

GIFTS FROM FRENCH ARE PRESENTED 9 LOCAL UNITS

Ceremonies On Saturday Mark Visit Of State "Thanks" Train

Gifts from the French people, expressions of thanks for the U. S. Friendship Train, were presented to nine local organizations Saturday when the Delaware car of the Gratitude Train passed through here.

Mayor Ford McBerty accepted the offerings on behalf of the town and presented them, in turn, to representatives of the various groups. The gifts were not opened at the ceremonies, and most of the organizations report they intend to leave them wrapped until their next meeting.

The presentations, made in front of Harter Hall, climaxed a parade of local units, which escorted the French freight car, mounted on a motorized trailer, down Main Street.

A few organizations have disclosed the nature of their gifts. The Flower Hospital received a beautiful petrified rose, according to Miss Mary Ford, who accepted it at the ceremonies. The University of Delaware was given three shrubs, numerous books, music scores, original manuscripts by French authors and other items. Dr. Carl Rees accepted the presentations. The Newark Schools received three books, pictorial accounts of famous French sites. Superintendent Wilmer E. Shue received the mementoes.

Other gifts were presented to the following: Newark Town Library, J. A. O'Daniel Post, No. 475 V. F. W., Isaac Watson Post, American Legion, J. A. O'Daniel Post No. 10, American Legion and the Navy Mothers Club.

The parade, headed by a police escort and official cars containing members of the Town Council and other officials, was escorted by Elmer E. Cochran, who heads the O'Daniel Legion Post. Leading off with a combined color guard of the American Legion and V. F. W., it included in the line of march the Newark High School Band, a contingent of the Delaware 40 and 8, and groups of Newark firemen and Boy Scouts.

150 SCHOOL JOURNALISTS TO CONVENE

Columnists To Speak At Parley Here

Frederic G. Pitts, newspaperman who is co-author of the syndicated column, "Foxy and Freddy," which appears in the Journal-Every Evening and numerous other papers, will be one of the principal speakers at the Delaware Scholastic Press Association's annual conference, Feb. 26 at the University of Delaware.

Miss Peannette Thoroughgood, of Newark, program chairman for the conference, said Mr. Pitts would be one of two speakers at a general meeting scheduled to be held at Mitchell Hall at 9:30 a. m. Later, in a sectional meeting devoted to columnists, Mr. Pitts will speak again.

Among the Newark High School students to the sectional meetings will be Marilyn Murray, Donald Phillips, Mary Menges, Barbara Humphreys, E. Smith, Esther Fouracre, Jackie Hall, Jimmy Towers, Nancy Conte, and Mr. Mayer, James Towers and others.

There will be more than a dozen sectional meetings which will take up the problems of the student journalists and their advisers, said Miss Thoroughgood.

Mr. Pitts, who holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Columbia University, School of Journalism, received early newspaper experience on several newspapers from New Bedford, Mass., to Vancouver, British Columbia. He was with the New York Sun and the former New York Tribune, and assistant managing editor of the Buffalo News, and was Sunday editor of the Washington Post before being an associate editor of the Journal-Every Evening for 14 years ago. He resigned from that position to devote full time to column writing which he writes with his Alice Fox Pitts, who is executive secretary of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Hope To Approve Final Charter Draft Tomorrow

Compromises On Debated Points Aired At Hearing; Real Action To Come At Special Meet Tomorrow

In a race to arrive at a settlement of the charter issue in time to submit an acceptable draft to the current session of the legislature, the Town Council will hold a special session tomorrow night at 8 p. m. to work in final compromises on all controversial points.

This will be a follow-up on last Wednesday's closed session and Monday's public hearing.

A number of new amendments, all compromises on issues that had previously drawn public fire, were disclosed at the hearing Monday. These were drafted at Wednesday's closed session of the Council and the Charter Committee, and, in general, they reinstated the provisions which Council unexpectedly struck out in its abrupt action over a week ago.

Reaction to the new changes at the hearing was favorable by a slight margin. About 80 citizens attended, and votes were taken on all important issues, such as the bond limit and referendum procedure. The results upheld the new compromises, but the count was close in each case.

The real action, however, will come tomorrow night, when Council meets again to approve a final draft.

The major changes, as aired at the hearing, are as follows:

1. Bonded indebtedness—The ceiling was set at $800,000, with a referendum required on all issues. (The last previous limit had been $450,000). Provisions were also inserted for exceeding this limit in the case of self-liquidating projects, one of which, it pointed out, might be the erection of a town owned electrical generating plant. (Mayor Ford McBerty said that this feature was regarded as giving the town an important bargaining point in its current negotiations with the Delaware Power and Light Company for a lower power rate to compare more equitably with that granted local electric companies.)

2. Voting in a bond referendum—All qualified voters, both property and non-property owners, to get one vote, with a 60 per cent majority required to carry. The latter ruling was regarded as a concession to property owners who are outnumbered here by renters. (The section had previously called for multiple votes for property owners on the basis of one for every dollar of town taxes paid up to 100 votes, with non-property getting one vote each.)

3. Voting regulations—The original section on voting, once discarded by Council, was reintroduced to permit every citizen, resident of the state for one year and the town for at least three months, to vote. The section also calls for three registration days for all voters, one not less than 30 days prior to the election.

4. Qualifications for Mayor and Council—The ruling requiring the Mayor or Councilmen to be freeholders was discarded, and the provision now permits any qualified voter of two years' residence, not convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, to run for office.

Local Woman Named To Educator's Group

Mrs. Charles Cooper, Capitol Trail, has been named as the only layman to the state steering committee for the "Prosser Resolution," an educational reform movement, sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education. She met this week in Wilmington with the group, which is made up mainly of state educators.

The "Prosser Resolution" calls for a reform in high school curriculums, aimed at more adequate educational preparation of students who do not plan to attend college or enter a trade. The schools, it is felt, are satisfactorily meeting the needs of the academic and the vocational student, but the in-betweeners, who are in the majority, are a neglected group, not being prepared properly to cope with the workaday world.

One of the suggested reforms is the introduction of "work experiences" through which students would take part-time jobs to tie-in with their schooling.

SOCIAL AIDE WILL SPEAK ON MONDAY

Clubwomen Will Hear Director Of Family Court

C. Wilson Anderson, director of the Family Court in Wilmington since 1947, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Newark New Century Club on Monday at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Milton Draper and Mrs. Edward A. Curtis, of the club's Youth Conservation Committee, will be program chairmen and have arranged to bring the speaker here.

Mr. Anderson is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work. Before coming to Wilmington, he was connected with the Red Cross in the Boston area, worked with the Orthopsychic experiment clinic for Ailing Children in Cambridge, Mass., and also for the Pennsylvania Prison Society in Philadelphia.

The art display will be of hand-painted china. Members of the club wishing to exhibit such items are urged to notify Mrs. Kenneth Steers or Mrs. Middleton W. Hanson.

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey and her committee will serve tea following the meeting.

Chief William Cunningham further said this week that overlapping shifts have been organized to insure that the town is properly protected at all times.

Mayor McBerty and Rotary Head Steers To Slug It Out In Donkey Olympics

A blindfold boxing match on donkeys between Mayor Ford McBerty and Ken Steers, Rotary Club president, is but one of the hilarious events promised for the Donkey Olympic to be staged here February 24, at 8:03 p. m. (The time is correct, a whim of the management.)

A tug of war on donkeys between members of the Lions and Rotary clubs is also on the agenda for this calvarious of entertainment, which is billed as America's funniest hometown hit and promises to be just that.

The proceeds will go to the Recreation Association.

The Olympics is a variety show with big individual acts, with the performers all riding donkeys. Ned McCully in the role of Bill Stern, radio announcer, will set the scene for the show.

Giving a play by play account will be Sam Handloff in the role of Ted Housling. He will use the fast-on-the-spot type of announcing, which made this sports commentator famous.

The high points of comedy will be provided by two blackfaced comedians, Rufus, played by Holger Shauman and Rastus, played by Ernie Nochod.

and the High School Band.

Polo played on donkeys with special mallets and a large rubber ball will be one of the most unusual events.

A Tug O' War on donkeys will also be staged by two teams—one from Rotary and the other from Lions. Those taking part will be: Rotary: Winnie Mayer, Alex Richards, Joe Shields, Ken Steers, and Ernie Nochod; the Lions: Bob Davis, L. Rahn, Al Kish and Russell Bing. Other teams taking part will be: the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

One of the funniest spots in the show will be a blindfolded boxing match between challenger Mayor Ford McBerty, president of Lions, and contender Ken Steers, president of the Rotary. Both will slug it out as they ride donkeys.

Wearing Indian headresses and equipped with bows and arrows, the "Annie Oakley Indians" will furnish many laughs as they circle the arena and attempt to make a bull's eye, shooting arrows at the big target while mounted on the donkeys.

The musical merry go round scene of the show will be another hit.

The entire entertainment closes with the awarding of prizes to winners of the various events.

This cavalcade will appeal to persons of all ages. Tickets are going rapidly so that the advance sale indicates a large crowd will be in attendance, according to Miss Penny Wilson. Please turn to Page—7

Remodeled Methodist Church To Hold Reopening Service March 13

Re-opening day for the remodeled Methodist Church has been set for Sunday, March 13.

The new colonial facade with its white wooden steeple, already a town landmark, is nearing completion, and the enlarged sanctuary is expected to be ready for use by that date, church authorities said this week.

The wide-scale alterations, begun last July, were originally planned for the church when it was first remodelled years ago.

Other features of the current building program are the new arched ceiling in the sanctuary room to provide necessary height for a balcony at the rear; indirect lighting fixtures in the ceiling; two new lobbies, one upstairs and the other down, in the front. The downstairs lobby has been covered with red ceramic tile as have the stairs on either side leading to the second floor. The upstairs lobby has been covered with asphalt tile.

New pews and a new oak floor have been installed in the main sanctuary. The oak covers the rough flooring which has worn through in several places. The old pews, installed in 1862, have been rebuilt and placed in the balcony and in the chapel on the first floor. The rear entrance to the chapel has been changed from the side to the center of the rear wall, with a runner carpet down the center aisle leading to the altar.

Aulen To Attend U. S. Army Leaders Course

Recruit Walter George Aulen has been selected to attend the Leaders Course being conducted by the 17th Airborne "Thunder from Heaven" Division at Camp Pickett, Va.

The Leaders Course is one of the most important developments in Army training technique in recent years, and only soldiers with outstanding leadership potentialities are selected to attend.

The purpose of the course, of six weeks duration, is to develop potential commissioned and non-commissioned officers. Four weeks are devoted to academic study, and the students are assigned to companies for training duties for the last two weeks.

Ret. Aulen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Aulen, of 216 East Park Place, Newark.

Fires Cause $250 Loss At Penna. R. R. Station

Two fires occurred in rapid succession last Wednesday in the northbound waiting room of the Pennsylvania Station here, causing about $250 in damage. Both were caused by a faulty coal stove.

The Aetna men extinguished the first around noon in prompt order, then were called back at 3 p. m. No other alarms were sounded during the week.

The firemen plan a bingo party for next Friday night in the engine house, starting at 8 p. m. The event will be for the benefit of Camp Barnes, the vacation site for deserving youth of late, sponsored by the Chiefs of Police.

has been changed from the side to the center of the rear wall, with a runner carpet down the center aisle leading to the altar.

The capacity of the sanctuary has been increased from its former 250 seats on the main floor to 478, including the main floor and balcony. During the period of construction, the social hall of the church has been transformed into a temporary sanctuary, and the worship services have been carried on as usual.

A program committee is planning special re-opening services and will announce the full program as soon as it is completed.

The annual concert by the Adult Choir of the church, under the direction of James Crone, is to be given in the social hall of the church on Friday evening, February 25, at 8 p. m. The program will consist of three groups and will include both sacred and secular numbers. Jack DeLon, tenor soloist from The Westminster Choir School in Princeton, N. J., will sing several solo parts and a special solo number. There will be no admission charge and no reserved seats, but an offering will be received during the intermission. The public is cordially invited to attend.

NEW CUBS INDUCTED

About 70 cubs, parents and guests attended the annual Blue and Gold dinner of the Newark Cub Packs last Wednesday night in the Presbyterian Church.

Clubmaster William H. Ruth, Jr., acted as toastmaster and introduced four new cubs: Eugene Todd, Joseph Shields, Harry Rash and Norman Hambleton. The invocation was by the Rev. H. E. Hallman.

Milton Draper, representing the American Legion sponsors of the cub scouts, spoke on the benefits of cub training.

Following the ceremonies, Bill Baker, of Wilmington, entertained the gathering with his Modern Magic.

During Scout Week, the cubs held a handicraft display in the window of Neighbors Pharmacy.

Forum Given by Student Council

On February 14th the N. H. S. students participated in an open forum on an important subject. Recently Joan Pickett was moderator. Some of the questions answered were: Is the average person honest? Margery Dunn.

Extension of Cafeteria

There will be 60 to 70 per cent addition dining room space added to the new present cafeteria. An archway between the new and present dining rooms will divide the two rooms. The Robert Construction Company, performing the general work, will finish the work by September, 1949. It is hoped that the kitchen can be reorganized so that there will be a dual serving line where both lines can reach the steam table. It is also planned to have an enlargement of the seating capacity to four hundred persons seated comfortably, where as now only two hundred and fifty can sit in a crowded manner. It is anticipated that the gym extension and reorganization and locker rooms that go with it will follow promptly.

The new elementary building will probably not be ready for use until 1950.

Jean Thompson.

Elementary School Paper

The Toddler's Toot, which is distributed from the third to the eighth grades, is under the supervision of Mrs. Bonney. Pupils from the third to the eighth grades contribute the articles which constitute the paper. The new editor is Dolores Floyd. Mrs. Overby and Mrs. Bonney have put in many hours to make the paper a success.

The previous issue was priced at five cents per copy; however, the price of this issue will be somewhat higher because of the high cost of materials. The paper is to be printed four times a year, if possible, based upon the seasons of the year. The coming issue is to be their winter publication and is to have a typical winter scene for the cover.

A great deal of credit should also be extended to the typing classes who have given their time willingly to help prepare this coming issue.

"Senior Class Doings"

The Senior Class is once more in the news. A class meeting was held February 14, during third period. At this particular time the group discussed the good and bad points of a trip to New York or a trip to Washington. Mr. Katz spoke to the group expressing his opinion about both places. Much discussion took place before the actual voting began. Over two-thirds of the class voted for New York. Therefore, New York it will be. A group is continuing its search on accommodations and prices in New York.

Donald Phillips gave the treasury report and the class became aware of the fact that much money was still needed to finance the trip. Refreshments and prizes were suggested but later it was voted upon to pay $5 more dues and to collect all Junior and

The Fashion Academy of New York has been noted for the past 20 years for its annual selection of "America's best dressed women." The '49 Ford was chosen to receive the Fashion Academy Gold Medal after 1949 automobile models of all makes and in all price classes had been carefully studied from the standpoint of excellence in design, simplicity and feminine style appeal. ### Rittenhouse Attends New Dodge Preview

C. F. Rittenhouse, of Rittenhouse Motor Co., Newark, has returned from Atlantic City, where he attended a dealer preview of the completely new-styled Dodge cars, the first models of which will be publicly displayed in his dealership on Friday, February 25. Mr. Rittenhouse was accompanied by R. H. Dutton, sales manager; Clyde Baylis, salesman and Donald Rittenhouse, son. Mr. Rittenhouse said that although detailed information of the appearance and many engineering and mechanical improvements introduced in the new Dodge could not be revealed prior to the public showing, there are certain general facts concerning the comfort-engineering story behind the new Dodge styling that can be disclosed at this time.

"The primary considerations that influenced the design of the new Dodge were Army statistics which showed that the G. I.'s of World War II were taller, bigger, and more active than their predecessors of World War I," Mr. Rittenhouse said. "As a result, it was apparent that more passenger room, not less, was required in the modern automobile to comfortably accommodate our physically larger generation."

Mr. Rittenhouse pointed out that the challenge to Dodge engineers was to design a car with more interior space and still reduce exterior dimensions to eliminate difficulties of handling in traffic, parking, and garaging. To learn how Dodge succeeded in meeting this challenge and at the same time produced a car with an entirely new and distinctive styling, Mr. Rittenhouse cordially invites everybody to his gala open house on February 25.

Ask Survey Of Housing Need Along With 1950 Census

The Veterans of Foreign Wars proposed recently that the federal government erect legal safeguards for home buyers in cases where construction fails to meet prescribed standards.

Jack Carter, national housing officer of VFW, made the suggestion at a hearing of a Senate Banking Subcommittee studying housing legislation.

He also recommended that a national housing census be taken along with the regular 1950 census to provide "an accurate and realistic picture of the housing shortage in America" and dis-

Carl H. Chatters, executive director of the American Municipal Association, endorsed the public housing features of the Administration bill. That measure calls for construction of 150,000 units annually for seven years.

He suggested, however, that any federal housing legislation be made sufficiently flexible to allow a range of choice to American cities with differing housing needs and problems.

Letter To Editor

February 14, 1949

Dear Sir:

At the hearing on the proposed town charter in the Newark High School this evening, I agreed to the democratic principle that every resident is entitled to a vote on the matter of town councilmen and mayor.

I also subscribe to the old democratic and socialistic principle that one should subscribe to his fair share of the costs of a community project if he is to benefit from the project. I, therefore, do not believe that one who is not sharing the costs of liquidating a bond issue against property in Newark should vote taxation upon others.

In order for all residents of Newark, non-property as well as property owners, to subscribe to the principle of sharing in benefits according to their ability to pay, I propose that the non-property registrants of the town come forward with a plan for equitable distribution of taxes to liquidate any future bond issue which would compare favorably with democratic procedures to equitably liquidate borrowings. If they can not do this, then I do not feel they should be privileged to vote an indebtedness upon property owners.

I was pleased to note that about 80 people turned out at the hearing and that about 20 non-property owners out of this group signified favor of a proposal to allow a limit to a future non-self-liquidating bond issue of $800,000 and an unlimited self-liquidating issue. Few, if any, non-property owners signified disfavor with these proposals. I believe, in order to be fair with the property owners and share the tax, this group of interested citizens should come forward with a tax plan which would allow them to share directly in the costs of any project brought into being by a bond issue.

Very truly yours,

Veteran's Forum

Q—Has the government made any provisions for granting mustering out pay to men who were discharged at their own request, as for example, "Importance to National Health, Safety and Interest?" Men who were discharged in this manner received honorable discharge but because they were discharged at their own request, as contrasted to the government request for discharge, did not receive any mustering out pay unless they had overseas duty.

A—No mustering out pay shall be made to any member of the armed forces for any active service performed prior to the date of his discharge or relief from active service on his own initiative to accept employment or, in the case of any member so relieved from active service or any active service performed prior to the date of his discharge while in such inactive status, unless he served outside the United States.

P.-T. A. Representatives

Plans for treating school pupils' teeth with Sodium Fluoride to prevent tooth decay were discussed this week at a meeting of health chairmen from various Parent-Teacher Associations of the county.

Speaker at the session, which was held at the local high school, was Miss Martha Jefferies state director of dental hygiene. The plan, if adopted, would organize teams of dental experts to tour school of the county and offer individual treatments to students who otherwise could not afford them.

This county-wide proposal for individual treatments should not be confused with the local plan for treating the town water supply with Fluorine. The latter is being studied by local officials, who are in Newburg, N. Y., today to get data on the feasibility of the project.

1-Trip Method Cuts Bed-Making Mileage

How many miles do you walk when you make a bed? Studies show that the many trips around the bed, which the housewife usually takes in making it, are the reason the task is longer and more tiresome than necessary, points out Miss M. Katharine Jones, home demonstration agent.

"At least four miles of walking and 25 hours of time is spent a year in making just one bed by the common household method," she reports. "With more than one blanket on the bed, the distance and time is greater. Multiply this by the number of beds in the house to see how this job uses time and energy!

"One-trip bed-making to save the long trek has been suggested. The distance can be cut from four miles a year to about a mile and fifth and the time from 25 hours to less than 16," according to the report. "Briefly, the system is simply to make up one side of the bed completely, then to tuck in at the foot, and then to finish the other side, with no return trips from side to side or head to foot.

"If the house of tomorrow is equipped for time and labor saving, beds may be built for easier making. Studies show that a bed 40 to 76 inches, with mattress at wrist height, and no head or footboard or other projections over the mattress can be made up most rapidly," emphasizes the agent.

D. DOUGLAS, FORMER GOLF PRO HERE, WINS TEXAS OPEN; TOPS SNEAD BY ONE STROKE

Newark Resident Bests Top-Flight Field To Walk Off With $2000 In Cash; Turns In 268 For 4 Rounds; Is Carried Off Links In Triumph

Dave Douglas, of 130 East Park Place, and former pro at the Newark Country Club, turned in a 16-under-par performance in the Texas Open at San Antonio on Monday for the $2000 top money. It was the second major title for the 30-year-old professional, who is well-known here. A money-making golfer for the past ten years, he has been following the tournaments for over two. In Texas, he came through against a par-breaking field with 268 for a four-round total.

Douglas' first big break was his triumph in Orlando, Fla., in 1947 when he defeated Jimmy Demaret and Herman Keiser in a play-off.

He grossed something like $3,500 on tour last season—"a little better than expenses," as he described it—but when his big chance came Monday before 7,000 links fans who were pulling for him as the underdog, he came through magnificently. When it was over, the crowd hoisted him to its shoulders and carried him from the eighteenth green to the clubhouse.

He was playing in the final three-hole of the day along with defending champion Sam Snead, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Douglas and Snead had been bracketed in a four-way tie for the 54-hole lead at 203 with Dick Metz of Virginia Beach, Va., and John Palmer, Badin, N. C.

He got off to a bad start with a bogey 5 on the first hole, but rallied to splutter five birdies on the scoreboard by the turn in to the back nine. He added two more coming home. Snead picked up a $1,400 check with a 269. Metz and Palmer also turned in blazing performances Monday, but their four-under-par 67's only left them tied for third and fourth money of $900 each at 270.

Demaret had the day's top round, a seven-under 64 that could have been lower with a little luck in his favor, to wind up in a tie with E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., at 273 and $650 each. Harrison is fourth money-winner with $3,125.00 and Snead its fifth with $2,988.33. Douglas has earned $2,055.00. He had played at Phoenix and Tucson before the Texas Open, winning $35 at the latter tournament.

Douglas and the other links tourists moved on to Houston and the Houston Open, to be held Thursday through Sunday. Douglas had the Texas Open in his hip pocket as he came to the final hole. He drove onto the green 15 feet from the pin and needed only a two-putt job to win although Snead drove to within a foot of the hole and got an easy birdie. Douglas stroked the ball within two feet of the pin then rammed it down. Douglas had rounds of 65, 72, 66 and 65.

A distinctive feature of 4-H club work is the project work, which is a specified piece of work in one of 20 fields of agriculture and home economics. Every 4-H club member must choose at least one project and complete the minimum requirements of this project.

The 4-H club is an organization for boys and girls between 10 and 21 years of age. In Delaware it is sponsored jointly by the Extension Service of the University of Delaware and U. S. Department of Agriculture. The boys and girls in a community organize their own clubs, elect officers and carry on an educational, social and recreational program with the aid of an adult local volunteer leader and the county 4-H club agent.

Held each spring about "planting time," National 4-H Club Week is a time for setting goals and planning the 4-H program and projects, and serves as the starting point for the year's work, states Miss Lee.

Jacket Five Upsets Friends School, 50-37

Hands Wilm. Club First Defeat In Eight Starts; Faces WHS Tomorrow

The Newark High cagers found their stride Tuesday night to hand the Wilmington Friends School its first defeat in eight starts on the latter's court.

The Jackets carried out the upset in handy fashion, leading from the start and coming through with a 44 to 35 decision. The victory came after Newark had lost last Friday to P. S. duPont by a 50-47 margin.

The Jackets meet Wilmington High tomorrow on the latter's court, then wind up the season with two home contests, the first with Mount Pleasant on February 22 and the second with Conrad, February 25. Members of the Alumni are invited as guests of the school to these games.

In wracking up their surprise win over Friends, the Jackets earned their fifth win in 13 starts. They jumped to a 13-6 lead in the first quarter, saw this cut by half-time by two points. In the third quarter, the teams fought on even terms, but Newark again asserted its superiority in the final setto, topping their hosts by 14-10.

Phyll Harrison kept Newark's attack humming with 10 field goals and four penalty counters. His 24 points was the top individual contribution of the game.

Newark's Jayvees also won, downing Friends 21 to 15 in the prelim.

BASKETBALL, SWIMMING AND MAT TILT ON U. OF D. SPORT CARD FOR SAT. HOMECOMING

Varsity And Frosh Courtmen Face Swarthmore in Double Bill, Swim Team Will Take On Lafayette In Pool; Wrestlers Are Set For PMC

A full program of athletic contests, featuring basketball, swimming and wrestling, will be presented at the University of Delaware Saturday, Homecoming Day, as part of a busy day of campus-wide activities.

The Delaware cagers will play Swarthmore in a double bill with the freshman-jayvee game starting at 7 o'clock in Carpenter Fieldhouse and the varsity match at 8:30. The Garnet edged the Hens out, 56-52, in their last meet and both are battling for eligibility to the Middle Atlantic States southern division playoffs.

The Blue Hen wrestlers will meet P. M. C. in the fieldhouse at 2 o'clock and a double bill swimming meet will be held against Lafayette in the pool, the yearling-jayvee event starting at 3 o'clock and the varsity at 4. As from home, the Blue Hen tumbler goes up against the West Chester Teachers College.

The Hen swimmers were edged for their second loss of the season Temple Saturday, 38-37, as the Owls opened the meet with a record-setting 300-yard medley relay. Delaware tied it at 25-all with a first and swim in the 150-yard backstroke, but the Owls came back with a first and swim in the next event, the 200-yard backstroke. The Hens came from behind again and won the final 200-yard relay by almost a pool's length but were a point short.

Saturday night the Hens lost a basketball game to Haverford after they had led for the first two quarters. The Hens scored only a field goal in the second period and Hornets the same in the first. Delaware's speedy Blue Chicks overhauled the Haverford jayvees in a preliminary, 51-23, with Johnny DeGasper sinking 19 points for the yearling. Away from home Saturday, the Hens aware wrestlers lost to Gettysburg, 9, while the freshmen lost, 34-19, though the Bulliet varsitymen won two events by falls. The Hen tumbler was outclassed by the Army at the Point and lost, 63-31, as Capt. Downing led the Hens with 11 points.

House Burns While Owner Shops; Speaker Sees Japan And England As Potential Enemies

From Issue of February 20, 1924

Home Destroyed

Catching fire in a mysterious manner while the owner was buying provisions at the general store in Dean, Monday afternoon, the bungalow of "Gussie" Sullivan, in East Newark, burned to the ground, involving a loss of practically the entire contents. The Aetna Firemen responded on an alarm, but were not able to check the flames.

"Gussie," who is well known throughout the community, is a dealer in second-hand articles, his chief specialties being bicycles and motorcycles. That Japan and England are still our enemies, and that the bitter racial animosity of the nations of Europe will do to no avail any efforts for an association of Nations, were the two subjects brought home in an able talk before the Faculty Club and guests last night by Captain C. W. Abele, U. S. Navy.

James Crow Dies

Joseph L. ("Daddy") Crow, aged 74, died at 2 o'clock Monday morning at his home in Newark. He had been ill for some time. He was a well-known figure in the community, and his death was a great loss to the community.

The Stork

Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, of Kells, Pa., are receiving congratulations on the recent birth of a son. The newborn arrived in a Baltimore hospital. Both mother and child are doing well.

Leery of School Tax

Mixed sentiment on the part of property owners within the bounds of Newark has greeted the announcement of the new school tax to pay off the bonds on the new building. The tax will be 45 cents on $100 of assessment. Residents have been heard to say the levy is quite high and will mean a heavy burden.

Personals

Miss Frances Hullahen left today for London, Va., where she will spend the remainder of the week with her sister, Miss Louise Hullahen, at Mary Baldwin Seminary.

Several Newark people attended the concert by Geraldine Farrar at the Playhouse on Monday. Among them were: Miss Dora Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Johnson, Miss Jane Dutton, Dr. W. O. Sypherd, Major Lathe B. Row.

Dean C. A. McCue, A. D. Cobb, M. O. Pence and Miss Kathryn E. Woods are spending a part of this week in Springfield, Mass.

Here's the
PLOW you need for breaking sod

This Dearborn plow is made for the Ford Tractor... and we think it's the best ever. So simple—it has no wheels, axle, tongue, clutch, springs or levers... but good sturdy beams and as fine bases, coulters and jointers as ever turned a furrow.

With Ford Hydraulic Touch Control, you can "take it easy" while two matching well-turned furrows unroll behind you.

Easy adjustments. Only three grease gun fittings to lubricate. Study the pictures, then see us if you want a new plowing experience. Come in soon!

Little Courtesies

make life more pleasant

On party-line telephones too, it's the little courtesies that count.

Little courtesies, for example, like keeping calls reasonably brief. Like spacing calls so that others may use the line in the intervals. Like hanging up gently when you find the line in use.

Party-line neighbors who take the lead in courtesy find these favors returned. They enjoy better service. So do others on the line.
