hall.

Ross E. Anderson Keynote Conference Here Tomorrow

"Aiding The Retarded Reader" is the theme of the annual education and reading conference held at the university today and tomorrow.

Ross E. Anderson, Jr., executive vice president of the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce, will be one of four keynote speakers.

The conference is sponsored by the reading-study center of the School of Education.

Mr. Anderson will also speak tomorrow at a luncheon session at Kent Dining Hall, on the topic, "Business in Education—Education in Business."

Throughout the two-day conference, panels and speakers of interest to primary, elementary, intermediate and junior high and senior high school teachers will be presented. Materials on reading and testing will be exhibited and publications of the proceedings of previous conferences will be on sale.

Mr. Anderson is a graduate of Baker University in business administration, he has taken advanced work in management seminars at Southwestern Institute and the University of Houston, and in 1959 he was an instructor at Houston.

Prior to his appointment recently in Delaware, Mr. Anderson has been with the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce since 1954 as assistant to the executive vice president and director of the service department.

Other speakers will be Dr. Ralph J. Staiger, director of the reading clinic at Mississippi Southern College; Albert J. Harris, of the educational clinic of Queens College, and Dr. Jules Abrams, director of the Reading Improvement Institute, Philadelphia.

Dr. Albert J. Harris professor of education and director of the educational clinic at Queens College, will speak at the Friday evening general session in Mitchell Hall at 7 p.m. on the topic, "Causes and Diagnosis of Reading Disabilities." He will describe the various kinds of conditions and handicaps that are sometimes involved in the causation of reading problems and will indicate the steps that teachers can take in studying these disabilities.

At tomorrow morning's general session at 9 a.m. in Wolf Hall, he will discuss "Remedial Reading Techniques," emphasizing the importance of motivation and of adapting the remedial program to the special needs of the child.

Series Shows Toynbee Talk

Arnold Toynbee, British historian, will speak of the experiences that have influenced his work in a Wisdom Series film on Tuesday, Mar. 7 at 4 p.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. in Mitchell Hall.

He describes the quarter century of research and writing that went into his "A Study of History," a monumental summary of world history. Toynbee also discusses his philosophy of historical causation.

One of the few noted historians who also enjoys the distinction of being a "best-selling" author, Toynbee is widely known for his theories about the dynamics of civilizations.

He received an education in Greek and Latin classics at Winchester and Balliol College, Oxford, and later studied at the British Archaeological School at Athens. He has worked at various times in government service, as a foreign correspondent, and as professor of history at the University of London.

Arrangements to show the Wisdom Series, produced by the Encyclopedia Britannica, have been made by the University Extension Division. The showings of these films also take place at 7:30 p.m. on Monday evenings in the P. S. DuPont Auditorium.

What would YOU do as an engineer at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft?

Regardless of your specialty, you would work in a favorable engineering atmosphere.

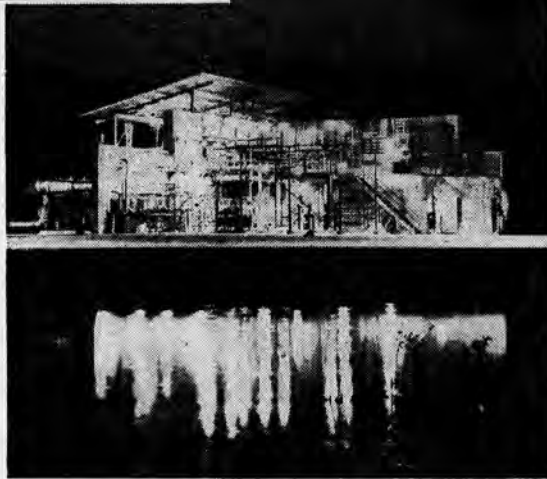

Back in 1925, when Pratt & Whitney Aircraft was designing and developing the first of its family of history-making powerplants, an attitude was born—a recognition that engineering excellence was the key to success.

That attitude, that recognition of the prime importance of technical superiority is still predominant at P&WA today.

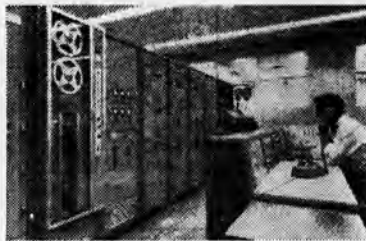

The field, of course, is broader now, the challenge greater. No longer are the company's requirements confined to graduates with degrees in mechanical and aeronautical engineering. Pratt & Whitney Aircraft today is concerned with the development of all forms of flight propulsion systems for the aerospace medium-air breathing, rocket, nuclear and other advanced types. Some are entirely new in concept. To carry out analytical, design, experimental or materials engineering assignments, men with degrees in mechanical, aeronautical, electrical, chemical and nuclear engineering are needed, along with those holding degrees in physics, chemistry and metallurgy.

Specifically, what would you do?—your own engineering talent provides the best answer. And Pratt & Whitney Aircraft provides the atmosphere in which that talent can flourish.

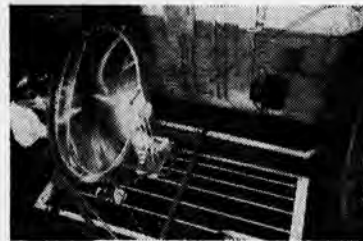

Development testing of liquid hydrogen-fueled rockets is carried out in specially built test stands like this at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft's Florida Research and Development Center. Every phase of an experimental engine test may be controlled by engineers from a remote blackhouse (inset), with closed-circuit television providing a means for visual observation.

At P&WA's Connecticut Aircraft Nuclear Engine Laboratory (CANEL) many technical talents are focused on the development of nuclear propulsion systems for future air and space vehicles. With this live mock-up of a reactor, nuclear scientists and engineers can determine critical mass, material reactivity coefficients, control effectiveness and other reactor parameters.

Representative of electronic aids functioning for P&WA engineers is this on-site data recording center which can provide automatically recorded and computed data simultaneously with the testing of an engine. This equipment is capable of recording 1,200 different values per second.

Studies of solar energy collection and liquid and vapor power cycles typify P&WA's research in advanced space auxiliary power systems. Analytical and Experimental Engineers work together in such programs to establish and test basic concepts.

UN Lectures, Seminar, Films Opened To All UD Students

Although the division of university extension has as one of its principal concerns the adult, off-campus student, many of the extension programs offered on the campus in the evening or on weekends are planned for the benefit of full-time students as well.

Dr. Gordon C. Godbey, director of university extension, points out that while part-time students must pay a fee to attend many of the extension programs in Newark, all of these programs are open to full-time graduate and undergraduate students without charge. The student's identification card will admit him to any extension activity on the campus.

Current examples of extension opportunities for the full-time student include the lecture series on "The United Nations in Action," the seminar on "Solid Propellant Rocketry, Cafe Intellectual and two film series.

UN LECTURES

The UN lectures, a series of 10 being offered by Dr. William J. Bruce, are scheduled for 7:30 p. m., Mondays, in room 100, East Hall. Dr. Bruce has served with the UN since 1945 and is currently special assistant in the executive office of the secretary general.

A team of rocket scientists drawn both from industry and the university, is presenting the 12-session rocketry seminar at 4:30 p. m., Fridays in room 140, DuPont Hall. Most of the speakers have been recruited with the aid of the American Rocket Society from the Hercules Powder Co. and Thiokol Chemical Corp., which produced two of the three stages in the recent history-making Minuteman missile launching.

The second of four informal Cafe Intellectual meetings will be held in the basement lounge of Warner Hall on Sunday at 8 p. m. Professor Robert Huff will lead the free-for-all discussion of "Lyric Poetry in a Conformist Society." In future gatherings Dr. Ralph Purcell will keynote a discussion of "National Goals: 1960's," and Dr. Ralph Exline will use Vance Packard's book as the springboard into a consideration of "The Status Seekers."

The two film series include the Wisdom Series of filmed interview with world leaders in a variety of fields and the Campus Cinema, which features weekend showings of the best motion picture productions over the years in the U. S. and abroad. The Wisdom Series is screened each Wednesday in the Wolf Hall Auditorium at 4 p. m. and again at 6 p. m. The Campus Cinema are shown in Wolf Hall at 8:15 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Participation by campus students in all these activities, concludes Dr. Godbey, is not only welcomed but desired.

ROTC To Display Modern Weapons

Weapons of the Modern Army, organic to, or in support of, small infantry operations, will be on display for ROTC classes on Mar. 8 and 9 in the Military Gunshed behind Taylor Gym.

The display will also be open to the public from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. on March 8 and from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. on the 9th.

Among those weapons displayed will be the new M14 Rifle, M60 Machine Gun, SS10 Guide Anti-tank Rocket, 106mm Anti-tank Recoilless Rifle, "bazooka" anti-tank rocket launcher and the army "mule" new vehicle for battlefield transport.

Homeless?

A change in the existing dormitory distribution has caused much dissatisfaction on south campus this week. Women have been rushing in order to make new quick decisions concerning room choice.

The new ruling appeared in the Review Friday, February 24 from Mr. James Robinson's office. The new ruling presented a plan which would insure more equitable distribution by classes in each dormitory. This would eliminate one dormitory from housing a great number of senior women for instance.

Junior women are especially upset about this new distribution since it breaks up large groups of seniors headed for the Harrington Complex. Small note of appeasement to the juniors: Mr. Robinson said that the number of women per dorm which appeared as part of the ruling will be quite flexible in the first few years.

This new dormitory plan was first presented to the women in the newspaper and later presented in the form of letters to each woman explaining the rule. This came as a complete surprise to all women on south campus since no student groups were consulted concerning the changes. Most women had been planning on dormitory location for next year and deciding with whom they wanted to live. When this rule came out many of the plans for very large groups had to be abandoned.

A four day decision period is not enough and this is the amount of time elapsing between the day the women knew of the rule and the first day room deposits were accepted.

In the past, women have always had more time to decide upon room location. Mr. Robinson explained that it was his hope that the new physical plant process would be presented sooner but that this proved impossible. We feel that since this notification was not issued earlier, the deposit date should have been moved to a later date.

Room selection is especially important to women since they are required to be in the dorm for at least eight hours each week day. Therefore we feel that sufficient time should have been allocated for questions and new decisions concerning the living location.

After hearing the reasons for displeasure voiced by the junior women, in particular, Dean John Hocutt has called a meeting with Mr. Robinson, Dean Bessie B. Collins, Mrs. Ethelene Smith and student representatives to discuss dissatisfaction with the rule.

We hope that a more acceptable plan will emerge from this meeting. At least we hope that future announcements of this type will be presented to the students well in advance of the time that the ruling becomes effective.

In this case TIME would have eliminated much south campus chaos.

Greek Column

Last Sunday night after all the pledge parties, all the brothers' welcomes, the new pledges realized that classes were not suspended and that the first round of hourlies were coming up.

Not only were there three weeks of studies to catch up on but now the idea of "work points" was unfurled. But these new pledges are now FRATERNITY MEN and can roll with the punches. They will reorganize their time so as to get 100 points and still get a 4.00.

The real fraternity life will be learned now, and once things get rolling, these new MEN will wonder how they ever could have missed so much before.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The annual Founder's day Banquet will be held on Sunday, March 12. The guest speaker will be Stewart Daniels, Executive Secretary to the national fraternity.

PHI KAPPA TAU

On February 22, 1961 election of officer was held. Buddy Robb was elected President while Gerry Bunting was elected to the position of Vice President. Other officers elected were Dick Blevins, treasurer and Scholar ship chairman; Ted Treadway, Secretary; Norm Collins, House Manager; Don Conaway, Pledge-master; Nick Vouras, Social Chairman; Dave Fromme, IFC Representative; Mike Gearhart, Chaplain; Rick Willis, Rushing Chairman; Al Streett, Steward; and Walt McCoy, Assistant Treasurer. Henry Kuratle was re-appointed Sergeant at Arms. These men were installed on March 1.

On March 1 the following were formally pledged: John Anderson, Mike Connor, Jack Crelling, Ed Crispin, Dave Herron, Marshall Johns, Roy Lekites, Tom Mason, Bill Warren, Ron Wood, Bill Wilson, and Bob Voorhees. Thomas Hanna was pledged on February 22.

A party in honor of the new pledges will be held on Saturday, March 4 with a combo providing the music.

Phi Kappa Tau will hold its annual Founders' Day Banquet on March 17 at the Newark Country Club.

ALPHA EPSILON PI

The night of March 4 will see "Richie and the Romans" entertaining the AEPi brothers and pledges, along with their dates, at the best party of the year, "Beatnik." The "Ape House" itself will contribute to the atmosphere by dressing up in its most beat attire. All who attend will try to live up to the principles, traditions, and dress of Ying and Yang, Ginsberg, Kerouac, and Jim Fischer.

Sixteen pledges, whose membership represents the largest pledge class in modern AEPi history, were officially inducted on March 1. The first official act of their short pledge life was joining the brothers, in the green oasis in front of Smyth Hall, in a serenade to Sylvia Hymovitz, AS4, recently pinned to brother Al Pacholder, EE '62.

THETA CHI

Theta Chi is back in action. With a 2.40 index, the happy Theta Chis have proved that even cumulative animals have enough sense to come in out of the doghouse.

First action will be a Record Hop tomorrow night. The brothers seem to have lost their razors and will be sporting beards to the Bowery Ball coming up on March 11.

Attention girls, ALVIN is back! Saturday night proved a disappointment but watch out this week, Dick Hammer is back in Thompson Hall. Also there seem to be a little trouble with "Blind Owls" in the decks of Theta Chi.

Open Fraternity Parties

Open house parties will be held in Phi Kappa Tau Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Nu, and Theta Chi, for all who wish to attend.

Hillel To Hold Party; Elect Slate

Hillel will hold its annual Purim party Tuesday evening, Mar. 7, at 6:30 in the Hillel Room of the Academy Apartments.

The festivities will be further heightened by elections of new officers and a visit by Rabbi Oscar Groner, assistant national director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations. A corn beef and pastrami dinner and Israeli dancing will conclude the activities.

Rabbi Groner is a native of Chicago, Illinois. A graduate of the University of Chicago, he was ordained at the Hebrew Theological College of Chicago in 1946. From 1947 to 1952 Rabbi Groner was associated with the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Rabbi Groner came to Hillel in 1952, serving as the Director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at Northwestern University until the assumption of his national responsibilities in March 1960.

At Northwestern University he held the rank of lecturer in the Department of History and Literature of Religions. Rabbi Groner is a contributor to Jewish literary periodicals.

There are more than 200 B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations and Councils for religious, cultural and educational work among Jewish students at colleges and universities in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Holland, Israel and South Africa. The National Hillel office is located in the B'nai B'rith Building in Washington, D. C.

WORDS: THEIR CAUSE AND CURE

Today let us take up the subject of etymology (or entomology, as it is sometimes called) which is the study of word origins (or insects, as they are sometimes called).

Where are word origins (insects) to be found? Well sir, sometimes words are proper names that have passed into the language. Take, for instance, the words used in electricity: ampere was named after its discoverer, the Frenchman Andre Marie Ampere (1775-1836); similarly ohm was named after the German G. S. Ohm (1781-1854), watt after the Scot James Watt (1736-1819), and bulb after the American Fred C. Bulb (1843-1912).

There is, incidentally, quite a poignant little story about Mr. Bulb. Until Bulb's invention, all illumination was provided by gas, which was named after its inventor Milton T. Gas who, strange to tell, had been Bulb's roommate at Cal Tech! In fact, strange to tell, the third man sharing the room with Bulb and Gas was also one whose name burns bright in the annals of illumination—Walter Candle!

The three roommates were inseparable companions in college. After graduation all three did research in the problem of artificial light, which at this time did not exist. All America used to go to bed with the chickens. In fact, many Americans were chickens.

Well sir, the three comrades—Bulb, Gas, and Candle—promised to be friends forever when they left school, but success, alas, spoiled all that. First Candle invented the candle, got rich, and forgot his old friends. Then Gas invented gas, got rich, bankrupted Candle, and forgot his old friends. Then Bulb invented the bulb, got rich, bankrupted Gas, and forgot his old friends.

They became fast friends all over again

Candle and Gas, bitter and impoverished at the age respectively of 75 and 71, went to sea as respectively the world's oldest and second oldest cabin boy. Bulb, rich and grand, also went to sea, but he went in style—as a first-class passenger on luxury liners.

Well sir, strange to tell, all three were aboard the ill-fated Lusitania when she was sunk in the North Atlantic. And, strange to tell, when they were swimming for their lives after the shipwreck, all three clambered aboard the same dinghy!

Well sir, chastened and made wiser by their brush with death, they fell into each other's arms and wept and exchanged forgiveness and became fast friends all over again.

For three years they drifted in the dinghy, shaking hands and singing the Cal Tech rouser all the while. Then, at long last, they spied a passing liner and were taken aboard.

They remained fast friends for the rest of their days, which, I regret to report, were not many, because the liner which picked them up was the Titanic.

What a pity that Marlboros were not invented during the lifetimes of Bulb, Gas, and Candle! Had there been Marlboros, these three friends never would have grown apart because they would have known how much, despite their differences, they still had in common. I mean to say that Marlboros can be lit by candle, by gas, or by electricity, and no matter how you light them, you always get a full-flavored smoke, a filter cigarette with an unfiltered taste that makes anyone—including Bulb, Gas, and Candle—settle back and forget anger and strife and smile the sweet smile of friendship on all who pass!

Another peaceful smoke from the makers of Marlboro is the brand-new unfiltered king-size Philip Morris Commanders. Try one soon and find out how welcome you'll be aboard.

6 Hen Mermen Record Victory Over Garnet; Seniors End Careers

By Jim Thompson

Coach Harry Rawstrom's mermen closed another winning campaign (6-4) Saturday with a 51-42 victory over Swarthmore in the losers' pool. Only an upset at F&M prevented the Blue and Gold Fish from topping the record of past seasons.

Two record-breaking performances by Garnet swimmers failed to impress the Hens as they piled up second and third place points enroute to their closing victory. Senior Co-captain Newt Wattis ended his career in winning style when he splashed home first in the 200 individual medley.

WEBBER RELIABLE

Art Webber, a reliable performer over the past four years, also closed his career but went unplaced in a fast 50 free style race. Other Hen winners were Co-captain Dan Roosevelt (440), Pete Georges (diving), John Maloney (50), Charlie Derrick (200 butterfly), and the medley relay team of Cal Horn, Gary Otwell, Derrick and Howdy Giles.

Coach Rawstrom feels the team had a good season and looks forward to an even better year in 1962. Rawstrom remarks that the loss of Wattis and Webber will hurt but that there are several outstanding freshman performers moving up to the varsity. Among them are Haylor Osborn and John Osborn, sprinters; Jack and Jim Waggaman, backstroke and Jeff Losee, distance. Returning standouts include Roosevelt, Giles, Maloney, Derrick, Horn, Ken Horne, Otwell, Georges and Dutch Holsinger.

RECORDS BROKEN

Highlights of the season were the record breaking performances by Georges in the diving and Roosevelt in the individual medley and 220. The free style relay team of Giles, Wattis, Roosevelt and Maloney also broke the pool record. Maloney won nine out of ten 50 free style races while leading the team in scoring with 87 points. This compared with Roosevelt's 83. Maloney is a sophomore and Roosevelt a junior. The biggest thrill of the year came early in the season when the mermen handed Dickinson its first defeat in 33 meets.

This weekend several members of the team are competing in the Middle Atlantic Championships at West Chester. Next week they travel to Princeton for the Eastern Championships as they wind up another year in the pool.

Record Stands At 7 Come 11 But Hens Don't Make Point

DELAWARE HEN goes in for a lay up while blocked by two Flying Dutchmen. Hofstra proved victorious over the Henmen 75-67.

Hofstra's Flying Dutchmen defeated the Delaware basketball team by a score of 75-67 last Saturday night. The freshman game was taken by the home team by a score of 77-59.

The game marked the home game in the career of three Delaware varsity members: Captain Jack Baly, Tom Adams and Jay Lynch. Each finished a fine career for the varsity, who still has one away game to play.

The Hofstra team started the game quickly, by scoring spurts of 8, 6, and 11 points build up a 29-9 lead. The varsity never really recovered from these spurts in the first half and trailed 41-24 at halftime.

CLOUD HIGH

Nate Cloud was high for the varsity in the half with 10 points, but three Hofstra players, Bob Stowers, Rick Schwartz, and Brant Alyea accounted for 13, 12, and 7 points respectively.

At the start of the second half Hofstra built its lead to 50 points. At this point the Hens were met by disaster. With two technical fouls called against Hofstra during this period, the Blue Hens outscored the Dutchmen 35-15. Led by Dick Greenhill's four counter, the varsity scored seven straight points.

Local Netmen Seek Shelter; Convene on Carpenter Wood

By DENISE GRANKE

Varsity tennis practice began indoors March 1 and will move outside with a hoped for improvement in the weather. Tom Roe, a senior letterman, will captain this season's team in their effort to better last year's 8-2 record.

Hampered by the loss of last season's captain, Russell Givin, and lettermen Pete Langeman and Bob Brunner, the team will go into its first match with the experience of five returning lettermen. New additions to Delaware's team will be Ken Sutton, a junior transfer student last year from Indianapolis and of Ervin Lange, another transfer student. Pete Hartman, Art Haycock, and Steve Young, all returnees from last year's frosh tennis team will round out the squad.

FELDMAN FIRST

Holding down the number one spot will probably be Jake Feldman. Competition for slots two, three, and four will be among Roe, Lange, and Dick Dieckman. The last may be forced to see limited action because of working. Positions five and six will be a toss up among Pete Barry, Sam Allen, and the members of last season's frosh team.

The loss of Givin will also be felt in the doubles matches, according to Coach Rylander. Roe and Feldman are the only returnees from last season's team who have worked together in doubles.

All members of the team have done well in practice so far, but will have to continue to improve as three of the first four matches are with traditionally strong teams. Western Maryland will be the first competition in an away match; it will be followed by Johns Hopkins at home. The Hens lost to Johns Hopkins last season 1-8.

GARNET TOUGH

The fourth match with Swarthmore should be the most difficult of the season. No Delaware team has beaten Swarthmore since 1910. Bucknell should also prove to be tough competition. No accurate prediction can be made about Washington College as this is the first year they appear on the Delaware schedule.

The frosh tennis team's season will begin the last week in April with matches against Cambridge, Md.; Bainbridge N.A.P.S.; Wilmington Friends and either Conrad or Brandywine High School. With seven of the team from Wilmington, the increase in interest in tennis in the high schools, especially in Delaware, has resulted in more good prospects for the frosh and varsity team and the increase of Wililmington players on the frosh team.

Blue Thinlads Take Successful Debut Via Whitewash of Ursinus

Delaware track followers can look forward to another outstanding season if results of last Saturday's informal indoor meet at Carpenter Field House, in which the Blue Hens won all but one event from Ursinus, are any indication.

The Hens under their new coach, Jimmy Flynn, will be seeking to repeat last year's undefeated record.

STACK SECOND

Captain Wes Stack ran the fastest field house mile ever for a Delaware man, 4:28.0. However, he lost the race. Stack returned to take the two-mile in 10:03.5.

Marshall Johns was a triple winner, taking the 50-yard dash in :05.6, and the 600-yard run in 1:19.7, and setting a new Delaware indoor record in the broad jump with a distance of 21-2 1/2.

BAKER OUTSTANDING

Another outstanding performance was turned in by Ollie Baker, the football end, who made his debut as high jumper. He leaped 6-1 1/2, a quarter inch below the field house record.

Flynn said the meet results were "encouraging," but he thinks most of the times and distances can be improved. He cited the work of Stack, Johns and Baker as the most outstanding, and said he also was pleased with Ed Bacon, who turned in his best pole vaulting effort, 11-0.

Sports SLANTS

By Howard Isaacs
Sports Editor

With the regular winter sports season over, enthusiasts soon will direct their attention to the spring teams which are presently working out and waiting only for the weather to clear, before they make use of the diverse facilities of Frazer Field.

Only the Middle Atlantic Championships remain on the schedules of swimming and wrestling. Both competitions will take place today and tomorrow, the former at West Chester and the latter at Bethlehem, Pa. The swimmers wound up the regular season with a 6-4 record. The wrestling ended with a 3-5-1 mark.

The Hen courtmen wound up their season Wednesday night by defeating Swarthmore in both varsity and frosh contests. Victory over the Garnet brought Coach Irv Wisniewski his best season at the helm of the Blue Hens and the best winning percentage for the quintet since 1953-54. The basketball team finished with a record of 8-11.

On the threshold of a new season we look back to the fall sports scene to mention Delaware athletes who gained post-season recognition through soccer. Despite the unimpressive record of the booters, several of them were selected to positions on MASCAC Southern Division teams.

Gaining a bid to the first team was Art Haycock at outside right. Sam Allen was named to the second team at left half. Jay Gorry, goalie, and Rick Jones, outside left, received honorable mention. Sam Allen was honored a second time as he gained honorable mention at right half to The All Pa-NJ-Del post season team.

Under the direction of Coach Tubby Raymond, the baseballers are busily at work in the Carpenter Field House. Competitors from winter sports that are presently winding up their schedules are due to report to baseball practice next week. Included in this category are Nate Cloud and John Strode, both bright prospects.

Vern Walch has been looking good in practice according to reports. He will probably be second man on the Hen pitching staff, behind Rusty Gates. A strong staff will be essential this season because of the great number of contests scheduled and the increased number of double headers.

Grapplers Slump To Fifth Loss; Frosh End Season With Win

Delaware's slumping wrestling team dropped its fifth straight match to end the season with a 3-5-1 record.

Once again, the Hens entered the contest with key injuries at every position. Barry Haldeman, who has done an excellent job in the 137 pound class, was unable to participate because of a separated shoulder. John Strode was forced to yield in the 167 pound spot due to the recurrence of a shoulder injury.

TRIO WINS

The only winners in Saturday's 19-9 loss were Mike Quillin, Tom Stanton, and Irv Handy in the 147, 157 and heavyweight classes respectively.

The highlight of the match occurred in the heavyweight bout between Irv Handy and Ron Duff. Handy, who was called on late in the season to fill the vacant heavyweight spot, controlled his man during the entire match and almost pinned him.

FROSH WIN

The freshmen meanwhile, made one of their best showings of the year by defeating the Drexel frosh 21-8, Saturday. Wins were recorded by Ted Pochinsky, John Houston and Kim Morton in the 133, 157 and heavyweight classes, respectively. Bob Young recorded a tie while Bob Siebert scored a pin. Delaware's other points were due to a forfeit in the 177 pound class.

The Hens will compete in the MAC championships on Friday and Saturday, officially ending the season.

Squire Wins; Cannon Added To Victory List

A strong Squire team made a comeback this past week to overwhelm Otto House 32-5 in the WAA interdorm basketball tournament. Two Squire hoopsters, Jane Benner and Barbara Lefters, scored in double figures with 12 and ten points respectively. They were aided by Sandra Lee Kimball with six points and Kathryn Springs with four pointers. Otto House, the only team to beat Squire in the volleyball tournament earlier this term, slipped far behind on the scoring with points being made by Martha Finney and Barbara Fisher.

Sussex Hall succumbed to Cannon 35-6 with Mary Ann Boukalis and Alice Hale again at the top of the scoring column with ten points each. They were bring the score to 39-60. After Nate Cloud scored two field goals, Rod Steele joined him in leading a rally which brought the score to 59-71. Tom Adams scored four more points to bring the score to 67-75 where it ended.

Nate Cloud led the team in scoring and rebounding with 17 points and 13 grabs. Baly followed him in scoring with 12 points.

FROSH SLUGGISH

The freshman team, although sluggish in the first half, won their tenth game by defeating Bainbridge by a score of 77-59. Pete Cloud started the freshman team on the right track by leading them to a 9-8 lead. Bainbridge soon took the lead and maintained it throughout the rest of the first half.

At the beginning of the second half, Bill Haggerty and Cloud teamed up to give the Chicks a 42-39 lead which they never lost. Ron Smith and Dave Sysko joined in controlling the boards and scoring 26 points between them to give the team a 72-57 lead.

Smith led the scorers with 24 points and was followed by Sysko with 15, Cloud with 14, and Haggerty with 10. Sysko led the rebounders with 19 grabs.

Boyfriend Opens

has inserted three boarding-school friends of the heroine who also have frustrating romances and a long-separated older couple who have a temporary flame-up of their old love for each other.

As pointed out by Brooks Robinson, former New York Times drama critic, when "The Boyfriend" first scored its success on Broadway, the show's parody of the 'twenties only partly accounts for its success. "In an elusive fashion," he said, "the show is also charming."

QUAINT SONGS

Among the quaint songs that neatly represent the era of the 'twenties are "Won't You Charleston With Me?"; a love ballad called "I Could Be Happy With You"; a "production number," "Sur La Plage"; and others such as the wistful "A Room In Bloomsbury" and the humorous "It's Never Too Late To Fall In Love". All songs carry the atmosphere of fashion of the time for the characters in, and the readers of the novels of F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Starring such Mitchell Hall favorites as Kay Salvatore, Ken Shelton, Jack Erthal, Helen Moore, Tom Lackman, Allison Ford and others, and some faces comparatively new to Mitchell Hall audiences, "The Boyfriend" will provide a memorable night of entertainment for those in search of their lost youth and those lost youths in search of their elder's backgrounds.

Tickets may be obtained from the box office, open from 3:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. and from 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. Reservations can be made by phoning ENS-8511 Ext. 380 from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. or ENS-1951 from 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. The "sold out" signs are expected to be posted, so it would be wise to order tickets now.

Already several hundred tickets have been ordered under the theatre party plan. The plan is being utilized by high schools in Delaware and Maryland, church groups and individuals who have planned after-dinner theatre parties. There are still plenty of seats available under the theatre party plan, however. Seats which sell individually for $2.00 can be purchased at $1.50 for groups of 10 or more, and for $1.25 for groups of 100 or more. Rates for high school students are $1.25 for groups of 10 or more.

Persons interested in the theatre party plan are advised to submit their orders early since they will be filled on a first come-first served basis.
